The Evangelical Covenant

Gentlemen:

We have considered your application for a group exemption letter holding your subordinates exempt from Federal income tax as organizations described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Our records indicate that The Evangelical Covenant Church of America was held to be exempt from Federal income tax under section 101(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, which corresponds to section 501(c)(3) of the 1954 Code. This ruling remains in effect.

Based on the information supplied, we recognize your named local churches and Regional Conferences on the lists you submitted as being exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Additionally, we have classified the churches and associations of churches you operate, supervise, or control, and which are covered by your notification to us, as organizations that are not private foundations by virtue sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(i) of the Code.

You are not required to file the Return for Organizations Exempt from Income Tax Form 990, as you come within the exception contained in section 6033(a)(2)(A)(i) of the Code. Your subordinates are also not required to file the Form 990 as they qualify as churches or integrated auxiliaries of churches or otherwise come within the exception provided in section 1.6033-2(g) of the Income Tax Regulations.

The individual ruling letter to the California Conference of the Evangelical Covenant Church of America is superseded by this ruling.

The Evangelical Covenant

Your exempt subordinates are not required to file Federal income tax returns unless they are subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If the exempt subordinates are subject to this tax, they must file an income tax return on form 990-T. In this letter we are not determining whether any of their activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

Your subordinates are not liable for social security (FICA) taxes unless they file a waiver of exemption certificate as provide in the Federal Insurance Contributions Act. They are not liable for the taxes imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Donors may deduct contributions to your exempt subordinates as provided by section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to or for the use of your exempt subordinates are deductible for federal estate and gift tax purposes under section 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

You should advise each of your subordinates of the provisions of this ruling, including the requirements for filing information or other returns.
