Mayor

Subject: Resolution Ratifying the County Mayor or County Mayor's Designee Action in Applying for, Receiving and Expending Funds from the United States Department of Justice, Office for Victims of Crime

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the Board of County Commissioners ("Board") ratify the County Mayor or the County Mayor's designee action of applying for, receiving and expending funds from the United States Department of Justice, Office for Victims of Crime (OVC) FY 2014 Services for Victims of Human Trafficking on behalf of Miami-Dade County. It is further recommended that the Board authorize the County Mayor or the County Mayor's Designee to apply for, receive and expend additional future funds should they become available under this program for the purpose outlined herein. Finally, it is recommended that the Board authorize the County Mayor or the County Mayor's designee to execute such contracts and agreements as are required by the Lead Agency, Miami-Dade County and/or by the funder; the United States Department of Justice, following approval for form and legal sufficiency by the County Attorney's Office; and to file and execute any necessary amendments to agreements for and on behalf of Miami-Dade County. The grant term is October 1, 2014 through September 30, 2016. On September 16, 2014, the award letter was received (Attachment A). The Cooperative Agreement was executed on October 28, 2014 (Attachment B).

SCOPE

These funds will allow Miami-Dade County through its Community Action and Human Services Department ("the Department"), to provide programmatic and fiscal management and supervision to the project to ensure goal attainment and compliance with the DOJ-OVC grant agreement. This will be accomplished through the hiring of two (2) full-time Victims of Crime Specialists who will assist victims of human trafficking with the provision and coordination of advocacy activities; one of these two positions would be working at the Community Action and Human Services Department and the other at the Miami Dade Police Department. In this role, the Victims of Crime Specialists would work with community human trafficking service providers to secure coordinated services for their clients. The Victims of Crime Specialists would actively participate in the Miami-Dade County Human Trafficking Coalition and other human trafficking task forces and working groups in the community. Furthermore, the Victims of Crimes Specialists will also assist in the development of appropriate protocols. Miami-Dade County will subcontract with Americans for Immigrant Justice for the provision of immigration legal services, Dade Legal Aid for legal family and civil services, University of Miami for the research component of this grant, and the Trauma Resolution Center for mental health and trauma informed counseling.

FISCAL IMPACT/FUNDING SOURCE

There is no fiscal impact to the County for the administration of these services. The Awarded Funds from the United States Department of Justice, Office for Victims of Crimes FY 2014 Services for Victims of Human Trafficking grant program will be contributing $400,000 to the County.

TRACK RECORD/MONITOR

The Department has provided services to victims of human trafficking for the past two (2) years. The Violence Prevention and Intervention Division is a service component which provides a variety of services to human trafficking victims who are fleeing the abuse. Ivon Mesa, Violence Prevention and Intervention Division Director, will provide administrative oversight and monitor this grant and the services provided.

BACKGROUND

The Department is seeking funds to continue serving human trafficking victims who are in need of coordinated services and resources in order to flee the abuse they face. The Americans for Immigrant Justice, the Dade Legal Aid, the Trauma Resolution Center and the University of Miami will be subcontracted to provide coordinated community response, advocacy and legal services to this population. The aforementioned partners in this grant have a long history of collaboration with the Department and have been onsite partners at the Coordinated Victims Assistance Center since its inception. Eligible program participants will receive preliminary assessments to determine needs and will then be linked to the appropriate onsite services in order to achieve individualized goals. The program will continue to serve as part of the continuum of services under the Department. Client services will include an array of advocacy and legal services such as, but not limited to, individualized/group counseling, family and civil legal assistance, immigration legal assistance, among others.

The anticipated award is $400,000 and it is slated for the provision of direct services. These funds will be used to enhance services at the Coordinated Victims Assistance Center where victims of human trafficking seek the help that they need.

The Honorable Carlos A. Gimenez
Miami-Dade County
111 NW 1st Street
Miami, FL 33128

Dear Mayor Gimenez:

Congratulations on your recent award. In establishing financial assistance programs, Congress linked the receipt of federal funding to compliance with federal civil rights laws. The Office for Civil Rights (OCR), Office of Justice Programs (OJP), U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) is responsible for ensuring that recipients of financial assistance from the OJP, the Office of Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS), and the Office on Violence Against Women (OVW) comply with the applicable federal civil rights laws. We at the OCR are available to help you and your organization meet the civil rights requirements that come with DOJ funding.

Ensuring Access to Federally Assisted Programs

Federal laws that apply to recipients of financial assistance from the DOJ prohibit discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, or disability in funded programs or activities, not only in employment but also in the delivery of services or benefits. A federal law also prohibits recipients from discriminating on the basis of age in the delivery of services or benefits.

In March of 2013, President Obama signed the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013. The statute amends the Violence Against Women Act of 1994 (VAWA) by including a nondiscrimination grant condition that prohibits discrimination based on actual or perceived race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, sexual orientation, or gender identity. The new nondiscrimination grant condition applies to certain programs funded after October 1, 2013. The OCR and the OVW have developed answers to some frequently asked questions about this provision to assist recipients of VAWA funds to understand their obligations. The Frequently Asked Questions are available at <http://ojp.gov/about/ocr/vawafaqs.htm>.

