List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. (See the instructions on page 4.)

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS, must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

U.S. person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

Note: If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the recipient has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Honorable Commissioner Dennis C. Moss
District 9
South Dade Government Center
10710 SW 211 Street, Room 206
Miami, FL 33189

Dear Commissioner Moss:

The Police Officer Assistant Trust (POAT) will be hosting a Candle Light Walk and Stand Against Crime, in recognition of those officers who protect and serve this community. POAT was founded in 1989 as a support organization for the law enforcement community of Miami-Dade County.

The walk will begin on Friday, October 12, 2007, at 7:00 p.m., at the busway and SW 112 Avenue adjacent to the Target store parking lot. The procession will travel south across US1 on SW 112 Avenue, then east on SW 211 Street to the Cutler Ridge Police Station. All participants will be provided with candles that will be lit during community empowering presentations.

In order to accommodate the expected crowd of participants, several agencies have made commitments to supply in-kind services and equipment. We are asking if you can arrange placement of a medium size stage, equipped with a sound system (1 – microphone), and two stands of bleachers for this event. I can meet with a representative of your South Dade Office or Miami-Dade Park and Recreation to discuss positioning of the stage and bleachers.

POAT is a 501©(3) non-profit corporation, so your donation is tax deductible. On behalf of POAT, we would like to thank you in advance for considering our request. For additional information, please contact Annette McCully at (305) 970-2776.

Your compassion for members of the law enforcement community and support of this worthwhile cause will be greatly appreciated. Your generosity will ensure that POAT lives up to our motto, "Serving Those Who Serve."

Sincerely,

Annette McCully

Candle Light Walk and Stand Against Crime

In recognition of those officers who protect and serve this community, the citizens of the Cutler Ridge District will join together with the Miami-Dade Police Department (MDPD) and other law enforcement agencies in a Walk Against Crime.

- The walk will begin on Friday, October 12, 2007 at 7:00 p.m. at the busway and SW 112 Avenue adjacent to the Target store parking lot. The procession will travel south across US1 on SW 112 Avenue then east on SW 211 Street to the Cutler Ridge Station. All participants will be provided with candles that will be lit during community empowering presentations. Walkers are requested to wear white tops to represent the event theme.

This demonstration of unity is in recognition and for the benefit of MDPD Officer Jody Wright who was seriously wounded and the surviving children of Officer Jose Somohano who was also fatally shot on September 13, 2007.

All donations can be made out to P.O.A.T. designating "Candle Light Walk and Stand Against Crime" in the memo portion of the check. Representatives will be on site during the event to accept any additional funds collected.

Memorandum

Date: March 4, 2008

To: Honorable Chairman Bruno A. Barreiro
and Members, Board of County Commissioners

From: George M. Burgess
County Manager

Subject: District Specific In-Kind Reserve Request Recommendation

Recommendation

The Office of Strategic Business Management (OSBM) has reviewed the attached in-kind request and recommends for the item to move forward to the Board of County Commissioners for consideration. The district specific in-kind reserve balance allows for the funding of this request.

Background

A retroactive fee waiver for in-kind services is being requested by a not-for-profit organization Police Officer Assistance Trust, Inc. for the Candlelight Walk and Stand Against Crime event held on October 12, 2007.

In-kind services have been requested in an amount not to exceed $4,132 from the Miami-Dade Park and Recreation Department for use of a medium showmobile, sound system and 2-sets of bleachers and $282 from the Miami-Dade Transit Agency for use of a shuttle bus for a total in-kind amount of $4,414. This event will be funded from the District 8 and District 9 in-kind reserve funds.

In FY 2007-08, the Police Officer Assistance Trust, Inc. has received a total of $35,250 from the following District offices: $5,000 from District 1 discretionary reserve, $5,000 from District 2 discretionary reserve, $5,000 from District 3 discretionary reserve, $5,000 from District 4 discretionary reserve, $5,000 from District 7 discretionary reserve, $5,000 from District 9 discretionary reserve, $5,000 from District 10 discretionary reserve, and $250 from District 4 office funds.
