CARNIVAL STUDIO THEATER

IT'S NOT A BALLET! IT'S A BRAND NEW PLAY!

"A riveting reinvention! More nightmare than dream, this production is no simple sugar plum!" – The Chicago Sun-Times

Set in the present day, The House's fantastical expansion of this holiday classic is not a ballet, but rather a play—unstintingly affirmative and emotional—about one loving family's recovery from a terrible and surprising loss. Based on the original E.T.A. Hoffmann story, the play centers on young Clara's journey to save Christmas and bring her broken family back together—making this production a splendidly empowering Christmas story and a wholly different take on the classic tale! This contemporary holiday theater piece weaves together riveting dialogue, astonishing puppetry, original songs and spellbinding spectacle to tell a heartwarming, darkly moving story of magic and hope
