- 6) State legislation re: employment/housing barriers, mental illness services, funding, etc.

Criminal Justice Recommendations:

- 7) Prioritize inmate pop. re initial re-entry services with eventual expansion to all.
- 8) Re-entry process to include provision of standardized, informed consent waivers.
- 9) Provision of incentives for inmate participation in re-entry program.
- 10) Re-entry sentencing options based upon discharge plans providing continuity of in- Jail services to community based services.

- 11) Create linkages between local re-entry services and F.D.O.C. for state prisoners within 120 days of release.

Corrections Operations Recommendations:

- 12) Expand participation in rehab/work programs thru screening, classification, etc.
- 13) Improve inter-agency coordination through joint training, MOUs, protocols, etc.

Service Provider Recommendations:

- 14) MDCR to institute automated assessment process re: medical/psych, substance abuse, educational/vocational, etc.
- 15) Consolidate MDCR training/support services into accessible “one-stop” centers.
- 16) Create continuum-of-treatment protocols and linkages with community based service providers

Bricks and Mortar Recommendations:

- 17) New/renovated detention facilities to include accessible re-entry program space.
- 18) Correctional Master Plan to provide for training and work facility.
- 19) MDCR to partner with educ/vocational providers to provide occupational training.
- 20) Contract for emergency MDCR needs re crowding, construction/repairs, etc.

State and Federal Prisoner Re-entry Recommendations:

- 21) Local Re-entry Council to include state and federal representation to coordinate with local re-entry services.
