Miami, the early 1960's. A prominent South Florida family finds its world challenged by the life-changing events of the era. The Kennedy assassination, the Cold War, and the sudden influx of Cuban immigration into Miami set the stage for an all-out showdown as past and present, east and west all collide in this comic and insightful look at how we got to where we are today. From award-winning South Florida playwright Michael McKeever, author of South Beach Babylon and Melt.

Magic by Dennis Watkins

"A highly polished and visually thrilling show, strikingly well-designed and well-executed. MAGIC OF THE VERY HIGHEST ORDER!"
Chicago Tribune

"Death and Harry Houdini soars on Dennis Watkins' brilliance as a genuine magician and fearless stuntman. INGENIOUSLY WRITTEN AND DIRECTED!" Chicago Sun-Times

Death and Harry Houdini delivers a roller coaster ride through the life of the great Harry Houdini, brought to the stage by the great Chicago company that presented last season's acclaimed The Sparrow. Award-winning magician, Dennis Watkins, performs Houdini's most renowned and dangerous escape—the dreaded Water Torture Cell—in this dark and tumultuous story guaranteed to keep audiences on the edge of their seats. Parental Advisory: This show contains adult language.
