Future candidates urged to attend Clean Campaign Class

Anyone considering running for local office should learn the rules and regulations by attending the next Clean Campaign Class sponsored by the Miami-Dade Commission on Ethics and Public Trust and the Elections Department. Information critical to the early phases of electioneering – including opening bank accounts, filing forms, and qualifying -- will be presented. In addition to politicians, campaign managers, treasurers, volunteers, and anyone interested in learning what it takes to run a clean campaign, are encouraged to attend.

Speakers -- including representatives from the Ethics Commission and the Elections Department -- will provide essential information on election law and procedures, fundraising and record keeping. The event is free and open to the public. Attorneys can earn Continuing Legal Education credits from the Florida Bar.

Clean Campaign Class
Monday, April 1, 2024 (6:00 – 8:00 p.m.)
North Miami City Hall
776 Northeast 125th St, North Miami, FL
City Council Chambers (2nd Floor)

To reserve a seat, email Robert Thompson at robert.thompson@miamidade.gov and Cc: Janai Pomales <jpomales@northmiamifl.gov.

The Ethics Commission was created in 1996 as an independent agency with advisory and quasi-judicial powers. It is composed of five members, serving staggered terms of four years each. Through a program of education and outreach, the Commission seeks to empower the community and bolster public trust.
