Commissioner Audrey Edmonson

District 3

Stephen P. Clark Center

Miami, Florida 33128

Dear Ms. Edmonson,

As you know, Buena Vista East Historic Neighborhood Association is active in organizing for our neighborhood, as well advocating for surrounding communities. We are most proud of our Halloween event, a joint event with Buena Vista West and Buena Vista Heights for all surrounding communities of Little Haiti. This will be our 3rd Annual Event. Our City Commissioner, Michele Spence-Jones, is again sponsoring this event. Last year we had a record number of children participating. This year again we expect even larger crowds as we are making it a family event.

The event will take place on:

Date: Friday, October 31, 2008
Time: 7:00 PM - 10:00 PM
Location: Block Party, 42 Street NE, between Miami Avenue and 1st Avenue NE

This event is on Halloween! We will be having live Haunted Houses, door to door "Trick or Treating," Carnival Games, Music and Entertainers, a Bounce House, Information & Safety Booths, Food and other activities to keep everyone entertained and safe for all 3 hours within a residential block. All the neighbors are excited and are looking forward to decorating their homes. The great thing it's free! It will be a memorable event!

We are expecting a minimum of 350 children going on the numbers of guests in our past Halloween events. This year we are expecting larger crowds as we have changed the event to a Block Party and will pass out flyers to nearby communities that border Little Haiti, like Wynwood, Overtown and Liberty City.

We are contacting your office to request some assistance with a Show Mobile. We were looking forward to having performers, all who have donated their time graciously, to have a stage to do their thing. Again the event will be contained within a block and there will be plenty of activities for the children to have a fun and safe Halloween.

Thanking your office in advance for your contribution to making this a great Halloween for the kids in our communities! You can contact me at 786-326-2330 with further instructions.

Sincerely,
Anthony Grullon
