Re: BAFO for RFA No. 2015-01 for Liberty Square Rising

RUDG, LLC ("Related Urban") and our team of diverse community-based partners are honored and humbled to have been selected as a finalist for the redevelopment of the Liberty Square project, which represents a vitally important chapter of the deep and rich history of the African American community in Miami-Dade County.

In response to Miami-Dade County's request for a Best and Final Offer, Related Urban strives to accomplish what it has done many times before - to create a Public-Private Partnership that makes a positive impact on the residents that live in the community, while creating value for our public sector partners by effectively leveraging their resources. At Related Urban, we will never be satisfied with the status quo, and we will always strive to be the best in class.

With that goal in mind, we have enhanced our redevelopment plan for Liberty Square Rising, to secure a better financial return for Miami-Dade County and to build the most beneficial housing options and amenities consistent with the best interests of the residents of Liberty Square and the County.

Related Urban is committed to making the development of Liberty Square Rising an inclusive process where everyone will have an opportunity to voice their opinion, so together we can design and build the future of this community. We have met with many community stakeholders to gather their input and hear their concerns about the redevelopment. The overarching concern raised by many stakeholders has been relocation and how it will affect the families living in Liberty Square, specifically as it relates to public safety. To address the concerns of the community, we have revised our proposed development plan so that all of the existing families currently living at Liberty Square will remain on-site, during and after construction.

To further enhance the services that will be offered to the residents of Liberty Square Rising, we have secured additional commitments from several new community-based partners, which include the Alonzo Mourning Family Foundation, 100 Black Men of South Florida, Inc, Foundation for Sickle Cell Disease Research, The Vailon Group, Multi Ethnic Youth Group Association, Inc, Easter Seals, Casa Valentina, and Addonis Parker a world renowned urban artist who works with kids in the Liberty Square project.

Our original team of community-based partners are leaders in their fields and established within the community. The team consists of Miami-Dade College, Jessie Trice Community Health Center, Urban Construction Craft Academy, Martin Luther King, Jr. Institute for Non-Violence, Florida Memorial University, Miami Dade Public Defender's Office, Miami Children's Initiative, YMCA of South Florida, United Way of Miami-Dade, Academica, FIU College of Architecture and the Arts, UM School of Medicine and Public Health, UM School of Architecture, OneUnited Bank, Small Business Administration, Urgent, Inc. CDC, Haitian American CDC, Kareem T. Brantley, Relocation and Development Firm, Circle of One Marketing, Lesesne Media Group Entertainment, and History Miami.

RUDG, LLC ("Related Urban") and our team of diverse community-based partners are honored and humbled to have been selected as a finalist for the redevelopment of the Liberty Square project, which represents a vitally important chapter of the deep and rich history of the African American community in Miami-Dade County.

Related Urban is committed to having an inclusive dialogue with the community, where we listen to all community stakeholders, and together unite around a common vision for the redevelopment of Liberty Square Rising. We have started the initial phase of that process and have met with many stakeholders to gather their opinions and listen to their concerns. There is a lot of anxiety built up within the community regarding the relocation of families and how their daily lives will be affected. There are concerns about where their children will attend school and how that will affect public safety. We have heard the initial concerns from the community and have revised our redevelopment plan for Liberty Square Rising to address those concerns.

Our enhanced redevelopment plan replaces the required 640 public housing units at Liberty Square in garden style apartments on-site, and keeps all families living at Liberty Square on-site during and after construction. Other than the initial 70 families, that will be temporarily relocated from Block 1 to the units we will rehab within Liberty Square, prior to starting construction of Phase 1B, all families will only be relocated once, to their new units. We are also proposing to build an additional 120 affordable elderly units, 224 affordable units, several of which will be reserved for Youth Aging out of Foster Care, 288 workforce housing units and 60 homeownership units. The plan also incorporates a new leading edge community center with WIFI, a community health facility, a sickle cell research facility, a K-2 charter school, the Alonzo Mourning Liberty City Youth Center, an Early Head Start and Head Start preschool, a school for children with learning disabilities, the Liberty Square Museum, a new community park with a multi-purpose field, a YMCA Family Center, an adult education center, a Community Educational Facility / Civic Center, retail space for "mom and pop" businesses and a full service grocery store. We will also invest in the infrastructure needed to provide free WIFI throughout the development for all residents.

The Internet will continue to be essential for access to healthcare, education, banking, jobs, research, business development, social services and all basic needs in the future. Academic research has shown that lower income urban areas similar to Liberty Square are falling further and further behind more affluent suburban areas due to the "Digital Divide", or lack of access to the Internet. In today's economy, access to the Internet is not a luxury but a necessity. However, for many lower income families the costs are still out of reach. That is why our plan will help to minimize the Digital Divide within Liberty Square Rising.

This investment in technology and access to the Internet will also be a key component to addressing the public safety concerns of the community. Today's state-of-the-art security systems all rely on the Internet for support, including security cameras that can be viewed online. These systems will allow us to implement programs with the residents of Liberty Square Rising and law enforcement agencies that will make the neighborhood safer for all.

In addition, our plan will provide an additional 105 new public housing units at the Lincoln Gardens site, along with an additional 111 affordable units. We will also provide $1,000,000 worth of upgrades to Bannerman Park and build the Alonzo Mourning Brownsville Youth Center within the park. The additional public housing units could be used to permanently relocate families from several of the Annie Coleman properties located directly across the street. The Related Urban plan will help PHCD modernize two public housing sites, instead of one, with the same amount of Miami-Dade County funding. More importantly, it allows all of the families to remain in their respective neighborhoods of Liberty City and Brownsville, which is a public safety issue that has been brought to our attention by several community stakeholders in our discussions with them.

This mix of income levels, demographics, commercial spaces, community and civic uses create the foundation that will ensure the long term viability of the community by achieving HUD's mission of deconcentrating poverty, along with the opportunity for upward mobility, by providing access to health care, education, technology and social services on-site.

The redevelopment of Liberty Square Rising will be a comprehensive team effort between the residents of Liberty Square, our community-based partners, Miami-Dade County ("PHCD"), Related Urban and other community stakeholders, which will serve as a model Public-Private Partnership for future public housing transformation efforts throughout the country.

Related Urban understands that in order to create long lasting change in this community, it is essential to extend the scope of the redevelopment effort beyond housing, creating the need to engage with community-based partners that can implement programs to support and strengthen families, along with having a mix of income levels and commercial uses within the redevelopment plan that will reinvigorate the entire neighborhood.

Related Urban has thoughtfully and strategically selected a team of community-based partners that are leaders in their fields and established within the community. The original team of community-based partners has been further enhanced to include the Alonzo Mourning Family Foundation, 100 Black Men of South Florida, Inc, Foundation for Sickle Cell Disease Research, Multi Ethnic Youth Group Association, Inc ("MEYGA"), Easter Seals, Casa Valentina, and Addonis Parker a world renowned urban artist who works with kids in the Liberty Square project.

The first step in the redevelopment process of Liberty Square Rising, will be to interact and engage with the residents through a series of resident meetings along with PHCD to discuss all aspects of the design and development process. This is a strategy that we have used successfully in the nine projects that we have developed in partnership with Miami-Dade County which creates a level of trust between the residents and our team.

The UM School of Architecture and the FIU College of Architecture and the Arts will spearhead the charrette process along with our A&E team. The input received from the residents will be used to establish the final designs, amenities and community programs that will create a common vision of all community stakeholders. The long term success of Liberty Square Rising will only be achievable if we gain the community's support from the beginning of the development process and we unite around a common vision.

This common vision will provide the framework for the community-based partners to work in unison, and to create programs without duplicating efforts, that will promote family self-sufficiency for the current and future residents of Liberty Square Rising. Specifically, the programs will address and promote early childhood education, primary and secondary education for children and youth, education for children with learning disabilities, housing for youth aging out of foster care, college degrees and certificate programs for adults, internet based learning, community based health care, job certification and training for ex-offenders, financial literacy classes, homeownership opportunities, job placement services and job fairs, non-violence training and community relations, interaction with law enforcement, youth mentoring programs, "mom and pop" business development, multigenerational enrichment, decent and quality affordable housing, healthy and safe neighborhoods, athletics, enrichment of community through the arts, cultural and civic activities and historic preservation.

Related Urban's objective is to have the residents of Liberty Square Rising participate in the rebuilding of their community; therefore, we commit to award a minimum of 50% of all subcontracted work to Section 3, MBE, or MWBE certified firms and small businesses. To help us meet this commitment we have brought on The Vailon Group, their President is Marsha E. Jackman, who was the Director of Business Development for Miami-Dade County for 12 years.

Job training and access to jobs will be an integral part of our redevelopment plan. During the predevelopment stage, we will introduce several job training initiatives for the residents of Liberty Square Rising and the greater Liberty City area. These programs will be coordinated by Miami Dade College's Carrie P. Meek Entrepreneurial Education Center, located just five blocks away from Liberty Square, along with the Urban Construction Craft Academy, the Martin Luther King, Jr Institute for Non-Violence, Traveling Angels Security, 50 State Security and the Relocation and Development Firm. A special emphasis will be placed on training and employing ex-offenders and residents living in zip codes 33142 and 33147 to help meet the goals of Employ Miami-Dade.

Miami-Dade County cannot afford to fail in this historic redevelopment effort. Related Urban has the unmatched financial strength, with over $100,000,000 in liquidity from our guarantor entity, to undertake a redevelopment plan of this magnitude. Related Urban has successfully partnered with PHCD to develop over 1,050 units. The Related Urban team is the most qualified and experienced team to partner with Miami-Dade County to redevelop Liberty Square Rising into two new and vibrant mixed-income, mixed-use communities that will help instill purpose, create opportunities for upward mobility and transform the lives of the residents of Liberty Square Rising.

6. Proposed rezoning by Proposer for the redevelopment of project

Lincoln Gardens

The Lincoln Gardens site is wholly within the jurisdiction of Miami-Dade County. The property needs to be rezoned from its current RU-2 zoning to RU-4, to allow for the density necessary for the proposed redevelopment plan. The site's current Medium Density Comprehensive Plan Designation does not require a land use amendment. With the County's assistance we expect to complete the entire rezoning process within 5 months of BCC award.

Liberty Square

The Liberty Square site is located within the City of Miami's jurisdiction. The current zoning of T4-R allows for the residential uses proposed without any zoning approvals or modifications. We will commence the construction of Phase 1B "As of Right", without requiring any zoning modifications.

To allow for our intended commercial, educational and civic uses, we propose to rezone the property with a Special Area Plan (SAP), reserved in the City of Miami for parcels larger than 9 acres. The SAP allows for a flexible allocation of uses, density and intensity and is reviewed as a master plan by the City of Miami. The SAP process is limited to two cycles per year with the next available filing deadline in July 2016. The application would be reviewed by the City of Miami Commission for final approval. We expect to complete the SAP process for the site within 6 months of BCC award.

7. Projected development schedule and timeline for the project

RUDG will comply with the RFA requirements that request project completion within 60 months.

8. Proposed plan of action to accomplish the proposed development concept including completion requirements

Since 2012, Related Urban has successfully relocated over 800 public housing residents as part of their redevelopment plan for several projects. We adhere to all HUD requirements regarding relocation including but not limited to the Uniform Relocation Act. The residents do not pay for any relocation expenses, they are included in our development budgets.

PHCD has requested that the first phase of development should be Lincoln Gardens to accommodate the first wave of residents from Liberty Square, which RUDG is prepared to do; however, we have revised our development plan to allow for all Liberty Square residents to remain on-site without having to move to Lincoln Gardens at all, while still meeting the RFA requirements of developing Lincoln Gardens first, as Phase 1A. If PHCD deems it in their best interest, we will relocate 105 families from the Annie Coleman public housing projects located across the street into Lincoln Gardens.

Prior to starting construction, we will rehabilitate the 70 or so vacant units at Liberty Square. These units will be used to temporarily relocate the residents from Block 1. Upon completion of Phase 1B, we will relocate residents from Blocks 2, 4, and a portion of Block 7 into Phase 1B. See attached phasing plan.

Upon completion of Phase 2, we will relocate the remaining residents from Block 7, all of the residents in Block 8 and a portion of Block 5 into Phase 2. See attached phasing plan.

Upon completion of Phases 3A and 3B, we will relocate all remaining residents from Block 5, and all of the residents in Blocks 3, 6, 9, and 1 into Phases 3A and 3B. See attached phasing plan.

Related Urban is proposing to build Phases 1A thru 3B and relocate all 640 residents of Liberty Square Rising and 105 residents from Annie Coleman within 43 months from the BCC Approval of RFA. This would be the most appropriate and beneficial approach, since it would allow all public housing residents to remain in their respective neighborhoods.

9. Strategy to obtain and apply resident input to the design and development of new project

Related Urban has partnered with and secured the commitment of two local universities to coordinate the community charrette process with the residents. The FIU College of Architecture and the Arts and the UM School of Architecture will both help organize the charrettes to gather the input of the residents of Liberty Square Rising. The input gathered from the residents will be used to finalize the overall design concepts, unit types, amenities, public spaces, and community service facilities for the development. Both universities have extensive experience coordinating and implementing these types of charrettes.

We have assembled a diverse architectural and engineering team, including several minority-owned firms, consisting of Architects Unlimited, MODIS architects, SR Architects, EAC Consulting, PHS Group and EBS Engineering. The A&E team has experience developing mixed-income, mixed-use affordable housing communities with a public housing component. Architects Unlimited will take the lead during the charrette process. The firm has been involved in Public Housing Development, Redevelopment and Community Revitalization for more than 25 years. The firm provides master planning, strategic planning, community involvement facilitation, program management and architectural design services to the public and affordable housing industry throughout the country. The firm has recently worked on Uptown in Memphis, TN which had three community revitalization engagements that are similar in complexity and size to Liberty Square Rising.

Our proposed plan for the amenities is as follows:

a) All facilities will remain active until the new facilities are built. No facilities will be rehabilitated.
b) All facilities will be replaced with new facilities, including the Easter Seals Early Head Start and Head Start pre-school and the MEYGA School for children with learning disabilities.
c) We intend on building several new facilities that don't exist today, including a Community Health Center, a Sickle Cell Disease Foundation Center, the Alonzo Mourning Liberty City Youth Center, the Alonzo Mourning Brownsville Youth Center, a YMCA Family Center, an Adult Educational Center, a Community Educational Center / Civic Center, a Community Park and the Liberty Square Museum. These amenities will greatly benefit the residents of Liberty Square Rising by offering quality health care, educational opportunities for all ages, job training, job fairs, after school programs, athletics, intergenerational family programs, cultural activities and historic preservation on-site.

11. See attached conceptual phasing site plan

B) Smart Growth development approach being implemented

The proposed redevelopment plan, becomes a community of compact neighborhoods in which residents can easily access employment, services and recreational opportunities. Through the Smarter Growth Development concept, we will be providing a diversity of services and amenities near mixed residential areas which encourage residents to walk, cycle and also have easy access to public transit, making Liberty Square Rising a "sustainable" and "green" development.

The underlining goal of the new Liberty Square Rising development is to be an essential part of the City's future by creating a new urban environment which will influence social well-being, economic strength, and environmental conditions. In all, creating a diverse and sustainable development that will help achieve an increased quality of life for its residents and address the long term goals of the local community. Our redevelopment of Liberty Square Rising incorporates a variety of strategies established through the "Smarter Growth Development" principles. We have incorporated these principles to address urban design, housing, economic, security, accessibility and place-making issues.

Providing accessibility was the main focus of the overall development plan. Our intent is to provide a compact mixed use development which will reduce distances for the residents. It will help increase transportation choices like walking and cycling and increase the accessibility to public transit. Creating a more compact and diverse use community allows for the residents to have easier access to work, shopping, recreation and services which are vital to their everyday needs. As part of this concept we have provided commercial density along NW 62$^{nd}$ street offering retail, grocery, medical services, schooling and social services within walking distance to all residents.

A second component to our accessibility principle was to incorporate recreational amenities into the neighborhood fabric, making these facilities a central focus of the community. This will provide endless opportunities for the neighborhood children and youth to participate in sports and community based activities, while providing adults and senior citizens with family recreational activities and wellness activities. Finally, a key component to accessibility is to provide the residents a variety of transit options throughout the development and providing a safe and weather conscience environment by which the residents will feel encouraged to use the transit services provided.

The Liberty Square Rising redevelopment plan creates a range of housing environments which not only enhances the compact mixed use development principle but more importantly, is vital in the creation of a diversified neighborhood environment. This allows for the expanding of housing choices for different age groups, incomes and household sizes; allowing people and families to remain in the same neighborhood through different life stages. Our development incorporates mid-rise concepts and lower scale garden style housing. The garden style housing will also provide for families to move from public housing to affordable housing as their income increases. Finally we have developed low scale town house areas which complement the surrounding neighborhood fabric and will provide home ownership opportunities. The variety of housing will address the future neighborhood needs and economic growth.

Our primary goal during the planning process was to create a place where people want to live; a neighborhood that is lively and an attractive, urban live/work/play environment. This neighborhood needs to provide adequate amenities, respect the community character and historic features. In redeveloping the masterplan for the development we have incorporated physical features which will create art plazas as round-abouts between existing streets, landscaped medians which will assist in reducing speed and traffic controlling features and providing safe areas at pedestrian crossings.

SECTION 3.11. FINANCIAL STRATEGIES FOR THE DESIGNATED PROJECT AND COUNTY PARTICIPATION IN FINANCIAL PROCEEDS

A. Approach to Financing the Project
   - ➢ Project Finance Approaches - Attachments Included
   - ➢ Alternative Financing Scenarios - Attachments Included

B. Local Funding (when Applicable through PHCD)

C. Proposed Miami-Dade County Revenue and Income Stream Participation (Items 1 through 4)

D. Capital Fund Financing Program (CFFP) Experience

A & B) Approach to Financing the Project

RUDG, LLC ("Related Urban") has more experience executing mixed finance HUD transactions of public housing properties than any other developer in Florida. We will utilize our expertise to apply for and secure any and all funding sources available for the redevelopment of Liberty Square and Lincoln Gardens.

Related Urban's financing approach only requires $45.6 Million of the $46.0 Million committed by Miami-Dade County PHCD ("PHCD"). More importantly, PHCD will receive approximately $44.0 Million (See chart in Section 3.11 C below) in proceeds back, which represents over 95% of Miami-Dade County's initial investment, within 15 years after the final phase is complete. This will allow PHCD to reinvest these funds into other projects throughout the County. In addition, the financing approach provides alternative financial strategies that may further reduce the County's funding requirement.

The primary financing structure will consist of tax exempt bonds, 4% low income housing tax credits ("LIHTC), permanent loans from Fannie Mae or Freddie Mac, and subordinate financing, which is further detailed below. We received and have attached funding commitments from several national banks, LIHTC equity syndicators, and a direct underwriter and servicer lender for Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac. Related Urban will achieve the most competitive terms because of its financial strength and numerous relationships. The fact that we have received several financial commitments illustrates the depth of our relationships within the financial community. In addition, we have attached the underwriting calculations, as required by the RFA's instructions.

Likely subordinate funding sources include, but are not limited to the following: SAIL and HOME loans from Florida Housing Finance Corporation ("FHFC"), HOME Loans from the City of Miami and AHP loans from the Federal Home Loan Bank, along with the County funding sources that are detailed below. Related Urban has successfully integrated these subordinate funding sources in a single transaction many times. It is important to note that we have been successful in obtaining subordinate financing from various government agencies, and neither Related Urban, nor any of its affiliated companies, have ever been de-obligated from any funding source.

The County is committing to investing three sources of funding GOB, Surtax and Capital Fund Financing Program ("CFFP"), each of which have their own unique characteristics that must be properly addressed by the selected developer. GOB funds are issued in the form of a grant, which would create a taxable event for a for-profit entity and have negative financial consequences for the project, unless there is a non-profit entity in the partnership that receives the grant and then lends the funds to the project. Urgent, Inc. CDC, which is our non-profit partner, is prepared to assume that role.

The County's new guidelines require hard interest payments on their Surtax financing. Related Urban has included a 1.0% interest rate and hard payment to the County on all Surtax and CFFP financing utilized in this redevelopment. Related Urban's HUD counsel, Reno & Cavanaugh, and lender, Citibank, have extensive experience securing CFFP loans for public housing agencies and will be involved in securing CFFP funds for this redevelopment.

PRH Investments, LLC ("PRHI"), is the parent company of Related Urban and will be the guarantor on all of the financing. PRHI has over $100,000,000 in liquidity and $330,000,000 in net worth, which far exceeds the guaranty requirements of our lenders. Prior to selecting a development partner, it is important for the County to verify and ensure that the developer has demonstrated adequate financial capacity to meet the guaranty requirements of its lenders. The industry standard for demonstrating financial capacity is through audited financial statements, which RUDG provided in its response to this RFA.

Related Urban is committed to giving the residents of Liberty Square Rising the opportunity for upward mobility so they can become homeowners. To that end, we have incorporated 60 home ownership units into our development plan. While there are a wide array of homeownership programs that have been utilized for public housing residents over the years, the ones that are most likely to be appropriate, given the proposed resources and market are the Section 24/9 Homeownership Program (utilizing Section 9 funds), as well as the Section 8(y) Homeownership Voucher Program. The Section 8(y) Homeownership Voucher Program would allow us to utilize voucher assistance for the purpose of assisting a homeowner to meet its monthly expenses, while the Section 24/9 Homeownership Program would allow us to explore various strategies for construction write-downs, grants, subordinate mortgages and closing cost assistance. We will work closely with PHCD to implement these programs for the public housing residents.

The following provides a summary of the projected primary Sources and Uses for the Liberty Square Rising redevelopment:

| TOTAL DEVELOPMENT SOURCES | Total | Per Unit |
| Tax Credit Equity | 109,805,533 | 73,794 |
| Tax-Exempt Bonds | 88,200,000 | 59,274 |
| City of Miami HOME | 14,400,000 | 9,677 |

| SAIL ELI | 6,079,300 | 4,086 |
| FHLB | 5,000,000 | 3,360 |
| Miami-Dade County Soft Debt | 45,652,316 | 30,680 |
| Deferred Developer Fee | 8,079,203 | 5,430 |
| Total Sources | 307,216,350 | 206,460 |

| TOTAL DEVELOPMENT USES | Total | Per Unit |
| Ground Lease Payments to PHCD | 3,720,000 | 2,500 |
| Residential Construction | 163,592,000 | 109,941 |
| Non-Residential Construction | 13,000,000 | 8,737 |
| GC Fees | 24,722,880 | 16,615 |
| Hard Cost Contingency | 10,065,744 | 6,765 |
| Soft Costs | 46,897,790 | 31,517 |
| Developer Fees | 45,217,940 | 30,388 |
| Total Uses | 307,216,350 | 206,460 |

Notes:
Excludes Homeownership Units which will be privately financed by RUDG

As an alternative, we have attached a financial pro forma utilizing 9% low income housing tax credits. Related Urban will submit for 9% LIHTC's in all funding cycles for which it is eligible, including the Revitalization RFA from FHFC, for which Liberty Square Rising will be an excellent candidate. Since there are multiple phases of this redevelopment, the odds of receiving a 9% LITHC award are improved. However, as indicated in the requirements of the RFA, 9% LIHTC's are highly competitive and were not relied upon to be the main source of financing for any of the phases of RUDG's plan without providing alternative financing structures.

There are other funding and revenue sources that could substantially reduce the County funds required to complete this redevelopment. They include Choice Neighborhood Implementation Grants from HUD, Replacement Housing Factor Financing Grants ("RHF"), Rental Assistance Demonstration ("RAD"), Project-Based Section 8 vouchers, Section 30 HUD Approval, which allows you to use public housing subsidy to support debt service and New Market Tax Credits ("NMTC").

The redevelopment of Liberty Square Rising would make the project an excellent candidate to receive a Choice Grant from HUD of up to $30,000,000. The vision of this HUD initiative is to transform distressed communities with concentrated poverty into sustainable, mixed-income housing with key support services. Applying for a Choice Grant would be an extremely beneficial option for future consideration that would substantially reduce the GAP financing required.

The availability of a Project-Based Section 8 voucher contract, by obtaining Tenant Protection Vouchers from HUD, would have a significant positive financial impact on the development. The Section 8 rents would allow us to secure increased permanent first mortgages and enhance the financial feasibility. We have prepared and attached an analysis of the permanent debt that could be supported with a Project-Based Section 8 voucher contract. For example, a conversion of 25% of the public housing units to a Project-Based Section 8 contract would yield an additional $23 Million in permanent loan proceeds, which would have a tremendous financial impact by reducing the GAP financing required for the development.

Related Urban has utilized an approval under Section 30 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended, to utilize excess public housing operating subsidy to pay debt service on tax-exempt bond financing. This enabled us to increase the borrowing capacity to develop Smathers Phase Two as a 4% low-income housing tax credit/bond deal. We worked closely with the Miami HUD Field Office, the Director of Public Housing Investments and the Deputy Assistance Secretary of Public Housing Investments to obtain this rarely utilized approval.

RHF Grants are awarded to public housing agencies that have removed units from their inventory for the purpose of developing new public housing units for a period of up to five years after they are demolished. Liberty Square Rising would meet this criteria and Related Urban would work closely with PHCD to apply for RHF funding. Related Urban would also explore converting some of the public housing units into a Project-Based Section 8 contract through the RAD program. Through the mixed-finance development process, both the operating subsidy and the capital funds assigned to each unit in the development will be reconfigured based on the new units. Additionally, the utility allowances will be generated based on the new units. RAD would allow us to lock-in the existing utility allowances, 100% of the existing capital funds attributable to the older units and the coefficient of the project expense level, all of which would generate significantly higher rents than currently realized, enabling us to secure additional permanent debt that would reduce the GAP financing required for the development.

Phase 4A will be the construction of 60 townhomes for affordable homeownership. The construction of this phase will be privately financed by Related Urban with its own capital or with a construction line of credit. We have extensive experience working with the PHCD first-time homebuyer programs.

The development of the grocery store will be eligible for NMTC to assist in capitalizing this phase of construction. All of the proposed non-residential uses in our redevelopment plan meet this objective and are excellent candidates to receive NMTC funding. In fact, CitiBank and Bank of America, the two lenders of our redevelopment plan, have NMTC allocations and have expressed interest in allocating NMTC to this redevelopment.

Pro Forma Assumptions:

Vacancy and Collection Loss: 6% of tenant paid rent was used as the vacancy and collection factor.

A pro forma utilizing 4% Low-Income Housing Tax Credits and Tax Exempt Bonds has been attached for each phase of the development. 3.11 C) County Participation in Financial Proceeds

1. In previous mixed finance developments, Related Urban has been successful in receiving HUD approval to charge developer fees up to the maximum percentage permitted by FHFC, which is 16% of development costs for 9% LIHTC developments and 18% of development costs for 4% LIHTC developments with tax exempt bonds. These fees exceed Safe Harbor Standards. We propose to share 40% of the developer fees received, including deferred developer fees, with the PHCD.
2. Related Urban proposes to make capitalized ground lease payments to PHCD in the amount of $2,500 per unit, which will be paid at the financial closing of a given phase. In addition, Related Urban will pay $1 per year for each of the individual leases it enters into with PHCD.
3. Related Urban proposes to share 50% of the surplus cash flow it receives with the PHCD.
4. Related Urban proposes to share 50% of the net cash flow it receives from capital transactions, which include refinancing and property sales, including homeownership sales, with the County.
5. Related Urban will pay the county asset management fees in accordance with Response #5 of Addendum No. 2 to the RFA dated June 12, 2015.

The table below summarizes the financial benefits to the County from the Related Urban proposal.

| Form of Participation | Amount ($) |
|---|---|
| Capitalized Ground Lease Payments | 3,720,000 |
| Developer Fees (40%) | 18,087,176 |
| 50% of Surplus Cash Flow after Deferred Dev. Fees (Yrs. 1-15) | 6,685,503 |
| Homeownership Profits (50%) | 1,393,489 |
| 1% Interest Payments on Surtax and CFFP Funds (Yrs. 1-15) | 2,100,000 |
| Sale/Refinancing Proceeds (Yr. 15) | 11,002,298 |
| Surtax Repayment (Yr. 15) | 4,700,000 |
| Total | 43,968,466 |

3.11 D) Capital Fund Financing Program ("CFFP")

Related Urban's HUD counsel, Reno & Cavanaugh ("R&C") was instrumental in persuading HUD to permit public housing authorities to borrow against their future allocations of Capital Funds. R&C advocated for the change in federal law that permitted PHAs to leverage their capital funds to securitize a private loan or bond issuance. After the law was passed, R&C attorneys were among the first to apply the new law and its innovative financing tool on behalf of numerous clients. For example, R&C represented the District of Columbia Housing Authority ("DCHA") in a 180-unit new construction project, all of which are tax credit units and 148 of which are a combination of family and senior public housing units. The financing included privately placed multifamily housing bonds, LIHTCs, and HOPE VI funds, a portion of which collateralized the bonds. This was among the first such collateralized bond transactions, and has served as a model nationwide. In addition, R&C has represented the St. Louis Housing Authority, Housing Authority of the City of Meridian and Albany Housing Authority on similar CFFP transactions. Therefore, the Related Urban team is experienced and interested in assisting PHCD to secure CFFP funding for Liberty Square Rising.

12. WAIVER OF TRIAL BY JURY. SPONSOR AGREES NOT TO ELECT A TRIAL BY JURY WITH RESPECT TO ANY ISSUE ARISING OUT OF THIS COMMITMENT OR THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN BOND PURCHASER, BONDHOLDER REPRESENTATIVE AND BORROWER OR SPONSOR THAT IS TRIABLE OF RIGHT BY A JURY AND WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY WITH RESPECT TO SUCH ISSUE TO THE EXTENT THAT ANY SUCH RIGHT EXISTS NOW OR IN THE FUTURE. THIS WAIVER OF RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IS GIVEN BY SPONSOR KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY WITH THE BENEFIT OF COMPETENT LEGAL COUNSEL AND APPLIES TO ALL ACTIONS WHETHER ARISING IN CONTRACT, TORT, EQUITY OR OTHERWISE. THIS PROVISION SHALL SURVIVE THE TERMINATION OF EXPIRATION OF THIS COMMITMENT.

15. Anti Tying Policy. CITI maintains a policy of strict compliance to the anti-tying provisions of the U.S. Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, and the regulations issued by the Federal Reserve Board implementing the anti-tying rules (collectively, the "Anti-tying Rules"). Moreover, our credit policies provide that credit must be underwritten in a safe and sound manner and be consistent with Section 23B of the Federal Reserve Act and the requirements of federal law. Consistent with these requirements and our Anti-tying Policy:

a. The extension of commercial loans or other products or services to you by CITI or any of its subsidiaries will not be conditioned on your taking other products or services offered by CITI or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, unless such a condition is permitted under an exception to the Anti-tying Rules.

b. CITI will not vary the price or other terms of any product or service offered by CITI or its subsidiaries on the condition that you purchase another product or service from CITI or any of its affiliates, unless CITI is authorized to do so under an exception to the Anti-tying Rules.

c. CITI will not require you to provide property or services to CITI or any affiliate of CITI as a condition to the extension of a commercial loan to you by CITI or any of its subsidiaries, unless such a requirement is reasonably required to protect the safety and soundness of the loan.

d. CITI will not require you to refrain from doing business with a competitor of CITI or any of its affiliates as a condition to receiving a commercial loan from CITI or any of its subsidiaries, unless the requirement is reasonably designed to ensure the soundness of the Loan.

Est. Construction Phase Loan Amount: An amount, currently estimated to be:

|---|---|
| Liberty Square Rising Phase 1A: | $22,500,000 |
| Liberty Square Rising Phase 1B: | $21,000,000 |
| Liberty Square Rising Phase 2: | $22,000,000 |
| Liberty Square Rising Phase 4B: | $12,500,000 |

The loan(s) may not exceed 80% of costs covered through the Construction Phase.

Construction Phase Term: Twenty-four months, plus two, 6-month extension options. Fees for the extension are indicated below under "Fees & Expenses".

Construction Phase Interest Rate: A variable rate equal to SIFMA plus a spread of 2.50% during the Construction Phase for all Phases. Rate adjusts weekly. Currently, SIFMA is trading at approximately 0.01%. This rate does not include Issuer, Trustee, or misc. 3rd party fees (SIFMA is available at http://www.sifma.org/research/item.aspx?id=19762). Pricing is based on current market conditions and is subject to change.

Borrower will be required to submit a loan budget worksheet with each draw request tracking all Property sources and uses of funds. Draw requests are limited to one per month.

Loan in Balance: The Funding Loan must remain "in balance" during the Construction Phase. "In balance" means that (1) the funds available during the Construction Phase (from the Funding Loan and all other debt and equity sources) are sufficient to complete the construction or rehabilitation of the Property and all other expenses reasonably expected to be necessary to achieve the conditions for equity and sub-debt funding; and (2) the sources available from equity and sub-debt are sufficient to pay off the Construction Phase Loan Amount.