Enforcing Civil Rights Laws

All recipients of federal financial assistance, regardless of the particular funding source, the amount of the grant award, or the number of employees in the workforce, are subject to prohibitions against unlawful discrimination. Accordingly, the OCR investigates recipients that are the subject of discrimination complaints from both individuals and groups. In addition, based on regulatory criteria, the OCR selects a number of recipients each year for compliance reviews, audits that require recipients to submit data showing that they are providing services equitably to all segments of their service population and that their employment practices meet equal opportunity standards.

Providing Services to Limited English Proficiency (LEP) Individuals

In accordance with DOJ guidance pertaining to Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. § 2000d, recipients of federal financial assistance must take reasonable steps to provide meaningful access to their programs and activities for persons with limited English proficiency (LEP). See U.S. Department of Justice, Guidance to Federal Financial Assistance Recipients Regarding Title VI Prohibition Against National Origin Discrimination Affecting Limited English Proficient Persons, 67 Fed. Reg. 41,455 (2002). For more information on the civil rights responsibilities that recipients have in providing language services to LEP individuals, please see the website <http://www.lep.gov>.

Ensuring Equal Treatment for Faith-Based Organizations

The DOJ regulation, Equal Treatment for Faith-Based Organizations, 28 C.F.R. pt. 38, requires State Administering Agencies (SAAs) to treat faith-based organizations the same as any other applicant or recipient. The regulation prohibits SAAs from making awards or grant administration decisions on the basis of an organization's religious character or affiliation, religious name, or the religious composition of its board of directors.

The regulation also prohibits faith-based organizations from using financial assistance from the DOJ to fund inherently (or explicitly) religious activities. While faith-based organizations can engage in non-funded inherently religious activities, they must hold them separately from the program funded by the DOJ, and recipients cannot compel beneficiaries to participate in them. The Equal Treatment Regulation also makes clear that organizations participating in programs funded by the DOJ are not permitted to discriminate in the provision of services on the basis of a beneficiary's religion. For more information on the regulation, please see the OCR's website at http://www.ojp.usdoj.gov/about/ocr/equal_fbo.htm.

SAAs and faith-based organizations should also note that the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act (Safe Streets Act) of 1968, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 3789d(e); the Victims of Crime Act of 1984, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 10604(e); the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act of 1974, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 5672(b); and VAWA, Pub. L. No. 113-4, sec. 3(b)(4), 127 Stat. 54, 61-62 (to be codified at 42 U.S.C. § 13925(b)(13)) contain prohibitions against discrimination on the basis of religion in employment. Despite these nondiscrimination provisions, the DOJ has concluded that it may construe the Religious Freedom Restoration Act (RFRA) on a case-by-case basis to permit some faith-based organizations to receive DOJ funds while taking into account religion when hiring staff, even if the statute that authorizes the funding program generally forbids recipients from considering religion in employment decisions. Please consult with the OCR if you have any questions about the regulation or the application of RFRA to the statutes that prohibit discrimination in employment.

Using Arrest and Conviction Records in Making Employment Decisions

The OCR issued an advisory document for recipients on the proper use of arrest and conviction records in making hiring decisions. See Advisory for Recipients of Financial Assistance from the U.S. Department of Justice on the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission's Enforcement Guidance: Consideration of Arrest and Conviction Records in Employment Decisions Under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (June 2013), available at http://www.ojp.usdoj.gov/about/ocr/pdfs/UseofConviction_Advisory.pdf. Recipients should be mindful that the misuse of arrest or conviction records to screen either applicants for employment or employees for retention or promotion may have a disparate impact based on race or national origin, resulting in unlawful employment discrimination. In light of the Advisory, recipients should consult local counsel in reviewing their employment practices. If warranted, recipients should also incorporate an analysis of the use of arrest and conviction records in their Equal Employment Opportunity Plans (EEOPs) (see below).

Complying with the Safe Streets Act

An organization that is a recipient of financial assistance subject to the nondiscrimination provisions of the Safe Streets Act, must meet two obligations: (1) complying with the federal regulation pertaining to the development of an EEOP (see 28 C.F.R. pt. 42, subpt. B) and (2) submitting to the OCR findings of discrimination (see 28 C.F.R. §§ 42.204(e), 205(c)(5)).

Meeting the EEOE Requirement

If your organization has less than fifty employees or receives an award of less than $25,000 or is a nonprofit organization, a medical institution, an educational institution, or an Indian tribe, then it is exempt from the EEOE requirement. To claim the exemption, your organization must complete and submit Section A of the Certification Form, which is available online at <http://www.ojp.usdoj.gov/about/ocr/pdfs/cert.pdf>.

