Re: Request for Action to Dedicate County Land

Dear Commissioner Jordan:

As the City continues its efforts toward "livable neighborhoods" and an improved Magnolia North neighborhood community, attention is focused toward the much needed expansion of park and recreational facilities in the area.

Therefore and in reference to the County's vacant property adjacent to the City's James Street Tot Lot, this correspondence request the County's donation of Folio. No. 08-2122-003-1690, to expand the tot lot; the preamble to a proposed County resolution being; to approve a land dedication agreement with the City of Opa-locka and authorizing the execution in support of and encouragement for improvements within the Magnolia North Neighborhood Area.

The Magnolia North Neighborhood (formerly the "Triangle") is on the crux of a renaissance, with collective law enforcement, social services and City resources being specifically directed toward eliminating unacceptable actions or behaviors that foster crime pockets and preclude beautification and tranquility characteristically known in livable neighborhoods.

We ask that this request be received favorably and subsequently to the dedication, that you will join the City in the formal re-opening of an expanded and improved James Street Tot Lot, at an agreed upon date.

Thank you and we look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Joseph L. Kelley
Mayor