Amortization: None. Payments on the Funding Loan during the Construction Phase will be interest only.

Prepayment and Yield Maintenance: Voluntary prepayment of Funding Loan principal amounts during the Construction Phase, including those as a result of a Borrower default, may be made without prepayment fee or penalty.

Interest Reserve: Calculated at the Construction Phase Interest Rate noted above, plus a cushion acceptable to CITI at time of final Credit approval. Currently, CITI is underwriting with a cushion of 1.00%. The Interest Reserve will be sized based on an analysis of the projected draw schedule for the Funding Loan during the Construction Phase.

Budget and Contingencies: The budget for the Construction Phase, including all budget line items, is subject to CITI approval. The budget shall include a hard cost contingency of no less than 5% of budgeted hard costs for new construction projects or, 10% for renovation projects. The budget shall include a soft cost contingency of no less than 5% of budgeted soft costs, excluding 1) soft costs incurred prior to or in connection with closing; 2) interest reserve and bank fees; 3) capitalized operating reserve deposits and other costs that may be due in connection with Construction Phase Loan pay off/stabilization for which specific sources are identified; and 4) developer fees.

General Contractor and Bonding Requirements: The general contractor and the form of construction contract must be acceptable to CITI. CITI will require payment and performance bonds equal to 100% of the construction contract amount. Surety issuing bonds must have an A.M. LC provider must be rated "A" or better.

Retainage: Construction contract will provide for retainage of 10% of each construction pay application until 50% completion and the reduced to 5% of each construction pay application until substantial completion of construction is achieved unless other arrangements have been approved by CITI. All retained amounts will be released upon final, lien-free completion of construction, as approved by CITI.

Appraisal, Environmental, Plan & Cost Evaluation Review: Appraisal and Plan/Cost Review reports will be commissioned and reviewed by CITI. CITI may rely upon environmental reports commissioned by Borrower if report is current (within 12 months) and CITI has been provided evidence of

Public Housing: Since the seller/landlord of the Property is the Miami-Dade Public Housing and Community Development ("MDPHCD") and since the Property will continue to be operated in accordance with public housing guidelines with operating subsidies coming from HUD to MDPHCD and in turn to the Borrower, Borrower will be required to fund reserves as noted below. In addition, the Regulatory & Operating Agreement ("R&O"), Land Use Restriction Agreement, ACC, and other documents relative to the public housing nature of the Property are subject to CITI's full review and approval.

ACC Reserve, Operating Reserve: CITI will require an ACC & Operating Reserve totaling the higher of 1) a minimum of six months of operating expenses or 2) the ACC & Operating Reserve required by the LIHTC equity investor. Changes to the amount of ACC units or other factors related to the ACC units may require additions to the ACC reserve.

Re: Liberty Square Rising Phase 1A

Dear Albert,

We appreciate the opportunity to become the investment partner in Liberty Square Rising Phase 1A (the "Property"). This letter of intent ("LOI") summarizes the proposed investment terms and conditions by which a limited partnership or limited liability company formed by Boston Financial Investment Management, LP ("Boston Financial") would acquire an interest in the Company (as defined below).

As further detailed in Section 2.2 below, BFLP (as defined below) would proceed to make capital contributions to the Company of $20,202,085 or the equivalent of approximately $1.12 per dollar of credit.

1. Project Assumptions

We have made the following assumptions in evaluating this investment:

1.1 Development Structure

- The Company. A to be formed Special Purpose Entity, an affiliate of RUDG, LLC (the "Company") will be formed to develop, construct, and operate the Property.
- Investor and Special Limited Partners. An entity affiliated with Boston Financial ("BFLP") will purchase a 99.99% limited ownership interest in the Company ("Admission") upon satisfactory completion of the conditions contained in this LOI. A corporation affiliated with Boston Financial will be a special limited member in the Company with certain restricted management rights and a small interest in sale proceeds (the "Special Member").
- Manager. A to be formed Special Purpose Entity, a for-profit entity and an affiliate of RUDG, LLC will serve as the Manager of the Company (the "Manager").
- Developer. A to be formed Special Purpose Entity, an affiliate of RUDG, LLC will serve as the developer of the property (the "Developer").
- Guarantor. The obligations of the Developer and Manager must be guaranteed by an entity (the "Guarantor") acceptable to Boston Financial. The Guarantor must maintain sufficient net worth and liquidity to meet its obligations (but in no event less than $10 million of net worth and $2 million in liquidity). Boston Financial will have the right to accept or reject the Guarantor in its sole discretion based on a detailed review of the Guarantor's financial statements.

- General Contractor. The general contractor will be Fortune Construction Company, LLP or another entity acceptable to Boston Financial. Construction must be fully bonded or secured by a letter of credit equal to 15% of the construction contract.
- Management Agent. The Property will be managed by TRG Management Company, LLP or another agent acceptable to Boston Financial (the "Management Agent"). The Management Agent (i) will have demonstrated experience managing Section 42 properties and (ii) will receive a competitive management fee, which shall not exceed the maximum amount permitted by HUD. The Management Agent will enter into an agreement to defer and accrue its fee, if necessary, to prevent (i) a default under the mortgage loan documents and (ii) to avoid an operating deficit. Breach of this agreement will be grounds for removal of the Management Agent.

1.2 Property Design and Development Schedule

- The Property will be developed as the new construction of 216 units. The unit and income mix will include:

Property Design:

| Units | Beds | Inc AMI | Rent AMI | Set-Aside | Subsidy |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| 71 | Three | 33% | 33% | None | ACC |
| 34 | Four | 33% | 33% | None | ACC |
| 56 | Three | 60% | 60% | None | None |
| 55 | Four | 60% | 60% | None | None |

1.3 Financing*

| Type | Lender | Amount ($) | Rate (%) | Fixed Rate? | Term | Amort | Hard Payments? |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|

| Const/ Perm | Soft Financing | 13,900,000 | TBD | TBD | TBD | TBD | Cash Flow |

1.4 Other

- Each building will be depreciated over 27.5 years.
- Any interest income earned by the Company on the capital contributions of BFLP and any other Company reserve or escrow accounts (whether such amount is held by the Company or held by a lender) will be specially allocated to the Manager.

2. Tax Credits and Capital Contributions

2.1 Tax Credit Assumptions

- Eligible Housing Credit Request Amount: $1,803,938.
- Total Housing Credit Allocation for Investment: $1,803,938 x 99.99% x 10 = $18,037,576.
- Tax Credit Price: $1.12.

- Total Capital Contributions: $20,202,085.

2.2 Capital Contributions

Based upon the assumptions that you submitted and subject to the satisfactory completion of Boston Financial's due diligence, BFLP will make capital contributions to the Company in the aggregate amounts and at the times shown below:

| # | Payment Conditions | Amount ($) | % |

NOTE: The total equity paid prior to construction completion is $6,060,626. The admission payment is paid prior to, or simultaneous to the construction closing.

Installments are due only after the prior installment's conditions have been met. Installments may be adjusted based on actual or projected tax credit delivery schedules as prepared by the Company accountants.

2.3 Capital Adjusters

The installments of equity shall be subject to standard tax credit timing and steady state adjuster calculations subject to the availability of funds.

2.4 Development Fee

The Developer shall earn a development fee in an amount not to exceed the maximum amount allowed pursuant to FHFC, City of Miami and/or Miami Dade County guidelines. We expect some amount ("Deferred Development Fee") will be outstanding after payment of all installments of equity. Payment of any Deferred Development Fee will be subject to available cash flow and may bear interest, if acceptable to Boston Financial, based on its review of tax implications associated with the fee. The Manager shall be obligated to pay any amount of outstanding Deferred Development Fee prior to the end of the thirteenth anniversary of the date the Property is placed in service.

3. Manager Obligations

The Manager and Guarantor will have the following obligations.

3.1 Development Obligation. The Developer is obligated to (i) deliver a completed, lien-free project (including all final Certificates of Occupancy and an ALTA survey), in accordance with the plans and specifications based upon fixed development costs including funding of development fee and all required reserves and (ii) arrive at Final Closing (as defined below). If the proceeds available are insufficient to pay all Eligible Development Costs, the Developer shall advance to the Company such funds as are required to pay such deficiencies through the latest of the date the Property achieves (i) the first anniversary of Completion, (ii) Final Closing, (iii) Stabilization Date, and (iv) the receipt of final Forms 8609s from the allocating agency for each building in the Property (the "Development Obligation Date" or "DOD"). The Manager will be obligated to guaranty this obligation and any cost overruns, development deficiencies or loan conversion gaps not paid for by the Developer shall be paid by the Manager and will be without reimbursement.

"Final Closing" means the date upon which all of the following events have occurred: (i) the Completion Date, (ii) Permanent Mortgage Commencement, (iii) the Property being free of any mechanics' or other liens (except for the Mortgages and liens either bonded against in such a manner as to preclude the holder thereof from having any recourse to the Property or the Company for payment of any debt secured thereby or affirmatively insured against (in such manner as precludes recourse to the Company for any loss incurred by the insurer) by the Title Policy (or by another policy of title insurance) issued to the Company by an acceptable title insurance company in an amount satisfactory to Investor Tax Counsel (or by an endorsement of either such title policy)), (iv) the completion by the Accountants of a certified audit, approved by the Investor Member, of the Company's and the Builder's construction costs as a part of cost certification, (v) the agreement and acceptance of such cost certification by (a) Boston Financial and (b) by the Lenders and the Governmental Agency to the extent required by the Lenders and the Governmental Agency, (vi) the date of delivery to and acceptance by Boston Financial of an ALTA Survey, (vii) the disbursement of proceeds under the Mortgage Loans has been made in the full amount permitted by such cost certification, (viii) all amounts due in connection with the construction of the Project have been paid or provided for, and (ix) the full funding of any reserves required under the Mortgage Loan Documents and the Company Agreement (except for any reserves to be funded from future installments or other identified sources).

"Stabilization Date" means the first day following the three most recent consecutive calendar months commencing on or after the Completion Date, during each of which, as determined by the Accountants, subject to reasonable review by Boston Financial, the Property has achieved a Debt Service Coverage Ratio of 1.15; provided, however, that if the Stabilization Date occurs prior to Final Closing, the Property will not be deemed to have achieved the Stabilization Date unless and until all other conditions to Final Closing have been satisfied.

3.2 Operating Obligation. Commencing on the date of Admission, the Manager will be obligated to advance funds needed to cover operating deficits (including full replacement reserve funding acceptable to Boston Financial, and, after the DOD, normal repairs and necessary capital improvements) such that the Company has $1 of surplus cash at all times. The Manager's obligation will be unlimited through the end of the Compliance Period and such advances will not be reimbursed and treated as Special Capital Contributions prior to the DOD and subsequent to the DOD will be treated as Operating Expense Loans, which will bear no interest and will be repayable solely from future available cash flow or sale proceeds.

Commencing on the DOD, the Managing Member's Operating Obligation and the Guarantor's guaranty of the Managing Member's Operating Obligation shall be limited to $935,660. Subject to the operating reserve being fully funded to its original balance, the Gurantor's guaranty of the Operating Obligation shall terminate upon the later of the (i) the fifth anniversary of the DOD or (ii) the Property achieving a 1.15x DSCR as confirmed by audited financial statements, acceptable to Boston Financial, for the most recent fiscal year. Any operating deficits may be funded by the operating reserve prior to the Guarantor under the terms of its operating obligation guaranty. Funds drawn from the Operating Reserve will be replenished from available Cash Flow and must be fully replenished prior to the termination of the Guarantor's operating obligation.

3.3 Repurchase Obligation. The Manager will be obligated to repurchase BFLP's interest in the Company, for a price equal to 106% of the Net Capital Contribution payable to the Company less amounts not yet paid into the Company, plus any interest or penalties from recapture, if (1) Final Closing of the mortgage loan is not achieved by the maturity date of the construction loan (subject to an extension if existing loan commitments are similarly extended), (2) an action is commenced to foreclose, abandon, or permanently enjoin construction of the Property which is not being diligently defended or otherwise adequately addressed by the Company or the Manager, (3) the Property is disqualified from obtaining 30% or more of the tax credits, or (4) other significant issues occur which materially impact BFLP's investment as agreed to in the Company Agreement. For a limited period of time, the Company will have an opportunity to cure any such problems.

3.4 Compliance Obligation. The Manager shall take any and all actions required to ensure that the Property will continue to qualify for low-income tax credits.

3.5 Tax Credit Adjusters. The Manager shall be obligated to fund adjustments to the capital contributions resulting from a reduction in the credit amount as noted above, if a reduction in capital contributions is not otherwise available.

3.6 Management Rights. The consent of Boston Financial will be required to: (a) sell or refinance the Property, (b) withdraw, admit, or substitute the Manager, or (c) sell, assign, encumber, or pledge the general Company interests. In addition, (a) in the event the Manager files for bankruptcy, (b) if the Company or the Manager are in material default under their commitments and obligations, or (c) in certain other circumstances, BFLP after reasonable notice and cure period will have the right to remove the Manager and substitute the Special Limited Partner or another affiliate of Boston Financial as a successor Manager with the powers of Manager.

3.7 Manager Standard Obligations, Representations, and Warranties. The Manager will be responsible for all customary Manager obligations and indemnifications and for the accuracy of all customary representations and warranties to the Company and BFLP. We have assumed that there are no existing environmental issues affecting the site or project.

4. Allocation and Distributions

The tax credits, depreciation, and operating profits and losses of the Company shall be allocated 99.99% to BFLP and 0.01% to the Manager. With respect to taxable income, we have assumed a 27.5 year depreciation schedule for building improvements, 15 years for land improvements, and 5 years for personal property.

Cash flow from operations after payment of operating expenses and funding of required replacement reserves shall be distributed as follows:

| First, | to BFLP to pay its annual cumulative Priority Distribution (Asset Management Fee) of $5,000, adjusted annually by the annual percentage increase in CPI; |
| Second, | to BFLP an amount equal to any unpaid tax credit shortfall payments; |
| Third, | to the Manager as payment of the Deferred Development Fee; |
| Fourth, | to the Manager to repay any Operating Expense Loans; |
| Fifth, | 10% to BFLP; and |
| Sixth, | 90% to the Manager, first as payment of a non-cumulative Incentive Management Fee up to 12% of EGI less amounts paid to the Management Agent, then as a distribution. |

Boston Financial's Investor Limited Partner ("ILP") and Special Limited Partner ("SLP") will grant to the Manager an option (the "Option") to purchase all of the interest (but not less than all) of the ILP and SLP at any time following the close of the Compliance Period. The purchase price for the Interest of the ILP and SLP shall be equal to an appraised fair market value, as calculated at the time the Option is exercised by the Manager. The ILP and the SLP shall have the right to require the Company to purchase all of the interest (but not less than all) of the ILP and the SLP for $1,000 and $100, respectively, respectively, following the close of the 10-year credit period.

If the Option is not exercised, the net proceeds of a sale or refinancing shall be distributed as follows:

|---|---|
| First, | to discharge the debts and obligations of the Company; |
| Second, | to fund reserves for contingent liabilities to the extent deemed necessary by the Manager; |
| Third, | to BFLP an amount equal to any unpaid tax credit shortfall payments; |
| Fourth, | to the Manager to repay any Operating Expense Loans; |
| Seventh, | to the repayment of any outstanding Deferred Development Fee; |
| Eighth, | $10,000 to the Special Limited Partner; and |
| Ninth, | 10% to BFLP and 90% to the Manager. |

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Citibank, N.A.("CITI") is pleased to offer to RUDG ("Sponsor"), as the Sponsor of to-be-formed affiliates ("Borrower" or "Borrowers"), this commitment ("Commitment") for financing , subject to the terms, requirements and conditions which follow. All capitalized terms used herein, unless otherwise defined, shall have the meaning set forth on Exhibit A annexed hereto and incorporated herein by this reference (the "Commitment Terms"). CITI's decision to issue this Commitment was made in reliance upon the representations and material supplied by Sponsor and Sponsor's representatives, as more particularly described on Exhibit B annexed hereto. CITI understands that Sponsor intends to submit this Commitment to Miami-Dade County Housing Finance Authority ("Governmental Lender") in support of Sponsor's application to obtain 1) private activity volume cap allocation(s) with respect to the financing of the Properties and 2) soft financing from Miami-Dade County. This Commitment is subject to, among other things, CITI completing due diligence to confirm the representations made by Sponsor and obtaining credit committee approval.

In connection with this Commitment, CITI will be acting solely as a principal and not as your agent, advisor or fiduciary. CITI has not assumed a fiduciary responsibility with respect to this Commitment, and nothing in this Commitment or in any prior relationship between you and CITI will be deemed to create an advisory, fiduciary or agency relationship between us in respect of this Commitment. You should consider carefully whether you would like to engage an independent advisor to represent or otherwise advise you in connection with this Commitment, if you have not already done so.

A. Transaction Summary. The terms of the tax-exempt financing transaction (the "Transaction") that is the subject of this Commitment is as follows:

1. The proceeds of the Funding Loan shall be used by Governmental Lender to make a tax-exempt loan (the "Tax-Exempt Loan" or the "Borrower Loan") to Borrower to finance the Property, for which the Governmental Lender receives a borrower note (the "Borrower Note"). Borrower shall be responsible for securing the issuance and delivery of the Tax-Exempt Loan by the Governmental Lender.

2. Upon closing of the transaction, the rights of Governmental Lender in the Borrower Loan and all documents evidencing and securing the Borrower Loan (the "Borrower Loan Documents") shall be assigned to a fiscal agent, which may be CITI (the "Fiscal Agent"), as security for the Governmental Lender's obligations to CITI evidenced by the Governmental Lender Note. CITI will administer and direct the disbursement of the proceeds of the Funding Loan and the Borrower Loan and will oversee the construction work to be performed on the Property (the "Improvements"). The completion of the Improvements and all related work shall be performed during the Construction Phase (as hereinafter defined).

3. CITI shall have the right to engage a third party servicer ("Servicer") to provide limited servicing/oversight functions on behalf of CITI pursuant to a separate servicing agreement with CITI. CITI shall pay Servicer any applicable servicing fee.

5. CITI anticipates that CITI's interest in the Tax-Exempt Loan may be transferred to any eligible investor, which may be a government sponsored enterprise or institutional investor (or a trust for the benefit thereof) and CITI's underwriting and documentation will provide for the possibility of such transfer.

B. Conditions Precedent to Closing. The obligation of CITI to make the Funding Loan is subject to satisfaction of the following conditions precedent ("Conditions Precedent to Closing"), in each case in a manner acceptable to CITI. There must be no default under any current commercial lease or laundry lease.

7. Borrower's Management Agreement. Borrower shall furnish to CITI a copy of Borrower's management agreement. Re: Liberty Square Rising Phase 1B

Dear Albert,

We appreciate the opportunity to become the investment partner in Liberty Square Rising Phase 1B (the "Property"). This letter of intent ("LOI") summarizes the proposed investment terms and conditions by which a limited partnership or limited liability company formed by Boston Financial Investment Management, LP ("Boston Financial") would acquire an interest in the Company (as defined below).

As further detailed in Section 2.2 below, BFLP (as defined below) would proceed to make capital contributions to the Company of $19,806,955 or the equivalent of approximately $1.12 per dollar of credit.

1. Project Assumptions

We have made the following assumptions in evaluating this investment:

1.1 Development Structure

- The Company. A to be formed Special Purpose Entity, an affiliate of RUDG, LLC (the "Company") will be formed to develop, construct, and operate the Property.
- Investor and Special Limited Partners. An entity affiliated with Boston Financial ("BFLP") will purchase a 99.99% limited ownership interest in the Company ("Admission") upon satisfactory completion of the conditions contained in this LOI. A corporation affiliated with Boston Financial will be a special limited member in the Company with certain restricted management rights and a small interest in sale proceeds (the "Special Member").
- Manager. A to be formed Special Purpose Entity, a for-profit entity and an affiliate of RUDG, LLC will serve as the Manager of the Company (the "Manager").
- Developer. A to be formed Special Purpose Entity, an affiliate of RUDG, LLC will serve as the developer of the property (the "Developer").
- Guarantor. The obligations of the Developer and Manager must be guaranteed by an entity (the "Guarantor") acceptable to Boston Financial. The Guarantor must maintain sufficient net worth and liquidity to meet its obligations (but in no event less than $10 million of net worth and $2 million in liquidity). Boston Financial will have the right to accept or reject the Guarantor in its sole discretion based on a detailed review of the Guarantor's financial statements.

- General Contractor. The general contractor will be Fortune Construction Company, LLP or another entity acceptable to Boston Financial. Construction must be fully bonded or secured by a letter of credit equal to 15% of the construction contract.
- Management Agent. The Property will be managed by TRG Management Company, LLP or another agent acceptable to Boston Financial (the "Management Agent"). The Management Agent (i) will have demonstrated experience managing Section 42 properties and (ii) will receive a competitive management fee, which shall not exceed the maximum amount permitted by HUD. The Management Agent will enter into an agreement to defer and accrue its fee, if necessary, to prevent (i) a default under the mortgage loan documents and (ii) to avoid an operating deficit. Breach of this agreement will be grounds for removal of the Management Agent.

1.2 Property Design and Development Schedule

- The Property will be developed as the new construction of 216 units. The unit and income mix will include:

Property Design:

| Units | Beds | Inc AMI | Rent AMI | Set-Aside | Subsidy |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| 102 | Two | 33% | 33% | None | ACC |
| 30 | Three | 33% | 33% | None | ACC |
| 42 | Four | 33% | 33% | None | ACC |
| 6 | Five | 33% | 33% | None | ACC |
| 9 | One | 60% | 60% | None | None |
| 18 | Two | 60% | 60% | None | None |
| 9 | Three | 60% | 60% | None | None |

1.3 Financing*

| Type | Lender | Amount ($) | Rate (%) | Fixed Rate? | Term | Amort | Hard Payments? |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Const. | Citibank, N.A. | 21,000,000 | SIFMA + 250 bps | No | 24mths | N/A | Interest Only |
| Perm | Pillar Multifamily, LLC | 5,650,000 | 4.74% | Yes | 35 | 35 | P&I |
| Const/ Perm | Soft Financing | 19,867,800 | TBD | TBD | TBD | TBD | Cash Flow |

1.4 Other

- Each building will be depreciated over 27.5 years.
- Any interest income earned by the Company on the capital contributions of BFLP and any other Company reserve or escrow accounts (whether such amount is held by the Company or held by a lender) will be specially allocated to the Manager.

2. Tax Credits and Capital Contributions

2.1 Tax Credit Assumptions

- Eligible Housing Credit Request Amount: $1,768,655.
- Total Housing Credit Allocation for Investment: $1,768,655 x 99.99% x 10 = $17,684,781.
- Tax Credit Price: $1.12.
- Total Capital Contributions: $19,806,955.

2.2 Capital Contributions

| # | Payment Conditions | Amount ($) | % |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1 | Admission | $3,961,391 | 20.0 |
| 2 | 50% Completion | 1,980,696, | 10.0 |
| 2 | Completion | 1,980,696 | 10.0 |
| 3 | Stabilization | 10,893,825 | 55.0 |
| 4 | Receipt of 8609(s) | 990,347 | 5.0 |
| | TOTAL | 19,806,955 | 100.0 |
| | Price Per Credit – Federal LIHTC | 1.12 | |

NOTE: The total equity paid prior to construction completion is $5,942,087. The admission payment is paid prior to, or simultaneous to the construction closing.

Installments are due only after the prior installment's conditions have been met. Installments may be adjusted based on actual or projected tax credit delivery schedules as prepared by the Company accountants.

2.3 Capital Adjusters

The installments of equity shall be subject to standard tax credit timing and steady state adjuster calculations subject to the availability of funds.

2.4 Development Fee

The Developer shall earn a development fee in an amount not to exceed the maximum amount allowed pursuant to FHFC, City of Miami and/or Miami Dade County guidelines. We expect some amount ("Deferred Development Fee") will be outstanding after payment of all installments of equity. Payment of any Deferred Development Fee will be subject to available cash flow and may bear interest, if acceptable to Boston Financial, based on its review of tax implications associated with the fee. The Manager shall be obligated to pay any amount of outstanding Deferred Development Fee prior to the end of the thirteenth anniversary of the date the Property is placed in service.

3. Manager Obligations

The Manager and Guarantor will have the following obligations.

3.1 Development Obligation. The Developer is obligated to (i) deliver a completed, lien-free project (including all final Certificates of Occupancy and an ALTA survey), in accordance with the plans and specifications based upon fixed development costs including funding of development fee and all required reserves and (ii) arrive at Final Closing (as defined below). If the proceeds available are insufficient to pay all Eligible Development Costs, the Developer shall advance to the Company such funds as are required to pay such deficiencies through the latest of the date the Property achieves (i) the first anniversary of Completion, (ii) Final Closing, (iii) Stabilization Date, and (iv) the receipt of final Forms 8609s from the allocating agency for each building in the Property (the "Development Obligation Date" or "DOD"). The Manager will be obligated to guaranty this obligation and any cost overruns, development deficiencies or loan conversion gaps not paid for by the Developer shall be paid by the Manager and will be without reimbursement.

"Final Closing" means the date upon which all of the following events have occurred: (i) the Completion Date, (ii) Permanent Mortgage Commencement, (iii) the Property being free of any mechanics' or other liens (except for the Mortgages and liens either bonded against in such a manner as to preclude the holder thereof from having any recourse to the Property or the Company for payment of any debt secured thereby or affirmatively insured against (in such manner as precludes recourse to the Company for any loss incurred by the insurer) by the Title Policy (or by another policy of title insurance) issued to the Company by an acceptable title insurance company in an amount satisfactory to Investor Tax Counsel (or by an endorsement of either such title policy)), (iv) the completion by the Accountants of a certified audit, approved by the Investor Member, of the Company's and the Builder's construction costs as a part of cost certification, (v) the agreement and acceptance of such cost certification by (a) Boston Financial and (b) by the Lenders and the Governmental Agency to the extent required by the Lenders and the Governmental Agency, (vi) the date of delivery to and acceptance by Boston Financial of an ALTA Survey, (vii) the disbursement of proceeds under the Mortgage Loans has been made in the full amount permitted by such cost certification, (viii) all amounts due in connection with the construction of the Project have been paid or provided for, and (ix) the full funding of any reserves required under the Mortgage Loan Documents and the Company Agreement (except for any reserves to be funded from future installments or other identified sources).

"Stabilization Date" means the first day following the three most recent consecutive calendar months commencing on or after the Completion Date, during each of which, as determined by the Accountants, subject to reasonable review by Boston Financial, the Property has achieved a Debt Service Coverage Ratio of 1.15; provided, however, that if the Stabilization Date occurs prior to Final Closing, the Property will not be deemed to have achieved the Stabilization Date unless and until all other conditions to Final Closing have been satisfied.

"Tax Credit Determination" means the date the Accountants determine the amount of the Tax Credits, and determine that the Project satisfies the requirements of Section 42(h)(4) of the Code.

3.2 Operating Obligation. Commencing on the date of Admission, the Manager will be obligated to advance funds needed to cover operating deficits (including full replacement reserve funding acceptable to Boston Financial, and, after the DOD, normal repairs and necessary capital improvements) such that the Company has $1 of surplus cash at all times. The Manager's obligation will be unlimited through the end of the Compliance Period and such advances will not be reimbursed and treated as Special Capital Contributions prior to the DOD and subsequent to the DOD will be treated as Operating Expense Loans, which will bear no interest and will be repayable solely from future available cash flow or sale proceeds.

Commencing on the DOD, the Managing Member's Operating Obligation and the Guarantor's guaranty of the Managing Member's Operating Obligation shall be limited to $767,000. Subject to the operating reserve being fully funded to its original balance, the Gurantor's guaranty of the Operating Obligation shall terminate upon the later of the (i) the fifth anniversary of the DOD or (ii) the Property achieving a 1.15x DSCR as confirmed by audited financial statements, acceptable to Boston Financial, for the most recent fiscal year. Any operating deficits may be funded by the operating reserve prior to the Guarantor under the terms of its operating obligation guaranty. Funds drawn from the Operating Reserve will be replenished from available Cash Flow and must be fully replenished prior to the termination of the Guarantor's operating obligation.

3.3 Repurchase Obligation. The Manager will be obligated to repurchase BFLP's interest in the Company, for a price equal to 106% of the Net Capital Contribution payable to the Company less amounts not yet paid into the Company, plus any interest or penalties from recapture, if (1) Final Closing of the mortgage loan is not achieved by the maturity date of the construction loan (subject to an extension if existing loan commitments are similarly extended), (2) an action is commenced to foreclose, abandon, or permanently enjoin construction of the Property which is not being diligently defended or otherwise adequately addressed by the Company or the Manager, (3) the Property is disqualified from obtaining 30% or more of the tax credits, or (4) other significant issues occur which materially impact BFLP's investment as agreed to in the Company Agreement. For a limited period of time, the Company will have an opportunity to cure any such problems.

3.4 Compliance Obligation. The Manager shall take any and all actions required to ensure that the Property will continue to qualify for low-income tax credits.

3.5 Tax Credit Adjusters. The Manager shall be obligated to fund adjustments to the capital contributions resulting from a reduction in the credit amount as noted above, if a reduction in capital contributions is not otherwise available.

3.6 Management Rights. The consent of Boston Financial will be required to: (a) sell or refinance the Property, (b) withdraw, admit, or substitute the Manager, or (c) sell, assign, encumber, or pledge the general Company interests. In addition, (a) in the event the Manager files for bankruptcy, (b) if the Company or the Manager are in material default under their commitments and obligations, or (c) in certain other circumstances, BFLP after reasonable notice and cure period will have the right to remove the Manager and substitute the Special Limited Partner or another affiliate of Boston Financial as a successor Manager with the powers of Manager.

3.7 Manager Standard Obligations, Representations, and Warranties. The Manager will be responsible for all customary Manager obligations and indemnifications and for the accuracy of all customary representations and warranties to the Company and BFLP. We have assumed that there are no existing environmental issues affecting the site or project.

4. Allocation and Distributions

The tax credits, depreciation, and operating profits and losses of the Company shall be allocated 99.99% to BFLP and 0.01% to the Manager. With respect to taxable income, we have assumed a 27.5 year depreciation schedule for building improvements, 15 years for land improvements, and 5 years for personal property.

Cash flow from operations after payment of operating expenses and funding of required replacement reserves shall be distributed as follows:

|---|---|
| First, | to BFLP to pay its annual cumulative Priority Distribution (Asset Management Fee) of $5,000, adjusted annually by the annual percentage increase in CPI; |
| Second, | to BFLP an amount equal to any unpaid tax credit shortfall payments; |
| Third, | to the Manager as payment of the Deferred Development Fee; |
| Fourth, | to the Manager to repay any Operating Expense Loans; |
| Fifth, | 10% to BFLP; and |
| Sixth, | 90% to the Manager, first as payment of a non-cumulative Incentive Management Fee up to 12% of EGI less amounts paid to the Management Agent, then as a distribution. |

Boston Financial's Investor Limited Partner ("ILP") and Special Limited Partner ("SLP") will grant to the Manager an option (the "Option") to purchase all of the interest (but not less than all) of the ILP and SLP at any time following the close of the Compliance Period. The purchase price for the Interest of the ILP and SLP shall be equal to an appraised fair market value, as calculated at the time the Option is exercised by the Manager. The ILP and the SLP shall have the right to require the Company to purchase all of the interest (but not less than all) of the ILP and the SLP for $1,000 and $100, respectively, respectively, following the close of the 10-year credit period.

If the Option is not exercised, the net proceeds of a sale or refinancing shall be distributed as follows:

|---|---|
| First, | to discharge the debts and obligations of the Company; |
| Second, | to fund reserves for contingent liabilities to the extent deemed necessary by the Manager; |
| Third, | to BFLP an amount equal to any unpaid tax credit shortfall payments; |
| Fourth, | to the Manager to repay any Operating Expense Loans; |
| Seventh, | to the repayment of any outstanding Deferred Development Fee; |
| Eighth, | $10,000 to the Special Limited Partner; and |
| Ninth, | 10% to BFLP and 90% to the Manager. |

5. Reporting

Annual audited financial statements and tax returns shall be prepared by an independent firm of certified public accountants, approved by Boston Financial, familiar with reporting requirements applicable to LIHTC properties. Annual tax returns shall be provided by February 15th, and annual audited financial statements by March 1st.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Citibank, N.A.("CITI") is pleased to offer to RUDG ("Sponsor"), as the Sponsor of to-be-formed affiliates ("Borrower" or "Borrowers"), this commitment ("Commitment") for financing , subject to the terms, requirements and conditions which follow. All capitalized terms used herein, unless otherwise defined, shall have the meaning set forth on Exhibit A annexed hereto and incorporated herein by this reference (the "Commitment Terms"). CITI's decision to issue this Commitment was made in reliance upon the representations and material supplied by Sponsor and Sponsor's representatives, as more particularly described on Exhibit B annexed hereto. CITI understands that Sponsor intends to submit this Commitment to Miami-Dade County Housing Finance Authority ("Governmental Lender") in support of Sponsor's application to obtain 1) private activity volume cap allocation(s) with respect to the financing of the Properties and 2) soft financing from Miami-Dade County. This Commitment is subject to, among other things, CITI completing due diligence to confirm the representations made by Sponsor and obtaining credit committee approval.