If your organization is a government agency or private business and receives an award of $25,000 or more, but less than $500,000, and has fifty or more employees (counting both full- and part-time employees but excluding political appointees), then it has to prepare a Utilization Report (formerly called an EEOE Short Form), but it does not have to submit the report to the OCR for review. Instead, your organization has to maintain the Utilization Report on file and make it available for review on request. In addition, your organization has to complete Section B of the Certification Form and return it to the OCR. The Certification Form is available at <http://www.ojp.usdoj.gov/about/ocr/pdfs/cert.pdf>.

If your organization is a government agency or private business and has received an award for $500,000 or more and has fifty or more employees (counting both full- and part-time employees but excluding political appointees), then it has to prepare a Utilization Report (formerly called an EEOE Short Form) and submit it to the OCR for review within sixty days from the date of this letter. For assistance in developing a Utilization Report, please consult the OCR's website at <http://www.ojp.usdoj.gov/about/ocr/ecop.htm>. In addition, your organization has to complete Section C of the Certification Form and return it to the OCR. The Certification Form is available at <http://www.ojp.usdoj.gov/about/ocr/pdfs/cert.pdf>.

To comply with the EEOE requirements, you may request technical assistance from an EEOE specialist at the OCR by telephone at (202) 307-0690, by TTY at (202) 307-2027, or by e-mail at EEOEsubmission@usdoj.gov.

Meeting the Requirement to Submit Findings of Discrimination

If in the three years prior to the date of the grant award, your organization has received an adverse finding of discrimination based on race, color, national origin, religion, or sex, after a due-process hearing, from a state or federal court or from a state or federal administrative agency, your organization must send a copy of the finding to the OCR.

Ensuring the Compliance of Subrecipients

SAsAs must have standard assurances to notify subrecipients of their civil rights obligations, written procedures to address discrimination complaints filed against subrecipients, methods to monitor subrecipients' compliance with civil rights requirements, and a program to train subrecipients on applicable civil rights laws. In addition, SAsAs must submit to the OCR every three years written Methods of Administration (MOA) that summarize the policies and procedures that they have implemented to ensure the civil rights compliance of subrecipients. For more information on the MOA requirement, see http://www.ojp.usdoj.gov/funding/other_requirements.htm.

If the OCR can assist you in any way in fulfilling your organization's civil rights responsibilities as a recipient of federal financial assistance, please contact us.

Sincerely,

Michael L. Alston

26. Responsibility for the coordination of topics addressed or services rendered is shared jointly with the OVC and the recipient. Where appropriate, the recipient will act jointly with OVC in accomplishing the following tasks: 1) determination of modifications to the program plan or budget; and, 2) design of data collection instruments. In executing this responsibility, OVC requires that its program specialist meet periodically with recipient (as determined by OVC) throughout the life of the project to discuss project activities, plans, problems, and solutions.
27. Responsibility for the day-to-day conduct of the project rests with the recipient. This specifically includes operations, data collection, analysis and interpretation.
28. Responsibility for general oversight and redirection of the project, if necessary, rests with OVC. OVC will review and approve all activities in the requirements under the various stages, as enumerated in the solicitation. This includes review and approval in a timely manner of all key personnel selections, consultants, assessments, plans, instruments, manuals, and documents developed or identified for use during the project, with suggestions for modifications. The program solicitation is hereby incorporated by reference into the Cooperative Agreement making it part of the overall agreement, requiring adherence to its overall design.
29. The recipient authorizes the Office for Victims of Crime (OVC) and/or the Office of the Chief Financial Officer (OCFO), and its representatives, access to and the right to examine all records, books, papers, or documents related to this grant.
30. The Project Director and key program personnel designated in the application shall be replaced only for compelling reasons. (An award recipient may compensate an employee at a higher rate, provided the amount in excess of this compensation limitation is paid with non-federal funds.)

This limitation on compensation rates allowable under this award may be waived on an individual basis at the discretion of the OJP official indicated in the program announcement under which this award is made.
33. Applicants must certify that Limited English Proficiency persons have meaningful access to the services under this program(s). Subject: Categorical Exclusion for Miami-Dade County

The purpose of this award, one of several projects funded under the Services for Victims of Human Trafficking Grant Program, is to enhance the quality and quantity of services available to assist victims of human trafficking, as defined by the Trafficking Victims Protection Act (TVPA) of 2000, as amended. Miami-Dade County, through their Coordinated Victims Assistance Center, will provide specialized services for victims of human trafficking, using a Family Justice Center model. This two-year project will provide services to trafficking victims identified within the Miami-Dade area of Florida. In addition, the grantee will improve the capacity of communities to respond to human trafficking victims through the development of interagency partnerships and through training and public awareness activities.

Consequently, the subject federal action meets OJP's criteria for a categorical exclusion as contained in paragraph 4 (b) of Appendix D to Part 61 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Additionally, the proposed action is neither a phase nor a segment of a project which when viewed in its entirety would not meet the criteria for a categorical exclusion.
