Re: Favor/In-Kind Services for Ukrainian Independence Day Celebration August 22, 2009

Dear Nadia,

Please find enclosed documentation that proves we are a non-profit organization.

1. Articles of Incorporation of Ukrainian Catholic Diocese of Parma
2. The Official Catholic Directory
3. A copy of Dept of Treasury explaining status of churches in The Official Catholic Directory
4. Consumer's Certificate of Exemption

Please be aware that the Ukrainian Catholic Church in Miami is not under The Archdiocese of Miami, because it is under the Archdiocese of Parma, Ohio, as explained by the enclosed articles of incorporation. Our church is incorporated under Parma and its jurisdiction extends to all states including Florida. This corporation is non profit as stated in page 2 of the Articles.

All Ukrainian Catholic Churches are included in The Official Catholic Directory. See copy enclosed with the Assumption BVM Ukrainian Catholic Church indicated in the State of Florida.

I have also enclosed the Fee Waiver/In-Kind Services Application with the name of the Church, since our Cultural-Educational Center is under auspices of the church.

This event is open to the community. There is no fee and it will be in Sunny Isles Beach. We really need the support of your office to make this happen!

I hope that this satisfies your requirements.

Thank you.

Ms. Deirdre Dessingue
Associate General Counsel
United States Conference of Catholic Bishops
3211 4th Street, N.E.
Washington, D.C. 20017-1194

Dear Ms. Dessingue:

In a ruling dated March 25, 1948, we held that the agencies and instrumentalities and all educational, charitable and religious institutions operated, supervised, or controlled by or in connection with the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, its territories or possessions appearing in The Official Catholic Directory 1948, are entitled to exemption from federal income tax under the provisions of section 101(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, which corresponds to section 501(c)(3) of the 1986 Code. This ruling has been updated annually to cover the activities added to or deleted from the Directory.

The Official Catholic Directory for 2007 shows the names and addresses of all agencies and instrumentalities and all educational, charitable, and religious institutions operated by the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, its territories and possessions in existence at the time the Directory was published. It is understood that each of these is a non-profit organization, that no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any individual, that no substantial part of their activities is for promotion of legislation, and that none are private foundations under section 509(a) of the Code.

Based on all information submitted, we conclude that the agencies and instrumentalities and educational, charitable, and religious institutions operated, supervised, or controlled by or in connection with the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, its territories or possessions appearing in The Official Catholic Directory for 2007 are exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Donors may deduct contributions to the agencies, instrumentalities and institutions referred to above, as provided by section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers or gifts to them or for their use are deductible for federal estate and gift tax purposes under section 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.