In connection with this Commitment, CITI will be acting solely as a principal and not as your agent, advisor or fiduciary. CITI has not assumed a fiduciary responsibility with respect to this Commitment, and nothing in this Commitment or in any prior relationship between you and CITI will be deemed to create an advisory, fiduciary or agency relationship between us in respect of this Commitment. You should consider carefully whether you would like to engage an independent advisor to represent or otherwise advise you in connection with this Commitment, if you have not already done so.

A. Transaction Summary. The terms of the tax-exempt financing transaction (the "Transaction") that is the subject of this Commitment is as follows:

The proceeds of the Funding Loan shall be used by Governmental Lender to make a tax-exempt loan (the "Tax-Exempt Loan" or the "Borrower Loan") to Borrower to finance the Property, for which the Governmental Lender receives a borrower note (the "Borrower Note"). Borrower shall be responsible for securing the issuance and delivery of the Tax-Exempt Loan by the Governmental Lender.

2. Upon closing of the transaction, the rights of Governmental Lender in the Borrower Loan and all documents evidencing and securing the Borrower Loan (the "Borrower Loan Documents") shall be assigned to a fiscal agent, which may be CITI (the "Fiscal Agent"), as security for the Governmental Lender's obligations to CITI evidenced by the Governmental Lender Note. CITI will administer and direct the disbursement of the proceeds of the Funding Loan and the Borrower Loan and will oversee the construction work to be performed on the Property (the "Improvements"). The completion of the Improvements and all related work shall be performed during the Construction Phase (as hereinafter defined).

3. CITI shall have the right to engage a third party servicer ("Servicer") to provide limited servicing/oversight functions on behalf of CITI pursuant to a separate servicing agreement with CITI. CITI shall pay Servicer any applicable servicing fee.

4. Intentionally Omitted

5. CITI anticipates that CITI's interest in the Tax-Exempt Loan may be transferred to any eligible investor, which may be a government sponsored enterprise or institutional investor (or a trust for the benefit thereof) and CITI's underwriting and documentation will provide for the possibility of such transfer.

B. Conditions Precedent to Closing. The obligation of CITI to make the Funding Loan is subject to satisfaction of the following conditions precedent ("Conditions Precedent to Closing"), in each case in a manner acceptable to CITI. There must be no default under any current commercial lease or laundry lease.

7. Borrower's Management Agreement. Borrower shall furnish to CITI a copy of Borrower's management agreement. The management agreement must be with a professional management company and both the management company and the terms of the management agreement must be approved in writing by CITI. 15. Other Compliance. Borrower shall deliver to CITI evidence satisfactory to CITI that the Property, and Borrower's operation thereof, is in compliance with all local and/or state building, safety, health and fire codes, all clean air and water acts and other Hazardous Materials Laws (as hereinafter defined), and all equal opportunity, anti-discriminatory and fair housing requirements.

Re: Liberty Square Rising Phase 2

Dear Albert,

We appreciate the opportunity to become the investment partner in Liberty Square Rising Phase 2 (the "Property"). This letter of intent ("LOI") summarizes the proposed investment terms and conditions by which a limited partnership or limited liability company formed by Boston Financial Investment Management, LP ("Boston Financial") would acquire an interest in the Company (as defined below).

As further detailed in Section 2.2 below, BFLP (as defined below) would proceed to make capital contributions to the Company of $19,455,019 or the equivalent of approximately $1.12 per dollar of credit.

1. Project Assumptions

We have made the following assumptions in evaluating this investment:

1.1 Development Structure

- The Company. A to be formed Special Purpose Entity, an affiliate of RUDG, LLC (the "Company") will be formed to develop, construct, and operate the Property.
- Investor and Special Limited Partners. An entity affiliated with Boston Financial ("BFLP") will purchase a 99.99% limited ownership interest in the Company ("Admission") upon satisfactory completion of the conditions contained in this LOI. A corporation affiliated with Boston Financial will be a special limited member in the Company with certain restricted management rights and a small interest in sale proceeds (the "Special Member").
- Manager. A to be formed Special Purpose Entity, a for-profit entity and an affiliate of RUDG, LLC will serve as the Manager of the Company (the "Manager").
- Developer. A to be formed Special Purpose Entity, an affiliate of RUDG, LLC will serve as the developer of the property (the "Developer").
- Guarantor. The obligations of the Developer and Manager must be guaranteed by an entity (the "Guarantor") acceptable to Boston Financial. The Guarantor must maintain sufficient net worth and liquidity to meet its obligations (but in no event less than $10 million of net worth and $2 million in liquidity). Boston Financial will have the right to accept or reject the Guarantor in its sole discretion based on a detailed review of the Guarantor's financial statements.

- General Contractor. The general contractor will be Fortune Construction Company, LLP or another entity acceptable to Boston Financial. Construction must be fully bonded or secured by a letter of credit equal to 15% of the construction contract.
- Management Agent. The Property will be managed by TRG Management Company, LLP or another agent acceptable to Boston Financial (the "Management Agent"). The Management Agent (i) will have demonstrated experience managing Section 42 properties and (ii) will receive a competitive management fee, which shall not exceed the maximum amount permitted by HUD. The Management Agent will enter into an agreement to defer and accrue its fee, if necessary, to prevent (i) a default under the mortgage loan documents and (ii) to avoid an operating deficit. Breach of this agreement will be grounds for removal of the Management Agent.

1.2 Property Design and Development Schedule

- The Property will be developed as the new construction of 216 units. The unit and income mix will include:

Property Design:

| Units | Beds | Inc AMI | Rent AMI | Set-Aside | Subsidy |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| 13 | One | 33% | 33% | None | ACC |
| 93 | Two | 33% | 33% | None | ACC |
| 25 | Three | 33% | 33% | None | ACC |
| 28 | Four | 33% | 33% | None | ACC |
| 21 | Five | 33% | 33% | None | ACC |
| 9 | One | 60% | 60% | None | None |
| 18 | Two | 60% | 60% | None | None |
| 9 | Three | 60% | 60% | None | None |

1.3 Financing*

| Type | Lender | Amount ($) | Rate (%) | Fixed Rate? | Term | Amort | Hard Payments? |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Const. | Citibank, N.A. | 22,000,000 | SIFMA + 250 bps | No | 24mths | N/A | Interest Only |
| Perm | Pillar Multifamily, LLC | 5,650,000 | 4.74% | Yes | 35 | 35 | P&I |
| Const/ Perm | Soft Financing | 18,087,816 | TBD | TBD | TBD | TBD | Cash Flow |

1.4 Other

- Each building will be depreciated over 27.5 years.
- Any interest income earned by the Company on the capital contributions of BFLP and any other Company reserve or escrow accounts (whether such amount is held by the Company or held by a lender) will be specially allocated to the Manager.

2. Tax Credits and Capital Contributions

2.1 Tax Credit Assumptions

- Eligible Housing Credit Request Amount: $1,737,229.
- Total Housing Credit Allocation for Investment: $1,737,229 x 99.99% x 10 = $17,370,552.
- Tax Credit Price: $1.12.
- Total Capital Contributions: $19,455,019.

2.2 Capital Contributions

| # | Payment Conditions | Amount ($) | % |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1 | Admission | $3,891,004 | 20.0 |
| 2 | 50% Completion | 1,945,502 | 10.0 |
| 2 | Completion | 1,945,502 | 10.0 |
| 3 | Stabilization | 10,700,260 | 55.0 |
| 4 | Receipt of 8609(s) | 972,751 | 5.0 |
| | TOTAL | 19,455,019 | 100.0 |
| | Price Per Credit – Federal LIHTC | 1.12 | |

NOTE: The total equity paid prior to construction completion is $5,836,506. The admission payment is paid prior to, or simultaneous to the construction closing.

Installments are due only after the prior installment's conditions have been met. Installments may be adjusted based on actual or projected tax credit delivery schedules as prepared by the Company accountants.

2.3 Capital Adjusters

The installments of equity shall be subject to standard tax credit timing and steady state adjuster calculations subject to the availability of funds.

2.4 Development Fee

The Developer shall earn a development fee in an amount not to exceed the maximum amount allowed pursuant to FHFC, City of Miami and/or Miami Dade County guidelines. We expect some amount ("Deferred Development Fee") will be outstanding after payment of all installments of equity. Payment of any Deferred Development Fee will be subject to available cash flow and may bear interest, if acceptable to Boston Financial, based on its review of tax implications associated with the fee. The Manager shall be obligated to pay any amount of outstanding Deferred Development Fee prior to the end of the thirteenth anniversary of the date the Property is placed in service.

3. Manager Obligations

The Manager and Guarantor will have the following obligations.

3.1 Development Obligation. The Developer is obligated to (i) deliver a completed, lien-free project (including all final Certificates of Occupancy and an ALTA survey), in accordance with the plans and specifications based upon fixed development costs including funding of development fee and all required reserves and (ii) arrive at Final Closing (as defined below). If the proceeds available are insufficient to pay all Eligible Development Costs, the Developer shall advance to the Company such funds as are required to pay such deficiencies through the latest of the date the Property achieves (i) the first anniversary of Completion, (ii) Final Closing, (iii) Stabilization Date, and (iv) the receipt of final Forms 8609s from the allocating agency for each building in the Property (the "Development Obligation Date" or "DOD"). The Manager will be obligated to guaranty this obligation and any cost overruns, development deficiencies or loan conversion gaps not paid for by the Developer shall be paid by the Manager and will be without reimbursement.

"Final Closing" means the date upon which all of the following events have occurred: (i) the Completion Date, (ii) Permanent Mortgage Commencement, (iii) the Property being free of any mechanics' or other liens (except for the Mortgages and liens either bonded against in such a manner as to preclude the holder thereof from having any recourse to the Property or the Company for payment of any debt secured thereby or affirmatively insured against (in such manner as precludes recourse to the Company for any loss incurred by the insurer) by the Title Policy (or by another policy of title insurance) issued to the Company by an acceptable title insurance company in an amount satisfactory to Investor Tax Counsel (or by an endorsement of either such title policy)), (iv) the completion by the Accountants of a certified audit, approved by the Investor Member, of the Company's and the Builder's construction costs as a part of cost certification, (v) the agreement and acceptance of such cost certification by (a) Boston Financial and (b) by the Lenders and the Governmental Agency to the extent required by the Lenders and the Governmental Agency, (vi) the date of delivery to and acceptance by Boston Financial of an ALTA Survey, (vii) the disbursement of proceeds under the Mortgage Loans has been made in the full amount permitted by such cost certification, (viii) all amounts due in connection with the construction of the Project have been paid or provided for, and (ix) the full funding of any reserves required under the Mortgage Loan Documents and the Company Agreement (except for any reserves to be funded from future installments or other identified sources).

"Stabilization Date" means the first day following the three most recent consecutive calendar months commencing on or after the Completion Date, during each of which, as determined by the Accountants, subject to reasonable review by Boston Financial, the Property has achieved a Debt Service Coverage Ratio of 1.15; provided, however, that if the Stabilization Date occurs prior to Final Closing, the Property will not be deemed to have achieved the Stabilization Date unless and until all other conditions to Final Closing have been satisfied.

"Tax Credit Determination" means the date the Accountants determine the amount of the Tax Credits, and determine that the Project satisfies the requirements of Section 42(h)(4) of the Code.

3.2 Operating Obligation. Commencing on the date of Admission, the Manager will be obligated to advance funds needed to cover operating deficits (including full replacement reserve funding acceptable to Boston Financial, and, after the DOD, normal repairs and necessary capital improvements) such that the Company has $1 of surplus cash at all times. The Manager's obligation will be unlimited through the end of the Compliance Period and such advances will not be reimbursed and treated as Special Capital Contributions prior to the DOD and subsequent to the

DOD will be treated as Operating Expense Loans, which will bear no interest and will be repayable solely from future available cash flow or sale proceeds.

Commencing on the DOD, the Managing Member's Operating Obligation and the Guarantor's guaranty of the Managing Member's Operating Obligation shall be limited to $767,000. Subject to the operating reserve being fully funded to its original balance, the Gurantor's guaranty of the Operating Obligation shall terminate upon the later of the (i) the fifth anniversary of the DOD or (ii) the Property achieving a 1.15x DSCR as confirmed by audited financial statements, acceptable to Boston Financial, for the most recent fiscal year. Any operating deficits may be funded by the operating reserve prior to the Guarantor under the terms of its operating obligation guaranty. Funds drawn from the Operating Reserve will be replenished from available Cash Flow and must be fully replenished prior to the termination of the Guarantor's operating obligation.

3.3 Repurchase Obligation. The Manager will be obligated to repurchase BFLP's interest in the Company, for a price equal to 106% of the Net Capital Contribution payable to the Company less amounts not yet paid into the Company, plus any interest or penalties from recapture, if (1) Final Closing of the mortgage loan is not achieved by the maturity date of the construction loan (subject to an extension if existing loan commitments are similarly extended), (2) an action is commenced to foreclose, abandon, or permanently enjoin construction of the Property which is not being diligently defended or otherwise adequately addressed by the Company or the Manager, (3) the Property is disqualified from obtaining 30% or more of the tax credits, or (4) other significant issues occur which materially impact BFLP's investment as agreed to in the Company Agreement. For a limited period of time, the Company will have an opportunity to cure any such problems.

3.4 Compliance Obligation. The Manager shall take any and all actions required to ensure that the Property will continue to qualify for low-income tax credits.

3.5 Tax Credit Adjusters. The Manager shall be obligated to fund adjustments to the capital contributions resulting from a reduction in the credit amount as noted above, if a reduction in capital contributions is not otherwise available.

3.6 Management Rights. The consent of Boston Financial will be required to: (a) sell or refinance the Property, (b) withdraw, admit, or substitute the Manager, or (c) sell, assign, encumber, or pledge the general Company interests. In addition, (a) in the event the Manager files for bankruptcy, (b) if the Company or the Manager are in material default under their commitments and obligations, or (c) in certain other circumstances, BFLP after reasonable notice and cure period will have the right to remove the Manager and substitute the Special Limited Partner or another affiliate of Boston Financial as a successor Manager with the powers of Manager.

3.7 Manager Standard Obligations, Representations, and Warranties. The Manager will be responsible for all customary Manager obligations and indemnifications and for the accuracy of all customary representations and warranties to the Company and BFLP. We have assumed that there are no existing environmental issues affecting the site or project.

4. Allocation and Distributions

The tax credits, depreciation, and operating profits and losses of the Company shall be allocated 99.99% to BFLP and 0.01% to the Manager. With respect to taxable income, we have assumed a 27.5 year depreciation schedule for building improvements, 15 years for land improvements, and 5 years for personal property.

Cash flow from operations after payment of operating expenses and funding of required replacement reserves shall be distributed as follows:

|---|---|
| First, | to BFLP to pay its annual cumulative Priority Distribution (Asset Management Fee) of $5,000, adjusted annually by the annual percentage increase in CPI; |
| Second, | to BFLP an amount equal to any unpaid tax credit shortfall payments; |
| Third, | to the Manager as payment of the Deferred Development Fee; |
| Fourth, | to the Manager to repay any Operating Expense Loans; |
| Fifth, | 10% to BFLP; and |
| Sixth, | 90% to the Manager, first as payment of a non-cumulative Incentive Management Fee up to 12% of EGI less amounts paid to the Management Agent, then as a distribution. |

Boston Financial's Investor Limited Partner ("ILP") and Special Limited Partner ("SLP") will grant to the Manager an option (the "Option") to purchase all of the interest (but not less than all) of the ILP and SLP at any time following the close of the Compliance Period. The purchase price for the Interest of the ILP and SLP shall be equal to an appraised fair market value, as calculated at the time the Option is exercised by the Manager. The ILP and the SLP shall have the right to require the Company to purchase all of the interest (but not less than all) of the ILP and the SLP for $1,000 and $100, respectively, respectively, following the close of the 10-year credit period.

If the Option is not exercised, the net proceeds of a sale or refinancing shall be distributed as follows:

|---|---|
| First, | to discharge the debts and obligations of the Company; |
| Second, | to fund reserves for contingent liabilities to the extent deemed necessary by the Manager; |
| Third, | to BFLP an amount equal to any unpaid tax credit shortfall payments; |
| Fourth, | to the Manager to repay any Operating Expense Loans; |
| Seventh, | to the repayment of any outstanding Deferred Development Fee; |
| Eighth, | $10,000 to the Special Limited Partner; and |
| Ninth, | 10% to BFLP and 90% to the Manager. |

Re: Liberty Square Rising Phase 3A
Miami, Fl

Dear Mr. Milo:

This letter will serve as an outline of the terms under which Bank of America (the "Bank") would offer construction tax-exempt bond financing. This commitment is contingent upon credit approval and completion of the underwriting and due diligence process, including without limitation receipt of appraisals, environmental reports, Bank's engineer's reports and all final budgets and operating pro forma, all satisfactory to Bank in its sole and absolute discretion. Bank shall have no obligations hereunder if any of the conditions set forth therein are not satisfied as Bank requires in its sole and absolute discretion. All funding agreements for the Project shall be in form and substance acceptable to Bank in its sole discretion. We reserve the right to modify and/or add to any terms described in this letter following receipt and review of due diligence materials. The following is intended to summarize the structure and basic terms and conditions (subject to modification upon completion of due diligence by Bank) upon which Bank will provide the financing described herein and is not an inclusive statement of all provisions, documents or requirements of a closing. This commitment shall be null and void and of no further effect if not executed and returned on or before February 18, 2016.

The proposed terms and conditions are as follows:

| Borrower: | A to be formed single purpose entity, affiliate of RUDG, LLC.—form and substance of Borrower must be acceptable to the Bank. |
| Guarantors: | 100% guarantee of completion, performance and repayment to be provided by PRH Investments, LLC. For borrowers that are single-asset entities, principal(s) with general liability or guarantor(s) acceptable to the Bank must be jointly and severally liable for completion of the project and repayment of the financing, including interest and costs. Guarantors to have financial covenants that include minimum net worth and liquidity—TBD. |
| Purpose: | To enable Borrower to construct a total of 216 apartment units known as Liberty Square Rising Phase 3A in Miami Dade County, Florida. |
| Program: | Construction financing through Bank's Special Bond Offering product ("SBO"), a proprietary private placement tax-exempt bond product. Bank will purchase no more than $22,000,000 in floating rate tax-exempt |

bonds ("Bonds") issued through the Miami Dade County Housing Finance Authority ("Issuer"). The debt service on the Bonds will be interest-only at a floating rate until the date that is 24 months after the closing date (the "Conversion Date"), in order to allow for construction and lease-up.

The SBO can be used in a full-sale or draw-down bond scenario provided this latter structure is acceptable to the Issuer. Repayment must occur not later than the Conversion Date, provided that such deadline may be extended for 6 additional months upon satisfaction of the following conditions: (a) No less than 30 but no more than 90 day written notice of intention to exercise the option; (b) No event of default having occurred or potential default occurring; (c) Performance hurdles have been met, including but not limited to, lien-free construction completion and lease up hurdles; (d) The loan is in balance, including sufficient interest reserve; (e) Project must demonstrate the ability to be able to convert/payoff Bank's loan within the 6-month extension period; (f) All co-construction loans mature or are extended concurrent or past the Bank's extension date; (g) All takeout commitments expire or are extended concurrent or past the Bank's extension date; (h) All investor commitments include terms or are modified to be consistent with the extension of the Bank's loan; (i) No material adverse change in the financial condition of the Project, Borrower, and Guarantor; (j) payment of an extension fee of 50 bps of the total commitment amount; and (k) rate adjustment or fee payment, as appropriate, to cover the cost of revising the forward rate lock, if any.

Floating Rate: A rate of LIBOR Daily Floating Rate + 2.25% prior to the Conversion Date.

Issuer/Trustee Fees: Borrower will pay all costs of issuance, including, without limitation, any upfront and/or ongoing issuer fees, all bond counsel fees, Issuer's counsel fees, if any, and all fees to the Trustee to close the issuance of the Bonds and administer the Bonds. These fees are not included in the above stated rates.

Financing Fees: 100 bps origination fee payable on initial Bond closing. Administrative fee of $5,000.

LIHTC Bank of America will need to approve the tax credit investor and pay-in schedule. The LIHTC limited partnership agreement must obligate the tax credit investor to make equity payments into the Project with no less than 20% of total LIHTC equity being invested at Bond closing, and with additional payments during construction satisfactory to Bank of America.

Take Out Financing: Take out commitment conditions must be acceptable to the Bank, and may include a requirement for interest rate protection. Borrower and any person or entity that at any time provides a guaranty of Borrower's obligations in respect of such interest rate protection (including but not limited to any general partner of any thereof) will be required to be an "eligible contract participant" as such term is defined in the Commodity Exchange Act (7 U.S.C. § 1 et seq.), as amended from time to time, and any successor statute.

Loan to Value:

An independent appraisal must support all bank underwriting conclusions, including but not limited to a loan-to-value ratio satisfactory to bank based upon the completed and stabilized restricted value of the subject real estate plus any value ascribed to other acceptable collateral including, but not limited to, cash collateral and Low Income Housing Tax Credits.

Security:

A first priority (i) mortgage and security interest in the Project; (ii) security interest in all personal property used in conjunction with the construction, operation and maintenance of the Project; (iii) assignment of all leases and rents; (iv) assignment of all construction, architect, and engineering contracts; (v) assignment of all permits, licenses and agreements; (vi) assignment of interests in the Borrower; (vii) pledge of reserve accounts;

Other Conditions

1) Miami Dade County GOB, HOME, SAIL and/or any additional source of funds to close simultaneously with the subject loan closing, demonstrate funds readily available and not subject to future appropriations or approvals and be subordinate to bank financing as documented in an agreement acceptable to the bank. Timing of disbursement of said funds to be acceptable to the bank.
2) Intercreditor agreement, acceptable to the bank, to be executed by all parties providing funds for the construction and completion of the subject property

Environmental:

Environmental indemnity to be obtained in form and substance approved by the Bank.

General Contractor:

General contractor to be acceptable to the bank and provide payment and performance bond or letter of credit equal to 10% of the contract amount, which letter of credit issuer and format must be acceptable to the bank.

Fees and Expenses:

Borrower will pay all reasonable costs incurred by the Bank in connection with the financing including, but not limited to, legal, environmental, front end costs and document review/inspections, physical needs assessment (for existing projects only) and appraisal. Borrower acknowledges that Bank may receive a benefit, including, without limitation, a discount, credit or other accommodation, from outside counsel based on the fees such counsel may receive on account of their relationship with Bank including, without limitation, fees paid pursuant hereto.

Reporting Requirements:

Annually: Borrower and Guarantors' financial statements and covenant compliance.

Semi-Annually: Guarantors' financial statements and covenant compliance.

Monthly: Property operating statements and rental summary report.

Know Your Customer:

Within five (5) business days of opening an account with Bank, Borrower shall have delivered to Bank all due diligence materials necessary and relevant to verifying Borrower's identity and background information, as deemed necessary by Bank in its sole and absolute discretion.

Principal Depository:

Borrower shall maintain Bank of America, N.A. as its principal depository bank, including for the maintenance of business, cash management, operating and administrative deposit accounts.

Other Requirements:

All of the following to be acceptable to the Bank: documentation and submissions that are standard for loans of this type including, but not limited to, appraisal, ESA, legal documentation, insurance, title/survey, proposed standard lease form, front-end cost and document reviews and acceptance of final budget (includes adequate contingency, interest carry/operating deficit reserve, etc.), review of plans/specs, condition of markets/submarkets, revenue/expenses pro-formas, financial review of Borrower, Guarantor, and general contractor, management agreement and subordination; and (as applicable), proof of tax credit award, equity investor and pay-in schedule, proof of tax-exempt status with respect to ad valorem taxes and other terms and conditions as may be required.

Confidentiality:

This document is strictly confidential and may not be shared with anyone else other than the owners of Borrower and Miami Dade County Public Housing and Community Development Staff.

Material Adverse Change:

Bank of America's obligations hereunder shall terminate if, prior to closing, Bank of America determines, in its sole judgment, that there shall exist any conditions regarding the property, or the operations, business, assets, liabilities or condition (financial or otherwise, including credit rating) of Borrower or Guarantor, or there shall have occurred a material adverse change in, or there shall exist any material adverse conditions in, the market for syndicated bank credit facilities or the financial, banking, credit or debt capital markets generally, that could be expected to cause the loan to become delinquent or prevent any guarantor from performing its obligations under any guaranty or to materially and adversely affect the value or marketability of the loan or the property or Bank of America's ability to syndicate the loan or the viability of obtaining permanent financing for the Project.

Assumptions made: The terms discussed herein are presented, based on the credit conditions in the potential transaction as known by Bank of America. HUDSON
HOUSING CAPITAL

February 4, 2016

Mr. Alberto Milo, Jr.
RUDG, LLC
315 S. Biscayne Blvd
Miami, FL 33131

Re: Liberty Square Rising Phase 3A, Miami, FL
A to be formed singled purpose entity, an affiliate of RUDG, LLC (the "Company")

Dear Albert:

Thank you for providing Hudson Housing Capital LLC ("Hudson") with the opportunity to extend a purchase offer for the limited membership interest in the Company that will own Liberty Square Rising Phase 3A.

Hudson is a Delaware limited liability company formed to directly acquire limited membership/partnership interests in companies/partnerships which own apartment complexes qualifying for low-income housing tax credits ("Tax Credits") under Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

Set forth is our proposal as to the basic business terms under which Hudson or its designee ("Investor") will acquire a 99.99% limited membership interest in the Company which will own a 216-unit complex in Miami, Florida (the "Property"). You have advised us that RUDG, LLC (the "Developer") will be the developer of the Property and a to-be formed single purpose entity, an affiliate of RUDG, LLC (the "Manager") will be the Manager of the Company. Subject to review of financials, entities acceptable to Hudson shall guarantee the obligations of the Manager (the "Guarantor"). An affiliate of the Investor will be admitted to the Company as a special member (the "Special Member", "SM") with limited supervisory rights

You have also advised us that the Property will apply for an as-of right Tax Credit allocation of credits from The Florida Housing Finance Corporation of $1,731,982, 4% Tax Credits per year. All 216 units will qualify for Tax Credits. 176 units will be public housing subsidized pursuant to an annual contributions contract (the "Annual Contributions Contract", "ACC").

I. Equity Investment

The Investor will contribute to the Company a total of $19,396,259 (the "Total Equity"), or approximately $1.12 (the "Tax Credit Ratio") per total Tax Credit available to the Investor, payable in the following installments:

| Contribution | Contribution % | Description/Timing |
|---|---|---|
| First | 30% | At closing and through construction (see detail below) |
| Second | 60% | Breakeven (Stabilization) |
| Third | 10% | Forms 8609 |

a. First Capital Contribution. The Investor will fund the First Capital Contribution as follows:

| Timing | Contribution |
|---|---|
| At closing | 10% |
| At 50% completion | 10% |
| At 75% completion | 10% |

b. Second Capital Contribution. The Second Capital Contribution will be paid upon the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in the Operating Agreement, which are principally as follows: (i) lien-free completion of construction of the Property substantially in accordance with the Plans and Specifications in a workmanlike manner approved by Hudson; (ii) issuance of Certificates of Occupancy for 100% of the units in the Property; (iii) receipt of final Tax Credit cost certification from independent accountants to the Company (the "Accountant") (the "Final Certification"); (iv) if not received at the Initial Closing, receipt of a tax credit determination letter for the Property; (v) receipt of a pay-off letter from the general contractor or sub-contractors, as applicable; and (vi) receipt of prior year's income tax returns in the event such returns are then due; (vii) qualification of 100% of the set-aside apartment units in the Property for Tax Credits; (viii) satisfactory financial condition of the Guarantor (no event of bankruptcy); and (ix) achievement of Breakeven level for three consecutive months (the "Breakeven Date").

"Breakeven" shall mean that, for each such month, occupancy is at least 95% and that Property income including ACC payments equals the greater of underwritten and actual expenses including replacement reserves, any land lease payments, reassessed taxes, assuming the greater of actual or a 5% vacancy rate. Any ACC payments due for each month of the Breakeven period though not funded at such time will be credited as income for that period for purposes of this Breakeven test provided that it is received by the end of such 3 month period.

c. Third Capital Contribution. The Third Capital Contribution will be paid upon satisfaction of the conditions set forth in the Operating Agreement, which are principally as follows: (i) receipt of Form 8609 with respect to all buildings constituting the Property; and (ii) receipt of a tax return and an audited financial statement for the year in which the Breakeven Date occurred.

In the event such tax return and audited financial statement are not due at such time, $15,000 of the Third Capital Contribution shall be held back and released upon receipt of such items.

Our offer assumes the following financing:

a. Construction period first mortgage loan in the approximate amount of $22,000,000.
b. Gap Funds in the approximate amount of $17,954,000.

II. Developer Fee

The Developer shall receive a Developer Fee not to exceed the maximum allowable Developer Fee pursuant to Florida Housing Financing Corporation ("State Finance Agency") guidelines, to be paid on a schedule to be agreed upon. You have represented that the amount of the Developer Fee does not exceed the amount permitted to be paid by the State Finance Agency. Deferred developer fees shall be paid from available cash flow as detailed in Section V and shall bear interest at the AFR. Principal payments on the deferred developer fees shall commence with the funding of the Second Capital Contribution.

III. Property Management Fee

The Manager may retain one of its affiliates to be the managing agent for the Property on commercially reasonable terms. The management agreement, to be approved by the Investor, shall have an initial term of 1 year and shall be renewable annually thereafter, shall provide for an annual management fee not to exceed the maximum allowable management fee pursuant to HUD guidelines, and shall otherwise be on commercially reasonable terms (including a termination right by the Manager in the event of fraud/gross negligence or material default by the Manager). If the managing agent is affiliated with the Manager, the management agreement shall provide for a deferral of up to 100% of the management fee in the event that the property does not generate positive Cash Flow.

IV. Intentionally Omitted

V. Cash Flow Distributions

Cash flow from the Property, after payment of operating expenses (including the Administrative Expense Reimbursement, current and any deferred property management fees from prior years, debt service), replenishment of required reserves (including any reserve payments which were not made due to insufficient cash flow) and payment of any tax liability incurred by the Investor ("Cash Flow"), shall be distributed annually (subsequent to the Breakeven Date) as follows:

a. to the payment of any Operating Deficit Loans, if any;
b. 90% of Cash Flow after Va. to payment of (i) the Developer Fees; and (ii) the balance (if any) to the Manager as a preferred return with an equivalent allocation of income;
c. the remainder to be split in accordance with Company interests.

VI. Sale or Refinancing Proceeds

Net sale or refinancing proceeds (i.e., after payment of, outstanding debts, liabilities other than to the Manager and its affiliates and expenses of the Company and establishment of necessary reserves) shall be distributed as follows:

a. Repayment of outstanding loans by the limited members, if any;
b. Payment of amounts due to the limited members under the Tax Credit Adjuster;
c. Repayment of outstanding loans by the Manager, including the Developer Fee Note (if not paid) and Operating Deficit loans;
d. 10% to the Investor and 90% to the Manager

Right of First Refusal

A qualified non-profit corporation designated by the Manager shall have a right of first refusal as allowed under Section 42, commencing upon the expiration of the tax credit compliance period continuing for 12 months, to purchase the Project or the Special Member's interest for the outstanding debt including any amounts owed to the Special Members plus all exit taxes of the Special Members.

VII. Manager Commitments

a. Low Income Housing Tax Credit Adjustment. Our offer is based upon the assumption that the Company will qualify for and claim Tax Credits of $1,731,982 per year for the 15 year compliance period.

(i) Adjustments during equity payment (construction and leaseup) period

In the event that either the Form 8609's or the Final Certification indicate that the Property will not generate the projected aggregate amount of Tax Credits (other than as specified below), the Operating Agreement will provide for a return of such capital, an adjustment in the amount of any unpaid Capital Contributions and/or a payment by the Manager to the Investor, sufficient to restore the Tax Credit Ratio as defined above.

Not withstanding the preceding paragraph, in the event that the Final Certification specifies that, while the aggregate amount of Tax Credit allocable to the Company is unchanged, the amount of Tax Credits allocable to the Company in the first two years of the compliance period is less than the amounts to be specified prior to closing for the corresponding years, the Second/Third Capital Contributions will be reduced by $0.60 for each dollar by which such amounts exceed the amount of Tax Credits allocable to the Company for such period.

