Type of Item: Naming of Maintenance Facility

Summary

This resolution modifies the current designation¹ of the Metromover Maintenance Facility located at 100 S.W. 1 Avenue to Joseph Bryant Metromover Maintenance Facility. On June 19, 2009, Joseph Bryant, a Metromover Maintenance Facility Supervisor, was killed in the line of work.

Background and Relevant Legislation

According to Miami-Dade Transit (MDT) staff, there are three (3) MDT facilities currently named for national/local people: Central-Rosa Parks Central Transportation Building; Central- Sheila Wintzer Central Administration Building; and the Northeast-Claude Rolfe Northeast Bus Facility.

The approximate cost of renaming the Metromover Maintenance Facility is $15,000 (inclusive of signage and the placement of a plaque). The timeframe for renaming the facility may take two (2) months.

The 33,500-square foot Metromover Maintenance building was dedicated on May 29, 1984.

¹ Pursuant to the Rules of Procedure 9.02, a district commissioner may propose the renaming of a Miami-Dade facility as long as the property is located within his/her district.
