The Parties to this Agreement acknowledge and agree that the third party beneficiary rights of the IDB have vested, and that the IDB has relied on its third party beneficiary rights under this Agreement in entering into a separate Memorandum of Understanding with the Department of the Treasury for matters related to the conduct of the Annual Meeting.

Additionally, the Parties agree to include, in any and all Sponsorship Agreements with Sponsors selected to provide the services specified under Section III (C) above, a provision in substantially the form as that set forth above relating to, and explicitly reciting, the IDB's third party beneficiary rights under such subsequent agreements.

A. The Executing Agencies acknowledge that in order for the Meeting to be held in Miami Beach, it is necessary for the United States Government to arrange that the facilities and services listed above in Section III (C) be provided to the IDB at no cost to the IDB. The Executing Agencies and the Department of the Treasury agree that neither the Department of the Treasury, nor any other agency of the United States Government, will incur any cost attributable to the listed facilities and services which are to be provided by the Executing Agencies. If the Executing Agencies, or the Sponsors with whom the Host Committee has contracted for the provision of services specified under Section III (C) above, do not perform as required by this Agreement, and the IDB or other person or organization presents a claim to the Department of the Treasury for compensation, or seeks the provision of any good, service, or facility, which claim the authorized representative of the Department signing below or his successor finds in good faith and in the reasonable exercise of prudent judgment to be justified (such finding not to be unreasonably withheld), then the Executing Agencies, in the manner allocated to each Executing Agency in Sections III and IV and any subsequent agreement entered into thereunder, and within the limitations imposed by those Sections and any subsequent agreement, shall pay that claim, or, if lawful and feasible, provide that good, service or facility, upon receiving such notice from the Department of the Treasury. In the event that, in the determination of IDB and the Department of the Treasury, the Executing Agencies or the Sponsors with whom the Host Committee has contracted for the provision of services specified under Section III (C) above do not provide such good, service or facility within a reasonable time, or would not be able to do so (in order to meet requirements of timeliness of performance, among other relevant considerations), IDB may itself incur reasonable expenses to purchase or otherwise arrange to procure that good, service or facility. Reasonable and timely advance notice shall be provided by IDB to the Department of the Treasury and the Executing Agencies prior to incurring such expenses. The IDB shall be deemed to have satisfied this notice requirement upon transmittal of an electronic mail to the Liaison Officer for the Host Committee, who shall notify the other Liaison Officers designated pursuant to this Agreement. In these circumstances, the Host Committee will reimburse the IDB for any expenses so incurred unless such expenses arise from the nonperformance of an obligation specifically agreed to by a Local Government under Section IV or pursuant to a subsequent agreement entered into thereunder. In that instance, the Local Government shall be responsible to reimburse the IDB for such expense.

Further, if the Executing Agencies do not perform as required by this Agreement, or subsequent agreements entered into under Section IV, and as a result the Department of the Treasury or any other agency of the United States Government incurs any cost, the Executing Agencies, in the manner allocated to each Executing Agency in Sections III and IV and any subsequent agreements entered into thereunder, and within the limitations imposed by those Sections and subsequent agreements, agree to pay to the Department of the Treasury: any cost so incurred by the Department or other Federal agency; any costs of defending against claims by the IDB or other persons or organizations; and any liabilities or judgments resulting from such claims, so that the Department of the Treasury or other Federal agency is held harmless. The Executing Agencies further agree in the manner allocated to each Executing Agency in Sections III and IV and any subsequent agreements entered into thereunder, and within the limitations imposed by those Sections and subsequent agreements, to fully indemnify the Department of the Treasury or other Federal agency if the Department or other Federal agency becomes liable to any third person for loss or damage to property, death, or bodily injury as a result of Executing Agencies' performance or nonperformance of their obligations under this Agreement. The Department of the Treasury agrees that Miami Dade County, the City of Miami and the City of Miami Beach are not responsible for nonperformance of any obligation under this Agreement that is undertaken by the other Local Governments and that Miami Dade County, the City of Miami and the City of Miami Beach are not responsible for nonperformance by the Host Committee of any obligation undertaken by the Host Committee or a Sponsor under this Agreement. It is also agreed that if the IDB, the Department of Treasury or other Federal agency seeks reimbursement under this Section, reimbursement will only be sought from the Host Committee unless otherwise provided in Section IV herein or in any subsequent agreement entered into thereunder.