(ii) Adjustments during compliance period

After the Form 8609's have been issued, in the event that the actual amount of Tax Credits which may be claimed by the Company is less than the amount specified in such Forms, the Manager shall reimburse the Investor on a dollar-for-dollar basis for each lost dollar of Tax Credits plus any resulting penalties or taxes due. Similarly, if there is a recapture of Tax Credits (except from the sale or transfer of the Investor's interest in the Company, or due to a change of applicable tax law), the Manager shall upon demand indemnify the Investor and its members against any Tax Credit recapture liability (including interest, penalties and any reasonable related legal or accounting costs) which they may incur during the Compliance Period.

b. Development Deficit Guaranty. The Manager shall be responsible for completion of the Property in a workmanlike manner, in accordance with approved plans and specifications, free and clear of all liens. To the extent that the costs of construction and operations until the Breakeven Date exceed the amount of any funding by approved permanent third party lenders, any unpaid Developer Fees and the amount of the Investor's capital commitment (adjusted as set forth above), the Manager shall pay all such costs and expenses connected with development and construction of the Property, including all operating expenses of the Property until the Breakeven Date has been achieved. The contractor shall be required to post a 100% payment & performance bond or a 15% letter of credit to the construction lender.

c. Operating Deficit Guaranty. The Manager shall make interest free loans to the Company (repayable from cash flow and/or sale and refinancing proceeds as described above) equal to any Operating Deficits (including the Minimum Deposit described in VII e. below and the administration fee described in VIII. a. below) incurred during the period beginning on the Breakeven Date and ending on the completion of three consecutive years of Breakeven operations, in an amount not to exceed 12 months of underwritten operating expenses in the aggregate (the "Operating Deficit Guaranty").

An Operating Reserve in an amount equal to the greater of $432,126 or three months of operating expenses and shall be funded at the time of the Second Capital Contribution. The Manager shall be obligated to fund this reserve. The Operating Reserve shall be maintained for the duration of the compliance period and cannot be used until the expiration of the Operating Deficit Guaranty.

An ACC Reserve shall also be established in an amount equal to $385,625 or six months of subsidy payments. The Manager will be obligated to fund this reserve at the time of the Second Capital Contribution and it shall remain in place for the duration of the tax credit compliance period.

d. Obligations of Manager. Immediately following the occurrence of any of the following events, (x) the Manager shall admit the Special Member or its designee as the manager of the Company and, at the option of the Investor, withdraw from the Company; or, (y) at the option of the Investor with respect to any of the events described in clauses (i) through (v) below, repurchase the Investor's interest in the Company: (i) an IRS Form 8609 is not issued with respect to each of the buildings in the Property in a timely manner after each such building has been placed in service; (ii) the Property is not fully placed in service within 24 months of closing; (iii) the Company fails to meet the minimum set aside test (as defined in Section 42 of the Code) or fails to execute and record a Tax Credit Extended Use Commitment by the close of the first year of the Credit Period: (iv) the Company shall have been declared in default by any mortgage lender or under the tax credit allocation or foreclosure proceedings have been commenced against the Property and such default is not cured or such proceeding is not dismissed within 30 days; or (v) there is a material violation of the Operating Agreement by the Manager or if the property manager is an affiliate of the Manager, a material violation of the management agreement by the manager which causes material adverse harm to the Investor, the Company or the Property.

If the Investor elects to have its interest repurchased by the Manager, the repurchase price shall be equal to 105% of the sum of (i) all capital contributions made by the investor, (ii) any tax liability (if any) incurred by the Investor as a result of such repurchase, less any Capital Contributions not funded to date.

e. Replacement Reserve. Commencing with the month following Completion, the Company will make a minimum monthly replacement reserve deposit (the "Minimum Deposit") equal to (on an annualized basis) the greater of (i) the amount required by the permanent lender and (ii) $300/unit. The amount of the Minimum Deposit shall be increased annually by a percentage (the "CPI Percentage"). If the sum of all lender-imposed monthly replacement reserve deposits is less than the Minimum Deposit, Investor will establish a separate account into which the Manager will deposit the difference. Any interest earned on such account shall become a part thereof.

f. Reporting. The Company will be required to furnish Investor with (a) quarterly unaudited financial statements within 60 days after the end of each quarter of the fiscal year; (b) annual audited financial statements within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year; (c) an annual budget for each fiscal year of the Company, not later than November 1 of the preceding year; and (d) the Company's tax returns and K-1 forms within 60 days after the end of each fiscal year. The penalty for any failure to deliver Company tax returns or K-1 forms prior to the specified deadline shall be (i) $50 per day for the first seven days after such deadline, (ii) $100 per day for the next seven days and (iii) $150 per day thereafter, provided that the amount of such penalty shall not exceed $2,000 in any year.

VIII. Fees to Affiliates of Hudson

a. Administrative Expense Reimbursement. An affiliate of Hudson shall receive an annual administrative expense reimbursement from the Company in the amount of $5,000 (commencing with payment of the Second Capital Contribution), which amount shall be increased annually by the CPI Percentage.

IX. Representations, Warranties and Covenants

The Manager shall make certain representations and warranties as to the Company, the Manager and the Property to be set forth in the Operating Agreement.

X. Accountants

The Accountants for the Company shall be Novogradac & Co, CohnReznick Group, RubinBrown or another firm approved by the Investor. The Accountants shall prepare tax and financial reports as set forth in the Operating Agreement, and the Final Certification referred to in I.c., above.

XI. Investment Member Rights

The Operating Agreement will provide certain approval rights as to major actions proposed to be taken by the Manager. The Investor shall have the right to remove the Manager and the Manager for cause.

XII. Insurance

At the closing, the Manager shall provide for title insurance satisfactory to counsel to the Investor in an amount equal to the sum of all Capital Contributions, all mortgage loans and the amount of any Development Fee Note. Prior to the payment of any additional installment of the Capital Contribution, a "date down" of such policy shall be provided. The Manager shall provide for (i) liability (general and excess) insurance in an amount of at least $6,000,000 (increased biennially by the CPI Percentage), (ii) hazard insurance (including boiler and machinery coverage) in an amount of not less than the replacement value of the Property, (iii) rental loss insurance for a period of 12 months after the date of loss and (iv) law and ordinance coverage. Builder's risk insurance shall be provided during construction. Architects shall submit evidence of errors and omissions coverage, in amounts reasonably satisfactory to the Investor. Workers compensation insurance shall be provided as to any entity with employees working at the Apartment Complex. All policies shall name the Investor as an additional insured and shall otherwise be subject to Investor approval.

XIII. Indemnity Agreement

Miami, Fl

Dear Mr. Milo:

This letter will serve as an outline of the terms under which Bank of America (the "Bank") would offer construction tax-exempt bond financing. This commitment is contingent upon credit approval and completion of the underwriting and due diligence process, including without limitation receipt of appraisals, environmental reports, Bank's engineer's reports and all final budgets and operating pro forma, all satisfactory to Bank in its sole and absolute discretion. Bank shall have no obligations hereunder if any of the conditions set forth therein are not satisfied as Bank requires in its sole and absolute discretion. All funding agreements for the Project shall be in form and substance acceptable to Bank in its sole discretion. We reserve the right to modify and/or add to any terms described in this letter following receipt and review of due diligence materials. The following is intended to summarize the structure and basic terms and conditions (subject to modification upon completion of due diligence by Bank) upon which Bank will provide the financing described herein and is not an inclusive statement of all provisions, documents or requirements of a closing. This commitment shall be null and void and of no further effect if not executed and returned on or before February 18, 2016.

The proposed terms and conditions are as follows:

| Borrower: | A to be formed single purpose entity, affiliate of RUDG, LLC.—form and substance of Borrower must be acceptable to the Bank. |
| Guarantors: | 100% guarantee of completion, performance and repayment to be provided by PRH Investments, LLC. For borrowers that are single-asset entities, principal(s) with general liability or guarantor(s) acceptable to the Bank must be jointly and severally liable for completion of the project and repayment of the financing, including interest and costs. Guarantors to have financial covenants that include minimum net worth and liquidity—TBD. |
| Purpose: | To enable Borrower to construct a total of 144 apartment units known as Liberty Square Rising Phase 3B in Miami Dade County, Florida. |
| Program: | Construction financing through Bank's Special Bond Offering product ("SBO"), a proprietary private placement tax-exempt bond product. |

Bank will purchase no more than $16,000,000 in floating rate tax-exempt bonds ("Bonds") issued through the Miami Dade County Housing Finance Authority ("Issuer"). The debt service on the Bonds will be interest-only at a floating rate until the date that is 24 months after the closing date (the "Conversion Date"), in order to allow for construction and lease-up.

The SBO can be used in a full-sale or draw-down bond scenario provided this latter structure is acceptable to the Issuer. Repayment must occur not later than the Conversion Date, provided that such deadline may be extended for 6 additional months upon satisfaction of the following conditions: (a) No less than 30 but no more than 90 day written notice of intention to exercise the option; (b) No event of default having occurred or potential default occurring; (c) Performance hurdles have been met, including but not limited to, lien-free construction completion and lease up hurdles; (d) The loan is in balance, including sufficient interest reserve; (e) Project must demonstrate the ability to be able to convert/payoff Bank's loan within the 6-month extension period; (f) All co-construction loans mature or are extended concurrent or past the Bank's extension date; (g) All takeout commitments expire or are extended concurrent or past the Bank's extension date; (h) All investor commitments include terms or are modified to be consistent with the extension of the Bank's loan; (i) No material adverse change in the financial condition of the Project, Borrower, and Guarantor; (j) payment of an extension fee of 50 bps of the total commitment amount; and (k) rate adjustment or fee payment, as appropriate, to cover the cost of revising the forward rate lock, if any.

Floating Rate: A rate of LIBOR Daily Floating Rate + 2.25% prior to the Conversion Date.

Issuer/Trustee Fees: Borrower will pay all costs of issuance, including, without limitation, any upfront and/or ongoing issuer fees, all bond counsel fees, Issuer's counsel fees, if any, and all fees to the Trustee to close the issuance of the Bonds and administer the Bonds. These fees are not included in the above stated rates.

Financing Fees: 100 bps origination fee payable on initial Bond closing. Administrative fee of $5,000.

LIHTC Bank of America will need to approve the tax credit investor and pay-in schedule. The LIHTC limited partnership agreement must obligate the tax credit investor to make equity payments into the Project with no less than 20% of total LIHTC equity being invested at Bond closing, and with additional payments during construction satisfactory to Bank of America.

Take Out Financing: Take out commitment conditions must be acceptable to the Bank, and may include a requirement for interest rate protection. Borrower and any person or entity that at any time provides a guaranty of Borrower's obligations in respect of such interest rate protection (including but not limited to any general partner of any thereof) will be required to be an "eligible contract participant" as such term is defined in the Commodity Exchange Act (7 U.S.C. § 1 et seq.), as amended from time to time, and any successor statute.

Loan to Value:

An independent appraisal must support all bank underwriting conclusions, including but not limited to a loan-to-value ratio satisfactory to bank based upon the completed and stabilized restricted value of the subject real estate plus any value ascribed to other acceptable collateral including, but not limited to, cash collateral and Low Income Housing Tax Credits.

Security: A first priority (i) mortgage and security interest in the Project; (ii) security interest in all personal property used in conjunction with the construction, operation and maintenance of the Project; (iii) assignment of all leases and rents; (iv) assignment of all construction, architect, and engineering contracts; (v) assignment of all permits, licenses and agreements; (vi) assignment of interests in the Borrower; (vii) pledge of reserve accounts;

Other Conditions 1) Miami Dade County GOB, HOME, SAIL and/or any additional source of funds to close simultaneously with the subject loan closing, demonstrate funds readily available and not subject to future appropriations or approvals and be subordinate to bank financing as documented in an agreement acceptable to the bank. Timing of disbursement of said funds to be acceptable to the bank.
2) Intercreditor agreement, acceptable to the bank, to be executed by all parties providing funds for the construction and completion of the subject property

Environmental: Environmental indemnity to be obtained in form and substance approved by the Bank.

General Contractor: General contractor to be acceptable to the bank and provide payment and performance bond or letter of credit equal to 10% of the contract amount, which letter of credit issuer and format must be acceptable to the bank.

Fees and Expenses: Borrower will pay all reasonable costs incurred by the Bank in connection with the financing including, but not limited to, legal, environmental, front end costs and document review/inspections, physical needs assessment (for existing projects only) and appraisal. Borrower acknowledges that Bank may receive a benefit, including, without limitation, a discount, credit or other accommodation, from outside counsel based on the fees such counsel may receive on account of their relationship with Bank including, without limitation, fees paid pursuant hereto.

Reporting Requirements: Annually: Borrower and Guarantors' financial statements and covenant compliance.

Semi-Annually: Guarantors' financial statements and covenant compliance.

Monthly: Property operating statements and rental summary report.

Know Your Customer: Within five (5) business days of opening an account with Bank, Borrower shall have delivered to Bank all due diligence materials necessary and relevant to verifying Borrower's identity and background information, as deemed necessary by Bank in its sole and absolute discretion.

Principal Depository: Borrower shall maintain Bank of America, N.A. as its principal depository bank, including for the maintenance of business, cash management, operating and administrative deposit accounts.

Other Requirements: All of the following to be acceptable to the Bank: documentation and submissions that are standard for loans of this type including, but not limited to, appraisal, ESA, legal documentation, insurance, title/survey, proposed standard lease form, front-end cost and document reviews and acceptance of final budget (includes adequate contingency, interest carry/operating deficit reserve, etc.), review of plans/specs, condition of markets/submarkets, revenue/expenses pro-formas, financial review of Borrower, Guarantor, and general contractor, management agreement and subordination; and (as applicable), proof of tax credit award, equity investor and pay-in schedule, proof of tax-exempt status with respect to ad valorem taxes and other terms and conditions as may be required.

Confidentiality: This document is strictly confidential and may not be shared with anyone else other than the owners of Borrower and Miami Dade County Public Housing and Community Development Staff.

Material Adverse Change: Bank of America's obligations hereunder shall terminate if, prior to closing, Bank of America determines, in its sole judgment, that there shall exist any conditions regarding the property, or the operations, business, assets, liabilities or condition (financial or otherwise, including credit rating) of Borrower or Guarantor, or there shall have occurred a material adverse change in, or there shall exist any material adverse conditions in, the market for syndicated bank credit facilities or the financial, banking, credit or debt capital markets generally, that could be expected to cause the loan to become delinquent or prevent any guarantor from performing its obligations under any guaranty or to materially and adversely affect the value or marketability of the loan or the property or Bank of America's ability to syndicate the loan or the viability of obtaining permanent financing for the Project.

Assumptions made: The terms discussed herein are presented, based on the credit conditions in the potential transaction as known by Bank of America. Should additional facts come to light that positively or negatively impact the situation, prices or other requirements quoted here may be adjusted.

Expiration: This letter will expire at 5:00 p.m. on that date which is ten (10) business days from the date hereof unless you execute this letter and return it to us prior to that time, which may be by facsimile transmission.

The undersigned acknowledges and agrees that: (i) the transaction contemplated by this letter is an arm's length, commercial transaction between you and Bank in which Bank is acting solely as a principal and for its own interest; (ii) Bank is not acting as a municipal advisor or financial advisor to you; (iii) Bank has no fiduciary duty pursuant to Section 15B of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to you with respect to the transaction contemplated hereby and the discussions, undertakings and procedures leading thereto (irrespective of whether Bank has provided other services or is currently providing other services to you on other matters); (iv) the only obligations Bank has to you with respect to the transaction contemplated hereby expressly are set forth in this letter; and (v) Bank is not recommending that you take an action with respect to the transaction contemplated by this letter, and before taking any action with respect to the contemplated transaction, you should discuss the information contained herein with its own legal, accounting, tax, financial and other advisors, as it deems appropriate. If you would like a municipal advisor in this transaction that has legal fiduciary duties to you, you are free to engage a municipal advisor to serve in that capacity. This letter is provided to you pursuant to and in reliance upon the "bank exemption" provided under the municipal advisor rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Rule 15Ba1-1 et seq.

Please review the above terms and conditions and feel free to call me with any questions or comments you may have. HUDSON

February 4, 2016

Mr. Alberto Milo, Jr.
RUDG, LLC
Miami, FL 33131

Re: Liberty Square Rising Phase 3B, Miami, FL
A to be formed singled purpose entity, an affiliate of RUDG, LLC (the "Company")

Dear Albert:

Thank you for providing Hudson Housing Capital LLC ("Hudson") with the opportunity to extend a purchase offer for the limited membership interest in the Company that will own Liberty Square Rising Phase 3B.

Hudson is a Delaware limited liability company formed to directly acquire limited membership/partnership interests in companies/partnerships which own apartment complexes qualifying for low-income housing tax credits ("Tax Credits") under Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

Set forth is our proposal as to the basic business terms under which Hudson or its designee ("Investor") will acquire a 99.99% limited membership interest in the Company which will own a 144-unit complex in Miami, Florida (the "Property"). You have advised us that RUDG, LLC (the "Developer") will be the developer of the Property and a to-be formed single purpose entity, an affiliate of RUDG, LLC (the "Manager") will be the Manager of the Company. Subject to review of financials, entities acceptable to Hudson shall guarantee the obligations of the Manager (the "Guarantor"). An affiliate of the Investor will be admitted to the Company as a special member (the "Special Member", "SM") with limited supervisory rights

You have also advised us that the Property will apply for an as-of right Tax Credit allocation of credits from The Florida Housing Finance Corporation of $1,228,928, 4% Tax Credits per year. All 144 units will qualify for Tax Credits. 104 units will be public housing subsidized pursuant to an annual contributions contract (the "Annual Contributions Contract". "ACC").

I. Equity Investment

The Investor will contribute to the Company a total of $13,762,617 (the "Total Equity"), or approximately $1.12 (the "Tax Credit Ratio") per total Tax Credit available to the Investor, payable in the following installments:

| Contribution | Contribution % | Description/Timing |
|---|---|---|
| First | 30% | At closing and through construction (see detail below) |
| Second | 60% | Breakeven (Stabilization) |
| Third | 10% | Forms 8609 |

a. First Capital Contribution. The Investor will fund the First Capital Contribution as follows:

| Timing | Contribution |
|---|---|
| At closing | 10% |
| At 50% completion | 10% |
| At 75% completion | 10% |

b. Second Capital Contribution. The Second Capital Contribution will be paid upon the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in the Operating Agreement, which are principally as follows: (i) lien-free completion of construction of the Property substantially in accordance with the Plans and Specifications in a workmanlike manner approved by Hudson; (ii) issuance of Certificates of Occupancy for 100% of the units in the Property; (iii) receipt of final Tax Credit cost certification from independent accountants to the Company (the "Accountant") (the "Final Certification"); (iv) if not received at the Initial Closing, receipt of a tax credit determination letter for the Property; (v) receipt of a pay-off letter from the general contractor or sub-contractors, as applicable; and (vi) receipt of prior year's income tax returns in the event such returns are then due; (vii) qualification of 100% of the set-aside apartment units in the Property for Tax Credits; (viii) satisfactory financial condition of the Guarantor (no event of bankruptcy); and (ix) achievement of Breakeven level for three consecutive months (the "Breakeven Date").

"Breakeven" shall mean that, for each such month, occupancy is at least 95% and that Property income including ACC payments equals the greater of underwritten and actual expenses including replacement reserves, any land lease payments, reassessed taxes, assuming the greater of actual or a 5% vacancy rate. Any ACC payments due for each month of the Breakeven period though not funded at such time will be credited as income for that period for purposes of this Breakeven test provided that it is received by the end of such 3 month period.

c. Third Capital Contribution. The Third Capital Contribution will be paid upon satisfaction of the conditions set forth in the Operating Agreement, which are principally as follows: (i) receipt of Form 8609 with respect to all buildings constituting the Property; and (ii) receipt of a tax return and an audited financial statement for the year in which the Breakeven Date occurred.

In the event such tax return and audited financial statement are not due at such time, $15,000 of the Third Capital Contribution shall be held back and released upon receipt of such items.

Our offer assumes the following financing:

a. Construction period first mortgage loan in the approximate amount of $16,000,000.
b. Gap Funds in the approximate amount of $13,100,000.

II. Developer Fee

The Developer shall receive a Developer Fee not to exceed the maximum allowable Developer Fee pursuant to Florida Housing Financing Corporation ("State Finance Agency") guidelines, to be paid on a schedule to be agreed upon. You have represented that the amount of the Developer Fee does not exceed the amount permitted to be paid by the State Finance Agency. Deferred developer fees shall be paid from available cash flow as detailed in Section V and shall bear interest at the AFR. Principal payments on the deferred developer fees shall commence with the funding of the Second Capital Contribution.

III. Property Management Fee

The Manager may retain one of its affiliates to be the managing agent for the Property on commercially reasonable terms. The management agreement, to be approved by the Investor, shall have an initial term of 1 year and shall be renewable annually thereafter, shall provide for an annual management fee not to exceed the maximum allowable management fee pursuant to HUD guidelines, and shall otherwise be on commercially reasonable terms (including a termination right by the Manager in the event of fraud/gross negligence or material default by the Manager). If the managing agent is affiliated with the Manager, the management agreement shall provide for a deferral of up to 100% of the management fee in the event that the property does not generate positive Cash Flow.

V. Cash Flow Distributions

Cash flow from the Property, after payment of operating expenses (including the Administrative Expense Reimbursement, current and any deferred property management fees from prior years, debt service), replenishment of required reserves (including any reserve payments which were not made due to insufficient cash flow) and payment of any tax liability incurred by the Investor ("Cash Flow"), shall be distributed annually (subsequent to the Breakeven Date) as follows:

a. to the payment of any Operating Deficit Loans, if any;
b. 90% of Cash Flow after Va. to payment of (i) the Developer Fees; and (ii) the balance (if any) to the Manager as a preferred return with an equivalent allocation of income;
c. the remainder to be split in accordance with Company interests.

VI. Sale or Refinancing Proceeds

Net sale or refinancing proceeds (i.e., after payment of, outstanding debts, liabilities other than to the Manager and its affiliates and expenses of the Company and establishment of necessary reserves) shall be distributed as follows:

a. Repayment of outstanding loans by the limited members, if any;
b. Payment of amounts due to the limited members under the Tax Credit Adjuster;
c. Repayment of outstanding loans by the Manager, including the Developer Fee Note (if not paid) and Operating Deficit loans;
d. 10% to the Investor and 90% to the Manager

Right of First Refusal

A qualified non-profit corporation designated by the Manager shall have a right of first refusal as allowed under Section 42, commencing upon the expiration of the tax credit compliance period continuing for 12 months, to purchase the Project or the Special Member's interest for the outstanding debt including any amounts owed to the Special Members plus all exit taxes of the Special Members.

VII. Manager Commitments

a. Low Income Housing Tax Credit Adjustment. Our offer is based upon the assumption that the Company will qualify for and claim Tax Credits of $1,228,928 per year for the 15 year compliance period.

(i) Adjustments during equity payment (construction and leaseup) period

In the event that either the Form 8609's or the Final Certification indicate that the Property will not generate the projected aggregate amount of Tax Credits (other than as specified below), the Operating Agreement will provide for a return of such capital, an adjustment in the amount of any unpaid Capital Contributions and/or a payment by the Manager to the Investor, sufficient to restore the Tax Credit Ratio as defined above.

Not withstanding the preceding paragraph, in the event that the Final Certification specifies that, while the aggregate amount of Tax Credit allocable to the Company is unchanged, the amount of Tax Credits allocable to the Company in the first two years of the compliance period is less than the amounts to be specified prior to closing for the corresponding years, the Second/Third Capital Contributions will be reduced by $0.60 for each dollar by which such amounts exceed the amount of Tax Credits allocable to the Company for such period.

(ii) Adjustments during compliance period

After the Form 8609's have been issued, in the event that the actual amount of Tax Credits which may be claimed by the Company is less than the amount specified in such Forms, the Manager shall reimburse the Investor on a dollar-for-dollar basis for each lost dollar of Tax Credits plus any resulting penalties or taxes due. Similarly, if there is a recapture of Tax Credits (except from the sale or transfer of the Investor's interest in the Company, or due to a change of applicable tax law), the Manager shall upon demand indemnify the Investor and its members against any Tax Credit recapture liability (including interest, penalties and any reasonable related legal or accounting costs) which they may incur during the Compliance Period.

b. Development Deficit Guaranty. The Manager shall be responsible for completion of the Property in a workmanlike manner, in accordance with approved plans and specifications, free and clear of all liens. To the extent that the costs of construction and operations until the Breakeven Date exceed the amount of any funding by approved permanent third party lenders, any unpaid Developer Fees and the amount of the Investor's capital commitment (adjusted as set forth above), the Manager shall pay all such costs and expenses connected with development and construction of the Property, including all operating expenses of the Property until the Breakeven Date has been achieved. The contractor shall be required to post a 100% payment & performance bond or a 15% letter of credit to the construction lender.

c. Operating Deficit Guaranty. The Manager shall make interest free loans to the Company (repayable from cash flow and/or sale and refinancing proceeds as described above) equal to any Operating Deficits (including the Minimum Deposit described in VII e. below and the administration fee described in VIII. a. below) incurred during the period beginning on the Breakeven Date and ending on the completion of three consecutive years of Breakeven operations, in an amount not to exceed 12 months of underwritten operating expenses in the aggregate (the "Operating Deficit Guaranty").

An Operating Reserve in an amount equal to the greater of $265,390 or three months of operating expenses and shall be funded at the time of the Second Capital Contribution. The Manager shall be obligated to fund this reserve. The Operating Reserve shall be maintained for the duration of the compliance period and cannot be used until the expiration of the Operating Deficit Guaranty.

An ACC Reserve shall also be established in an amount equal to $255,347 or six months of subsidy payments. The Manager will be obligated to fund this reserve at the time of the Second Capital Contribution and it shall remain in place for the duration of the tax credit compliance period.

d. Obligations of Manager. Immediately following the occurrence of any of the following events, (x) the Manager shall admit the Special Member or its designee as the manager of the Company and, at the option of the Investor, withdraw from the Company; or, (y) at the option of the Investor with respect to any of the events described in clauses (i) through (v) below, repurchase the Investor's interest in the Company: (i) an IRS Form 8609 is not issued with respect to each of the buildings in the Property in a timely manner after each such building has been placed in service; (ii) the Property is not fully placed in service within 24 months of closing; (iii) the Company fails to meet the minimum set aside test (as defined in Section 42 of the Code) or fails to execute and record a Tax Credit Extended Use Commitment by the close of the first year of the Credit Period: (iv) the Company shall have been declared in default by any mortgage lender or under the tax credit allocation or foreclosure proceedings have been commenced against the Property and such default is not cured or such proceeding is not dismissed within 30 days; or (v) there is a material violation of the Operating Agreement by the Manager or if the property manager is an affiliate of the Manager, a material violation of the management agreement by the manager which causes material adverse harm to the Investor, the Company or the Property.

If the Investor elects to have its interest repurchased by the Manager, the repurchase price shall be equal to 105% of the sum of (i) all capital contributions made by the investor, (ii) any tax liability (if any) incurred by the Investor as a result of such repurchase, less any Capital Contributions not funded to date.

e. Replacement Reserve. Commencing with the month following Completion, the Company will make a minimum monthly replacement reserve deposit (the "Minimum Deposit") equal to (on an annualized basis) the greater of (i) the amount required by the permanent lender and (ii) $300/unit. The amount of the Minimum Deposit shall be increased annually by a percentage (the "CPI Percentage"). If the sum of all lender-imposed monthly replacement reserve deposits is less than the Minimum Deposit, Investor will establish a separate account into which the Manager will deposit the difference. Any interest earned on such account shall become a part thereof.

f. Reporting. The Company will be required to furnish Investor with (a) quarterly unaudited financial statements within 60 days after the end of each quarter of the fiscal year; (b) annual audited financial statements within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year; (c) an annual budget for each fiscal year of the Company, not later than November 1 of the preceding year; and (d) the Company's tax returns and K-1 forms within 60 days after the end of each fiscal year. The penalty for any failure to deliver Company tax returns or K-1 forms prior to the specified deadline shall be (i) $50 per day for the first seven days after such deadline, (ii) $100 per day for the next seven days and (iii) $150 per day thereafter, provided that the amount of such penalty shall not exceed $2,000 in any year.

VIII. Fees to Affiliates of Hudson

a. Administrative Expense Reimbursement. An affiliate of Hudson shall receive an annual administrative expense reimbursement from the Company in the amount of $5,000 (commencing with payment of the Second Capital Contribution), which amount shall be increased annually by the CPI Percentage.

IX. Representations, Warranties and Covenants

The Manager shall make certain representations and warranties as to the Company, the Manager and the Property to be set forth in the Operating Agreement.

X. Accountants

The Accountants for the Company shall be Novogradac & Co, CohnReznick Group, RubinBrown or another firm approved by the Investor. The Accountants shall prepare tax and financial reports as set forth in the Operating Agreement, and the Final Certification referred to in I.c., above.

XI. Investment Member Rights

The Operating Agreement will provide certain approval rights as to major actions proposed to be taken by the Manager. The Investor shall have the right to remove the Manager and the Manager for cause.

XII. Insurance

At the closing, the Manager shall provide for title insurance satisfactory to counsel to the Investor in an amount equal to the sum of all Capital Contributions, all mortgage loans and the amount of any Development Fee Note. Prior to the payment of any additional installment of the Capital Contribution, a "date down" of such policy shall be provided. The Manager shall provide for (i) liability (general and excess) insurance in an amount of at least $6,000,000 (increased biennially by the CPI Percentage), (ii) hazard insurance (including boiler and machinery coverage) in an amount of not less than the replacement value of the Property, (iii) rental loss insurance for a period of 12 months after the date of loss and (iv) law and ordinance coverage. Builder's risk insurance shall be provided during construction. Architects shall submit evidence of errors and omissions coverage, in amounts reasonably satisfactory to the Investor. Workers compensation insurance shall be provided as to any entity with employees working at the Apartment Complex. All policies shall name the Investor as an additional insured and shall otherwise be subject to Investor approval.

XIII. Indemnity Agreement

The Manager shall indemnify the Investor, Hudson and its affiliates, and their respective officers, directors for any untrue statement of a material fact or omission to state a material fact necessary to make any such statement, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, by the Manager or its agents set forth in any document delivered by the Manager or its agents in connection with the acquisition of the Property, the investment by the Investor in the Company and the execution of the Operating Agreement.

XIV. General Conditions

Payment of the Second/Third Capital Contributions shall be conditioned upon completion of an appropriate due diligence review by the Investor to confirm that there have been no changes in material circumstances affecting the Property, including (i) review of title (including a "date-down" endorsement), survey, environmental and other legal and regulatory matters, (ii) receipt of a "date-down" legal opinion from counsel to the Company for the Second Capital Contribution; and (iii) certification by the Manager as to the continued accuracy of representations and warranties made in the Operating Agreement.

XVI. Conditions to Closing

Hudson has performed preliminary underwriting which is attached as Exhibit A, and will request the full cooperation of you and your professionals, customary due diligence review in connection with the acquisition of the Property and the Investor interest in the Company. Re: Commitment to utilize Private Activity Volume Cap to finance Multifamily Rental Projects relating to the new construction of eight projects to be known as Liberty Square Rising Phase 1A, Liberty Square Rising Phase 1B, Liberty Square Rising Phase 2, Liberty Square Rising Phase 4B, Liberty Square Rising Phase 4C, and Liberty Square Rising Phase 4D located in Miami-Dade County, Florida (the "Property" or "Properties")

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Citibank, N.A.("CITI") is pleased to offer to RUDG ("Sponsor"), as the Sponsor of to-be-formed affiliates ("Borrower" or "Borrowers"), this commitment ("Commitment") for financing , subject to the terms, requirements and conditions which follow. All capitalized terms used herein, unless otherwise defined, shall have the meaning set forth on Exhibit A annexed hereto and incorporated herein by this reference (the "Commitment Terms"). CITI's decision to issue this Commitment was made in reliance upon the representations and material supplied by Sponsor and Sponsor's representatives, as more particularly described on Exhibit B annexed hereto. CITI understands that Sponsor intends to submit this Commitment to Miami-Dade County Housing Finance Authority ("Governmental Lender") in support of Sponsor's application to obtain 1) private activity volume cap allocation(s) with respect to the financing of the Properties and 2) soft financing from Miami-Dade County. This Commitment is subject to, among other things, CITI completing due diligence to confirm the representations made by Sponsor and obtaining credit committee approval.

In connection with this Commitment, CITI will be acting solely as a principal and not as your agent, advisor or fiduciary. CITI has not assumed a fiduciary responsibility with respect to this Commitment, and nothing in this Commitment or in any prior relationship between you and CITI will be deemed to create an advisory, fiduciary or agency relationship between us in respect of this Commitment. You should consider carefully whether you would like to engage an independent advisor to represent or otherwise advise you in connection with this Commitment, if you have not already done so.

