

Preparing to Respond...Preparing to Recover

Emergency Planning Workshop

November 5-6, 2015

A workshop to help faith-based and community organizations in Miami-Dade County
Prepare for all hazards, including active shooter incidents

Miami-Dade Fire Rescue
Training Facility
9300 NW 41st Street
Miami, FL 33178

Engagement Opportunities

Day 1-Morning

Thursday, Nov. 5, 2015

Main Workshop

9:30am - 2:30pm

(Registration: 8:30am with Light refreshments)

Day 2

Friday, Nov. 6, 2015

Technical Assistance Sessions

30 minute appointments

Sign-up on Day 1

9:30am - 2:30pm

What You will Learn:

- Keep your people safe in crisis
- Know your local hazards
- Create your emergency operations plan

As a faith and/or community leader you will:

- Receive a copy of "Developing a High Quality Emergency Operations Plan for your Houses of Worship"
- Begin the process of creating a plan to respond to an emergency, which includes an active shooter scenario.
- Connect with new partners in emergency preparedness.

- Registration is free -

Register via e-mail by October 29 at partnerships@fema.dhs.gov

Note in subject line "RSVP-MD-FL"

IMPORTANT:

Include in your email the names(s) of participants, DAY you will attend, your organization(s), e-mail address and phone number

Reasonable accommodations will be provided to attendees who have communication access needs, including Limited English Proficiency. Please indicate any need in your registration by October 26, 2015.

FEMA

