MIAMI-DADE ECONOMIC ADVOCACY TRUST PRESENTS THE NORTH CENTRAL DADE BUSINESS EXPO

Free community event for residents to learn about a myriad of area services and products

(MIAMI, April 27, 2015) – Miami-Dade Economic Advocacy Trust (MDEAT) is hosting the agency’s first North Central Business Expo Thursday, May 14, 2015, 6-9 p.m., at the Joe Celestin Community Center, 1525 NW 135 Street, in North Miami, Florida.

This free community event will showcase approximately 65 businesses and provide participants the opportunity to speak with experts on area services; government agencies; food and catering establishments; entertainment; dentistry; and many more products. Live music, raffles, giveaways, and refreshments will be available for event-goers.

This event affords North Central Dade residents with an opportunity to become familiar with businesses in their community, and provides them with an update on available services and products. The expo will also provide local businesses networking opportunities with other business owners.

Event supporters are Miami-Dade County Board of County Commissioners Chairperson Jean Monestime, District 2; Commissioner Audrey Edmonson, District 3; and Commissioner Barbara J. Jordan, District 1. Event sponsors are City of North Miami Parks and Recreation Department; Miami-Dade County Department of Elections; and Miami-Dade County Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation.