A. Transaction Summary. The terms of the tax-exempt financing transaction (the "Transaction") that is the subject of this Commitment is as follows:

1. On the issuance date (the "Closing Date"), CITI shall fund a loan (the "Funding Loan") to Governmental Lender, and Governmental Lender shall simultaneously issue a note (the "Governmental Lender Note") to CITI. The proceeds of the Funding Loan shall be used by Governmental Lender to make a tax-exempt loan (the "Tax-Exempt Loan" or the "Borrower Loan") to Borrower to finance the Property, for which the Governmental Lender receives a borrower note (the "Borrower Note"). Borrower shall be responsible for securing the issuance and delivery of the Tax-Exempt Loan by the Governmental Lender.

2. Upon closing of the transaction, the rights of Governmental Lender in the Borrower Loan and all documents evidencing and securing the Borrower Loan (the "Borrower Loan Documents") shall be assigned to a fiscal agent, which may be CITI (the "Fiscal Agent"), as security for the Governmental Lender's obligations to CITI evidenced by the Governmental Lender Note. CITI will administer and direct the disbursement of the proceeds of the Funding Loan and the Borrower Loan and will oversee the construction work to be performed on the Property (the "Improvements"). The completion of the Improvements and all related work shall be performed during the Construction Phase (as hereinafter defined).

3. CITI shall have the right to engage a third party servicer ("Servicer") to provide limited servicing/oversight functions on behalf of CITI pursuant to a separate servicing agreement with CITI. CITI shall pay Servicer any applicable servicing fee.

4. Intentionally Omitted

5. CITI anticipates that CITI's interest in the Tax-Exempt Loan may be transferred to any eligible investor, which may be a government sponsored enterprise or institutional investor (or a trust for the benefit thereof) and CITI's underwriting and documentation will provide for the possibility of such transfer.

B. Conditions Precedent to Closing. The obligation of CITI to make the Funding Loan is subject to satisfaction of the following conditions precedent ("Conditions Precedent to Closing"), in each case in a manner acceptable to CITI. The form and substance of all documents and items submitted by Borrower hereunder must be acceptable to CITI and its counsel.

1. Credit Approval. This Commitment is subject, among other things, to CITI obtaining final credit committee approval. Sponsor understands and agrees that this is subject to final approvals as set forth in Part E.4. of this Commitment and is not an agreement to make a loan. Any documentation will be forthcoming only after final approval of the underwriting by CITI's credit committee. The financing will be documented separately and will contain terms and conditions that may be in addition to or in substitution of those set forth in the Commitment.

2. Documents. Borrower shall duly authorize, execute and deliver or cause to be delivered at closing a Multifamily Note, a Multifamily Deed of Trust, Deed to Secure Debt or Mortgage, where appropriate (the "Security Instrument"), a Guaranty or Guarantees (including a Completion and Payment Guaranty for the Construction Phase and a Non-recourse Carve-out Guaranty), an Agreement of Environmental Indemnification, a Replacement Reserve Agreement, a Construction Funding Agreement, Assignments and any other assignment, financing statement, agreement or document required by CITI in connection with the Loan (collectively, the "Mortgage Documents"). The Funding Loan Agreement, the Regulatory Agreement, the Borrower Loan Agreement, the Borrower Note and all other documents executed or issued in connection with the transaction shall be referred to, collectively, as the "Tax-Exempt Loan Documents". The Security Instrument and Borrower Note shall initially be for the benefit of Governmental Lender and shall be assigned on the Closing Date to CITI. The Tax-Exempt Loan Documents must be in a form satisfactory to CITI and Governmental Lender. Where appropriate, the Mortgage Documents and the Tax-Exempt Loan Documents shall be acknowledged, recorded and filed in the public record, and all recording receipts promptly delivered to CITI.

3. Title Insurance. Borrower shall promptly deliver to CITI a commitment for a mortgagee's title insurance policy, prepared in accordance with CITI's title insurance instructions, along with a pro forma policy in the form included in such instructions. The title insurance commitment and policy must satisfy all of the requirements of such instructions and include such other coverage and endorsements as CITI may require. The company and/or agent issuing the commitment shall be acceptable to CITI in all respects. Borrower shall also furnish CITI with copies of all instruments affecting title to the Property including, but not limited to, all instruments referenced in Schedule B of the pro forma policy.

4. UCC Search/Perfection. Borrower shall commission UCC searches in the real estate records and personal property records of the following jurisdictions and shall furnish written reports of such searches to CITI: (i) the jurisdiction where the Property is located, (ii) any other jurisdiction in which Borrower has its principal office for the conduct of its business, (iii) in the central UCC filing location specified by the law of the state where the Property is located, and (iv) any other office where filing is necessary to perfect Governmental Lender's or Fiscal Agent's security interest in the Collateral (as hereinafter defined). All such searches shall be updated to the time of recordation of the Mortgage Documents and shall show no security interests affecting the Property, Guarantor or Borrower, other than those naming Governmental Lender or Fiscal Agent as the secured party. Borrower shall cause the appropriate filing of financing statements, on forms supplied by CITI, evidencing Governmental Lender's or Fiscal Agent's perfected first priority security interest in all personal property, machinery, equipment, building materials, contract rights, furniture, fixtures, royalties, receivables and other rights related thereto, as well as all leases, rents, revenues and proceeds therefrom and all proceeds of the foregoing (collectively, the "Collateral"). Such filing shall be in compliance with both the Uniform Commercial Code, as adopted in the state in which the Property is located, and all other applicable laws affecting the perfection of security interests. Borrower shall furnish to CITI, promptly upon recordation, receipted or time stamped copies of the filed financing statements.

5. Authority. Borrower shall furnish to CITI certified documents satisfactory to CITI evidencing Borrower's power and authority to enter into the Mortgage Documents and the Tax-Exempt Loan Documents. If Borrower is a corporation, such documents shall include Borrower's Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, corporate resolution relevant to the Loan and a Certificate of Good Standing from the state of incorporation and the state where the Property is located. If Borrower is a partnership, such documents shall include a copy of the partnership agreement and partnership certificate, and the above-referenced corporate documents for any corporate general partner of Borrower. If Borrower is a limited liability company, such documents shall include a copy of the Articles of Organization and Operating Agreement and the Certificate of Authenticity or Certificate of Good Standing from the state of organization and the state where the Property is located.

6. Leases. The standard form of lease used at the Property shall be subject to the prior written approval of CITI. All new leases and renewals of existing leases shall be made on the approved standard form of lease unless otherwise agreed to by CITI. There must be no commercial leases affecting the Property, except for any laundry lease and other commercial lease disclosed in writing to and approved in writing by CITI and its counsel prior to the date of this Commitment. Any current commercial lease or laundry lease must be subordinated to the lien of the Security Instrument and other Mortgage Documents. Borrower agrees that any future commercial lease or laundry lease or renewal of any current commercial lease or laundry lease will contain language acceptable to CITI subordinating said lease to the lien of the Security Instrument and other Mortgage Documents. There must be no default under any current commercial lease or laundry lease.

7. Borrower's Management Agreement. Borrower shall furnish to CITI a copy of Borrower's management agreement. The management agreement must be with a professional management company and both the management company and the terms of the management agreement must be approved in writing by CITI. Borrower shall not make or permit to be made any changes to the management agreement without the prior written approval of CITI. Without limiting the foregoing, the management agreement must be terminable by owner on 30 days' notice, with or without cause and without payment of any termination fee. If required by CITI, a portion of the management fee may be required to be subordinated to debt service and other amounts payable with respect to the Loan.

8. Rent Roll. [not applicable]

9. Appraisal. CITI shall have received an appraisal of the Property satisfactory to CITI.

10. Opinion of Borrower's Counsel. Borrower shall deliver to CITI a written opinion by Borrower's counsel approved by CITI, addressed to CITI, Issuer and Bond Trustee and in the form furnished or approved by CITI's counsel.

The loan(s) may not exceed 80% of costs covered through the Construction Phase.

Construction Phase Term: Twenty-four months, plus two, 6-month extension options. Fees for the extension are indicated below under "Fees & Expenses".

Construction Phase Interest Rate: A variable rate equal to SIFMA plus a spread of 2.50% during the Construction Phase for all Phases. Rate adjusts weekly. Currently, SIFMA is trading at approximately 0.01%. This rate does not include Issuer, Trustee, or misc. 3rd party fees (SIFMA is available at http://www.sifma.org/research/item.aspx?id=19762). Pricing is based on current market conditions and is subject to change.

Availability: Funding Loan proceeds will be advanced to Borrower on a "draw down" basis upon receipt of a written request from Borrower, supported by documentation acceptable to CITI. Borrower will be required to submit a loan budget worksheet with each draw request tracking all Property sources and uses of funds. Draw requests are limited to one per month.

Loan in Balance: The Funding Loan must remain "in balance" during the Construction Phase. "In balance" means that (1) the funds available during the Construction Phase (from the Funding Loan and all other debt and equity sources) are sufficient to complete the construction or rehabilitation of the Property and all other expenses reasonably expected to be necessary to achieve the conditions for equity and sub-debt funding; and (2) the sources available from equity and sub-debt are sufficient to pay off the Construction Phase Loan Amount.

Amortization: None. Payments on the Funding Loan during the Construction Phase will be interest only.

Prepayment and Yield Maintenance: Voluntary prepayment of Funding Loan principal amounts during the Construction Phase, including those as a result of a Borrower default, may be made without prepayment fee or penalty.

Interest Reserve: Calculated at the Construction Phase Interest Rate noted above, plus a cushion acceptable to CITI at time of final Credit approval. Currently, CITI is underwriting with a cushion of 1.00%. The Interest Reserve will be sized based on an analysis of the projected draw schedule for the Funding Loan during the Construction Phase.

Budget and Contingencies: The budget for the Construction Phase, including all budget line items, is subject to CITI approval. The budget shall include a hard cost contingency of no less than 5% of budgeted hard costs for new construction projects or, 10% for renovation projects. The budget shall include a soft cost contingency of no less than 5% of budgeted soft costs, excluding 1) soft costs incurred prior to or in connection with closing; 2) interest reserve and bank fees; 3) capitalized operating reserve deposits and other costs that may be due in connection with Construction Phase Loan pay off/stabilization for which specific sources are identified; and 4) developer fees.

General Contractor and Bonding Requirements: The general contractor and the form of construction contract must be acceptable to CITI. CITI will require payment and performance bonds equal to 100% of the construction contract amount. Surety issuing bonds must have an A.M. Best rating of "A/XIV" and must be acceptable to CITI in all other respects. In lieu of bonds, CITI will accept a letter of credit ("LC") equal to 10% of the initial construction contract amount. LC provider must be rated "A" or better.

Retainage: Construction contract will provide for retainage of 10% of each construction pay application until 50% completion and the reduced to 5% of each construction pay application until substantial completion of construction is achieved unless other arrangements have been approved by CITI. All retained amounts will be released upon final, lien-free completion of construction, as approved by CITI.

Appraisal, Environmental, Plan & Cost Evaluation Review: Appraisal and Plan/Cost Review reports will be commissioned and reviewed by CITI. CITI may rely upon environmental reports commissioned by Borrower if report is current (within 12 months) and CITI has been provided evidence of acceptable E&O insurance coverage carried by Borrower's environmental consultant and a reliance letter in form acceptable to CITI. Appraisal, environmental condition and plan/cost reviews must be acceptable to CITI in all respects.

Property Tax Abatements, Incentives: All documentation related to any tax abatement or tax incentives must be acceptable to CITI in all respects.

Developer Fee: Any developer fee paid prior to Construction Phase Loan pay down shall be pre-approved by CITI in its sole discretion.

Availability of ACCs: If applicable, prior to closing, CITI must receive from HUD an acceptable commitment to provide the ACC required to operate the public housing units at break-even. In addition, CITI must review and approve anticipated capital funding appropriations connected to the ACCs.

Public Housing: Since the seller/landlord of the Property is the Miami-Dade Public Housing and Community Development ("MDPHCD") and since the Property will continue to be operated in accordance with public housing guidelines with operating subsidies coming from HUD to MDPHCD and in turn to the Borrower, Borrower will be required to fund reserves as noted below. In addition, the Regulatory & Operating Agreement ("R&O"), Land Use Restriction Agreement, ACC, and other documents relative to the public housing nature of the Property are subject to CITI's full review and approval.

ACC Reserve, Operating Reserve: CITI will require an ACC & Operating Reserve totaling the higher of 1) a minimum of six months of operating expenses or 2) the ACC & Operating Reserve required by the LIHTC equity investor. Changes to the amount of ACC units or other factors related to the ACC units may require additions to the ACC reserve.

FEES

Due Diligence Deposit: $25,000, per phase, which amount shall be non-refundable and payable upon acceptance of a preliminary application. This fee is applicable toward third party reports, loan underwriting and processing (in the minimum amount of $5,000), and CITI's initial legal fees. Applicant is responsible for the payment of all reasonable costs incurred in connection with the underwriting, processing and/or closing of the Funding Loan (including CITI legal fees).

Origination Fee: A non-refundable Origination Fee equal to 1.0% of the Construction Phase Loan Amount (the "Origination Fee") shall be earned in full by CITI upon the closing of the Funding Loan, and is due and payable at that time.

Construction Phase Extension Fee: An extension fee equal to 0.25% of the Construction Phase Loan Amount is payable prior to the first, six month extension and an extension fee equal to 0.50% of the Construction Phase Loan Amount is payable prior to the second, six month extension.

Re: Partnership: To be determined Single Purpose Entity, an affiliate of RUDG, LLC
Property Name: Liberty Square Rising - Phase 4B
City/State: Miami, Florida

Dear Mr. Milo:

This letter will confirm our agreement ("Agreement") whereby Raymond James Tax Credit Funds, Inc. ("RJTCF") shall attempt to effect a closing ("Closing") of an investment by a Fund sponsored by RJTCF (the "RJTCF Fund") in the above named partnership ("Partnership") on the assumptions, terms, and conditions contained in this letter, or such other assumptions, terms and conditions as are acceptable to you, RJTCF and the RJTCF Fund.

CURRENT ASSUMPTIONS:

I. DESCRIPTION OF THE PROJECT AND THE INVESTMENT.

A. Project:

1. New Construction
2. Units: 120
3. Set-aside Requirements: 12 units at 50% or less of median income and 108 units at 120% or less of median income
4. Rental Assistance: None
5. Management Company: TRG Management Company, LLP
6. General Contractor: Fortune Construction Company, LLP.

B. Tax Credit Information:

1. Reserved or Allocated Credits: $982,909.
2. Estimated Partnership Annual Credits: $982,909.
3. RJTCF Fund's Share of Partnership Annual Credits: 99.99%
4. Estimated RJTCF Fund Annual Credits: $982,811.
5. Applicable Fraction: 100% with 130% basis boost.
6. Applicable Percentage: 3.21% (floating).
7. First Credit Year: 2021.

C. Equity Investment:

1. Estimated $1.12 per dollar of the RJTCF Fund Total Credits ("Credit Price"), subject to market conditions and availability of funds.
2. Estimated RJTCF Fund Total Capital: $11,007,480.
   Note that actual contributions are based on actual credits delivered. If actual RJTCF Fund Total Credits are less than the estimated amount, RJTCF Fund Total Capital will be reduced by the shortfall times the Credit Price. If actual RJTCF Fund Total Credits are greater than the estimated amount ("Excess Credits") and such Excess Credits are not attributable to an additional reservation of Credits, then the RJTCF Fund Total Capital will be increased by an amount equal to the Excess Credits times the Credit Price, but RJTCF Fund Total Capital shall not exceed 105% of the Estimated RJTCF Fund Total Capital except as provided below. The RJTCF Fund will specify the terms, if any, under which it will purchase any Excess Credits attributable to an additional reservation of Credits, and/or those that would otherwise cause capital contributions to exceed 105% of the Estimated Total Capital. If those terms provide for a credit price less than the Credit Price, the General Partners can accept or reject those terms. Any Excess Credits that the RJTCF Fund is unwilling to buy or that the General Partners are unwilling to sell at the price specified by the RJTCF Fund shall be allocated to the General Partners.

3. Installment Payment of Estimated RJTCF Fund Total Capital:
   a. $3,302,244 (30%) at Closing, of which $50,000.00 shall be paid directly to RJTCF in payment of its due diligence fee
   b. $1,100,000 (10%) at later of April 1, 2021 or 100% Construction Completion.
   d. $6,605,236 (60%) at later of July 1, 2021 or Stabilized Operations ("Stabilization Capital Contribution"), of which $100,000 may be held back and paid when all required tax filing information and Forms 8609 are received and audited financials for the year of Breakeven Operations are available.

   All payments will be subject to various deliveries required by the RJTCF Fund as described in the definitive documents, including without limitation, updates of representations and warranties previously given to the RJTCF Fund.

4. Timing Adjusters:
   The capital contribution of the RJTCF Fund shall be reduced by 55% of the shortfall between the Credits actually delivered and the Credits estimated to be delivered in 2021 and 2022. Currently, it is estimated that the Partnership will deliver $935,129 (95.14%) of Credits in 2021 and the maximum annual credit in 2022. The capital contribution of the RJTCF Fund shall be adjusted if and to the extent that the RJTCF Fund is admitted after Credits have begun to run. It is intended that the adjustments and/or payments required by this Section are to compensate the Investor Limited Partner for the delay in the receipt of Tax Credit and the Lease-Up Adjuster may be reduced if the Investor Limited Partner determines in the exercise of its sole and absolute discretion that the full Lease-Up Adjuster is not required to maintain the expected return on investment of its members.

In the event that the actual Credits with respect to the first Credit Year are more than the Credits projected for such years, then the capital contribution of the RJTCF Fund to the Partnership shall be increased by an amount (the "Upward Timing Adjustment") equal to 35% of such excess; provided, that any such increase is subject to the overall limitation that RJTCF Fund Total Capital cannot exceed 105% of estimated RJTCF Total Capital without RJTCF Fund consent. The Upward Timing Adjustment shall be made and applied to increase the Stabilization Capital Contribution. It is understood and agreed that the Upward Timing Adjustment is intended to address any acceleration in the delivery of the first year of the Credit Period from the projected Credit amounts during such year where the total projected Credits for the entire Credit Period is not affected and that the Upward Timing Adjustment may be decreased if the RJTCF Fund determines in the exercise of its sole and absolute discretion that a smaller Upward Timing Adjustment must be paid in order to maintain the expected return on investment of its investors.

D. Allocation of Distributions:

1. Asset Management Fee: The RJTCF Fund shall receive an annual asset management fee of $5,000, increasing at 3.00% per year prior to any cash distributions. The Asset Management Fee shall begin once the Project has been placed in service and shall be prorated for the year that the Project is placed in service. The fee shall be cumulative to the extent unpaid in any year and shall be payable from sale proceeds of the property to the extent not previously paid. The fee must be paid in order for the Partnership to remain Current; thus, if cash flow is not sufficient to pay the fee, it shall be paid from available reserves or from loans made by the General Partner or Guarantors under the Operating Deficit Guaranty.

2. Cash From Operations: Cash available to be distributed after paying Partnership expenses (including the Asset Management Fee), funding the Replacement Reserve, and maintaining working capital reserves. Cash From Operations shall be allocated in the following order:

   a. To the RJTCF Fund to the extent of any amounts owed, including amounts to be paid under Tax Credit Guaranty;
   b. To replenish the Operating Reserve if the balance therein is less than the Operating Reserve Minimum;
   c. To the Developer to pay any unpaid Deferred Development Fee;
   d. To the General Partners or Guarantors to repay any loans due under the Operating Deficit Guaranty;
   e. 89.99% to the General Partners as an incentive management fee;
   f. The balance 0.01% to the General Partners, and 99.99% to the RJTCF Fund.

In all events, the RJTCF Fund must receive at least 10% of the amount available for distributions to partners and payment of incentive management fees to the General Partners. Available cash from operations will be distributed biannually.

3. CashFromSaleorRefinancing: Proceeds available after paying all liabilities and establishing any required reserves shall be allocated in accordance with capital accounts, in the following order:

   a. To the RJTCF Fund to the extent of any amounts owed, including unpaid amounts under Tax Credit Guaranty;
   b. To pay any accrued but unpaid Asset Management Fee;
   c. To the Developer to pay any unpaid Deferred Development Fee;
   d. To the General Partners or Guarantors to repay any loans due under the Operating Deficit Guaranty;
   e. The balance, 90% to the General Partners and 10% to the RJTCF Fund

The distribution of Cash From Sale or Refinancing shall be subject to the requirement of the Internal Revenue Code that liquidating distributions be made in accordance with capital accounts.

E. Allocations of Profits and Losses:

1. Operating Profits and Losses: 99.99% RJTCF Fund; 0.01% General Partner.
2. Credits and Depreciation: 99.99% RJTCF Fund; 0.01% General Partner.
3. Gain or Loss on Sale: So as to bring the capital accounts into the ratios that will allow Proceeds of Sale to be distributed 90% to the General Partners and 10% to the RJTCF Fund, to the extent possible given the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code and the Treasury Regulations.
4. Operating Income and Losses Prior to Credit Delivery: At the discretion of the RJTCF Fund, Operating Income and Losses attributable to the period prior to the start of Credit delivery may be specially allocated to the General Partners.

F. Developer and Development Fee:

1. Developer: An affiliate of RUDG, LLC
2. Estimated Development Fee: An amount not to exceed the maximum allowable development fee pursuant to FHFC and HUD guidelines.
3. Development Fee pay-ins will be negotiated prior to closing.

   If necessary, part of the development fee, not to exceed $2,000,000, will be deferred beyond the date of the RJTCF Fund's final capital contribution installment, without interest, and shall be paid in accordance with the terms of allocations of Cash From Operations and Cash from Sale or Refinancing or, if not paid within 14 years after placed-in-service date, from General Partners' capital as described below. Any development fee that cannot be paid by the time of the final capital contribution of the RJTCF Fund or deferred in accordance with the foregoing limitation shall be paid as an excess cost under the Completion Guaranty.
4. Development Fee shall be pledged to secure the obligations of the General Partner and the Guarantors.

G. Reserves:

1. Replacement Reserve: $36,000 capitalized at Closing and $36,000 per year ($300 per unit) beginning at the earlier of six months after completion of construction or the first month of Stabilized Operations, increased by 3% per year thereafter. In the aggregate, no more than $20,000 will be withdrawn from the Replacement Reserve in any calendar year without the approval of the RJTCF Fund.
2. Lease-up Reserve: $100,000, to be funded at or prior to Construction Completion. The Lease-up Reserve shall be used to fund operating deficits prior to the Stabilization Capital Contribution. To the extent that funds remain in the Lease-Up Reserve after such contribution, these funds will be transferred to the Operating Reserve to meet the Operating Reserve Requirement and shall be held therein. If such transfer would cause the amount of the Operating Reserve to be greater than the amount otherwise required hereunder to be held in the Operating Reserve, then such excess amount may be used instead to pay deferred Development Fee (except to the extent that the Agency requires a minimum deferred Development Fee or there is no deferred Development Fee, in which case such amount shall remain in the Operating Reserve). To the extent the balance in the Operating Reserve exceeds the amount otherwise required hereunder at the end of the Operating Deficit Period, such excess shall be released from the reserve and distributed as Cash From Operations.
3. Operating Reserve: $236,569, to be funded into the operating reserve account (the "OperatingReserveAccount") at the time of the funding of the Stabilization Capital Contribution. Such Operating Reserve Account shall be maintained for the duration of the Compliance Period (after which, funds on deposit may be released and distributed as Net Cash Flow) and shall be used exclusively to pay for Operating Deficits incurred by the Partnership after the date of the Stabilization Capital Contribution; provided however, that all withdrawals from the Operating Reserve Account that would cause aggregate draws in any one fiscal year to exceed $10,000.00 shall be made only with the Consent of the RJTCF Fund, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. Operating Deficits shall be funded 50% from the Operating Reserve and 50% under the Operating Deficit Guaranty; provided, that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Operating Reserve Account may not be drawn down below $115,000 ("the Operating Reserve Minimum") unless the General Partners have fully funded their obligations under the Operating Deficit Guaranty. Operating Deficits shall be funded 100% from the Operating Reserve once the General Partners have fully funded their obligations under the Operating Deficit Guaranty. Should the balance in the Operating Reserve Account fall below the Operating Reserve Minimum, Net Cash Flow on each Payment Date will be deposited in the Operating Reserve Account to maintain such minimum balance.
5. All reserves shall be established with a lending institution acceptable to (the RJTCF Fund) and shall be subject to withdrawal limitations determined by the RJTCF Fund to be appropriate to ensure the proper use of such funds.

I. Obligations of the Guarantors:

1. Guarantors: The General Partners and PRH Investments, LLC, subject to the approval of RJTCF.

2. Guarantors shall collectively have a minimum net worth of $10,000,000 ($2,000,000 liquid). Distributions from entity guarantors shall be restricted to the extent that any distribution would reduce the net worth of the Guarantors below the prescribed minimums.

3. Guarantors unconditionally guarantee that the General Partners will perform all of their obligations under the partnership agreement, including, without limitation, guaranties, repurchase obligations and the obligation to make a capital contribution as and when required to pay deferred development fee and that the developer will perform all of their obligations under the Development Agreement.

J. Total Depreciable Basis: $23,554,036.

1. $21,283,591 (90.36%) - 27.5 year depreciable property
2. $1,702,834 (7.23%) - 15 year depreciable property
3. $567,611 (2.41%) - 5 year depreciable property

K. INTENTIONALLY DELETED.

L. Definitive Documents

All of the terms and conditions of the investment shall be set forth in definitive documents to be negotiated by the parties including but not limited to an Amended and Restated Operating Agreement, together with certain closing exhibits (including various Guaranty Agreements). Such documents shall be consistent with the terms and conditions set forth in this letter with such changes as the parties may agree are appropriate. Once executed, the definitive documents shall supersede this letter, which shall be of no further force or effect. RJTCF will begin preparation of the definitive documents upon the completion of our due diligence to our satisfaction, as determined in our sole discretion.

II. INTENTIONALLY DELTED

III. THE RJTCF FUND EXIT RIGHTS

The RJTCF Fund shall have the right to require the General Partners to acquire its interest after the end of the compliance period for a price equal to the amount the RJTCF Fund would receive if the Partnership sold the Project at fair market value, paid its debts and distributed the remaining assets in accordance with the provisions relating to distribution of sales proceeds. If the General Partners fail to acquire the RJTCF Fund's interest, then the RJTCF Fund shall have the right, without the concurrence of the General Partners, to order a sale of the Project.

IV. OTHER ASSUMPTIONS TO CLOSING

Prior to Closing, there shall have been no changes in tax laws or Treasury pronouncements, or changes in interpretations of existing tax issues that would materially and adversely affect this investment.

2. In the event an investment in the Partnership requires HUD Previous Participation Certification (HUD Form 2530), the RJTCF Fund and its investor members are willing and able to request and obtain HUD 2530 approval in accordance with the filing requirements promulgated by HUD.
3. RJTCF and the RJTCF Fund's review and approval in its sole discretion of all terms and conditions of the investment, due diligence materials, including the construction and permanent loan commitments, proposed extended use agreement, real estate, plans and specifications, market study (including any additional market studies determined by the RJTCF Fund and the fund to be necessary - at the Partnership's expense), basis for the Credits, operating budgets, construction and lease-up budgets, current financial statements of the General Partners, other guarantors and their affiliates, verification of background information to be provided by the General Partners and their affiliates, and references to be provided by the General Partners.
4. During underwriting and due diligence, RJTCF will review the rental assistance agreement and market conditions, and may in its sole discretion determine that a Rental Assistance Transition Reserve or Rental Assistance Loss Guarantee be required as a requirement of Closing.

V. TERM

The initial term of this Agreement shall be for a period of 48 months from the date of this letter, with a closing (Closing Date) no later than February 1, 2020 providing that RJTCF may terminate this Agreement by giving at least 10 days written notice if it determines, in the exercise of its sole discretion that the conditions to closing are unlikely to be met. RJTCF may extend the term of this Agreement up to 90 days beyond the initial term and both parties can agree in writing to an extension beyond that date. If due diligence activities and negotiation of definitive documents continue beyond termination of this Agreement, the parties shall not be bound hereunder, but only to the extent provided in definitive documents or other written agreements that are actually executed and delivered.

VI. EXCLUSIVITY

You acknowledge that the RJTCF Fund will expend significant effort and expense, and may forego other investment opportunities, in connection with its best efforts to effect a Closing. You agree that you will not solicit or entertain any offers by other parties to acquire an equity interest in the Partnership during the Term of this Agreement. You agree to pay the RJTCF Fund up to a maximum of $50,000, for actual 3rd party due diligence costs incurred regardless of whether or not the Investment closes, unless such failure to close was due to RJTCF inability to obtain Investment Committee or Investor approval.

The Partnership must provide at its expense a legal opinion acceptable to RJTCF. If required by an Investor in connection with its admission to the RJTCF Fund subsequent to the Closing of the Investment, such opinion must be updated and reissued at Partnership expense.

VII. DUE DILIGENCE FEES

At the Closing, the Partnership shall pay $50,000 or greater negotiated amount to the RJTCF Fund for the costs associated with the due diligence process and preparation of Partnership documents and legal opinions. A higher amount may be appropriate, for example, if the RJTCF Fund undertakes significant work to obtain the title policy, close complicated financings, etc. Such additional charges are subject to negotiation and no amount greater than $50,000 will be incurred or due to the RJTCF Fund from the Partnership without your agreement.

VIII. INTENTIONALLY DELETED

IX. CONFIDENTIALITY

This letter is delivered to you with the understanding that neither it nor its substance shall be disclosed to any third party except those who are in a confidential relationship with you, or where the same is required by law. It is understood this letter will be submitted as part of a response to a request for applications and may be made public record.

X. ACCEPTANCE

If these terms and conditions are acceptable to you, please sign and return one copy of this memorandum. If not accepted by March 1, 2016 this offer shall terminate.

By acceptance of this letter, you authorize Raymond James Tax Credit Funds, Inc. to make any credit inquiries that we may deem necessary as part of our underwriting process. These credit inquiries may be performed on the General Partners, Guarantors, or any significant business operation of General Partners or Guarantors. This authorization also applies to follow-up credit inquiries that we may deem necessary after our admission to the Partnership.

For more than 25 years Raymond James Tax Credit Funds and our affiliates have been involved with the development of affordable housing. We have provided equity for more than 1,200 properties nationwide. We look forward to working with you.

Sincerely,

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Citibank, N.A.("CITI") is pleased to offer to RUDG ("Sponsor"), as the Sponsor of to-be-formed affiliates ("Borrower" or "Borrowers"), this commitment ("Commitment") for financing , subject to the terms, requirements and conditions which follow. All capitalized terms used herein, unless otherwise defined, shall have the meaning set forth on Exhibit A annexed hereto and incorporated herein by this reference (the "Commitment Terms"). CITI's decision to issue this Commitment was made in reliance upon the representations and material supplied by Sponsor and Sponsor's representatives, as more particularly described on Exhibit B annexed hereto. CITI understands that Sponsor intends to submit this Commitment to Miami-Dade County Housing Finance Authority ("Governmental Lender") in support of Sponsor's application to obtain 1) private activity volume cap allocation(s) with respect to the financing of the Properties and 2) soft financing from Miami-Dade County. This Commitment is subject to, among other things, CITI completing due diligence to confirm the representations made by Sponsor and obtaining credit committee approval.

In connection with this Commitment, CITI will be acting solely as a principal and not as your agent, advisor or fiduciary. CITI has not assumed a fiduciary responsibility with respect to this Commitment, and nothing in this Commitment or in any prior relationship between you and CITI will be deemed to create an advisory, fiduciary or agency relationship between us in respect of this Commitment. You should consider carefully whether you would like to engage an independent advisor to represent or otherwise advise you in connection with this Commitment, if you have not already done so.

A. Transaction Summary. The terms of the tax-exempt financing transaction (the "Transaction") that is the subject of this Commitment is as follows:

1. On the issuance date (the "Closing Date"), CITI shall fund a loan (the "Funding Loan") to Governmental Lender, and Governmental Lender shall simultaneously issue a note (the "Governmental Lender Note") to CITI. The proceeds of the Funding Loan shall be used by Governmental Lender to make a tax-exempt loan (the "Tax-Exempt Loan" or the "Borrower Loan") to Borrower to finance the Property, for which the Governmental Lender receives a borrower note (the "Borrower Note"). Borrower shall be responsible for securing the issuance and delivery of the Tax-Exempt Loan by the Governmental Lender.

