AUGUST IN REVIEW

Enfoque Politico with Marilyns Llanos Interview

Commissioner Bovo was recently interviewed by Marilyns Llanos, host of Enfoque Politico on Telemundo 51, regarding his support for services such as Uber and Lyft. The Commissioner reiterated his support for creating a classification under the "For-Hire" Vehicles chapter in the County Code to allow companies such as Uber and Lyft to operate in Miami-Dade County. The Commissioner stated that he believes that these services can complement our current as well as future Miami-Dade Transit services by providing residents an option once they arrive at their final Metrorail or Metrobus station. To watch the interview please tune in this Sunday, September 6th at 11:00am to Telemundo 51.

Mayor's Transit Meeting

Following the trip to Denver Mayor Carlos Gimenez called a meeting to discuss what had been seen in Denver and what were the next steps in Miami-Dade County to address the transportation problem. Commissioner Bovo stated in the meeting that Denver reiterated the need to place PTP monies back to what was its initial purpose and to restore the trust with the community.

2015 Gus Machado Ford Backpack Giveaway

This year Commissioner Bovo partnered with Gus Machado Ford in Hialeah to provide over 200 backpacks to school children in our community. Also present at the event was the Office of State Senator Rene Garcia, the Office of State Representative Bryan Avila, the Miami-Dade County Police Department, Sedano's, AT&T, and the American Cancer Society.

Golden Passport Event

Commissioner Bovo in partnership with Miami-Dade Transit hosted a Golden Passport Registration Event at Goodlet Senior Center in Hialeah. Also present at the event was the Elections Department updating residents voter registration and offering information on the newly redrawn precincts. Be election ready by checking your new voting precinct number as well as your voting location by visiting: <http://www.miamidade.gov/elections/voter-information.asp>.

Denver Transit System Trip

Commissioner Bovo along with Mayor Carlos Gimenez, and Chairman Jean Monestime traveled to Denver to see how Denver has expanded their transit system by nearly 120 miles. Denver has a similar half penny sales tax and has been able to combine those monies along with state or federal grants to construct a massive transit system. Commissioner Bovo remains committed to redirecting the PTP (half penny sales tax) for its initial purpose of constructing and expanding our current transit system. Commissioner made this statement regarding Denver to the Miami Herald, "The most important take-away from Denver is how they made a commitment to the voters, and they are delivering." To read the full editorial please visit: <http://www.miamiherald.com/opinion/editorials/article31069065.html>.

Transit Interviews

Commissioner Bovo was recently interviewed by Univision 23 Miami and AmericaTeve regarding his proposed East/West Commuter Rail Line. The rail line runs along SR 836 (Dolphin Expressway) from the Miami International Airport Metrorail Station to approximately SW 137 Avenue. The line would serve the heavily congested areas of Doral, Sweetwater, Westchester, and SR 836.
