

How to make a New Year's 2014 Cruise more affordable

Have you ever dreamed of being out at sea on New Year's Eve? One of the most sought out times of year for cruise travel is the "end of the year" holidays. CruiseOne has negotiated special pricing for a New Years cruise in 2013, on one of the world's newest cruise ships. This space has been locked at today's prices. As we are still 14 months away from this event, not only are rates lower than expected, but we also have wonderful cruise perks for our consumers! Lastly, this cruise will offer a KIDS SAIL FREE promotion. This means all children age 11 and under (traveling with two full fare paying adults) pay $0 cruise fare and will only pay a small amount of government tax! That's not all, as kids age 12-17 will pay a ridiculously low fare. This cruise will provide you an opportunity to book now and pay your vacation over time.
