NORTH MIAMI TO HOST CONCERT TO AID IN HURRICANE RELIEF

North Miami, FL – September 9, 2005 – In an effort to reach out to the Gulf Coast's victims of Hurricane Katrina, the City of North Miami is working with local entertainers and organizations to produce a Hurricane Relief Concert on Tuesday, September 20, 2005 from 6:30 p.m. – 12:00 midnight. The concert will be held at the North Miami Athletic Stadium, 2555 NE 151 Street, located at the entrance to FIU-Biscayne Bay Campus.

The Hurricane Relief Concert was started by local citizens who could not sit idle while our neighbors in the Gulf Coast fight for their lives. With the help of the City of North Miami, FIU, Johnson and Wales University, the Playground Theatre Company and dozens of local performers who are donating their talent, the concert is a venue to help our community give back to those who so desperately need our help.

The entrance fee to the concert is a suggested minimum $5.00 donation and/or items like bottled water, canned goods, manual can openers, personal hygiene items, diapers, baby wipes, blankets and more. The items and funds will be distributed to communities in the Gulf Coast.

The concert will feature two stages where bands and single performers will be alternating throughout the night. The line-up will include: Spam Allstars, Earth Citizens, Brandon O'Hare & The Humble Ones, Suenalo, The Cleveland Jones Band, Gjamlakay, Playground Theatre Company, poets, and many more. Concertgoers will also enjoy food, drinks, and raffles with all of the proceeds benefiting the Gulf Coast victims.

For additional information, please contact Antonio Leiva at 954-557-6717 or the City of North Miami at 305-893-6511, ext. 2244. Entertainers interested in participating can contact Kristen McCorkell at 305-607-2891.

For Immediate Release

HURRICANE RELIEF CONCERT POSTPONED DUE TO HURRICANE RITA

North Miami, FL – September 21, 2005 – The City of North Miami postponed the Hurricane Relief Concert originally planned for Tuesday, September 20th to Sunday October 2, 2005 due to the arrival of Hurricane Rita in South Florida. The concert also changed venues and will now be held at the MOCA Plaza, on NE 125th Street at NE 7th Court in downtown North Miami (next door to North Miami City Hall). The new time for the event is 2:30 – 8:30 p.m.

The Hurricane Relief Concert has been a total community effort, which started with the passion of local citizens who wanted to reach out to the Gulf Coast's victims of Hurricane Katrina. Now, with another strong hurricane heading for yet another point on our nation's Gulf Coast, it is even more urgent that take proactive steps to help the victims – as there are sure to be more that will be in need of help.

With the help of the City of North Miami, Florida International University, Johnson and Wales University, the Playground Theatre Company, dozens of local performers who are donating their talent, and many local businesses donating their services, the concert has come together as a venue to help our community give back to those who so desperately need our help.

The entrance fee to the concert is a suggested minimum $5.00 donation and/or items like bottled water, canned goods, manual can openers, personal hygiene items, diapers, baby wipes, sleeping bags, blankets and more. The items and funds will be distributed by the City of North Miami to communities in the Gulf Coast region. Mayor Kevin A. Burns explains, "I am personally working on the arrangements with local officials in those cities that have been impacted by Hurricane Katrina to be able to provide the necessities that their residents need to help carry them through this time of desperation."

The concert will feature two stages of live performances that include: Spam Allstars, Earth Citizens, Brandon O'Hare & The Humble Ones, Suenalo, The Cleveland Jones Band, Gjamiakay, Playground Theatre Company, the NANAY Chorus, and many more. Food, drinks, and raffles from various sponsors such as Miami-Dade County Commissioners Sally Heyman and Dorrin Rolle, Churchill's, Soyka and many others will help to generate proceeds that will benefit the Gulf Coast victims.

The media is asked to help support our efforts. Please call the City of North Miami at 305-893-6511, ext. 2244 or ext. 2183 for additional details.

Memorandum

Date: December 6, 2005

To: Honorable Chairman Joe A. Martinez
and Members, Board of County Commissioners

From: George M. Burgess
County Manager

Subject: In-Kind Request Recommendation

The Office of Strategic Business Management (OSBM) has reviewed the attached in-kind request and recommends for the item to move forward to the Board of County Commissioners for consideration.

Background

A retroactive waiver for in-kind services has been requested by the City of North Miami for their Hurricane Relief Concert held on October 2, 2005.

In-kind services have been requested in the amount of $460.00 from the Miami-Dade Fire Rescue Department for emergency services. These in-kind services will not be reimbursed by the in-kind reserve.

In FY 2005-06 City of North Miami has not received any County funding for this event.