B. It is understood that the Host Committee will be purchasing Event Insurance to cover third-party liability that might be incurred in connection with the Meeting. The Host Committee agrees to remain in existence for one year after the conclusion of the Meeting, and agrees that its Event Insurance policy will remain in effect for the statute of limitations period for any third-party liability causes of action covered by the Event Insurance policy. The Host Committee will provide a copy of its Event Insurance policy for review and approval by [the Local Governments,] the Department of the Treasury, and the IDB prior to its execution.

X. Coordination and Disputes

A. The Executing Agencies and the Department of the Treasury will inform the Liaison Officer for the other Parties of all communications with the IDB which relate to this Agreement. For the purpose of facilitating the preparations for and the execution of activities and services necessary for the Meeting, the Liaison Officer of the Department of Treasury will need some discretion to make decisions with regard to preparation for and execution of the Meeting without undue delay caused by the inaction of or disagreement with the Executing Agencies. If the Executing Agencies, individually or collectively, disagree with a request for services and/or goods to the Executing Agencies by the Department of Treasury Liaison Officer, then the Department of Treasury Liaison Officer (if the matter cannot be resolved in good faith) shall promptly convene a mediation session with the Executing Agencies before a mediator agreed to by the Parties, which session may occur by telephone to attempt to resolve the dispute. If after such mediation session a dispute arising under or relating to this Agreement or otherwise relating to the Meeting remains, the Executing Agencies will abide by the decision of the Liaison Officer of the Department of Treasury, and proceed in accordance with that decision. In such event, the Parties agree that the Executing Agencies waive nothing in abiding by the decision of the Liaison Officer of the Department of Treasury and may still pursue remedies in a court of competent jurisdiction. The Department of the Treasury also may pursue any remedy it seeks under this Agreement in a court of competent jurisdiction.

- B. Subject to the reimbursement provisions and the right of the IDB to incur reasonable expenses to purchase or procure goods, services or facilities as set forth in Section IX (A) above, the Parties hereto acknowledge and agree that if any dispute shall arise between any Executing Agency or the Host Committee, as applicable, and the IDB as to any matter or thing in connection with the Annual Meeting which cannot be settled by amicable agreement, then, upon any Party giving written notice of the difference or dispute to the other, the same shall be referred to arbitration and final determination by a single arbitrator. The arbitration shall be administered by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association. The place of arbitration shall be Miami, Florida. The language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English. The arbitrator shall have legal counsel if so desired or if one of the Parties so requests. The expenses of any arbitration proceeding shall be borne equally by the Executing Agency and the IDB.

XI. Additional Terms and Conditions

- A. Standards of performance: The Parties shall fulfill their obligations for the Annual Meeting with the highest standards of professionalism, and shall respect the significance and dignity of the Annual Meeting and the character of the IDB as a public international organization.

Rights in intellectual property: Any material produced by or worked upon by a Party for the purposes of the Annual Meeting in the form of audio and visual recording of sessions and printed and electronic files in relation to the Annual Meeting shall be the sole and exclusive property of the IDB and as such the IDB shall have the exclusive title and rights to such material, including the right of dissemination, reproduction and publication.
- F. Access to and inspection of work: The IDB shall at all times have access to any facilities, services or work being provided for the Annual Meeting. The IDB shall have the right to comment at any time on a Party's performance and to request modifications in performance..
- G. Advertisement or other Commercial Activities: No Party shall advertise any business, product or service or otherwise engage in commercial activities in the context of the Annual Meeting except as expressly authorized by IDB. The Host Committee will monitor the activities of all Sponsors to ensure compliance with all sponsorship requirements imposed by IDB. If the Liaison Officer of the IDB believes that an alteration, relocation or removal of any advertisement is required, the IDB will immediately notify the Liaison Officer of the Host Committee in order to agree on how to remedy the situation. The IDB shall not be liable for any costs or expenses associated with any agreed-upon alteration, relocation or removal.

