U.S. person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

In 3 above, if applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

For federal tax purposes, you are considered a person if you are:

- An individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the law of the United States, or Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

RE: Sponsorship Opportunities for the 2014 Annual West Perrine Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Holiday Celebration

Dear Supporter:

The Martin Luther King Jr. Institute of South Florida is making preparations for the 2014 Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday Parade and Festivities: January 13-20, 2014. The national theme calls on us to remember the work and legacy of Dr. King, to celebrate his birthday as a national holiday and act on his teaching – in keeping with his principles of nonviolence and human rights.

Since 1984, we have made this celebration a family oriented, community awareness and cultural event. What began as a very small parade... made up of a couple of area high school bands has become a major production, consisting of more than four (4) events over the course of the holiday weekend. Past celebrations include the following:

- Annual "Kick-Off Breakfast held at the Doubletree Hotel
(Our past guest speakers included: Rev. Dr. Joseph Lowery, Mr. Carl T. Rowan, Dr. Jawanza Kunjufu, Dr. Robert Ingram, Bishop Victor T. Curry, and Mayor Johnny Ford).

- MLK Business Expo held at Palmetto Bay Village Center
This event features over 100 businesses displaying their goods and services. Technical support services were provided and networking opportunities.

- The Annual Commemorative Parade
The West Perrine MLK Parade has become a quality production that features dignitaries, decorative floats, area businesses, electrifying performances by high school and college bands; and of course directly from Nassau, Grand Bahamas Island. The Grand Bahamas Junkanoo Band and The Royal Police Band.

- The Marching Band Extravaganza (A Festival of Bands)
  This event features the distinguished sounds, moves and grooves of some of South Florida's finest high school marching bands and none other than the World Famous Florida A&M University Marching 100 Rattler Band and The Bethune Cookman University Marching Wildcat Band.

As we plan for the 2014 MLK Celebration, we are in need of your support-Sponsorship support. Sponsorship levels vary and each level is accompanied by a generous package. Why should you become a part of this event? Some of the benefits to supporting this worthwhile celebration include media exposure promotional/publicity opportunities and community presence. Positive cultural activities have positive effects on communities and the cultures that they represent, which is why we are strongly committed to this event and its meaning. (See Enclosure).

Please take advantage of this opportunity to be a part of a worthwhile celebration that seeks to unify the communities of Miami-Dade County on a day when we must "Remember! Celebrate! Act!" and share in Dr. King's dream of a world united together in harmony fostering the spirit of universal love and brotherhood.

All sponsorships should be made payable to: The West Perrine Community Development Corporation and must be received by Friday, November 29, 2013.

If you have any questions or require additional information, please feel free to contact me at (786) 298-6925.

Sincerely,

Edward Hanna, Jr.