2. Upon closing of the transaction, the rights of Governmental Lender in the Borrower Loan and all documents evidencing and securing the Borrower Loan (the "Borrower Loan Documents") shall be assigned to a fiscal agent, which may be CITI (the "Fiscal Agent"), as security for the Governmental Lender's obligations to CITI evidenced by the Governmental Lender Note. CITI will administer and direct the disbursement of the proceeds of the Funding Loan and the Borrower Loan and will oversee the construction work to be performed on the Property (the "Improvements"). The completion of the Improvements and all related work shall be performed during the Construction Phase (as hereinafter defined).

3. CITI shall have the right to engage a third party servicer ("Servicer") to provide limited servicing/oversight functions on behalf of CITI pursuant to a separate servicing agreement with CITI. CITI shall pay Servicer any applicable servicing fee.

4. Intentionally Omitted

5. CITI anticipates that CITI's interest in the Tax-Exempt Loan may be transferred to any eligible investor, which may be a government sponsored enterprise or institutional investor (or a trust for the benefit thereof) and CITI's underwriting and documentation will provide for the possibility of such transfer.

B. Conditions Precedent to Closing. The obligation of CITI to make the Funding Loan is subject to satisfaction of the following conditions precedent ("Conditions Precedent to Closing"), in each case in a manner acceptable to CITI. There must be no default under any current commercial lease or laundry lease.

In addition, the Regulatory & Operating Agreement ("R&O"), Land Use Restriction Agreement, ACC, and other documents relative to the public housing nature of the Property are subject to CITI's full review and approval.

ACC Reserve, Operating Reserve: CITI will require an ACC & Operating Reserve totaling the higher of 1) a minimum of six months of operating expenses or 2) the ACC & Operating Reserve required by the LIHTC equity investor. Re: Partnership: To be determined Single Purpose Entity, an affiliate of RUDG, LLC
Property Name: Liberty Square Rising - Phase 4C
City/State: Miami, Florida

Dear Mr. Milo:

This letter will confirm our agreement ("Agreement") whereby Raymond James Tax Credit Funds, Inc. ("RJTCF") shall attempt to effect a closing ("Closing") of an investment by a Fund sponsored by RJTCF (the "RJTCF Fund") in the above named partnership ("Partnership") on the assumptions, terms, and conditions contained in this letter, or such other assumptions, terms and conditions as are acceptable to you, RJTCF and the RJTCF Fund.

CURRENT ASSUMPTIONS:

I. DESCRIPTION OF THE PROJECT AND THE INVESTMENT.

A. Project:

1. New Construction
2. Units: 120
3. Set-aside Requirements: 24 units at 50% or less of median income and 96 units at 120% or less of median income
4. Rental Assistance: None
5. Management Company: TRG Management Company, LLP
6. General Contractor: Fortune Construction Company, LLP.

B. Tax Credit Information:

1. Reserved or Allocated Credits: $198,137.
2. Estimated Partnership Annual Credits: $198,137.
3. RJTCF Fund's Share of Partnership Annual Credits: 99.99%
4. Estimated RJTCF Fund Annual Credits: $198,117.
5. Applicable Fraction: 20% with 130% basis boost.
6. Applicable Percentage: 3.21% (floating).
7. First Credit Year: 2021.

C. Equity Investment:

1. Estimated $1.12 per dollar of the RJTCF Fund Total Credits ("Credit Price"), subject to market conditions and availability of funds.
2. Estimated RJTCF Fund Total Capital: $2,218,912.
   Note that actual contributions are based on actual credits delivered. If actual RJTCF Fund Total Credits are less than the estimated amount, RJTCF Fund Total Capital will be reduced by the shortfall times the Credit Price. If actual RJTCF Fund Total Credits are greater than the estimated amount ("Excess Credits") and such Excess Credits are not attributable to an additional reservation of Credits, then the RJTCF Fund Total Capital will be increased by an amount equal to the Excess Credits times the Credit Price, but RJTCF Fund Total Capital shall not exceed 105% of the Estimated RJTCF Fund Total Capital except as provided below. The RJTCF Fund will specify the terms, if any, under which it will purchase any Excess Credits attributable to an additional reservation of Credits, and/or those that would otherwise cause capital contributions to exceed 105% of the Estimated Total Capital. If those terms provide for a credit price less than the Credit Price, the General Partners can accept or reject those terms. Any Excess Credits that the RJTCF Fund is unwilling to buy or that the General Partners are unwilling to sell at the price specified by the RJTCF Fund shall be allocated to the General Partners.

3. Installment Payment of Estimated RJTCF Fund Total Capital:
   a. $665,674 (30%) at Closing, of which $50,000.00 shall be paid directly to RJTCF in payment of its due diligence fee
   b. $600,000 (27%) at later of April 1, 2021 or 100% Construction Completion.
   d. $953,238 (43%) at later of July 1, 2021 or Stabilized Operations ("Stabilization Capital Contribution"), of which $100,000 may be held back and paid when all required tax filing information and Forms 8609 are received and audited financials for the year of Breakeven Operations are available.

   All payments will be subject to various deliveries required by the RJTCF Fund as described in the definitive documents, including without limitation, updates of representations and warranties previously given to the RJTCF Fund.

4. Timing Adjusters:
   The capital contribution of the RJTCF Fund shall be reduced by 55% of the shortfall between the Credits actually delivered and the Credits estimated to be delivered in 2021 and 2022. Currently, it is estimated that the Partnership will deliver $183,002 (92.36%) of Credits in 2021 and the maximum annual credit in 2022. The capital contribution of the RJTCF Fund shall be adjusted if and to the extent that the RJTCF Fund is admitted after Credits have begun to run. It is intended that the adjustments and/or payments required by this Section are to compensate the Investor Limited Partner for the delay in the receipt of Tax Credit and the Lease-Up Adjuster may be reduced if the Investor Limited Partner determines in the exercise of its sole and absolute discretion that the full Lease-Up Adjuster is not required to maintain the expected return on investment of its members.

In the event that the actual Credits with respect to the first Credit Year are more than the Credits projected for such years, then the capital contribution of the RJTCF Fund to the Partnership shall be increased by an amount (the "Upward Timing Adjustment") equal to 35% of such excess; provided, that any such increase is subject to the overall limitation that RJTCF Fund Total Capital cannot exceed 105% of estimated RJTCF Total Capital without RJTCF Fund consent. The Upward Timing Adjustment shall be made and applied to increase the Stabilization Capital Contribution. It is understood and agreed that the Upward Timing Adjustment is intended to address any acceleration in the delivery of the first year of the Credit Period from the projected Credit amounts during such year where the total projected Credits for the entire Credit Period is not affected and that the Upward Timing Adjustment may be decreased if the RJTCF Fund determines in the exercise of its sole and absolute discretion that a smaller Upward Timing Adjustment must be paid in order to maintain the expected return on investment of its investors.

D. Allocation of Distributions:

1. Asset Management Fee: The RJTCF Fund shall receive an annual asset management fee of $5,000, increasing at 3.00% per year prior to any cash distributions. The Asset Management Fee shall begin once the Project has been placed in service and shall be prorated for the year that the Project is placed in service. The fee shall be cumulative to the extent unpaid in any year and shall be payable from sale proceeds of the property to the extent not previously paid. The fee must be paid in order for the Partnership to remain Current; thus, if cash flow is not sufficient to pay the fee, it shall be paid from available reserves or from loans made by the General Partner or Guarantors under the Operating Deficit Guaranty.

2. Cash From Operations: Cash available to be distributed after paying Partnership expenses (including the Asset Management Fee), funding the Replacement Reserve, and maintaining working capital reserves. Cash From Operations shall be allocated in the following order:

   a. To the RJTCF Fund to the extent of any amounts owed, including amounts to be paid under Tax Credit Guaranty;
   b. To replenish the Operating Reserve if the balance therein is less than the Operating Reserve Minimum;
   c. To the Developer to pay any unpaid Deferred Development Fee;
   d. To the General Partners or Guarantors to repay any loans due under the Operating Deficit Guaranty;
   e. 89.99% to the General Partners as an incentive management fee;
   f. The balance 0.01% to the General Partners, and 99.99% to the RJTCF Fund.

In all events, the RJTCF Fund must receive at least 10% of the amount available for distributions to partners and payment of incentive management fees to the General Partners. Available cash from operations will be distributed biannually.

3. CashFromSaleorRefinancing: Proceeds available after paying all liabilities and establishing any required reserves shall be allocated in accordance with capital accounts, in the following order:

   a. To the RJTCF Fund to the extent of any amounts owed, including unpaid amounts under Tax Credit Guaranty;
   b. To pay any accrued but unpaid Asset Management Fee;
   c. To the Developer to pay any unpaid Deferred Development Fee;
   d. To the General Partners or Guarantors to repay any loans due under the Operating Deficit Guaranty;
   e. The balance, 90% to the General Partners and 10% to the RJTCF Fund

The distribution of Cash From Sale or Refinancing shall be subject to the requirement of the Internal Revenue Code that liquidating distributions be made in accordance with capital accounts.

E. Allocations of Profits and Losses:

1. Operating Profits and Losses: 99.99% RJTCF Fund; 0.01% General Partner.
2. Credits and Depreciation: 99.99% RJTCF Fund; 0.01% General Partner.
3. Gain or Loss on Sale: So as to bring the capital accounts into the ratios that will allow Proceeds of Sale to be distributed 90% to the General Partners and 10% to the RJTCF Fund, to the extent possible given the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code and the Treasury Regulations.
4. Operating Income and Losses Prior to Credit Delivery: At the discretion of the RJTCF Fund, Operating Income and Losses attributable to the period prior to the start of Credit delivery may be specially allocated to the General Partners.

F. Developer and Development Fee:

1. Developer: An affiliate of RUDG, LLC
2. Estimated Development Fee: An amount not to exceed the maximum allowable development fee pursuant to FHFC and HUD guidelines.
3. Development Fee pay-ins will be negotiated prior to closing.

   If necessary, part of the development fee, not to exceed $2,000,000, will be deferred beyond the date of the RJTCF Fund's final capital contribution installment, without interest, and shall be paid in accordance with the terms of allocations of Cash From Operations and Cash from Sale or Refinancing or, if not paid within 14 years after placed-in-service date, from General Partners' capital as described below. Any development fee that cannot be paid by the time of the final capital contribution of the RJTCF Fund or deferred in accordance with the foregoing limitation shall be paid as an excess cost under the Completion Guaranty.
4. Development Fee shall be pledged to secure the obligations of the General Partner and the Guarantors.

I. Obligations of the Guarantors:

1. Guarantors: The General Partners and PRH Investments, LLC, subject to the approval of RJTCF.

2. Guarantors shall collectively have a minimum net worth of $10,000,000 ($2,000,000 liquid). Distributions from entity guarantors shall be restricted to the extent that any distribution would reduce the net worth of the Guarantors below the prescribed minimums.

3. Guarantors unconditionally guarantee that the General Partners will perform all of their obligations under the partnership agreement, including, without limitation, guaranties, repurchase obligations and the obligation to make a capital contribution as and when required to pay deferred development fee and that the developer will perform all of their obligations under the Development Agreement.

J. Total Depreciable Basis: $23,740,446.

1. $21,470,001 (90.44%) - 27.5 year depreciable property
2. $1,702,834 (7.17%) - 15 year depreciable property
3. $567,611 (2.39%) - 5 year depreciable property

K. INTENTIONALLY DELETED.

L. Definitive Documents

All of the terms and conditions of the investment shall be set forth in definitive documents to be negotiated by the parties including but not limited to an Amended and Restated Operating Agreement, together with certain closing exhibits (including various Guaranty Agreements). Such documents shall be consistent with the terms and conditions set forth in this letter with such changes as the parties may agree are appropriate. Once executed, the definitive documents shall supersede this letter, which shall be of no further force or effect. RJTCF will begin preparation of the definitive documents upon the completion of our due diligence to our satisfaction, as determined in our sole discretion.

II. INTENTIONALLY DELTED

III. THE RJTCF FUND EXIT RIGHTS

The RJTCF Fund shall have the right to require the General Partners to acquire its interest after the end of the compliance period for a price equal to the amount the RJTCF Fund would receive if the Partnership sold the Project at fair market value, paid its debts and distributed the remaining assets in accordance with the provisions relating to distribution of sales proceeds. If the General Partners fail to acquire the RJTCF Fund's interest, then the RJTCF Fund shall have the right, without the concurrence of the General Partners, to order a sale of the Project.

IV. OTHER ASSUMPTIONS TO CLOSING

1. Prior to Closing, there shall have been no changes in tax laws or Treasury pronouncements, or changes in interpretations of existing tax issues that would materially and adversely affect this investment.

2. In the event an investment in the Partnership requires HUD Previous Participation Certification (HUD Form 2530), the RJTCF Fund and its investor members are willing and able to request and obtain HUD 2530 approval in accordance with the filing requirements promulgated by HUD.
3. RJTCF and the RJTCF Fund's review and approval in its sole discretion of all terms and conditions of the investment, due diligence materials, including the construction and permanent loan commitments, proposed extended use agreement, real estate, plans and specifications, market study (including any additional market studies determined by the RJTCF Fund and the fund to be necessary - at the Partnership's expense), basis for the Credits, operating budgets, construction and lease-up budgets, current financial statements of the General Partners, other guarantors and their affiliates, verification of background information to be provided by the General Partners and their affiliates, and references to be provided by the General Partners.
4. During underwriting and due diligence, RJTCF will review the rental assistance agreement and market conditions, and may in its sole discretion determine that a Rental Assistance Transition Reserve or Rental Assistance Loss Guarantee be required as a requirement of Closing.

V. TERM

The initial term of this Agreement shall be for a period of 48 months from the date of this letter, with a closing (Closing Date) no later than February 1, 2020 providing that RJTCF may terminate this Agreement by giving at least 10 days written notice if it determines, in the exercise of its sole discretion that the conditions to closing are unlikely to be met. RJTCF may extend the term of this Agreement up to 90 days beyond the initial term and both parties can agree in writing to an extension beyond that date. If due diligence activities and negotiation of definitive documents continue beyond termination of this Agreement, the parties shall not be bound hereunder, but only to the extent provided in definitive documents or other written agreements that are actually executed and delivered.

VI. EXCLUSIVITY

You acknowledge that the RJTCF Fund will expend significant effort and expense, and may forego other investment opportunities, in connection with its best efforts to effect a Closing. You agree that you will not solicit or entertain any offers by other parties to acquire an equity interest in the Partnership during the Term of this Agreement. You agree to pay the RJTCF Fund up to a maximum of $50,000, for actual 3rd party due diligence costs incurred regardless of whether or not the Investment closes, unless such failure to close was due to RJTCF inability to obtain Investment Committee or Investor approval.

The Partnership must provide at its expense a legal opinion acceptable to RJTCF. If required by an Investor in connection with its admission to the RJTCF Fund subsequent to the Closing of the Investment, such opinion must be updated and reissued at Partnership expense.

VII. DUE DILIGENCE FEES

At the Closing, the Partnership shall pay $50,000 or greater negotiated amount to the RJTCF Fund for the costs associated with the due diligence process and preparation of Partnership documents and legal opinions. A higher amount may be appropriate, for example, if the RJTCF Fund undertakes significant work to obtain the title policy, close complicated financings, etc. Such additional charges are subject to negotiation and no amount greater than $50,000 will be incurred or due to the RJTCF Fund from the Partnership without your agreement.

IX. CONFIDENTIALITY

This letter is delivered to you with the understanding that neither it nor its substance shall be disclosed to any third party except those who are in a confidential relationship with you, or where the same is required by law. It is understood this letter will be submitted as part of a response to a request for applications and may be made public record.

X. ACCEPTANCE

If these terms and conditions are acceptable to you, please sign and return one copy of this memorandum. If not accepted by March 1, 2016 this offer shall terminate.

By acceptance of this letter, you authorize Raymond James Tax Credit Funds, Inc. to make any credit inquiries that we may deem necessary as part of our underwriting process. These credit inquiries may be performed on the General Partners, Guarantors, or any significant business operation of General Partners or Guarantors. This authorization also applies to follow-up credit inquiries that we may deem necessary after our admission to the Partnership.

For more than 25 years Raymond James Tax Credit Funds and our affiliates have been involved with the development of affordable housing. We have provided equity for more than 1,200 properties nationwide. We look forward to working with you.

Sincerely,

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Citibank, N.A.("CITI") is pleased to offer to RUDG ("Sponsor"), as the Sponsor of to-be-formed affiliates ("Borrower" or "Borrowers"), this commitment ("Commitment") for financing , subject to the terms, requirements and conditions which follow. All capitalized terms used herein, unless otherwise defined, shall have the meaning set forth on Exhibit A annexed hereto and incorporated herein by this reference (the "Commitment Terms"). CITI's decision to issue this Commitment was made in reliance upon the representations and material supplied by Sponsor and Sponsor's representatives, as more particularly described on Exhibit B annexed hereto. CITI understands that Sponsor intends to submit this Commitment to Miami-Dade County Housing Finance Authority ("Governmental Lender") in support of Sponsor's application to obtain 1) private activity volume cap allocation(s) with respect to the financing of the Properties and 2) soft financing from Miami-Dade County. This Commitment is subject to, among other things, CITI completing due diligence to confirm the representations made by Sponsor and obtaining credit committee approval.

In connection with this Commitment, CITI will be acting solely as a principal and not as your agent, advisor or fiduciary. CITI has not assumed a fiduciary responsibility with respect to this Commitment, and nothing in this Commitment or in any prior relationship between you and CITI will be deemed to create an advisory, fiduciary or agency relationship between us in respect of this Commitment. You should consider carefully whether you would like to engage an independent advisor to represent or otherwise advise you in connection with this Commitment, if you have not already done so.

A. Transaction Summary. The terms of the tax-exempt financing transaction (the "Transaction") that is the subject of this Commitment is as follows:

1. On the issuance date (the "Closing Date"), CITI shall fund a loan (the "Funding Loan") to Governmental Lender, and Governmental Lender shall simultaneously issue a note (the "Governmental Lender Note") to CITI. The proceeds of the Funding Loan shall be used by Governmental Lender to make a tax-exempt loan (the "Tax-Exempt Loan" or the "Borrower Loan") to Borrower to finance the Property, for which the Governmental Lender receives a borrower note (the "Borrower Note"). Borrower shall be responsible for securing the issuance and delivery of the Tax-Exempt Loan by the Governmental Lender.

2. Upon closing of the transaction, the rights of Governmental Lender in the Borrower Loan and all documents evidencing and securing the Borrower Loan (the "Borrower Loan Documents") shall be assigned to a fiscal agent, which may be CITI (the "Fiscal Agent"), as security for the Governmental Lender's obligations to CITI evidenced by the Governmental Lender Note. CITI will administer and direct the disbursement of the proceeds of the Funding Loan and the Borrower Loan and will oversee the construction work to be performed on the Property (the "Improvements"). The completion of the Improvements and all related work shall be performed during the Construction Phase (as hereinafter defined).

3. CITI shall have the right to engage a third party servicer ("Servicer") to provide limited servicing/oversight functions on behalf of CITI pursuant to a separate servicing agreement with CITI. CITI shall pay Servicer any applicable servicing fee.

4. Intentionally Omitted

5. CITI anticipates that CITI's interest in the Tax-Exempt Loan may be transferred to any eligible investor, which may be a government sponsored enterprise or institutional investor (or a trust for the benefit thereof) and CITI's underwriting and documentation will provide for the possibility of such transfer.

B. Conditions Precedent to Closing. The obligation of CITI to make the Funding Loan is subject to satisfaction of the following conditions precedent ("Conditions Precedent to Closing"), in each case in a manner acceptable to CITI. The form and substance of all documents and items submitted by Borrower hereunder must be acceptable to CITI and its counsel.

1. Credit Approval. This Commitment is subject, among other things, to CITI obtaining final credit committee approval. Sponsor understands and agrees that this is subject to final approvals as set forth in Part E.4. of this Commitment and is not an agreement to make a loan. Any documentation will be forthcoming only after final approval of the underwriting by CITI's credit committee. The financing will be documented separately and will contain terms and conditions that may be in addition to or in substitution of those set forth in the Commitment.

2. Documents. Borrower shall duly authorize, execute and deliver or cause to be delivered at closing a Multifamily Note, a Multifamily Deed of Trust, Deed to Secure Debt or Mortgage, where appropriate (the "Security Instrument"), a Guaranty or Guarantees (including a Completion and Payment Guaranty for the Construction Phase and a Non-recourse Carve-out Guaranty), an Agreement of Environmental Indemnification, a Replacement Reserve Agreement, a Construction Funding Agreement, Assignments and any other assignment, financing statement, agreement or document required by CITI in connection with the Loan (collectively, the "Mortgage Documents"). The Funding Loan Agreement, the Regulatory Agreement, the Borrower Loan Agreement, the Borrower Note and all other documents executed or issued in connection with the transaction shall be referred to, collectively, as the "Tax-Exempt Loan Documents". The Security Instrument and Borrower Note shall initially be for the benefit of Governmental Lender and shall be assigned on the Closing Date to CITI. The Tax-Exempt Loan Documents must be in a form satisfactory to CITI and Governmental Lender. Where appropriate, the Mortgage Documents and the Tax-Exempt Loan Documents shall be acknowledged, recorded and filed in the public record, and all recording receipts promptly delivered to CITI.

3. Title Insurance. Borrower shall promptly deliver to CITI a commitment for a mortgagee's title insurance policy, prepared in accordance with CITI's title insurance instructions, along with a pro forma policy in the form included in such instructions. The title insurance commitment and policy must satisfy all of the requirements of such instructions and include such other coverage and endorsements as CITI may require. The company and/or agent issuing the commitment shall be acceptable to CITI in all respects. Borrower shall also furnish CITI with copies of all instruments affecting title to the Property including, but not limited to, all instruments referenced in Schedule B of the pro forma policy.

4. UCC Search/Perfection. Borrower shall commission UCC searches in the real estate records and personal property records of the following jurisdictions and shall furnish written reports of such searches to CITI: (i) the jurisdiction where the Property is located, (ii) any other jurisdiction in which Borrower has its principal office for the conduct of its business, (iii) in the central UCC filing location specified by the law of the state where the Property is located, and (iv) any other office where filing is necessary to perfect Governmental Lender's or Fiscal Agent's security interest in the Collateral (as hereinafter defined). All such searches shall be updated to the time of recordation of the Mortgage Documents and shall show no security interests affecting the Property, Guarantor or Borrower, other than those naming Governmental Lender or Fiscal Agent as the secured party. Borrower shall cause the appropriate filing of financing statements, on forms supplied by CITI, evidencing Governmental Lender's or Fiscal Agent's perfected first priority security interest in all personal property, machinery, equipment, building materials, contract rights, furniture, fixtures, royalties, receivables and other rights related thereto, as well as all leases, rents, revenues and proceeds therefrom and all proceeds of the foregoing (collectively, the "Collateral"). Such filing shall be in compliance with both the Uniform Commercial Code, as adopted in the state in which the Property is located, and all other applicable laws affecting the perfection of security interests. Borrower shall furnish to CITI, promptly upon recordation, receipted or time stamped copies of the filed financing statements.

5. Authority. Borrower shall furnish to CITI certified documents satisfactory to CITI evidencing Borrower's power and authority to enter into the Mortgage Documents and the Tax-Exempt Loan Documents. If Borrower is a corporation, such documents shall include Borrower's Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, corporate resolution relevant to the Loan and a Certificate of Good Standing from the state of incorporation and the state where the Property is located. If Borrower is a partnership, such documents shall include a copy of the partnership agreement and partnership certificate, and the above-referenced corporate documents for any corporate general partner of Borrower. If Borrower is a limited liability company, such documents shall include a copy of the Articles of Organization and Operating Agreement and the Certificate of Authenticity or Certificate of Good Standing from the state of organization and the state where the Property is located.

6. Leases. The standard form of lease used at the Property shall be subject to the prior written approval of CITI. All new leases and renewals of existing leases shall be made on the approved standard form of lease unless otherwise agreed to by CITI. There must be no commercial leases affecting the Property, except for any laundry lease and other commercial lease disclosed in writing to and approved in writing by CITI and its counsel prior to the date of this Commitment. Any current commercial lease or laundry lease must be subordinated to the lien of the Security Instrument and other Mortgage Documents. Borrower agrees that any future commercial lease or laundry lease or renewal of any current commercial lease or laundry lease will contain language acceptable to CITI subordinating said lease to the lien of the Security Instrument and other Mortgage Documents. There must be no default under any current commercial lease or laundry lease.

7. Borrower's Management Agreement. Borrower shall furnish to CITI a copy of Borrower's management agreement. The management agreement must be with a professional management company and both the management company and the terms of the management agreement must be approved in writing by CITI. Borrower shall not make or permit to be made any changes to the management agreement without the prior written approval of CITI. Without limiting the foregoing, the management agreement must be terminable by owner on 30 days' notice, with or without cause and without payment of any termination fee. If required by CITI, a portion of the management fee may be required to be subordinated to debt service and other amounts payable with respect to the Loan.

Such insurance for the Property shall include, without limitation, coverage for acts of terrorism and, if applicable, flood insurance (as more particularly set forth in Paragraph 17 below). In addition, Borrower must deliver prior to closing (i) the original, or a copy certified by the insurance agent, of the policy(ies) of insurance; or (ii) the insurance binder; or (iii) a certificate of insurance (Acord Form 28 property or Acord Form 27 liability or other form, satisfactory to Lender, provided by the insurance agent); or (iv) original letter from the insurance carrier on the primary layer, signed by an officer of such carrier, attaching the form of insurance policy pursuant to which coverage is being provided, and, if applicable, original letter from each insurance carrier on the excess layers, signed by an officer of such carrier(s) agreeing that it is bound to the form of insurance policy delivered by the primary carrier (i.e., agreeing to "follow form" to the primary carrier). The letter must set forth the date by which the policy will be delivered to CITI, which must not be more than sixty (60) days following closing. All mortgagee/loss payee/additional insured endorsements must be attached to the letter.

12. Permits/Occupancy. Borrower shall deliver to CITI evidence satisfactory to CITI that all applicable governmental authorities have authorized construction of the Improvements and the development and, if applicable, the operation of the Property as a multifamily residential unit, including, without limitation, occupancy permits (if applicable) and building permits. Any nonresidential occupancy must be approved in writing by CITI.

13. Zoning/Subdivision. Borrower shall deliver to CITI certification from the local governmental authority (i) that the use of the Property as a multifamily residential complex complies with all zoning and subdivision ordinances and regulations applicable to the Property and that it is either a legal, conforming use or a legal, nonconforming use acceptable under CITI's underwriting standards, (ii) that the Property has been properly subdivided, and (iii) that the improvements on the Property can be rebuilt on the same location to their presently existing size, shape and density if partially or totally destroyed.

14. Access/Utilities. Borrower shall deliver to CITI evidence satisfactory to CITI that the Property is located on a publicly dedicated and maintained roadway or acceptable easement thereto, is served by public water and sewer systems, electricity and telephone service, and receives adequate municipal services (fire, police and transportation, among others).

15. Other Compliance. Borrower shall deliver to CITI evidence satisfactory to CITI that the Property, and Borrower's operation thereof, is in compliance with all local and/or state building, safety, health and fire codes, all clean air and water acts and other Hazardous Materials Laws (as hereinafter defined), and all equal opportunity, anti-discriminatory and fair housing requirements.

16. Survey. Borrower shall deliver to CITI a current, certified, "boundary" or "as-built" (as applicable) ALTA survey of the Property and surveyor's certificate, prepared by a registered engineer or surveyor approved by CITI. The survey and surveyor's certificate shall be satisfactory in form and substance to CITI and shall contain those matters set forth in CITI's survey instructions.

17. Flood Zone Map/Certification/Insurance. In addition, the Regulatory & Operating Agreement ("R&O"), Land Use Restriction Agreement, ACC, and other documents relative to the public housing nature of the Property are subject to CITI's full review and approval.

Re: Partnership: To be determined Single Purpose Entity, an affiliate of RUDG, LLC
Property Name: Liberty Square Rising - Phase 4D
City/State: Miami, Florida

Dear Mr. Milo:

This letter will confirm our agreement ("Agreement") whereby Raymond James Tax Credit Funds, Inc. ("RJTCF") shall attempt to effect a closing ("Closing") of an investment by a Fund sponsored by RJTCF (the "RJTCF Fund") in the above named partnership ("Partnership") on the assumptions, terms, and conditions contained in this letter, or such other assumptions, terms and conditions as are acceptable to you, RJTCF and the RJTCF Fund.

CURRENT ASSUMPTIONS:

I. DESCRIPTION OF THE PROJECT AND THE INVESTMENT.

A. Project:

1. New Construction
2. Units: 240
3. Set-aside Requirements: 48 units at 50% or less of median income and 192 units at 120% or less of median income
4. Rental Assistance: None
5. Management Company: TRG Management Company, LLP
6. General Contractor: Fortune Construction Company, LLP.

B. Tax Credit Information:

1. Reserved or Allocated Credits: $353,268.
2. Estimated Partnership Annual Credits: $353,268.
3. RJTCF Fund's Share of Partnership Annual Credits: 99.99%
4. Estimated RJTCF Fund Annual Credits: $353,233.
5. Applicable Fraction: 20% with 130% basis boost.
6. Applicable Percentage: 3.21% (floating).
7. First Credit Year: 2021.

C. Equity Investment:

1. Estimated $1.12 per dollar of the RJTCF Fund Total Credits ("Credit Price"), subject to market conditions and availability of funds.
2. Estimated RJTCF Fund Total Capital: $3,956,206.
Note that actual contributions are based on actual credits delivered. If actual RJTCF Fund Total Credits are less than the estimated amount, RJTCF Fund Total Capital will be reduced by the shortfall times the Credit Price. If actual RJTCF Fund Total Credits are greater than the estimated amount ("Excess Credits") and such Excess Credits are not attributable to an additional reservation of Credits, then the RJTCF Fund Total Capital will be increased by an amount equal to the Excess Credits times the Credit Price, but RJTCF Fund Total Capital shall not exceed 105% of the Estimated RJTCF Fund Total Capital except as provided below. The RJTCF Fund will specify the terms, if any, under which it will purchase any Excess Credits attributable to an additional reservation of Credits, and/or those that would otherwise cause capital contributions to exceed 105% of the Estimated Total Capital. If those terms provide for a credit price less than the Credit Price, the General Partners can accept or reject those terms. Any Excess Credits that the RJTCF Fund is unwilling to buy or that the General Partners are unwilling to sell at the price specified by the RJTCF Fund shall be allocated to the General Partners.

3. Installment Payment of Estimated RJTCF Fund Total Capital:
   a. $1,186,862 (30%) at Closing, of which $50,000.00 shall be paid directly to RJTCF in payment of its due diligence fee
   b. $1,100,000 (28%) at later of April 1, 2021 or 100% Construction Completion.
   d. $1,669,344 (42%) at later of July 1, 2021 or Stabilized Operations ("Stabilization Capital Contribution"), of which $100,000 may be held back and paid when all required tax filing information and Forms 8609 are received and audited financials for the year of Breakeven Operations are available.

   All payments will be subject to various deliveries required by the RJTCF Fund as described in the definitive documents, including without limitation, updates of representations and warranties previously given to the RJTCF Fund.

4. Timing Adjusters:
   The capital contribution of the RJTCF Fund shall be reduced by 55% of the shortfall between the Credits actually delivered and the Credits estimated to be delivered in 2021 and 2022. Currently, it is estimated that the Partnership will deliver $320,149 (90.63%) of Credits in 2021 and the maximum annual credit in 2022. The capital contribution of the RJTCF Fund shall be adjusted if and to the extent that the RJTCF Fund is admitted after Credits have begun to run. It is intended that the adjustments and/or payments required by this Section are to compensate the Investor Limited Partner for the delay in the receipt of Tax Credit and the Lease-Up Adjuster may be reduced if the Investor Limited Partner determines in the exercise of its sole and absolute discretion that the full Lease-Up Adjuster is not required to maintain the expected return on investment of its members.

In the event that the actual Credits with respect to the first Credit Year are more than the Credits projected for such years, then the capital contribution of the RJTCF Fund to the Partnership shall be increased by an amount (the "Upward Timing Adjustment") equal to 35% of such excess; provided, that any such increase is subject to the overall limitation that RJTCF Fund Total Capital cannot exceed 105% of estimated RJTCF Total Capital without RJTCF Fund consent. The Upward Timing Adjustment shall be made and applied to increase the Stabilization Capital Contribution. It is understood and agreed that the Upward Timing Adjustment is intended to address any acceleration in the delivery of the first year of the Credit Period from the projected Credit amounts during such year where the total projected Credits for the entire Credit Period is not affected and that the Upward Timing Adjustment may be decreased if the RJTCF Fund determines in the exercise of its sole and absolute discretion that a smaller Upward Timing Adjustment must be paid in order to maintain the expected return on investment of its investors.

