

2018 Annual Youth Legal Education Summit

The 2018 Annual Youth Legal Education Summit will take place at St. Thomas University on July 31, 2018 thru August 1, 2018.

The Miami-Dade County Teen Court Program (M-DCTC), under the administrative leadership of the Miami-Dade Economic Advocacy Trust (MDEAT), will train a new wave of high school lawyers, bailiffs and clerks during its Annual Youth Legal Education Summit.

High school students will receive a formal training for courtroom trials sanctioned by the program's volunteer training guidelines. These sessions educate and train youth volunteers in the many facets of the judicial process. Volunteer attorneys will mentor youth in becoming defense and prosecuting attorneys in the areas of law terminology, courtroom decorum, delivery of opening and closing arguments, cross-examination and many other legal courtroom techniques.

Students participating in the summit will also discuss topics of interest geared to address self-awareness and youth leadership.

On the last day of the training, students will participate in a mock trial where they are judged by practicing attorneys and/or judges.

The 2018 Annual Teen Court Youth Legal Education Summit is free and students selected to participate are prepared to become a Teen Court attorney, bailiff, or clerk. In addition, student participants will earn 16 community hours for their successful participation.

The participation in the summer summit is an amazing experience that exposes interested high school students to numerous opportunities.

Who is Eligible to Apply?

Any student in the 8th thru 12th grades interested in becoming an attorney or law enforcement officer or pursuing a career in criminal justice is a candidate to participate in this program.
