EATING AND ACTIVE LIVING

WHEREAS, First lady Michelle Obama has chosen as one of her main initiatives the "Let's Move" campaign aimed at reducing childhood obesity in the United States; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Commissioners desires to advocate for and to encourage Miami-Dade County residents, both adults and children, through a public awareness campaign to embrace lifestyles that combat obesity and facilitate and promote eating a healthier, more balanced and nutritious diet and that foster active living through exercise; and

WHEREAS, many adults and children who reside in Miami-Dade County are overweight or obese and are at greater risk for the onset of many chronic illnesses, diseases and other afflictions, including, but not limited to, diabetes, heart disease, cancer, arthritis, stroke, and hypertension; and

WHEREAS, obesity and its ill-effects take a tremendous toll on the health and well-being of Miami-Dade County residents and negatively impact their productivity in the Miami-Dade County workforce or in the pursuit of an education,