D. Allocation of Distributions:

1. Asset Management Fee: The RJTCF Fund shall receive an annual asset management fee of $5,000, increasing at 3.00% per year prior to any cash distributions. The Asset Management Fee shall begin once the Project has been placed in service and shall be prorated for the year that the Project is placed in service. The fee shall be cumulative to the extent unpaid in any year and shall be payable from sale proceeds of the property to the extent not previously paid. The fee must be paid in order for the Partnership to remain Current; thus, if cash flow is not sufficient to pay the fee, it shall be paid from available reserves or from loans made by the General Partner or Guarantors under the Operating Deficit Guaranty.

2. Cash From Operations: Cash available to be distributed after paying Partnership expenses (including the Asset Management Fee), funding the Replacement Reserve, and maintaining working capital reserves. Cash From Operations shall be allocated in the following order:

   a. To the RJTCF Fund to the extent of any amounts owed, including amounts to be paid under Tax Credit Guaranty;
   b. To replenish the Operating Reserve if the balance therein is less than the Operating Reserve Minimum;
   c. To the Developer to pay any unpaid Deferred Development Fee;
   d. To the General Partners or Guarantors to repay any loans due under the Operating Deficit Guaranty;
   e. 89.99% to the General Partners as an incentive management fee;
   f. The balance 0.01% to the General Partners, and 99.99% to the RJTCF Fund.

In all events, the RJTCF Fund must receive at least 10% of the amount available for distributions to partners and payment of incentive management fees to the General Partners. Available cash from operations will be distributed biannually.

3. CashFromSaleorRefinancing: Proceeds available after paying all liabilities and establishing any required reserves shall be allocated in accordance with capital accounts, in the following order:

   a. To the RJTCF Fund to the extent of any amounts owed, including unpaid amounts under Tax Credit Guaranty;
   b. To pay any accrued but unpaid Asset Management Fee;
   c. To the Developer to pay any unpaid Deferred Development Fee;
   d. To the General Partners or Guarantors to repay any loans due under the Operating Deficit Guaranty;
   e. The balance, 90% to the General Partners and 10% to the RJTCF Fund

The distribution of Cash From Sale or Refinancing shall be subject to the requirement of the Internal Revenue Code that liquidating distributions be made in accordance with capital accounts.

E. Allocations of Profits and Losses:

1. Operating Profits and Losses: 99.99% RJTCF Fund; 0.01% General Partner.
2. Credits and Depreciation: 99.99% RJTCF Fund; 0.01% General Partner.
3. Gain or Loss on Sale: So as to bring the capital accounts into the ratios that will allow Proceeds of Sale to be distributed 90% to the General Partners and 10% to the RJTCF Fund, to the extent possible given the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code and the Treasury Regulations.
4. Operating Income and Losses Prior to Credit Delivery: At the discretion of the RJTCF Fund, Operating Income and Losses attributable to the period prior to the start of Credit delivery may be specially allocated to the General Partners.

F. Developer and Development Fee:

1. Developer: An affiliate of RUDG, LLC
2. Estimated Development Fee: An amount not to exceed the maximum allowable development fee pursuant to FHFC and HUD guidelines.
3. Development Fee pay-ins will be negotiated prior to closing.

   If necessary, part of the development fee, not to exceed $2,000,000, will be deferred beyond the date of the RJTCF Fund's final capital contribution installment, without interest, and shall be paid in accordance with the terms of allocations of Cash From Operations and Cash from Sale or Refinancing or, if not paid within 14 years after placed-in-service date, from General Partners' capital as described below. Any development fee that cannot be paid by the time of the final capital contribution of the RJTCF Fund or deferred in accordance with the foregoing limitation shall be paid as an excess cost under the Completion Guaranty.
4. Development Fee shall be pledged to secure the obligations of the General Partner and the Guarantors.

G. Reserves:

1. Replacement Reserve: $72,000 capitalized at Closing and $72,000 per year ($300 per unit) beginning at the earlier of six months after completion of construction or the first month of Stabilized Operations, increased by 3% per year thereafter. In the aggregate, no more than $20,000 will be withdrawn from the Replacement Reserve in any calendar year without the approval of the RJTCF Fund.
2. Lease-up Reserve: $100,000, to be funded at or prior to Construction Completion. The Lease-up Reserve shall be used to fund operating deficits prior to the Stabilization Capital Contribution. To the extent that funds remain in the Lease-Up Reserve after such contribution, these funds will be transferred to the Operating Reserve to meet the Operating Reserve Requirement and shall be held therein. If such transfer would cause the amount of the Operating Reserve to be greater than the amount otherwise required hereunder to be held in the Operating Reserve, then such excess amount may be used instead to pay deferred Development Fee (except to the extent that the Agency requires a minimum deferred Development Fee or there is no deferred Development Fee, in which case such amount shall remain in the Operating Reserve). To the extent the balance in the Operating Reserve exceeds the amount otherwise required hereunder at the end of the Operating Deficit Period, such excess shall be released from the reserve and distributed as Cash From Operations.
3. Operating Reserve: $918,734, to be funded into the operating reserve account (the "OperatingReserveAccount") at the time of the funding of the Stabilization Capital Contribution. Such Operating Reserve Account shall be maintained for the duration of the Compliance Period (after which, funds on deposit may be released and distributed as Net Cash Flow) and shall be used exclusively to pay for Operating Deficits incurred by the Partnership after the date of the Stabilization Capital Contribution; provided however, that all withdrawals from the Operating Reserve Account that would cause aggregate draws in any one fiscal year to exceed $10,000.00 shall be made only with the Consent of the RJTCF Fund, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. Operating Deficits shall be funded 50% from the Operating Reserve and 50% under the Operating Deficit Guaranty; provided, that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Operating Reserve Account may not be drawn down below $450,000 ("the Operating Reserve Minimum") unless the General Partners have fully funded their obligations under the Operating Deficit Guaranty. Operating Deficits shall be funded 100% from the Operating Reserve once the General Partners have fully funded their obligations under the Operating Deficit Guaranty. Should the balance in the Operating Reserve Account fall below the Operating Reserve Minimum, Net Cash Flow on each Payment Date will be deposited in the Operating Reserve Account to maintain such minimum balance.
5. All reserves shall be established with a lending institution acceptable to (the RJTCF Fund) and shall be subject to withdrawal limitations determined by the RJTCF Fund to be appropriate to ensure the proper use of such funds.

I. Obligations of the Guarantors:

1. Guarantors: The General Partners and PRH Investments, LLC, subject to the approval of RJTCF.

2. Guarantors shall collectively have a minimum net worth of $10,000,000 ($2,000,000 liquid). Distributions from entity guarantors shall be restricted to the extent that any distribution would reduce the net worth of the Guarantors below the prescribed minimums.

3. Guarantors unconditionally guarantee that the General Partners will perform all of their obligations under the partnership agreement, including, without limitation, guaranties, repurchase obligations and the obligation to make a capital contribution as and when required to pay deferred development fee and that the developer will perform all of their obligations under the Development Agreement.

J. Total Depreciable Basis: $42,327,937.

1. $38,112,573 (90.04%) - 27.5 year depreciable property
2. $3,161,523 (7.47%) - 15 year depreciable property
3. $1,053,841 (2.49%) - 5 year depreciable property

K. INTENTIONALLY DELETED.

L. Definitive Documents

All of the terms and conditions of the investment shall be set forth in definitive documents to be negotiated by the parties including but not limited to an Amended and Restated Operating Agreement, together with certain closing exhibits (including various Guaranty Agreements). Such documents shall be consistent with the terms and conditions set forth in this letter with such changes as the parties may agree are appropriate. Once executed, the definitive documents shall supersede this letter, which shall be of no further force or effect. RJTCF will begin preparation of the definitive documents upon the completion of our due diligence to our satisfaction, as determined in our sole discretion.

II. INTENTIONALLY DELTED

III. THE RJTCF FUND EXIT RIGHTS

The RJTCF Fund shall have the right to require the General Partners to acquire its interest after the end of the compliance period for a price equal to the amount the RJTCF Fund would receive if the Partnership sold the Project at fair market value, paid its debts and distributed the remaining assets in accordance with the provisions relating to distribution of sales proceeds. If the General Partners fail to acquire the RJTCF Fund's interest, then the RJTCF Fund shall have the right, without the concurrence of the General Partners, to order a sale of the Project.

IV. OTHER ASSUMPTIONS TO CLOSING

1. Prior to Closing, there shall have been no changes in tax laws or Treasury pronouncements, or changes in interpretations of existing tax issues that would materially and adversely affect this investment.

2. In the event an investment in the Partnership requires HUD Previous Participation Certification (HUD Form 2530), the RJTCF Fund and its investor members are willing and able to request and obtain HUD 2530 approval in accordance with the filing requirements promulgated by HUD.
3. RJTCF and the RJTCF Fund's review and approval in its sole discretion of all terms and conditions of the investment, due diligence materials, including the construction and permanent loan commitments, proposed extended use agreement, real estate, plans and specifications, market study (including any additional market studies determined by the RJTCF Fund and the fund to be necessary - at the Partnership's expense), basis for the Credits, operating budgets, construction and lease-up budgets, current financial statements of the General Partners, other guarantors and their affiliates, verification of background information to be provided by the General Partners and their affiliates, and references to be provided by the General Partners.
4. During underwriting and due diligence, RJTCF will review the rental assistance agreement and market conditions, and may in its sole discretion determine that a Rental Assistance Transition Reserve or Rental Assistance Loss Guarantee be required as a requirement of Closing.

V. TERM

The initial term of this Agreement shall be for a period of 48 months from the date of this letter, with a closing (Closing Date) no later than February 1, 2020 providing that RJTCF may terminate this Agreement by giving at least 10 days written notice if it determines, in the exercise of its sole discretion that the conditions to closing are unlikely to be met. RJTCF may extend the term of this Agreement up to 90 days beyond the initial term and both parties can agree in writing to an extension beyond that date. If due diligence activities and negotiation of definitive documents continue beyond termination of this Agreement, the parties shall not be bound hereunder, but only to the extent provided in definitive documents or other written agreements that are actually executed and delivered.

VI. EXCLUSIVITY

You acknowledge that the RJTCF Fund will expend significant effort and expense, and may forego other investment opportunities, in connection with its best efforts to effect a Closing. You agree that you will not solicit or entertain any offers by other parties to acquire an equity interest in the Partnership during the Term of this Agreement. You agree to pay the RJTCF Fund up to a maximum of $50,000, for actual 3rd party due diligence costs incurred regardless of whether or not the Investment closes, unless such failure to close was due to RJTCF inability to obtain Investment Committee or Investor approval.

The Partnership must provide at its expense a legal opinion acceptable to RJTCF. If required by an Investor in connection with its admission to the RJTCF Fund subsequent to the Closing of the Investment, such opinion must be updated and reissued at Partnership expense.

VII. DUE DILIGENCE FEES

At the Closing, the Partnership shall pay $50,000 or greater negotiated amount to the RJTCF Fund for the costs associated with the due diligence process and preparation of Partnership documents and legal opinions. A higher amount may be appropriate, for example, if the RJTCF Fund undertakes significant work to obtain the title policy, close complicated financings, etc. Such additional charges are subject to negotiation and no amount greater than $50,000 will be incurred or due to the RJTCF Fund from the Partnership without your agreement.

IX. CONFIDENTIALITY

This letter is delivered to you with the understanding that neither it nor its substance shall be disclosed to any third party except those who are in a confidential relationship with you, or where the same is required by law. It is understood this letter will be submitted as part of a response to a request for applications and may be made public record.

X. ACCEPTANCE

If these terms and conditions are acceptable to you, please sign and return one copy of this memorandum. If not accepted by March 1, 2016 this offer shall terminate.

By acceptance of this letter, you authorize Raymond James Tax Credit Funds, Inc. to make any credit inquiries that we may deem necessary as part of our underwriting process. Section 3.12- Resident Job Training, Employment, Section 3 and small and minority firms, women-owned enterprises and labor surplus area firms plan and commitments

A) Employ Miami-Dade

Related Urban is committed to implementing multiple construction and post construction job training programs for the residents of Liberty Square Rising which primarily encompasses zip codes 33142 and 33147. A special emphasis will be placed on job training for ex-offenders.

Related Urban has secured an MOU with Miami Dade College to provide numerous training programs at the Carrie P. Meek Entrepreneurial Education Center, which is located just five blocks east of Liberty Square and their North Campus which is less than five miles away. In addition, we have secured an MOU with The Urban Construction Craft Academy ("UCCA") whose office is located at 6300 NW 27th Avenue, just a few blocks west of Liberty Square. The academy is run by William Dozier, a Florida Licensed General Contractor and a retired Miami Dade College and FAMU professor, who specializes in training ex-offenders.

We will begin this training initiative immediately upon the RFA award so we can have as many residents as possible trained prior to commencing construction. The objective is to help Employ Miami-Dade accomplish its goals of connecting employers with potential workers, provide the skills training necessary to prepare the targeted residents to enter the workforce and ensure that Miami-Dade County residents are first in line to be considered for jobs that offer good wages and upward mobility.

Based on Related Urban's past experience, we project that there will be approximately 5,780 construction jobs and 358 post-construction jobs created in the redevelopment of Liberty Square Rising. Related Urban commits to provide a minimum of 20% of the construction jobs created and 75% of the post construction jobs, to Section 3 eligible residents, resulting in 1,158 Section 3 construction jobs and 267 Section 3 post-construction jobs.

Special consideration and first priority for jobs will be given to the residents of Liberty Square Rising, and to persons residing in zip codes 33142 and 33147, and ex-offenders that will participate in the job training programs offered by our job training partners.

B) Section 3 of the HUD Act of 1968

Related Urban recognizes that Utilization of Minority (MBE) and Women (WBE) Business Enterprises and Section 3 businesses promotes local economic development and neighborhood improvement. As a strong supporter of the local community, we will ensure that opportunities are provided to qualified DBE, MBE, WBE and Section 3 businesses. Furthermore, we will remain committed to ensure that employment and other economic opportunities, to the greatest extent feasible, are directed to low and very low income persons, particularly persons who are recipients of HUD assistance for housing. This also includes our commitment to provide contracting opportunities to locally owned small or minority businesses. Upon commencement of the construction, Related Urban will seek to meet the goals and objectives consistent with the Presidential Executive Order 11625, 12138 and 12432 and Section 3 standards of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 (12 U.S.C. 1701u) (Section 3).

C) Commitment to Job Training classes for residents

Related Urban is committed to providing excellent job training and certification opportunities as well as job placement services for the residents of Liberty Square Rising. We have strategically partnered with Miami Dade College and The Urban Construction Craft Academy ("UCCA"). Through their programs, we will prepare residents for construction employment in the redevelopment of Liberty Square Rising as well as in the competitive job market after construction completion. A special emphasis will be placed on reaching residents living in the 33142 and 33147 zip codes as well as ex-offenders to offer them job training classes.

Miami Dade College will provide training programs at the Carrie P. Meek Entrepreneurial Education Center ("MDCEC") and at their North Campus. The target participants are typically between the ages of 18 and 24, out of school and who have a high school diploma or GED. Those who have not received their high school diploma or GED will be supported by having an opportunity to enroll in MDCEC Adult Basic Education and GED Program.

These programs will be offered on a year-round basis during the Fall, Spring and Summer terms with lengths varying from 40 hours, particularly for the basic construction certification programs, to one year for some of the college credit programs. Although we anticipate having sufficient capacity and classroom space available to meet the demand, if interest exceeds the suggested MDCEC anticipated class sizes of 15 to 30 students, we will work with the college to expand their resources in order to accommodate everyone who is interested in participating. No one will be left behind. See attached class schedule and capacity chart.

The partnership with Miami-Dade College will allow Related Urban to offer programs that will prepare the Liberty Square Rising residents for employment opportunities in a number of workforce related industries that will elevate their quality of life. A summary of these workforce and job training programs include:

- TRAMCON: Training and Certification Programs in Manufactured Construction – the TRAMCON program, which is offered at no cost to the participants, is a comprehensive, four tiered program that concentrates on Manufactured Construction and offers different levels of industry-recognized certificates, including Bachelor of Science degrees. Additional fee based certificates are also offered in more than 60 craft specialties including, HVAC, painting, scaffolding, drywall, concrete finishing, masonry, signal person and electrical, to name a few.
- Green Collar Jobs – This program is part of MDC's Green Technology Institute. It is a 40 hour entry level course and includes Photovoltaic Design and Installation, or solar electric training. Miami-Dade College is one of the few institutions in South Florida offering this type of training.
- Entrepreneurship and Advanced Manufacturing – This program is part of MDC's Creative Entrepreneurship Studio. These programs, which include the Lean Manufacturing Certificate and the Entrepreneurship Certificate, are courses in entrepreneurship and engineering that lead to short-term certificates that prepare students for Greenbelt Certification and the skills to become an entrepreneur.
- Other Short-Term Training Options – MDCEC offers various other programs, including certification in Early Childhood Education, Cisco Network Associate, Culinary Arts Management, and Information Technology Support.

  Additionally, the UCCA will offer construction training programs that connect experienced master craftsman with disadvantaged urban youth and young adults.

The programs that UCCA has committed to include are General Liability Academy, Construction Trades Academy, Green Building Academy, Renewable Energy Academy, Arts & Crafts Construction Academy, Technology Academy, and an Entrepreneurship Academy. The programs will be developed, implemented, and staffed by UCCA, which will also work to recruit new students from zip codes 33142 and 33147 and ex-offenders. The capacity per class would not exceed 12 students per academy class. Although we do not anticipate capacity issues, if they arise we will expand our resources in order to accommodate everyone who is interested in participating.

Related Urban will actively work with community residents to promote these programs. Job training classes will have unlimited capacity and offer classes in all construction trades along with several other careers. The classes will be held six days per week with a structured curriculum for anyone who would like to attend.

Related Urban will also encourage residents to participate by offering transportation to the Miami-Dade College North Campus as well as childcare during classes for those parents who are enrolled in our partner's job training and placement programs. See attached the MOU's from Miami-Dade College and the Urban Construction Craft Academy.

Based on Related Urban's past experience, we estimate that there will be approximately 5,780 construction jobs and 358 post-construction jobs created in the redevelopment of Liberty Square Rising. Related Urban commits to providing a minimum of 20% of the construction jobs created and 75% of the post construction jobs, to Section 3 eligible residents, which will create 1,158 Section 3 construction jobs and 267 Section 3 post-construction jobs.

Special consideration and first priority for jobs will be given to the current residents of Liberty Square Rising, and to persons residing in zip codes 33142 and 33147, and ex-offenders that will participate in the job training programs offered by our job training partners. See attached work plan that demonstrates our projected job creation estimates for construction and post-construction jobs by trade.

To promote community participation and hiring, Related Urban has secured an MOU with The Relocation and Development Firm ("TDF") which is a certified SBE, MWBE and MBE. TDF provides professional consulting and business services to private developers and government agencies. TDF will assist us in developing our local hiring program, perform community outreach and education, coordinate resource fairs and identify qualified Small Business Enterprises ("SBE"), Micro Business Enterprise ("MBE"), Minority / Women Business Enterprise ("M/WBE") businesses. TDF is one of the premier local hiring coordinators in South Florida with a proven track record of success on several major redevelopment projects. Some of their recent projects include All Aboard Florida, the Marriot Marquis World Center, the Miami World Center and Courtside Family Apartments.

The Section 3 (S-3) business certification is subject to subsequent periodic recertifications.

Partners and Resources Contributing to Liberty City/Liberty Square Well-Being

January 29, 2016

Alberto Milo, Jr.
Principal / Senior Vice President Related Urban
444 Brickell Avenue, Suite 301
Miami, Fl. 33131

Dear Mr. Milo:

On behalf of the Mourning Family Foundation, I would like to express my support to Related Urban in their project proposal to develop Liberty Square in the area currently known as Liberty City. Our support is large, and in part because of our mission is to advocate, inspire, empower and enrich the lives of youth and families growing up in urban communities.

To this end, I fervently support the efforts of Related Urban, a developer that understands the need for a comprehensive approach to changing communities. Related Urban has identified the Mourning Family Foundation (MFF) as an organization that's best in its class and that we will partner with Related Urban to expand its program services to the areas of Liberty City, particularly, Liberty Square.

Underneath the Mourning's umbrella, The Overtown Youth Center (OYC), a replica of the Self Enhancement Incorporated (SEI) Comprehensive Model, has proven to be an effective model that can be a tremendous benefit to this area. OYC has provided services to over 2,300 students and families within the Overtown community in an effort to bridge social, emotional, familial and academic gaps. MFF believes a huge part of student success is stable homes, which begins with living conditions that children and families can be proud of MFF is committed to supporting initiatives that propose to change the trajectory of young people growing up in areas where public schools are located, especially those plagued by low socio-economic conditions that reduce the chances of young people from becoming successful in school and in life. MFF is committed to joining forces with Related Urban and ensuring that their priorities lie in opportunities, environments and programs in which children and families can thrive.

MFF and its program affiliates take a holistic approach to improving the lives of children and families through effective programming. These programs consist of high quality, structured, service components that include the following: in-school support services, after-school program services, summer program services, and high/post-high school services.

These programs offer life skills, homework assistance, mentoring, tutoring, service learning and a wide range of enrichment and exposure activities to help develop a well-rounded child. Many of the enrichment activities seek to explore the gifts and talents of young people and to stimulate academic success. Some of these activities include, but are not limited to: art, music, dance, photography, creative writing and speech, culinary, horticulture, physical fitness and STEM project-based learning activities.

Additionally, these programs offer parent empowerment services and activities designed to strengthen families in the areas of child advocacy, health, wellness, and financial stability.

We look forward to being a part of a winning team that will build a community based center in partnership with MFF to ensure that we can achieve the following goals:

100% of post high school students will become positive contributing citizens (enroll in college, vocational trade, armed forces or employment)
85% of students will maintain acceptable levels of attendance and behavior
85% of students will maintain and improve literacy skills
100% of high school seniors will graduate from high school 100% of students will be exposed to new places, ideas and/or concepts to improve their chances of being successful

70% of parents will be active participants in the Liberty City and Brownsville Mourning Foundation Youth Centers' parent empowerment programs.

Without consistent positive intervention, many of the youth residing in Miami-Dade County are destined to repeat an impoverished cycle faced by several generations before them. We understand that our support is vital.

Currently, MFF engages a host of funders and partners who are committed to investing in our future through youth development and family empowerment including:

> Miami-Dade County Public School District, Lennar Corporation, RJKB Family Charitable Foundation, Carnival Foundation, Jan and Daniel Lewis, Self Enhancement Incorporated, The Batchelor Foundation, United Way, The Children's Trust, AAR Corporation, 100 Black Men of South Florida, Bank of America, Wells Fargo, Comcast, University of Miami, Target, Publix, Walmart, The John S. and James L. Knight Foundation, United Health Care, Barry University School of Social Work, Camillus House & Health Concerns, Dress for Success/Suited for Success Miami, Florida International University-Education Effect, Miami-Dade County Health Department, New Horizons Community Mental Health Center, Touching Miami With Love, URGENT, Inc. and many others.

I know that supporting this historic redevelopment and program expansion will open a pipeline of other resources which gives our young people and their families a chance to "win."

Sincerely,

William Diggs

FOUNDATION FOR SICKLE CELL DISEASE RESEARCH

SUPPORTING AND PROMOTING HEMOGLOBINOPATHY RESEARCH

January 29, 2106

Alberto Milo, Jr.
Vice President - Related Urban
444 Brickell Avenue, Suite 301
Miami, Florida 33301

Dear Mr. Milo,

The Liberty Square re-development presents an exciting opportunity for individuals who live with the genetically inherited disorder sickle cell disease (SCD). Sickle Cell Disease primarily affects people of African descent and Liberty City is a predominantly African American community; 84% of the 40,000 residents racially identify as Black. National statistics show that Sickle Cell Disease occurs among approximately 1 in every 396 African Americans births in the United States (US). The Center for Disease Control, National Center on Birth Defects and Developmental Disorders indicates that 1 in every 12 African Americans carries the sickle cell trait. Hispanics and individuals of Mediterranean descent (Turkey, Greece, and Italy) may also be at risk for SCD. Current demographic data show that in the census tracts outside the core of Liberty City, the number of Hispanic residents has been increasing over the past decade. Overall, 15% of the community is Hispanic; national data show that SCD occurs among approximately 1 out of every 36,000 Hispanic-American births.

There is growing evidence of increased mortality from SCD among adolescents and adults. For example, an analysis of National Center for Health Statistics multiple-cause-of death files from 1979 to 2005 identified 16,654 sickle cell-related deaths. Further examination of age at death and mortality rates for those with SCD showed that mean age at death was significantly different for males (33.4 years) than for females (36.9 year).

Sickle Cell Disease is chronic, debilitating and disproportionately affects our country's most vulnerable populations, many of whom experience fragmented, poor quality and often inhumane care. Day-to-day SCD patients experience medical complications including pain crisis that tax the healthcare system. Frequent use of emergency rooms is one concern and leads to fragmented care by physicians and nursing staff. The chronic and often debilitating nature of SCD makes it hard for medical staff to render optimal care. Clearly, improving access to quality care and ensuring the overall health of SCD patients is a critical challenge facing the US health delivery system.

Florida has the highest population of individuals with SCD in the US with the majority living in metropolitan Miami. The picture of acute care utilization is as follows: 94% of patients have visits to the Emergency Department (ED) of which 46% are treated and released to home without admission to the hospital. Overall, 77% have had a hospital admission and re-hospitalization rate at 30 days is 33.4%. The most common cause for hospitalizations and ED visits, is the hallmark of this disease, painful vaso-occlusive or "sickle cell crisis." The crisis arises because the sickled blood cell impedes vascular blood flow and can lead to major organ damage. The combined financial impact of both ED and hospital utilization charges for SCD has been estimated at $2.4 billion annually. Most patients have public insurance as the payer source. Ninety percent of ED and hospital admissions can be avoided with appropriate access to a care model that provides supportive psychological care along with a holistic medical treatment approach.

The solution to the growing disparity of care and treatment of sickle cell disease is to meet individuals where they are in the community and provide medical and behavioral treatment services they need. Over the past few years, I have been engaged in a process of developing sustained community outreach for SCD patients. We began by creating an outpatient clinical model for a large tertiary hospital located in South Florida, which resulted in reduced ED and hospital admissions for individuals age 16 years and older. The program has been in existence now for eighteen (18) years. In November, 2014, we then opened the Foundation for Sickle Cell Disease Research, a sickle cell holistic medical specialty center located in Broward County, Florida. The efforts of the Foundation provides a vehicle for medical treatment providers to address the behavioral, social, and medical needs of SCD patients. Importantly, these services are delivered within the community they reside and capitalize on the strengths of community resources. The response from the patient community has been remarkable. Patients and their families have a Home with easy access, and with a knowledgeable and compassionate care team.

The Foundation for Sickle Cell Disease Research is excited to offer a network site in the Liberty Square Community. We anticipate 2,500 – 3,000 square feet will be needed to design a state-of-the-art holistic sickle cell specialty center in the redeveloped Liberty Square. The additional expertise you provide through partnerships for economic development and access to employment and educational opportunities will address important barriers as many SCD patients are also challenged with obtaining stable employment and finding adequate housing.

The prevalence of SCD and sickle cell trait in the Liberty City community makes it a great location for the Foundation for Sickle Cell Disease Research to have a network presence in the now planned 21,000 square foot Wellness Center.

We look forward to working with you on this endeavor.

Sincerely,

Casa Valentina

February 1, 2016

RUDG
Alberto Milo, Jr, Principal
444 Brickell Avenue, Suite 301

Re: Liberty Square Redevelopment

Dear Albert:

Casa Valentina enthusiastically supports Related Urban's initiative application to redevelop the Liberty Square housing project. Our mission is to help foster care youth transition to independent living through housing and services. Related Urban's plan provides a footprint for integrating this growing and often overlooked population into a stable community that will help them proudly reach successful independence. We applaud your efforts to embark upon comprehensive redevelopment that will be transformative and impact one of Miami's most historic neighborhoods.

Casa Valentina is fortunate to be in its 10th year of providing affordable transitional housing and support for a limited number of young adults aging out of foster care in Miami-Dade County. While we are proud of the current level of services we offered to this very vulnerable special needs population, the unmet demand for additional housing cannot be ignored. Redevelopment of Liberty Square represents a response to a call to action to care for young men and women with unlimited potential to be productive members of our community.

Young people aging out of foster care at age 18 without a stable support system face immense challenges. Each year, in Miami-Dade County approximately 300 youth age out; throughout the Unites States, that number grows to 24,000. They are vulnerable to homelessness (33%), dropping out of school (57%), and early childbearing (65%). Nationally, more than two-thirds are unemployed at age 21. Freed from worrying about where they will live, these young adults can focus on their future.

As Liberty Square is redeveloped, it is imperative that units will be set aside for young adults leaving the child welfare system. We look forward to working with Related Urban to develop quality and safe affordable housing in an environment convenient to transportation, services and community amenities; an environment that will support this population moving forward to successful and sustainable independence.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Milo:

Please accept this letter of acknowledgement of the collaboration between Related Urban and the 100 Black Men of South Florida as it relates to Related Urban's planned redevelopment of historic Liberty Square. As you are aware, the 100 Black Men of South Florida, Inc. (the "100") is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation that is comprised of professional men who all share the common goal of improving the quality of life for Caribbean and African-Americans as well as other minorities in Miami-Dade County. The members of the 100 have accepted a leadership role toward combating the plagues of violence, illiteracy, professional stagnation and political and economic disenfranchisement that infect our community.

The 100's collaboration with Related Urban will result in the 100 occupying 5,000 square feet of space at Liberty Square. The 100 will use the space as a permanent home for its signature program, The Dr. Harold E. Guinyard Leadership Academy, which provides consistent mentoring and intervention services to young men beginning in the 7th grade through their matriculation into college. Presently housed at the Overtown Youth Center, the 23 year old program enjoys a 100% high school graduation rate among its Young Leaders. The 100 also intends to use the space as a home for its Positive Youth Development Program, which empowers young male middle school students of all backgrounds to continue to set and achieve positive life goals while teaching them how to cope with the peer pressures and the hurdles that we know can deter them from achieving their dreams and life goals. Finally, we will also use the space as our permanent home, thereby ensuring that professional black men will be an ever-present part of the "new Liberty Square".

During our conversations, I know that you share the ideals and goals of the 100, and that you appreciate the importance and the meaning of our motto, "What they see is what they'll be". The redevelopment of Liberty Square will play a critical role in making a better Miami-Dade for all people, and the 100 Black Men of South Florida is proud to join your other community partners to realize this goal together.

Sincerely,

Stephen Hunter Johnson

Dear Mr. Milo:

We are delighted that you and your colleague Doug Mayer took the time to meet with myself and our Executive Director of Head Start, Malerie Sloshay. As you know, Easter Seals South Florida helps over 1,500 individuals with special needs and their families each year in Miami and Broward Counties by Supporting and Strengthening Families living with Alzheimer's, Autism and other disabilities in our community.

We have been providing services in our community for more than 80 years including:

- Adult Day Care; allowing adults living with Alzheimer's disease and dementia to spend their days in our centers with caring staff while their caregivers work, so they can return to their families every evening rather than living in a nursing home.
- Child development center, elementary & middle school and a culinary arts high school; each providing expert and focused help for children with autism and other special needs so they can reach their fullest potential and make progress on their journey towards independence.
- Head Start program at six locations; providing high quality, early-childhood education to preschool children living in impoverished communities, as well as support and services their families need to raise their children so they enter kindergarten ready to learn and their families are better equipped to break the cycle of poverty.

We are happy to hear about the County's plans for renovating and enhancing the Liberty City community. Easter Seals has been providing services for children, seniors and families in this community for many years and this is our fourth year operating a Head Start program. We are happy to hear that during the renovation process you understand and appreciate the importance of not disrupting the vital school readiness & family support services provided on a daily basis. We are also pleased that you plan to work with the families currently residing in the community to ensure that through all phases they will not be displaced and they will have temporary housing until the project is complete and they can move into their new home.

Further, we greatly appreciate that fact that you commit to involving members of the community and service providers during the process of assessing the needs for neighborhood related to healthcare, education, employment and other support services needed to support the children and families living in one of Miami Dade County's oldest and largest housing projects.

We wish you success in your reapplication, and if selected, Easter Seals welcomes the opportunity to work with you to better our community.

Sincerely,

Loreen Chant

Mr. Milo,

CREATIVE COMMERCIAL INSIGHT AND RESTORATIONS ("CCIR") is a local restoration company lead by an artist, Addonis Parker, with several years of experience in construction as well as the art industry. Our mission has been to revitalize the urban communities.

Using art as a platform, CCIR is designed and committed to completely restoring public art in communities like Liberty City that may not be aware that such services are available. We also create new art, including murals, that reflects the culture of the community. With this in mind, this letter is our proposal for the new "Unity Thrones of Peace".

