List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on Line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

Sign Here Signature of U.S. person ▶ Donna Friend Date ▶ 11-21-08

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

GAZEBO

FRIDAY

6:30 p.m. PARADE
Begins at City Hall on Westward Drive. This year we have re-instituted the tradition of the Festival Parade. As you line the street, you will enjoy the sights and sounds of the Miami Springs Senior High School Marching Band, Cheerleaders and Golden Girls supported by their principal, as well as local dry council members from Hialeah, Virginia Gardens, Medley and, of course, Miami Springs. Springs mayor Billy Bain will be in attendance along with the mayors of other River Cities. Raul Martinez will be our Grand Marshall in recognition of the ecological improvements instituted in the City of Hialeah. You will also get the chance to give a wave to the volunteer committee members who put this whole thing together. We will also be joined by the St. Andrews Pipe Band and the Medley and Miami Springs Color Guard. Follow us down to the Circle for the opening ceremonies and ribbon cutting. Please note that we will be on foot to conserve energy as this is our Official Earth Day Springs River Festival Weekend. Special thanks to Patty Bradley for the organization of the parade. What an amazing lady!

7:30 p.m. OPENING CEREMONY
Everyone meets at the Curtiss Circle for the opening ceremonies and town meeting. Raul Martinez will be cutting the ribbon to begin another great weekend. A special dedication of a new monument on the Curtiss Parkway median to honor the citizens of Miami Springs who have actively participated on council advisory boards. A personal walk with the mayor to celebrate another addition to the rich history that is such an important part of Miami Springs.

8:00 p.m. AMY CAROL WEBB
Webb is the musical singer this year with her increasingly acoustic sound that is all her own. She is joined by acoustic percussion drawn from local South Florida talent. Amy takes time from her touring schedule to play our festival. A local resident, she is a great supporter of this community. Her Native American background not only inspires her music and poignant lyrics but also keeps her involved with the care of the earth. This makes her a perfect entertainer to part of the Earth Day weekend.

9:45 p.m. CHARLIE B. GOOD
You can catch Charlie and his guitar all over the place tonight, but now is the time to see him take charge of the Gazebo stage and charm his way into your heart with music. A genuine music lover himself, he brings that emotion across to you in his interpretation of your favorite covers and his own originals.

10:15 p.m. IKO-IKO
IKO-IKO is one of the best-known recording artists not on a "major" record label. Known across the United States from San Francisco to where they call home, Miami, Graham Wood Band and his amazing blues talents are legendary. Graham played our festival first in 1985 back when all of the bands performed on the Gazebo. Ironically, last year when the generator blew out, Graham and IKO-IKO ended up right where they started so long ago. Truly professional and a pleasure to watch, listen to and work with, the Springs River Festival brings you IKO-IKO.

SATURDAY

12:00 p.m. DAVID FERNANDEZ & JAZZ TRIO
David Fernandez and a jazz trio open Saturday with classic, contemporary and Latin jazz. You first saw them perform at the Taste of the Springs; now you get a second helping of this local musician. A graduate of the University of Miami, you may recognize David from gigs with Jon Secada and other local entertainers.

2:00 p.m. THE STORM
The Storm is appearing for the first time at our festival. This hard working rock 'n' roll band is one you won't want to miss. You may remember guitarist and vocalist Tony Fellows from other bands that have played for us over the past few years. He appeared with Jason's Vibe, Eddie Guerra and the Keynote Band and his self-titled project The Tony Fellows Band. The members of Luckily for us, I know the guitarist personally, so we get to check them out right here in the middle of our hometown. So batten down the hatches and get ready for The Storm!

3:45 p.m. RAY'S TAE KWON DO
Ray's Tae Kwon Do will be demonstrating the amazing agility and techniques of the martial art of tae kwon do. Master Ray Rodriguez runs a martial arts program right here in Miami Springs for children and adults. Come over and check out the demo and see if you know what it takes to take the tae kwon do challenge and sign up for some classes at the place on the Circle.

4:15 p.m. THE BABOONS
The Baboons, after a year and a half hiatus, are back together and stronger than ever. Frontwoman Magica, still gorgeous, still a vocal dynamo, now has an eight-piece band backing her up. A show full of raw energy that is all Rock'n style. Funky Cajun, brass, Zydeco and Brazilian music will be pounding into your soul as you take this intense musical journey with one of the more popular local bands in Miami. High energy and a lot of fun to watch; you won't be able to keep from dancing. Truly creative and diverse; a bit of something for everyone.

