General Obligations of Miami-Dade County

SECURITY FOR AND SOURCES OF PAYMENT OF GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS

General Obligation Pledge

General Obligation Bonds are general obligations of the County and are payable from unlimited ad valorem taxes on all taxable real and tangible personal property within the County (excluding exempt property as required by Florida law). The full faith, credit and taxing power of the County are irrevocably pledged to the prompt payment of both principal of and interest on the Bonds as the same become due and payable. Pursuant to the Florida Constitution, there is no limit on the amount of ad valorem taxes a county may levy for the payment of General Obligation Bonds.

Bonded Indebtedness, Various Debt Ratios and General Fund Summary

The following tables show the details of the County's general obligation bonds, special obligation bonds, certificates and notes, principal and interest requirements of general obligation and special obligation debt, and significant comparative ratios of debt to population and to the County's tax base.

In addition to the County's general obligation bonds, on November 4, 1986, the voters of the County approved the issuance of general obligation bonds of the County in the principal amounts of $131,474,000 for financing capital improvements to the County's Water and Sewer System and for refunding previously issued water and sewer system bonds, $153,513,500 for financing capital improvements to the Port, which is owned and operated by the County, and for refunding previously issued bonds for the Port, and $247,500,000 for financing capital improvements to the County's airports and for refunding previously issued bonds for the airports. Said general obligation bonds are to be payable first from revenues of the County's Water and Sewer System, the Port and the County's airports, respectively, and, to the extent such revenues are insufficient, from unlimited ad valorem taxes. Of the amounts approved by the voters, only the general obligation bonds for the Port have been issued to date.

The Series 1992 Bonds and the Series 1996 Bonds are being paid by the Seaport Department's Net Revenues. However, to the extent that the Net Revenues of the Seaport Department are insufficient to pay debt service on the Series 1992 Bonds and the Series 1996 Bonds, such debt service will be payable from unlimited ad valorem taxes. (See "Seaport General Obligation Bonds, Series 1992" and "Seaport General Obligation Refunding Bonds, Series 1996" in the Revenue Bonds - Seaport General Obligations section of this Report).

(1) Included in the Miscellaneous Revenue under the Approved Budget 2002 Fiscal Year column in the above table are all unencumbered funds carried forward from the prior Fiscal Year available for the appropriation of 2002 expenditures. State law permits counties and municipalities to appropriate 95% of estimated revenues to be collected in the ensuing Fiscal Year plus the excess funds from prior years as the basis for authorizing levels expenditures. Excess funds from prior years considered in the budgetary process are not presented as revenue for financial reporting purposes and generally accepted accounting principles.

(2) The increase between Fiscal Years 2003 and approved 2004 Budget for this line item reflects the planned utilization of funds in the Environmental Endangered Land Program.

(3) Capital expenditures are reclassified at Fiscal Year end as Capital Outlay commencing in Fiscal Year 2002.

Picture Divider - Public Improvement Bonds

MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA
Public Improvement Bonds
General Obligations of Miami-Dade County
(Decade of Progress Projects)

SECURITY FOR AND SOURCES OF PAYMENT OF THE BONDS

General Obligation Pledge

The Public Improvement Bonds (the "Bonds") are general obligations of the County and are payable from unlimited ad valorem taxes on all taxable real and tangible personal property within the County (excluding exempt property as required by Florida law). The full faith, credit and taxing power of the County are irrevocably pledged to the prompt payment of both principal of and interest on the Bonds as the same become due and payable. Pursuant to the Florida Constitution, there is no limit on the amount of ad valorem taxes a county may levy for the payment of general obligation bonds.

THE PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT (DECADE OF PROGRESS) PROGRAM

Purposes

On November 7, 1972, a referendum authorized the issuance of the County's Public Improvement Bonds, also known as the Decade of Progress Bonds, in the amount of $553,100,000 to provide funds which, together with other available funds, were to be used for the purpose of paying the following projects. As of September 30, 2003, all but $1,280,000 have been issued.

$50,000,000 - Sanitary Sewage Systems for the County, which included the acquisition, construction, enlargement, improvement and extension of sewage treatment plants, pumping stations, disposal systems, interceptors and transmission lines and the acquisition of necessary land and equipment.

$50,000,000 - Solid Waste Disposal Facilities for the County, which included the construction, enlargement and improvement of incinerators, milling plants, trash milling facilities, transfer stations and sanitary landfills and the acquisition of land and necessary equipment.

$132,500,000 - Unified Transportation System for the County, which included aerial fixed guideway rapid transit facilities, bus transportation facilities and equipment, together with the acquisition of the necessary land and right-of-ways.

$88,600,000 - Health Care Facilities for the County, which included the acquisition, construction, enlargement, replacement, modernization and improvement of buildings and facilities and the construction of parking garages and site improvements at the Jackson Memorial Hospital Complex, community health centers and mental health centers, and the acquisition of necessary land, furnishings and equipment.

$34,700,000 - Public Library System of the County, which included the construction of public library buildings and the improvement of certain existing library buildings and the acquisition of the necessary land, furnishings and equipment.

$75,800,000 - Recreational and Cultural Improvements and Facilities for the County, which included the acquisition, construction, enlargement and improvements of parks, athletic facilities and recreational centers, beach improvements, campground improvements, marina enlargements and improvements, linear parks developments and improvements, landscape beautification, wayside parks, bicycle pathways, Miami-Dade County Auditorium improvements, improvements at Vizcaya, including the construction of the new Arts Building, additions to the Museum of Science and Natural History, and a parking facility, the acquisition of the necessary sites and equipment, and the construction of administrative facilities.

$8,000,000 - Zoological Park for the County, which included construction of animal exhibit areas, acquisition of animals, educational facilities, internal transportation system and all necessary support facilities.

$113,500,000 - Street and Safety Improvements for the County, which included the acquisition and construction of traffic signals, a coordinated automatic traffic signal control system with pedestrian safety features, bus preemption capability, railroad crossing protection devices, streets lighting, signs and appurtenances, intersection improvements, bus turning, storage and pull-out areas, construction and replacement of bridges, extending, widening, paving and surfacing streets, necessary drainage, curbs, gutters, sidewalks and landscaping and the necessary acquisition of land and rights-of-way.

The following table shows the authorization of the Projects as voted upon by the voters of Miami-Dade County and the Series of Bonds that were issued.