It is a privilege to be considered for this project. As a professional artist and muralist I understand the value of the existing work and will work closely in collaboration with your team to meet the project specifications. I have, in the past, restored murals as well as sculptures from a few well known artists including Romero Britto (Grapeland Park water sculptures),the late Oscar Thomas (Prince of Peace Mural 62nd Street & 7th Ave.), George Greenamyer (16 Smokes Sculpture –Dadeland South Metro Rail Station), and a host of others.

It is the intent of (CCIR), to develop a future partnership with Related Urban Development Group on key issues that artistically you seek answers.

Full details of the installation of public art and process will be provided. The initial procedures will involve fabricating 4 structured throne model art pieces, building platforms centering on 200ft areas — all thrones will face Unity Hall to serve as historical road map to the museum (Unity Hall), assembling each throne on sight --following the nature of design ("Unity Thrones of Peace"). The estimated schedule timeline for completion of the project is approximately 5 months at the most, factoring in uncertain weather conditions.

I have enclosed supporting documents for the project, resume and images of previous work for your review and reference. I look forward to working with your organization and to be considered as a community partner and future investment.

Sincerely,

Addonis Parker
CEO

BIOGRAPHY

The force behind Addonis Parker's images was born out of love of creation and the respect and honor of his past forerunners who had neither the opportunities nor the civil rights to become the artist that he is today. He is an American artist who paints and understands the impact of his contributions as an artist to his community. Addonis Parker was well known in Central Florida, Atlanta, Georgia art circles before coming to Miami. He has been recognized for his artistic ability since the age of 4. He is an accomplished portrait painter, muralist and collage painter. Addonis attended Brevard Community College in Florida majoring in Art and Computer Science. He attended Morris Brown College in Atlanta, Georgia obtaining continuing education credits in Art History & Music, and started an AUC Center art group from 1997 to 1998. It was then that Addonis became involved in after-school and community based art programs as the Program Director for recreation art, and science classes at the YMCA.

Mr. Parker is very sensitive to the needs of young people today. Endeavoring to help steer them in a better direction, he gives time and talent to the youth of his community, teaching art, working with youth on public mural projects, and mentoring. His talent has served as a meaningful vehicle to accomplish these tasks. His work with the community influences his body of work and serves as a reminder to all of the beauty of African-American culture.

Addonis Parker's paintings are strong and real. He captures the strength of character, deep emotional expressions and struggles of Black life in a manner that only a few have dared to paint. Addonis was deeply inspired by the works and life stories of Charles White and Ernie Barnes. He shares their philosophy of using art to address social issues and inspire a sense of pride in the minds and hearts of all towards Black people. His paintings are his voice, a voice of love for his people.

His love and talent for art is almost innate. Inspired by family, life experiences, and his own struggles with life in the inner city even being homeless himself for a while, Addonis made the decision to give back to the inner city by teaching art and establishing art programs for inner city kids in Miami. From the YMCA to group homes for boys and the juvenile justice system to his own Art Forever Studio in Miami, Addonis is striving to reach the hearts and artistic minds of at-risk youths. The titles he has held in that regard have almost been as many as the awards he's received and pieces he has done for several city and state governments, major corporations, and educational facilities.

Dear Mr. Milo:

I am delighted to have the opportunity to write this letter of support for the resubmission of your application to Miami-Dade County Public Housing and Community Development's RFA for the Redevelopment of Liberty Square and Lincoln Gardens "Liberty Square Rising" RFA 2015-01. We understand and support the idea that the redevelopment of Liberty Square provides our community with the opportunity to reach out to the residents of Liberty City to provide job training and employment.

We understand Related Urban is one of the largest developers of affordable housing in Florida and has the financial strength and experience to successfully complete the redevelopment of Liberty Square. Further, Related Urban has also demonstrated its willingness to meet with and to accommodate whenever possible the ideas and concerns of Liberty City residents.

MEYGA is an acronym for Multi Ethnic Youth Group Association and our headquarters and services are located in the Community Center space at Liberty Square. MEYGA is a nonprofit organization that has a school, a after school and summer program for the youth of Liberty Square and surrounding areas, as well as a variety of services and activities for the elderly. It provides excellent role models, educational, cultural, and social activities that these kids so desperately need.

MEYGA has been providing these services to residents at the Liberty Square Community Center at the no charge for 10 years and there is no other service program for the children above the age of 5 years who live at Liberty Square. MEYGA is now working with Kevin Kirwin, Director of the City of Miami Parks Department, to obtain use of the African Square Park (which is directly across the street from Liberty Square) for its programs which will give MEYGA a new and larger temporary home while the redevelopment of Liberty Square takes place.

We wish you success in your reapplication and if selected MEYGA welcomes the opportunity to work with you to better our community.

Sincerely,

Joan Bellamy

Dear Mr. Milo:

I write to express my support for the proposal submitted on behalf of Related Urban Development Group, LLC for the Liberty Square Development Project. Upon review of the concept, I am incredibly pleased with the level of care taken to create a viable and more importantly, a sustainable community. The proposal contemplates a holistic development to include healthcare, education and high quality living spaces that work together to create a fertile environment for business to grow and prosper. As the President of South Florida's only historically black college, I am also particularly impressed with the proposal's inclusion of a museum area to document and preserve the unique history and character of Liberty City. Further, it is clear Related shares my passion for education. Florida Memorial University stands ready to partner as we endeavor to find ways to expand access to educational opportunities for underserved communities like Liberty City. I hope to continue our conversations about offering courses and programs to residents and providing scholarship assistance to deserving students from the community.

While many have expressed a desire to play a role in the development of Liberty Square, I am happy to see a company with a stellar track record of community redevelopment compete for this important project. It is my sincere hope that Related Urban Development Group's thorough proposal receives a favorable review. The company has invested the time and energy into creating a plan that captures the essence of Liberty City and prepares it to take its rightful place among the nation's best multicultural communities. Moreover, the company has pledged its support to the inclusion of minority sub-contractors and businesses, thereby enabling the residents of Liberty City the opportunity to play an integral role in their own future. This commitment, together with the content of the plan merit careful consideration and our support.

Re: Redevelopment of the Liberty Square Public Housing Project

Dear Mr. Milo,

Thank you for taking the time to meet with me last week to share your vision for the redevelopment of Liberty Square. The University of Miami's School of Architecture has tremendous experience mounting charrettes and design studios that enable the community's participation and engagement. We will gladly work with your development team to engage the residents and come up with a design that incorporates all community stakeholders to help create a thriving community.

You mentioned that crime is high in the area. We can work together with your AE team to include design elements that have been proven to help reduce crime by creating more walkable neighborhoods and "eyes on the street".

I am very excited about the real life experience that this project will provide for our architecture students. The UM School of Architecture has a long standing relationship with The Related Group and this project will continue that relationship long into the future. Please keep me informed on the progress of the project.

Sincerely,

On behalf of the FIU College of Architecture + The Arts, please allow me to express my appreciation for your contacting me to discuss the many collaborative and beneficial ways that we can participate in the Liberty Square redevelopment project.

The College's engaged mission is to use the power of architecture and the arts to create, innovate, and inspire solutions to local challenges with national and global impacts. The Liberty Square redevelopment project aligns with our vision and provides our faculty and students in the college's seven departments — Communication Arts, Music, Theatre, Art + Art History, Architecture, Interior Architecture, and Landscape Architecture + Environmental and Urban Design — to work collaboratively with our community to create career training and economic development opportunities.

With proper space allocation and funding, among the many services and programs that we could provide to enhance the project is a model program developed by our Communication Arts faculty. The program facilitates community dialogues between law enforcement and youths in order to find non-violent solutions to problems. The faculty are also able to offer training for law enforcement officers to improve communication with the diverse communities they serve and protect.

The College is also eager to continue the visual arts programming relationship that our Artist-In-Residence Xavier Cortada has established with Related Urban for several of their elder housing development projects. Additionally, our School of Music and our Department of Theatre could provide public concerts and performances in an onsite venue Beyond cultural arts programming, the College is happy to offer youth and their families in Liberty Square an opportunity to envision and access the many career paths and jobs that are available in high demand fields with degrees and certificates offered by the college, such as graphic design, theatre production, computer animation, managerial communication, architecture, arts management, and music business to name just a few possibilities. Through our public-private partnerships with Royal Caribbean Cruise Lines and the Coconut Grove Playhouse; FIU's venues and state-of-the-art educational facilities on the Modesto Maidique Campus, Biscayne Bay Campus, Brickell Avenue, and Miami Beach Urban Studios; and through our extensive, local network of more than 200,000 alumni, the college can offer the introduction to endless sources of opportunities, support, inspiration, mentors, and possibilities for the residents and surrounding communities of Liberty Square.

Thank you, once again for the opportunity to partner with Related Urban. We look forward to becoming an integral part of this truly transformational project.

Sincerely,

Brian Schriner

Re: Redevelopment of the Liberty Square Public Housing Project

Dear Mr. Milo,

Thank you for taking the time to meet with me to share your vision for the redevelopment of Liberty Square. It is refreshing to know that your redevelopment plan is emphasizing education, starting with early childhood education all the way to a college education.

Academica provides services to charter schools in six different states and is the largest charter school Education Service Provider in the State of Florida. The majority of our schools cater to minority students from disadvantaged households. Our plan is to start with a kindergarten to second grade charter school and then grow into a larger school thru eighth grade and possibly a high school.

The team at Academica and its affiliates have constructed more than 30 charter school facilities. We are well versed on the New Markets Tax Credit programs and have existing relationships with several national lenders, such as JP Morgan Chase, Regions Bank and Bank of America Merrill Lynch.

We are excited about the opportunity to partner with Related Urban and Miami-Dade County on this historic effort. A quality primary education provides the foundation for children to become successful in the future and that is what the Academica network of schools will provide to the community.

Please let me know if you need any additional information from me and keep me informed on the progress of the project.

Sincerely,

Fernando Zulueta

Liberty Square once revered as a utopian solution to black poverty during the pre civil rights era, was the first public housing project for blacks in the Southern United States. Opened in 1937, it was hailed to "be one of the greatest blessings Miami ever had". By the mid-'70s, middle-class tenants were pushed out to make room for more poverty stricken newcomers. A favored southern food staple, Pork 'n' Beans became the nickname for Liberty Square. Today, wrought with hopelessness, poverty, crime and history of violence for decades, the proclaimed greatest blessing is now a place of despair. However, gains can be achieved by building on the positive adaptations of Liberty Square residents who have already found ways to cope with chronic urban violence in their everyday lives. Related Urban and their partners will create the opportunity for residents to articulate and voice what are their priorities. This comprehensive redesign project has a great opportunity to create the kinds of spaces that recognize the dignity of life and respect for a historically proud community.

The University of Miami Miller School of Medicine's Department of Public Health will partner with Related Urban to create positive urban resilience. Positive resilience is the ability of residents to recover quickly and with more determination and resolve to be successful, even after they have been knocked down by circumstances. Positive resilience creates the opportunity for communities to achieve relative stability and tranquility, even in communities beset by violence and crime. The goal of the University of Miami's partnership with Related Urban is to develop a framework of strong and cooperative relationships between residents, and different stakeholders—businesses, civil society, the police, and other relevant groups. We base our proposal to develop positive resilience on pioneering research conducted by Felton 'Tony' Earls in Chicago who discovered the protective effect of what he called "social capital" defined as the networks of relationships among people who live and work in a particular neighborhood, that enable the residents of that neighborhood to function effectively, in spite adverse circumstances. In a sound bite this work can be defined by the truism, "It takes a village to raise a child". In our work we will promote social capital which yields positive resilience such that residents will be bonded in their common goal of securing their neighborhood, looking after each other and each other's children.

Our work assumes that certain aspects of resilience are a given: 1) improvement in the physical infrastructure, 2) growing commercial activity with the opportunity for jobs and job training, and 3) community-oriented policing. These attributes, together with a community with high social capital will produce the dynamic capacity to subvert the perpetrators of violence and establish everyday normalcy for citizens of Liberty Square. Community-state networks of accountability will tie them to each other at the level of the community. The security activities produced through community-state networks become accountable, legitimate, and durable when they will be directed and monitored by the community themselves, but in a relationship of cooperative autonomy.

Urban resilience benefits from good urban planning such as building infrastructure that enables free movement of people within and between all neighborhoods (via pedestrian corridors; parks; public transport) to promote security and livelihoods; and the creation of defensible space (with "eyes on the streets") that can be supervised by the residents. Community citizens of all income groups will have the opportunity to live in a vibrant neighborhood where social, economic, and residential activities and priorities reinforce each other in ways that bring a community together in the service of protecting and securing those spaces.

The relationship of at-risk communities with the police is often troubled. Hence, the need for legitimate security is paramount. Legitimate security fosters broad participation and initiatives from "below" with an increased focus on multi-sector partnerships to provide more effective, lasting, and accountable ways forward for communities seeking security. Legitimate security addresses this by seeking to ensure local democratic and participatory governance in every sense—political, civil, and social. It recognizes needs specific to marginalized and underrepresented populations, including ethnic/racial minorities, women, the poor, and the elderly. It is, moreover, a viable alternative to deleterious responses to insecurity—e.g., privatization of security, fortification of urban spaces, and vigilantism, among others. Democratic, participatory governance will be built using the techniques of Paulo Freire, who developed a method for empowering the poor by eliciting their views and through a participatory process create a governance that reflect the values, goals, dreams and intentions of the residents.

Data – Careful consideration will be given to how to define and measure success. Resilience for the Liberty Square Community is defined as those acts intended to restore or create effectively functioning community-level activities, institutions, and spaces in which the perpetrators of violence are marginalized and perhaps even eliminated. Psychological risk will be defined and assessed along with the provision of mental health services to address preventable and treatable disorders. Social capital will be defined as the extent to which residents feel bonded to their neighbors and their neighborhoods and the belief that neighbors can rely on each other in times of need.

Challenges - Indicators associated with conventional violence statistics include the fact that:

- Reduced crime rates can be a result of the persistence of criminal influence and power structures instead of reduced violence.
- Crime is territorially mobile. Successes in reducing violence may just mean that crime migrates elsewhere. Out of sight, out of mind.
- Formal changes in state capacity or legal context sometimes empower those already in criminal networks, and outcomes will depend on a functioning criminal justice system.
- Neighbors must own their neighborhood and develop the belief that together "as a village" they can become responsible for their own destiny and that of their neighborhood.

Challenges with Interpreting Quantitative Indicators

- Rising crime rates can mean a winning strategy or a failed "war".
- Falling crime rates can imply a re-establishment of criminal hegemony rather than its defeat.
- Citizens are influenced by subjective framings instead of objective facts.
- Policing and legal systems may be complicit in the violence, making reporting rates suspect.

Strategies to Complement Quantitative Analyses

- Understand the biases and agendas of organizations collecting and interpreting statistics.
- Identify relevant surveys and statistics for the particular area after gaining an understanding of the texture and history of violence.
- Engage in qualitative research (cognitive maps, ethnographic accounts, grounded field research) and evolve quantitative indicators for everyday urbanism and violence.

WHO WE ARE

Prior to 1968, healthcare for residents of the Liberty City area was provided by a small number of physicians and dentists and the Dade County Department of Public Health. Hospital services were available at Christian Hospital, a forty bed Black-owned, not-for-profit neighborhood facility, and Jackson Memorial Hospital. At Jackson Hospital, many residents sought emergency care as their usual and only contact with the medical community. Other hospitals were available outside of the community, but only those that were desegregated permitted access for residents that could afford such care.

In 1967, President Lyndon B. Johnson and the United States Congress made funds available for the underserved and uninsured through the Equal Opportunity Act to improve inner city healthcare. Dr. Lynn Carmichael, the pioneer of Family Medicine, a friend and avid supporter of healthcare equity, and a practicing Physician and Professor at the University of Miami School of Medicine, applied for and received approximately $1.6 million to establish a medical home. The funds were designated for a Health Center in the Model City area of Dade County. Liberty City, declared as a community of poverty and the medically underserved, was selected as an official area to establish a medical home. The Health Center would be a not-for-profit organization with a majority neighborhood and ethnically appropriate Board of Directors. Its mandate would be to bring comprehensive medical, dental, psychological and social services to the economically depressed Model City. Thus, was the birth of Economic Opportunity Family Health Center (EOFHC), fondly known as "Family Health Center".

- EOFHC is the first non- profit federally qualified community health center in the state of Florida.

The initial meetings about the Health Center were conducted in the University of Miami's Sewell Building. Dr. Carmichael and Charles Norwall, Administrator, Jackson Memorial Hospital, were leaders of the brain trust. Three residents of Liberty City served on the original Board of Directors: Mr. Willie Dillard, Ms. Louise Butler, and Dr. H. Melton White.

- Dr. Edgar Reed, EOFHC 's first employee was hired as the Medical Director.
- Dr. Thomas L. James, EOFHC's second employee was hired as the Dental Director. Dr. James was the first African American Dental Officer to retire from the Navy (1966).
- Dr. John O. Brown served as President of the Board of Directors. Dr. Brown was a civil rights activist and the first African American Opthalmologist in Florida.
- Anita Small, RN, was the first Nursing Director and Julio Gonzalez the Senior Accountant.

From the beginning, education was an integral component of EOFHC.

- 1968 - EOFHC was the first Community Health Center in the US to offer residency training for Family Medicine under the direction of Dr. Lynn Carmichael.

Mt. Tabor Baptist Church, in Liberty City, served as the training site for most of EOFHC's first employees. Neighborhood residents, male and female, were trained as physician assistants, nurse's aides, social workers, laboratory and mental health assistants. Over sixty-five such individuals were trained, many of whom had never graduated from high school. Eighteen of these individuals completed further training to become practical nurses and at least six became Registered Nurses.

- Four of the first eight Nurse Practitioners in Florida were trained at EOFHC.
- The first three African American Dental Hygienists in Florida were trained at EOFHC.

In June 1968, patient services were initiated at the EOFHC's first site, an abandoned, wooden temporary Gladeview Elementary School building at NW. 62nd Street and 27th Avenue.

George Simpson, MD. was appointed President and CEO from 1970-1975 and again from 2003-2004.

- Dr. Simpson is the first African American general surgeon in Florida.

1970, EOFHC was relocated to N.W. 56th Street and 27th Avenue. The new site consisted of a slightly larger building and a large open area. Double-wide trailers were added as the patient census increased.

1971, EOFHC's first satellite was opened at N. W. 22nd Avenue and 72nd Street. The new satellite "James E. Scott Center" was a renovated building in Dade County's largest low-income housing project.

- This was the first facility in the nation to be built with combined funding by the Department of Housing and Urban Development, the U. S. Public Health Service and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

1975-1979, Dr. Thomas James President and CEO

In 1980, Ms. Jessie Collins Trice, BSN, MPH, nurse, administrator, humanitarian, and champion for healthcare, was appointed President and CEO. Shortly, thereafter, under the leadership of Father J. Kenneth Major, and the Board of Directors, EOFHC was relocated to a 30,000 square foot two-story building that was planned and built with Dade County funds. The building is located at 5361 NW 22nd) Avenue. In 1994 NW 22nd was dedicated as Jessie Trice Blvd (NW 103 south to 36th ST.).

- Jessie Trice, BSN, MPH was the first African American graduate from the University of Miami's School of Nursing; First, African American to serve as Director of Nursing for the Dade County Department of Public Health; the first African American to serve as Chairman of the Florida State Board of Nursing; a founder of the Miami Chapter of the National Black Nurses Association; and president of the State and National Associations of Community Health Centers.

1982, EOFHC earned accreditation by the Association of Ambulatory Care Inc.

By 1987, crack cocaine had become a major community problem. Responding to this need, EOFHC opened a residential program (1992 renamed to the Jefferson Reaves Women's Residential Center) for women addicted to crack cocaine.

- Unlike, other programs in the nation, the EOFHC program accepted pregnant women for treatment, allowed them to keep their children with them and provided child care as an added service.

1988/89. EOFHC's Chief Medical Officer, Dr. Fatima Zafar was a member of a team of physicians that treated the first case of HIV in Miami-Dade County.

1999. EOFHC received its first JCAHO (Joint Commission Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations) accreditation for Ambulatory & Behavioral Care under the leadership of Anthony Munroe MPH, President and CEO.

2004. Annie Neasman, RN, MS, was appointed as 6th President and CEO since EOFHC opened its doors in 1968.

Annie Neasman is a graduate of Florida A&M University School of Nursing, former Deputy Secretary of Health and Chief Public Health Nurse of the Florida Department of Health, Tallahassee, FL. She has served as the Executive Administrator of the Miami-Dade County Health Department and also served as President of the Miami Chapter Black Nurses Association (2007).

2006. EOFHC was leading the State and Nation in implementing Electronic Health Records.

2008. In honor of Jessie Collins Trice, EOFHC's name changed to Jessie Trice Community Health Center (JTCHC).

2011. JTCHC became the first community health center in Florida to become certified as a Primary Care Medical Home by the Joint Commission.

2011. A new Corporate Health Complex and Dental Health Center was opened on the original site of services at 5607 NW 27th Ave, Miami, Florida 33142.

2012. JTCHC was recognized as by The National Committee for Quality Assurance (NCQA) as a Level 3 Primary Care Medical Home.

JTCHC has come a long way since providing medical, dental, behavioral health and social services in a double –wide trailer in 1968. The Mission of Jessie Trice Community Health Center, Inc. is to improve health equality for our diverse South Florida community by providing and increasing access to quality comprehensive primary care services.

Presently, JTCHC operates nine (9) Comprehensive Primary Care Centers, forty (40) school-based health centers, two university-based health centers and a women's residential substance abuse treatment program. JTCHC's multicultural, multi-lingual and multi-disciplinary staff serves a diverse population of 32,000 patients who make more than 120,000 visits annually. JTCHC has been at the forefront of chronic disease management and through the years participated in several national/ state research studies and collaboratives on Hypertension, Diabetes and HIV.

Many African American former healthcare providers and or CEOs at EOFHC- JTCHC paved the way for nurses, physicians and dentists both locally and nationally:

Dr. George Simpson MD, first African American Surgeon in Florida; the first African American general surgeon to join the staff at Mount Sinai.

Dr. James Bridges MD, first African American Jackson Memorial Hospital senior resident in Obstetrics and Gynecology, first African American Fellow of the American College of Obstetrics and Gynecology in Florida, and first president of the Dade County Medical Association.

Dr. Joseph Gay DDS, 2009 first African American President of the South Florida District Dental Association. President of the National Dental Association.

Dr. Braynon DDS and Dr. George Sands DDS were founding members of the Dade County Dental Society.

Dr. Nelson Adams MD, the first African-American chairman of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology and the first African-American Chief of Staff of North Shore Medical Center.

OUR OBJECTIVE

Miami's demographic changes and health care needs increasingly call for a viable alternative to in-person medical consultation. Liberty City, a predominantly Black neighborhood in Miami, Florida, the largest metropolitan area in the State of Florida, also referred to as Miami-Dade County. Liberty City, once a thriving African-American community, is one of Miami's poorest and most precarious neighborhoods. Although the Liberty City area is comprised of 48,951 households (ESRI, 2009), the neighborhood that the proposed clinic will serve has a population of approximately 23,000 and a racial makeup of approximately 95% black. The area covers 5.968 square miles and is plagued by several major negative social determinants of health – racial segregation, poorer environment, and poverty.

The community is a prime example of a Miami neighborhood with a deep racial/ethnic divide from the rest of Miami which is profoundly entrenched in economic inequity. As noted by LaVeist and Pierre (2014), communities with such characteristics experience substandard access to health care and poor health outcomes, and this is definitely the case with the Liberty City area. Not surprisingly, such poor social, economic, and environmental conditions have had detrimental effects on the health and well-being of the city's population. The neighborhood has high rates of teen truancy, obesity, HIV and STDs, infant mortality, low birth weight neonates, and a plethora of acute and chronic health conditions with limited or no access to primary health care services (Professional Research Consultants, Inc., 2013).

At Jessie Trice Community Health Center, Inc., we know that providing affordable accessibility to Health and Wellness to the residents of Liberty Square will prove to be beneficial and will positively impact the community. Our solution includes providing services in the various phases. Phase one will include:

- Staff member onsite to provide screenings, basic primary care
- Free transportation to residents that are in need
- Unlimited access to our Patient Portal
- Access to surrounding JTCHC comprehensive primary care centers

Phase two will include a full service comprehensive primary care facility. Jessie Trice Community Health Center, Inc. has implemented the Primary Care Medical Home Model as its service delivery system with an emphasis on patient-centeredness and care-coordination. Beginning with empanelment (patients choose and are assigned a personal provider), various disciplines and levels of providers such as physicians, nurses, advanced registered nurse practitioners, dentists, registered dental hygenists, nutritionists, medical assistants as well as licensed mental health & substance abuse counselors are all part of our patient's Care Team. These individuals provide required, preventative, enabling and other health services as appropriate.

JTCHC utilizes electronic heath records (Intergy) that supports evidence-based practices and the management of patient populations such as diabetes, hypertension, high-risk, etc. Patients also have access to their Care Teams and their personal medical information 24 hours a day 7 days a week through our Patient Portal. Referral Specialists coordinate external referrals with other providers/facilities and track results.

Support for Patient Self-Management is provided at other locations and will be provided at this site as well. Patient Satisfaction and patient/family experience are measured by Client IQ, a computer terminal within the facility that has software that immediately alerts site managers of any responses that are unsatisfactory to allow the manager to address the patient's concerns before the patient leaves the site. Phase two will also include obsertics/gynecology, dental and other services for adults and pediatrics.

Jessie Trice Community Health Center, Inc. has and will always strive for a healthier community.

Dear Mr. Milo,

OneUnited Bank is pleased to provide this letter of support to Related Urban for the Redevelopment of Liberty Square and Lincoln Gardens "Liberty Square Rising" Request for Qualification No 2015-01.

OneUnited Bank is the largest Black owned bank in the country with a branch in Liberty City at 3275 NW 79th Street. We are a Community Development Financial Institution, designated by the U.S. Department of Treasury, to serve low-to-moderate income communities. Unlike most banks, the majority of our lending and our branches are in low-to-moderate income communities. Our mission is to provide affordable financial services to all and to treat customers with respect, regardless of their account balance. We truly believe that we can make a difference by promoting financial literacy, especially to our youth.

We will be pleased to partner with Related Urban because you understand this project is about more than housing development. As an example, we believe through a combination of financial literacy training (first time homebuyers, credit and budgeting) and down payment assistance programs OneUnited Bank can prepare a number of current residents to become future homeowners. This transformation needs to begin now. We are pleased that Related Urban understands the importance of this goal.

Currently OneUnited Bank partners with the Miami Children's Initiative (MCI) to provide financial literacy training and savings accounts to youth. We also partner with Addonis Parker and Forever Art Studios to provide teen apprentice workshops that include financial literacy. This program, the OneUnited Mural Project, which meets close to "Unity Village" in the African Heritage Cultural Arts Center, has been a huge success. It will culminate in a 550 square foot mural that will be placed on the façade of OneUnited Bank reflecting the Liberty City community. We will be honored to work with Related Urban, MCI and Forever Art Studios to develop a similar program for Unity Village. We are pleased Related Urban understands how the combination of art and financial literacy can transform communities.

OneUnited Bank will also explore the possibility of opening a branch in Unity Village and are pleased Related Urban has extended this option.

We hope Related Urban will be selected for this opportunity and look forward to continuing to serve Liberty City.

Sincerely,

Teri Williams

Dear Mr. Milo,

The YMCA of South Florida is excited about the opportunity to be part of the Redevelopment of Liberty Square and Lincoln Gardens, "Liberty Square Rising" RFA No. 2015-01. This project will revitalize the Liberty City Neighborhood; change the futures of young children, families, adults and seniors who live within the community. The YMCA of South Florida is looking forward to the redevelopment as it will impact the YMCA Martin Luther King Preschool that has been part of the fabric of Liberty city since 1991.

The YMCA Martin Luther King Preschool serves nearly 100 children per day as a licensed child care center. For almost 25 years the YMCA center has opened its doors to provide a place for young parents to place their children in an environment that is nurturing, educational and above all safe. Early education sets the foundation for their future success in school, life and relationships with others. All children in the Preschool receive significant financial support. The YMCA is able to provide support with partners such as, United Way of Miami-Dade, Early Learning Coalition, USDA Child Care Food Program, Miami-Dade County, and Miami Children's Initiative and the generosity of individual donors.

A new preschool will allow the YMCA to help more children and their families to grow to be whatever they wish to become. The Center has the potential to double the capacity to educate children in a facility that will be the beacon of light for all to see and children to enjoy.

The YMCA would also like to bring a full state of the art YMCA Family Center to the "Liberty Square Rising" project that would include a wellness center for health programs, a gymnasium for basketball and volleyball, a dance studio, teen center for positive mentoring and tutorial programs, an aerobics studio for group exercise, senior activity center, community meeting rooms for gathering, community garden for educating healthy diet, and play pool to introduce children to water safety.

The Center would be open seven days a week, nearly 100 hours per week. The Family Center would serve all ages starting at 6 weeks old to Adult and be the hub of the community.

On behalf of the YMCA of South Florida the Board of Directors and the leadership we are enthusiastic about the redevelopment of Liberty City. The Preschool and the Family Center will change lives and impact Miami-Dade County by educating young minds, enhancing the health of all, and connecting the residents to one another in a community that cares and respects all who live within Liberty City. It is with great pleasure that the YMCA of South Florida supports the Related Group, "Liberty Square Rising" RFA No. 2015-01 for the vision, dedication and commitment to the betterment of our community.

Dear Albert:

I'm pleased to provide this letter to you for inclusion with your proposal to Miami-Dade County for redevelopment of Public Housing at Liberty Square. This is such a critical opportunity for the community as a whole and I believe it sets a new precedent for effective, strategic and sustainable community development. Little Haiti Housing Association, Inc, now doing business as the Haitian American Community Development Corporation (HACDC) has been engaged in community development since its incorporation in 1987.

Over the course of much of these past 28 years we have been fortunate to work with you and have the utmost respect for your work and projects. Starting with the work we did together in 2001 on Sunset Palm Villages to our most recent effort together at Bel House Apartments in 2013 we have worked on many projects together. By my approximation there have been over five different projects and together we have assisted over fifty low-income clients in becoming first-time home owners.

As a HUD certified Local Housing Counseling Agency (LHCA) and an approved Community Housing Development Organization (CHDO) HACDC is well qualified to continue our partnership by creating homeownership opportunities at Liberty Square.

If there is anything else we can provide for your proposal package, please do not hesitate to call, and if anyone from Miami-Dade County has questions on our past projects I can be reached at my direct number at 786.230.3779.

Sincerely,

Samuel Diller

Dear Mr. Milo/Related Urban Group:

The Florida Martin King, Jr. Institute for Nonviolence, Incorporation (the Institute), legislated in 1993 is dedicated to Research, Education and Training in the Principles, Philosophy and Methodology of "Kingian Nonviolence".

The Institute was specifically created as a response to the significant public need for the State of Florida, to develop methods, in addition to current law enforcement response to curb the use of violence and encourage the nonviolent management of social conflict.

The idea of the Institute was orchestrated with the assistance of various government, law enforcement and private agencies operating at local, state and national levels. Miami Dade County citizens are experiencing increasing racial and cultural hostilities stemming from rapid social change and real and perceived conflicts over group and individuals interests and the may be disadvantaged by a lack of problem-solving skills for redressing these social conflicts. When utilizing the Kingian Nonviolence Principles and Steps to train law enforcement and community together results in a more permanent working relationship.

Training a substantial number of people in the use of Nonviolence Principles and Steps provides for better alternatives to violence for resolving conflict reconciliation is justice, a win/win solution rather than a win/lost situation.

The Nonviolence approach reduces both the financial and human cost in managing conflict. Nonviolent solutions not only perceive the dignity of conflicting parties but also elevate the relationship between the opponents to one of cooperation and understanding in which they jointly implement change and celebrate victory.

Alberto Milo, Jr. /Related Group

We will include training law enforcement, legal council from the Public Defenders Office and Ex Offenders together with Community Police.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Milo:

As an organization, the U.S. Small Business Administration understands well the value of teamwork and knows that we are more successful when we join forces with others. As such, we are eager to work with responsible, professional, and capable organizations that support our mission to help entrepreneurs start, grow and succeed in business.

I understand Related Urban is working toward the successful redevelopment of the Liberty Square community and surrounding areas in Miami-Dade County. Should your team secure this tremendous economic development opportunity, we will gladly work with you to assist the small businesses and aspiring entrepreneurs in the area who can benefit from SBA's programs, services, expertise, and community relationships. As you know, my office annually contributes about $1B in small business financing throughout our 24-county South Florida territory, approximately 20% of it to businesses in Miami-Dade County. The redevelopment of the Liberty Square area presents a major opportunity to spur economic development with small business starts and expansion. After all, it is small businesses that are creating the jobs that strengthen our communities. SBA is invested in their success.

Should you require anything more to ensure our collaborative success, please do not hesitate to email me at Althea.Harris@sba.gov We look forward to working with you!