GUIDELINES FOR SPONSORS CONTRACTED FOR THE PROVISION OF SERVICES SPECIFIED UNDER SECTION III (C)

Each Sponsor contracted by an Executing Agency for the provision of services specified under Section III (C) shall be appointed pursuant to a formal Sponsorship Agreement. These Guidelines shall be an Annex to, and shall be incorporated by reference into, such Sponsorship Agreement, and the obligations of the parties to such Agreement shall include the following:

Standards of performance: Each Sponsor shall fulfill the requirements of a Sponsorship with the highest standards of professionalism, and shall respect the significance and dignity of the Annual Meeting and the character of the IDB as a public international organization.

Security: Access to the Annual Meeting by Sponsors shall be limited and as authorized by IDB. Each Sponsor shall respect all regulations concerning security in relation to the Annual Meeting, shall cooperate as necessary with security officials, and shall otherwise respect any regulations concerning access to facilities or persons as may be requested by IDB, security officials and other officers overseeing the facilities or activities of the Annual Meeting.

Use of the IDB's name and other symbols: A Sponsor shall not use the name or other symbols of the IDB for any purpose except with the express prior written authorization of the IDB. A Sponsor shall not use the IDB's name or other symbols for commercial purposes, including the promotion, advertising or marketing of its facilities, products or services. A Sponsor shall not state or imply that the IDB or IIC endorse its name, business, products or services.

Confidentiality: A Sponsor may have access to privileged, confidential and/or proprietary information of the IDB, or in possession of the IDB but pertaining to another Party ("Confidential Information"). A Sponsor may also have access to information concerning arrangements for the Annual Meeting, and discussions of members of the Board of Governors, IDB Executive Directors and Management, all of which shall be deemed Confidential Information. Under no circumstance, except with the IDB's express written permission, shall Sponsors reproduce, sell, assign, license, market, transfer, give or otherwise disclose to any person or organization, in any manner or form, during or after the expiration of a Sponsorship Agreement, such Confidential Information or any part thereof, except as required by law or court order (in which case, the Sponsor shall promptly notify the IDB in writing of such obligation to disclose, its nature and extent)..

Rights in intellectual property: Any material produced by or worked upon by a Sponsor for the purposes of providing the Sponsorship, in the form of audio and visual recording of sessions and printed and electronic files in relation to the Annual Meeting, shall be the sole and exclusive property of the IDB and as such the IDB shall have the exclusive title and rights to such material, including the right of dissemination, reproduction and publication.

Access to and inspection of work: The IDB shall at all times have access to any facilities, services or work provided under a Sponsorship. The IDB shall have the right to comment at any time on the Sponsor's performance and to request modifications in performance and in preparation of the work within the scope of the Sponsorship.

Advertisement or other Commercial Activities: A Sponsor shall not advertise any business, product or service or otherwise engage in commercial activities in the context of the Annual Meeting except as expressly authorized by IDB. The Host Committee will monitor the activities of all Sponsors to ensure compliance with all sponsorship requirements imposed by IDB. If the Liaison Officer of the IDB believes that an alteration, relocation or removal of any advertisement is required, the IDB will immediately notify the Liaison Officer of the Host Committee in order to agree on how to remedy the situation. The IDB shall not be liable for any costs or expenses associated with any agreed-upon alteration, relocation or removal.

IDB as Beneficiary: Each of the Host Committee and the Sponsor expressly acknowledge and agrees that, notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the IDB is and shall be an intended third party beneficiary of this Agreement, notwithstanding the fact that the IDB is not a Party to this Agreement and is not responsible for any of the obligations hereunder. The Parties to this Agreement acknowledge and agree that the third party beneficiary rights of the IDB have vested, and that the IDB has relied on its third party beneficiary rights under this Agreement in entering into a separate Memorandum of Understanding with the Department of the Treasury for matters related to the conduct of the Annual Meeting.

Resolution of Disputes: The Parties hereto acknowledge and agree that if any dispute shall arise between any Sponsor and the IDB as to any matter or thing in connection with the Annual Meeting which cannot be settled by amicable agreement, then, upon either the Sponsor or the IDB giving written notice of the difference or dispute to the other, the same shall be referred to arbitration and final determination by a single arbitrator. The arbitration shall be administered by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association. The place of arbitration shall be Washington, D.C. The language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English. The arbitrator shall have legal counsel if so desired or if either the Sponsor or IDB so requests. The expenses of any arbitration proceeding shall be borne equally by the Parties and the IDB.
