

Lynn M. Dannheisser

Ms. Dannheisser is a Partner of the Firm specializing in land use, real estate and municipal law. Prior to joining Weiss Serota Helfman Pastoriza Cole & Boniske, P.L., she served for eight years as city attorney for the City of Sunny Isles Beach, Florida, where she was responsible for drafting some of the most progressive land development regulations in the state. She has also been city attorney for the Village of Pinecrest and the City of South Miami, and she drafted the charters for several municipalities. Ms. Dannheisser has more than twenty-five years of private and public sector legal experience, currently representing developers in several jurisdictions and representing several cities as special counsel. She has been named one of the Top Women in Commercial Real Estate by the South Florida Business Journal.

Education:

University of Miami School of Law, Coral Gables, Florida, 1976
J.D.

University of California, Berkeley, California, 1973
A.B.
Honors: With Honors

Bar Admissions:

Florida, 1976
New York, 1982
District of Columbia, 1982
U.S. Court of Appeals 11th Circuit, 1981

Honors and Awards:

Guest Columnist, The Miami Herald
Martindale Hubbell "AV" Rated
Top Women in Commercial Real Estate, South Florida Business Journal

Past Employment Positions:

City of Sunny Isles Beach, Florida, City Attorney, 1997 - 2005
City of South Miami, City Attorney, 1986

Professional/Civic Activities:

Miami Children's Hospital
Former Board Member

Published Works:

"What's Wrong with Me? Frustrated Patient's Guide to Self- Diagnosis", McGraw-Hill, May, 2005
"Diary of a Hurricane Survivor", Redbook, August, 1993
"Grape Jelly Fingerprints on Your Career", Florida Bar Journal, November, 1984