

VOTER SOLICITATION / ELECTIONEERING

(F.S. 102.031)

“Voter solicitation” is also referred to as “electioneering” or “campaigning.”

Polling place/Early Voting site: Defined as the building that contains the polling room or Early Voting area where ballots are cast during Early Voting and on Election Day.

Solicitation includes, but it is not limited to:

- seeking or attempting to seek any vote, fact, opinion, or contribution;
- distributing or attempting to distribute any political or campaign materials, leaflets, or handout;
- conducting a poll, except it shall not be construed to prohibit exit polling;
- seeking or attempting to seek a signature on any petition;
- selling or attempting to sell any item and
- engaging in any activity with the intent to influence or effect of influencing a voter.

Restrictions: No person may solicit voters within 150 feet of the entrance to a polling place on Election Day or Early Voting site during Early Voting.

Enforcement: The Miami-Dade County Elections Department will enforce the area within the 150-ft. zone surrounding the polling place or Early Voting site.

Note:

A voter can park their car/truck decorated with campaign materials within 150 feet of the entrance to a polling place or Early Voting site while voting. Otherwise, the car/truck cannot remain parked within the 150-foot zone.
