

Memorandum

Date: March 3, 2009

To: Honorable Chairman Dennis C. Moss
and Members, Board of County Commissioners

From: George M. Burgess
County Manager

Subject: Historic Preservation Ad Valorem Tax Exemption for 3156 Royal Palm Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida

Agenda Item No. 9(A)(8)

Recommendation

It is recommended that pursuant to the provisions of Florida Statute Section 196.1997 and 196.1998 and Dade County Ordinance 16A-18 that the Board approve the resolution for the Ad Valorem Tax Exemption for the following property: 3156 Royal Palm Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida.

Scope

Impact of the agenda item is countywide and does not have a separate impact upon one or more commission districts.

Fiscal Impact

Annual taxes to be foregone if this Historic Preservation Exemption application is granted are estimated at $1892 (see the attached "Revenue Implications Report" provided by the Property Appraiser).

Track Record/Monitor

County Historic Preservation staff or the Preservation Officer of the municipality in which the property is located will conduct periodic reviews of the property to insure that the improvements are maintained for the duration of the tax abatement.

Enabling Legislation

In 1993, the State legislature approved Tax Exemptions for historic properties; and enabled local governments the option to provide property tax exemption for historic properties.

The purpose of this legislation is to encourage historic preservation by offering an economic incentive to those property owners who take on the responsibility of restoring and maintaining a designated historic structure. The exemption is not for the entire assessed value of the property. The tax exemptions are calculated from what the value of the renovations to the historic property were, and only apply to Miami-Dade County's portion of the taxes.

Honorable Chairman Dennis C. Moss

All applicants must meet certain criteria as set forth by the Florida Department of State, Division of Historical Resources in order for a tax exemption to be allowed, such as:

- Certification, by the applicable preservation board, that the property has been designated historic
- Certification, by the applicable preservation board, that the property has received approval for the improvements.
- Determination, by the applicable preservation board, that the planned improvements are consistent with the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation.

Duration

The tax exemption takes effect on January 1 following substantial completion of the improvement and extends for a ten-year period. Failure by the owners to adhere to these standards would result in revocation of the exemption.

Project Details

The property located at 3156 Royal Palm Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida, meets the criteria set forth by the State of Florida. Both the City of Miami Beach Historic Preservation Board and the Miami-Dade County Historic Preservation Board have approved this application for the tax exemption.

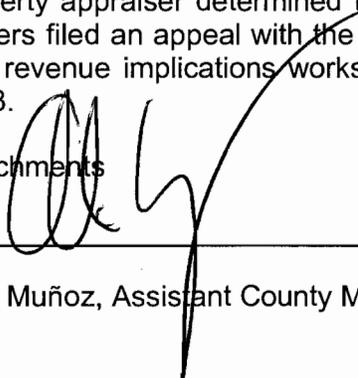

3156 Royal Palm Avenue was designated a local historic site by the Miami Beach Historic Preservation Board in 2004. The architect Gilbert M. Fine, who designed over 100 Post War Modern buildings in Miami Beach, designed this residence. Fine was the architect of choice for post WW II large homebuilders. Many of his works were award winning and featured in architectural publications.

3156 Royal Palm Avenue was designated because it is a good example of the Post War Modern style prevalent in South Florida and representative of the construction boom in Miami Beach following WW II. The improvement project involved rehabilitation work to the historic mass, and the addition of a significant two-story addition to the rear of the property.

Submittal Dates

Parts I and II of the Ad-Valorem Application were submitted to county staff in August of 2007. The application went to the county Historic Preservation Board in November of 2007. The property appraiser determined that the work was substantially complete in 2006, however the owners filed an appeal with the Value Adjustment Board, which was heard on March 28, 2008. The revenue implications worksheet was provided to county historic preservation staff in July 2008.
