

ABOUT THE SYMPHONY

The SFSO has been a model for the highest form of Classical Music performances, education and outreach since its 1997 inception. Performances take place throughout the entire South Florida Region.

From the orchestral scores to the brilliant guest artists that grace the stage, this season's lineup features Symphonic Master Concerts, the Blue Door String Quartet Chamber Series and a Special 15th Anniversary Presentation of the Vienna Boys Choir.

THE CONDUCTOR

Sebrina María Alfonso

Sebrina María Alfonso made her New York debut conducting the American Symphony Orchestra at the finals of the Stokowski International Competition in Avery Fisher Hall at Lincoln Center.

Following an appearance with the San Jose Chamber Orchestra, Maestro Alfonso's work was described as "... Alfonso...ushered her audience into chambers of fantasy, imagery, and feeling — elements essential to fine music-making. This is the way conducting used to be." (San Jose Mercury News)

Award Winning Conductor, Sebrina María Alfonso has Guest conducted for Orchestras throughout Europe, Cuba and the US.

VIENNA BOYS CHOIR

15th Anniversary Presentation

The South Florida Symphony Celebrates it's 15th Anniversary Season with a special presentation of The Vienna Boys Choir, the worlds best known boys choir.

First Baptist Church

DONATE TO THE SYMPHONY

Support the Symphony musicians by joining the Keep the Music Playing campaign. You may participate by making a first-time gift or, if you are already among the generous supporters, consider increasing your current commitment. Throughout the duration of the Keep the Music Playing campaign look for our musicians in the lobby after concerts to let them know you care.
