Ms. Deidre Halloran
Associate General Counsel
United States Catholic Conference
3211 4th Street, N.E.
Washington D.C. 20017-1194

Dear Ms. Halloran:

In a ruling dated March 25, 1946, we held that the agencies and instrumentalities and all educational, charitable and religious institutions operated, supervised, or controlled by or in connection with the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, its territories or possessions appearing in The Official Catholic Directory for 1946, are entitled to exemption from federal income tax under the provisions of section 101(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, which corresponds to section 501(c)(3) of the 1986 Code. This ruling has been updated annually to cover the activities added to or deleted from the Directory.

The Official Catholic Directory for 1998 shows the names and addresses of all agencies and instrumentalities and all educational, charitable, and religious institutions operated by the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, its territories and possessions in existence at the time the Directory was published. It is understood that each of these is a non-profit organization, that no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any individual, that no substantial part of their activities is for promotion of legislation, and that none are private foundations under section 509(a) of the Code.

Based on all information submitted, we conclude that the agencies and instrumentalities and educational, charitable, and religious institutions operated, supervised or controlled by or in connection with the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, its territories or possessions appearing in The Official Catholic Directory for 1998 are exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Donors may deduct contributions to the agencies, instrumentalities and institutions referred to above, as provided by section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to them or for their use are deductible for federal estate and gift tax purposes under sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

Ms Deidre Halloran

Beginning January 1, 1984, unless specifically excepted, you and your subordinates must pay tax under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (Social Security taxes) for each employee who is paid $100 or more in a calendar year. You and your subordinates are not liable for tax under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Next year, within 90 days before the close of your annual accounting period or by May 31, the date established by our letter of April 28, 1975, which gave an extension of time to file the information, please send one copy of The Official Catholic Directory of 1999 to the IRS EP/EO Division in Cincinnati, two copies to the IRS EP/EO Divisions in Baltimore, Brooklyn, Dallas and Los Angeles, six copies to the IRS National Office, and one copy to this office.

The conditions concerning the retention of your group exemption as set forth in our previous determination letter of August 17, 1983 remain in full force and effect.

Sincerely yours,

Paul M. Harrington

Important Information for Exempt Organizations

DR-14
R. 04/05

1. You must provide all vendors and suppliers with an exemption certificate before making tax-exempt purchases. See Rule 12A-1.038, Florida Administrative Code (FAC).

2. Your Consumer's Certificate of Exemption is to be used solely by your organization for your organization's customary nonprofit activities.

3. Purchases made by an individual on behalf of the organization are taxable, even if the individual will be reimbursed by the organization.

4. This exemption applies only to purchases your organization makes. The sale or lease to others by your organization of tangible personal property, sleeping accommodations or other real property is taxable. Your organization must register, and collect and remit sales and use tax on such taxable transactions. Note: Churches are exempt from this requirement except when they are the lessor of real property (Rule 12A-1.070, FAC).

5. It is a criminal offense to fraudulently present this certificate to evade the payment of sales tax. Under no circumstances should this certificate be used for the personal benefit of any individual. Violators will be liable for payment of the sales tax plus a penalty of 200% of the tax, and may be subject to conviction of a third degree felony. Any violation will necessitate the revocation of this certificate.

6. If you have questions regarding your exemption certificate, please contact the Exemption Unit of Central Registration at 850-487-4130. The mailing address is PO BOX 6480, Tallahassee, FL 32314-6480.

Re: ST. LOUIS CATHOLIC CHURCH / FESTIVAL FOR THE POOR 2008

Dear Commissioner Gimenez,

I hope that the New Year brings you Peace and Prosperity in all your endeavors.

You recently received a letter from our Pastor Very Rev. James F. Fetscher V.F. regarding our annual Festival for The Poor and an in-kind donation to be applied to the Stage required for the Festival.

After the letter was sent, I contacted your In-Kind Services office and realized we did not submit the proper application papers along with the letter, which I include at this time.

Separately, I also contacted the Miami Dade Parks office, and spoke to Mr. Pete Dingler, responsible for reserving and assigning the Showmobiles and Stages. Mr Dingler has informed me that the stage mentioned in father Fetscher's letter is not available at the dates when our Festival will take place, February 1, 2 & 3rd, 2008 and has reserved a different unit (stage is 28 X36 ft) which has a cost of approximately $ 3,000 for the 3 day event.

I would like to thank you in advance for considering your support to this request and reiterate Father's invitation to you and your staff to attend the Festival.

Sincerely,

Jorge A. Ramirez
Chair

Dear Commissioner Gimenez:

We are writing to request an in-kind donation for the St. Louis Catholic Church Festival for the Poor, being held February 1 to 3, 2008. The Festival will be using a 24' by 40' aluminum stage supplied by the Miami-Dade Parks & Recreation Department, at a cost of approximately $1,000. All proceeds from the Festival are donated to the poor, homeless, hungry and disabled residents of Miami-Dade County, including the Miami Rescue Project, Daily Bread Food Bank, Camillus House, Missionaries of Charity, St. Ann's Mission, Kristi House and various orphanages and senior citizen homes. If you can assist us in obtaining the stage as an in-kind donation, the net proceeds of the Festival will be even greater, allowing us to provide more funding to local charities.

The Festival has existed for 27 years, and provides three days of games, food and fun on the St. Louis Church grounds for our parishioners and the local community. The major purpose f the Festival has always been to provide help to the poor and underserved in our community.. All proceeds of the Festival are donated to charities -- none of the proceeds are kept by St. Louis Catholic Church. We hold the annual Festival right before the start of Lent, to remind ourselves of the importance of taking care of God's little ones. Your in-kind donation of the stage would help us to provide even more care to the local community.

We thank you in advance for considering our request. You and your staff are most welcome to attend the Festival on the St. Louis grounds, 7270 SW 120 Street, Pinecrest, FL, 33156 from the evening of February 1 through the evening of February 3, 2008.

Sincerely,

James F. Fetscher

Memorandum

MIAMI-DADE COUNTY

Date: March 4, 2008

To: Honorable Chairman Bruno A. Barreiro
and Members, Board of County Commissioners

From: George M. Burgess
County Manager

Subject: Countywide In-Kind Reserve Request Recommendation

Recommendation

The Office of Strategic Business Management (OSBM) has reviewed the attached in-kind request and recommends for the item to move forward to the Board of County Commissioners for consideration. The countywide in-kind reserve balance allows for the funding of this request.

Background

A retroactive waiver for in-kind services is being requested by a not-for-profit organization the Archdiocese of Miami – St Louis Catholic Church for the annual "Festival for the Poor" event held on February 1-3, 2008.

In-kind services have been requested in an amount not to exceed $3,066 from the Miami-Dade Park and Recreation Department for the use of a 24 x 36 ft stage. This event will be funded from the countywide in-kind reserve fund.

In FY 2007-08, the Archdiocese of Miami has received $1,000 from the District 5 County Services reserve fund.
