7 Habits of Financially Effective Organizations

Roxanne Ortiz
CPA, Ortiz Financial Solutions

Wednesday, October 25, 2017 • 6 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

Roxanne Ortiz is an expert in nonprofit accounting who provides financial leadership and advice for nonprofit organizations. Roxanne became a nonprofit specialist early in her career while working for Goldstein Schechter Koch CPAs and Consultants (GSK) where she grew to become a manager in the nonprofit audit practice.

Roxanne further utilized her nonprofit expertise as the CFO at two human service agencies and a large cultural institution. Roxanne Ortiz is the owner of Ortiz Financial Solutions, a company that helps nonprofit organizations improve the financial side of their businesses so they can focus on their mission. She has developed a strong reputation for leading financial turnarounds, building highly effective teams and helping organizations implement sound business practices.

Roxanne is a Certified Public Accountant in Florida and earned a Bachelor and a Master of Accounting from Florida International University. www.ortizfinancial.com
