CITY LIFE

Greater Miami Youth for Christ's KIX Program has existed for 20 years now with the aim of providing hope, help, and wholeness to youth in the South West Homestead/Florida City area. We do this in order to improve and enrich the lives of children from elementary through young adulthood with holistic programs that nourish the body, mind and soul. Our hope is to impact the southwest community by providing consistent and positive programming at all age levels that will improve educational status, future income potential, citizenship, health, and spiritual wholeness.

We recently received funding from the Children's Trust to take her program to 5 days a week and received a near perfect score in all areas. We are committed to turning the tide in the community from crime and poverty to healing and wholeness for the young people she serves and loves.

Since KIX's inception in 1993, literally hundreds of youth have graduated from high school and gone on to live productive lives because KIX challenged them to live a life of purpose and wholeness. Many of them are bringing their own children back to KIX to enjoy the same positive experience they had.

Currently, KIX has programming five days a week, which include:

- Homework and afterschool assistance
- Nutrition, physical, and literacy enrichment education
- Free summer camps for local youth
- Various service opportunities with local and national partners
- Overnight and short-term OASIS spring break camp, summer camps, and mission trips for middle and high school students
- Indigenous leader training program that hires and trains local leaders

We know our city desires to change the lives of young people in a positive manner, and to that end, we earnestly seek partnerships offering hope, help, and wholeness to South West Homestead.

On February 9, we are celebrating 20 years in this community by having our KIX Anniversary at our site. We are in the heart of the South West community at 344 SW 4 Ave. (St Paul Missionary Baptist Church). Our children will be signing and performing at this event and we would love to have a stage so that all of our visitors could see them! We are hoping that Commissioner Moss would be able to help us with this! We have room for a stage no bigger than 20 x 30. Please let me know if you have this available for our use on the above date.

Thank you for your time and interest in our young people's lives,

Stacy Morales

If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and

For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued).
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.
