From: Carlos A. Gimenez

Subject: Report on the Creation of the Millennial Task Force Board

The following items listed in this report are provided pursuant to Section 2-11.37 of the County Code regarding the creation of a new advisory board:

1. The proposed ordinance to create the Millennial Task Force Board will further increase the involvement of Miami-Dade County millennials; particularly those in underserved communities, in an advisory capacity, by providing an additional platform for millennials to inform local government of services, programs and facilities that can improve their quality of life.
2. There are currently several boards, taskforces and consortiums in existence with the sole or in-part purpose of assisting millennials in Miami-Dade County. These groups include the Beacon Council New Leader's Task-Force, the Miami-Dade Chamber of Commerce Young Professionals Network, and Leadership Miami. One or more of these existing groups can serve in an advisory capacity on various long and short-term solutions to attract, assist and retain millennials in Miami-Dade County.
3. The implementation of this ordinance will not have a fiscal impact on Miami-Dade County as it will not result in additional staffing needs or future operational costs.
4. The creation of the Millennial Task Force Board would not enable the County to obtain state or federal grants, or other financing.
5. The Millennial Task Force Board will not have bonding authority.
6. The Millennial Task Force Board will only be advisory in nature and will not have any contracting authority.
7. In conjunction with the various groups already in existence, the Millennial Task Force Board gives millennials a direct and active role and responsibility to work with local government in shaping policies and programs to better meet their evolving needs; from establishing adequate affordable housing, transportation and economic growth opportunities to ultimately improve millennial residents quality of life.

ORDINANCE NO. _____

ORDINANCE RELATING TO THE MIAMI-DADE MILLENNIAL TASK FORCE; CREATING ARTICLE CLXI OF THE CODE OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA; AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 17-101; DELETING THE SUNSET PROVISION AND ESTABLISHING THE TASK FORCE AS A PERMANENT COUNTY BOARD; PROVIDING FOR PURPOSE, COMPOSITION, MEMBERSHIP, PROCEDURES, AND DUTIES; PROVIDING SEVERABILITY, INCLUSION IN THE CODE, AND AN EFFECTIVE DATE

WHEREAS, the term “millennials” refers to individuals born in the early 1980s through the early 2000s; and

WHEREAS, many Miami-Dade County millennials face financial, career and housing difficulties, leading some to uproot and start their careers elsewhere; and

WHEREAS, factors contributing to this include, the County’s significant income inequality, high cost of living, transportation barriers, and lack of innovative technology and business opportunities; and

WHEREAS, for every dollar of income earned by the lowest 20 percent in the County, those in the top 5 percent earn $40, revealing a 40-to-1 income gap in the County, well above the national average of 29-to-1, according to the 2016 County Prosperity Initiatives Feasibility Study conducted by the Florida International University Metropolitan Center (“FIU study”); and

WHEREAS, the FIU study also revealed that the County is the third most unaffordable housing market in the nation, with approximately 62 percent, of renters being cost burdened, defined as those paying 30 percent or more of their annual income for housing; and

WHEREAS, despite the high cost of rent, millennials are reluctant to purchase a home out of fear of housing market fluctuations, lack of financing to place a down payment, insufficient credit, and the high expense of purchasing and maintaining a home; and

WHEREAS, when the cost of transportation is factored into the cost of housing, millennials and others alike are even more severely burdened; and

WHEREAS, transportation determines the mobility of the community and is one of the main considerations when choosing a place to live, yet the County's current transit system is not readily accessible to many residents; and

WHEREAS, the availability of new technology and business opportunities in a particular community are also major considerations for millennials when deciding where to live; and

WHEREAS, it is vital to create incentives in employment, housing, and transportation in order to increase the possibility of the County's millennials applying and investing their knowledge, skills, and talents to grow the County rather than other regions; and

WHEREAS, on November 1, 2016, this Board adopted Resolution No. R-1058-16 creating the Miami-Dade Millennial Task Force ("Task Force"), responsible for developing strategies to attract, retain, and assist millennials in Miami-Dade County through, among other things, housing, career, and transportation opportunities or incentives; and

WHEREAS, Resolution No. R-1058-16 provided that the Task Force sunset and stand dissolved on the 365th day from the effective date of the resolution unless this Board extended the term of service by majority vote; and

WHEREAS, Resolution No. R-1058-16 became effective on November 11, 2016; therefore, the Task Force was set to sunset and stand dissolved on November 11, 2017; and

WHEREAS, on December 5, 2017, this Board adopted Ordinance No. 17-101 extending the sunset date of the Task Force to the later of (i) the date that this Board votes and subsequently receives a final report or further work from the Miami-Dade Millennial Task Force; or (ii) May 9, 2018; and

WHEREAS, on May 1, 2018, the Task Force presented its preliminary report to this Board; and

WHEREAS, after such presentation, this Board requested that the Task Force conduct further research and present additional findings within 180 days of May 1, 2018; and

WHEREAS, thus, the Task Force is set to sunset on October 28, 2018; and

WHEREAS, the Task Force requires more time to explore, dissect, and resolve the financial, career and housing difficulties that millennials face throughout the County; and

WHEREAS, this Board finds that it is in the best interest of the County to delete the sunset provision set out in Resolution No. R-1058-16 and later extended in Ordinance No. 17-101, and make the Task Force a permanent board,