6:00 p.m. VIVA CLASSIC ROCK & ROLL
Viva Classic Rock & Roll will wow you over with their ability to transcend any generation gap to bring you a tour de force from the 1950s through today. Polished and smooth, this band makes it look so easy to re-create your favorite songs of yesterday and today. They have opened for major musical acts such as Three Dog Night, Chicago Trick, Bill Haley and the Comets, Otis Day and the Knights, the Lovin' Spoonful and so many more. Right now they are going to play for you. Viva Rock & Roll!

7:45 p.m. BRENDA KNIGHT & JAZZERCISE
Take time to watch these energetic ladies dance their way to fitness for your entertainment. Maybe you will want to join in. You may want to take some classes first, though.

8:15 p.m. THE SOLUTIONS
The Solutions are truly local. Most of you know Bill Magee in many different ways, but now you are going to get the chance to see him really shine on the main stage for his true passion, music. This group of guys have a great sound and will really get you moving with their rendition of Southern rock anthems and blues-inspired cover tunes. We are so glad to have them here with us; let's give Bill and the boys our Miami Springs support. Welcome to the stage, The Solutions.

10:00 p.m. THE REGS/PHILTH
The Regs/Philth are back!!! No one could forget this band. Last year we were unable to get them due to unforeseen schedule conflicts, but there was no way I was going to let that happen twice. Filth is like a roller-coaster ride — fast-paced and filled with energy. This band is going to rock you off your chair, but that does not matter, you will be on your feet by the second song anyhow. They are going to be one of the bands that you can one day say, "I saw them before they were famous." Mark my words, this band is going to happen and you are going to watch it happen tonight.

SUNDAY

2:00 p.m. THE EARTHMAN PROJECT
The Earthman Project is a show for the entire family. This fun educational show is all about the planet and what you can do to save energy and protect our Mother Earth. The Earthman is Lenny Smith, a very talented South Florida resident. This gentleman has been performing for many years and has been at the Festival many times. In the past few years he has been all over the U.S. touring and receiving awards for his wonderful program. This is a show for adults and kids as well. We are also glad to say that not only are we supporting The Earthman Project this year, but the State of Florida is matching our donation to The Earthman Project. This means that Mr. Smith will be able to carry the message of Earth Day further and to more people than in years past. Thank you for all of your selfless work, Mr. Earthman, and for all you do for our planet.

3:00 p.m. JIM & JOHN CAMACHO
Jim & John Camacho are "the most talented brothers in South Florida" according to the Best of Miami edition of New Times. Since the 1980s, the two brothers have been drawing crowds to the coolest music venues in Miami as The Goods. As a solo project, John created the band Mango, a cutting edge performance band that is made up of some of Miami's top musicians. Jim has had success with his solo CDs, including "Walker Santa," available from CDBaby.com. Jim recently had the first performance reading of his new musical, "Guru," at local artist venue and well-known secret pub Churchill's. The two brothers rarely get the opportunity to perform together anymore but have come together again to bring a bit of their amazing showmanship and talent to us. If you are a Goods fan, you won't be disappointed as they will be playing some old favorites. It's such an honor to have them on our stage that no matter what they should bring to us, it will be an entertainment experience you won't want to miss. They are "Too true to be Good, definitely not Average. So keep the rubber side down, cause life's not bad in 3-D Just Play It! Musical!"

5:00 p.m. RAFFLE AND SILENT AUCTION
Announcement of winners held at Gazebo Stage

6:00 p.m. ROOM SERVICE
Well it is that time, folks. The end of the festival and the moment you have all been waiting for. Closing out this year's maglev musical weekend is Shawn Cordy — no, I am just kidding. It is a band that is near and dear to all of our hearts, our very own Room Service. Danny, Dave, Jim and Jim will give you their all on the main stage right here in the center of downtown Miami Springs. If you enjoy the sounds of Room Service at local venues, you will really get to hear just how talented this group of seasoned musicians are when you hear your favorite songs, concert style, on a big stage. With classic rock, country and top 40 tunes, you can dance the night away. Special guests are always a surprise when Room Service plays this festival, so keep your eyes and ears open for the additions to the regular lineup. Thanks again for being our favorite hometown band.

8:00 p.m. LAST CALL
Well, folks, another festival draws to a close. The show is over and it is time to say farewell for another year. You have until 9 tonight to finish up your shopping from the vendors and have your last drinks from the bar on the Circle. Enjoy, cry, live, love, conserve energy, take care of the planet, have a great Earth Day and we will see you next year.

COMMUNITY TENT

Featuring entertainment complete with stage, seating and dance floor

FRIDAY

7:30 p.m. — DEMENTIA
This hard-working band has been at our community tent for a couple of years and has a large following among the local hard-rock fans. They are playing early tonight to be sure they are on time for their gig at Churchill's. You can catch them locally at other popular trendy music venues. Thanks for coming out. Support Local Music!

