

Charles Anderson, CPA

Miami-Dade County Commission Auditor

Mr. Anderson began working with Miami-Dade County in 2004 as the first Commission Auditor for the Board of County Commissioners. As Miami-Dade County's Commission Auditor, Mr. Anderson is responsible for reviewing the extent to which legislative policies are faithfully, efficiently and effectively implemented. Mr. Anderson reports directly to the Board of County Commissioners (BCC). His responsibilities include performing audits provided for by County ordinance; submitting annual work plans to the BCC for their approval; responding to oral requests for assistance from members of the BCC; and reviewing County department budgets, analyzing the Mayor's proposed budget and making appropriate recommendations to the BCC. Mr. Anderson has a staff of 18 professionals that includes Certified Public Accountants, Certified Internal Auditors, and experienced budget and research analysts.

Mr. Anderson holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from the Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University. He is both a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and a Certified Inspector General. He had been an Inspector General with the State of Florida for ten (10) years. Prior to that, Mr. Anderson spent seven years as a Senior Auditor for the City of Tallahassee. He is affiliated with the Institute of Internal Auditors, the Association of the Inspectors General, and the National Association of Black Accountants, of which he was the past President to the Tallahassee Chapter.

Mr. Anderson was recently featured as "The Achiever" in the June 26, 2014 edition of the Miami Today.