8:30 p.m. — MOLLECH
This band gigs often with Dementia and can also be seen later tonight at the Churchill's gig. Another up-and-coming local metal band. All original music and lyrics.

9:30 p.m. — SCOTTISH DANCERS
Always a favorite at the community tent, the Scottish Dancers appear this year to dance their way into your hearts. Enjoy their authentic dancing and see if you have what it takes to join in. They can also be seen at the Presbyterian Church where they practice and offer classes. May also be joined by the St. Andrews Pipe Band, who played for the opening parade.

10:00 p.m. — FLIGHT OF ICCARUS
This rock band carries a message with them and it is the message of the Christian way of life. You can enjoy the music because you like good rock 'n' roll, but it is the substance that matters to this band. A band with a higher purpose, enjoy Flight of Icarus.

11:00 p.m. — COIA
Another Christian band, though not a metal band. Their friend Ben states, "Coia sounds a bit like The Dave Matthews Band," but with a message. They also have a great following. An all-original Christian rock band? How can you go wrong?

Midnight — FESTIVAL CLOSED

SATURDAY

Noon — FAITH LUTHERAN SCHOOL DANCERS
Children's Dance Recital — This group of kids are going to dance their little hearts out for you. Between the ages of 7-14, these are the students in the new dance class offered at the Lutheran Church. Come out and support the arts in our schools.

1:00 p.m. — OPEN MIKE HOUR
This is your 3 minutes of fame. Go for it. Just keep it clean and wholesome, please. Your soapbox awaits.

2:00 p.m. — MIAMI SPRING SR. HIGH JAZZ BAND
A real treat for all of us, the Sr. High Jazz Band will be playing for us this afternoon. Dancing space available right in the streets.

3:00 p.m. — MIKE COIA
Mike Coia acoustic set from the namesake of the band Coia from last night. A talented young man. Give him a listen.

4:00 p.m. — MS. TONI BOYLE STUDENT PIANO RECITAL
The students of Ms. Boyle take this opportunity to entertain you with the piano they have learned. Like the days long gone, these children will be playing piano, not video games. Come on over and show your support for their efforts in the fine arts.

5:00 p.m. — SPRINGS JAZZ SOCIETY
This group of older folks has come to entertain you with her jazz and Dixieland. Again, you are more than welcome to dance in the circle.

6:00 p.m. — ACTORS STUDIO — ACTORS ON ACTING
Three local actors bring to the Community Tent Stage monologues from Eric Bogosian. Controversial commentary on life today. Actors Robert Best, Kristen Bell and Abel Garcia lay it all-out for you. Not intended for children. Questionable subject matter.

7:00 p.m. — WITCHES MARK
Original and cover band has played the community tent now for three years to a full house. Pagan-inspired originals written by guitarist Jon Gallicker will send chills up your spine as they take you on a journey to the days of old when magic filled the air.

8:30 p.m. — CRYSTAL CHAOS
Cover band will knock your socks off. Come on over and have a good time. Rock 'n' roll from the '80s.

10:00 p.m. — FLATLINE RED
Original metal band will rock the house. Come on over and support local musicians, one day they may be famous.

11:00 p.m. — FADED SOUND
A punk rock alternative original band. Come on over and have a blast with this band that is new to the community tent. Give them a big Miami Springs welcome.

SUNDAY

2:00 p.m. — DOG AND CAT SHOW
Sponsored by Dr. Thomas Campbell of Animal General Hospital. One of the about traditions of the festival, Dr. Campbell once again hosts the ever-popular Dog and Cat Show. Local residents can enter their pets in several different categories, including best dressed and obstacle course for dogs and for cats, best dressed cat and longest tail. Come on out and show your pet or just enjoy the show.

Memorandum

MIAMI-DADE COUNTY

Date: March 3, 2009

To: Honorable Chairman Dennis C. Moss
and Members, Board of County Commissioners

From: George M. Burgess
County Manager

Subject: District Specific In-Kind Request Recommendation

Recommendation

The Office of Strategic Business Management (OSBM) has reviewed the attached in-kind request and recommends for the item to move forward to the Board of County Commissioners for consideration. The district in-kind reserve balance allows for the funding of this request.

Background

A waiver for in-kind services has been requested by a not-for-profit organization the Springs River Festival, Inc. for the "Springs River Festival" event scheduled for April 17-19, 2009.

In-kind services have been requested in an amount not to exceed $3,185 from the Miami-Dade Park and Recreation Department for use of a medium showmobile. This event will be funded from the District 6 in-kind reserve fund.

In FY 2008-09, Springs River Festival, Inc. has received no county funding for this event.
