Subject: Historic Preservation Ad Valorem Tax Exemption for 1101 North Greenway Drive, Coral Gables, Florida

Agenda Item No. 9(A)(10)

Resolution No. R-217-09

Recommendation

It is recommended that pursuant to the provisions of Florida Statute Section 196.1997 and 196.1998 and Dade County Ordinance 16A-18 that the Board approves the resolution for the Ad Valorem Tax Exemption for the property located at 1101 North Greenway Drive, Coral Gables, FL.

Scope

Impact of the agenda item is countywide and does not have a separate impact upon one or more commission districts.

Fiscal Impact

Annual taxes to be foregone if this Historic Preservation Exemption application is granted are estimated at $1847 (see the attached "Revenue Implications Report" provided by the Property Appraiser).

Track Record/Monitor

County Historic Preservation staff or the Preservation Officer of the municipality in which the property is located will conduct periodic reviews of the property to insure that the improvements are maintained for the duration of the tax abatement.

Enabling Legislation

In 1993, the State legislature approved Tax Exemptions for historic properties; and enabled local governments the option to provide property tax exemption for historic properties.

The purpose of this legislation is to encourage historic preservation by offering an economic incentive to those property owners who take on the responsibility of restoring and maintaining a designated historic structure. The exemption is not for the entire assessed value of the property. The tax exemptions are calculated from what the value of the renovations to the historic property were, and only apply to Miami-Dade County's portion of the taxes.

Honorable Chairman Dennis C. Moss
and Members, Board of County Commissioners

All applicants must meet certain criteria as set forth by the Florida Department of State, Division of Historical Resources in order for a tax exemption to be allowed, such as:

- Certification, by the applicable preservation board, that the property has been designated historic
- Certification, by the applicable preservation board, that the property has received approval for the improvements.
- Determination, by the applicable preservation board, that the planned improvements are consistent with the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation.

Duration

The tax exemption takes effect on January 1 following substantial completion of the improvement and extends for a ten-year period. Failure by the owners to adhere to these standards would result in revocation of the exemption.

Project Details

1101 North Greenway Drive was included within the 'Country Club of Coral Gables Historic District' as a historically contributing property by the Coral Gables Historic Preservation Board in 1989. Phineas E. Paiste and Harold D. Steward, pioneer architects of Coral Gables, designed the original two-story house. A rear one-story addition was added later in 1957/58. The local historic district is known for its beautiful residential properties, among the most architecturally significant within Coral Gables.

The project involved restoration and a new rear addition to the historic property. Included within the scope of work was: new impact resistant windows and doors; restoration of the southeast corner balcony; new mechanical, electrical and plumbing systems; new drywall and plaster; restoration of the main staircase and railings; floor restorations; new insulation; replacement of non-historic roof tiles with historically accurate tiles; removal of the 1950s rear addition and replacement with a new addition that includes a kitchen and family/media room on the ground floor and new master bedroom / bathroom suite on the second story; a new covered walkway between the house and detached garage; and, a covered patio area on the west side of the house.

Submittal Dates

Part I of the Application was submitted to county preservation staff in April 2006. Part II was received in September of 2008 and the Property Appraiser submitted the Revenue Implication worksheet in September 2008 as well. The owner signed the covenant in October 2008 and the county's Historic Preservation Board approved the project, also in October 2008.

The Local Historic Preservation Office will evaluate the information provided and notify the Owner in writing of its determination regarding removal of the Property from eligibility for tax exemption. If the Local Historic Preservation Office determines that the property should be removed from eligibility for tax exemption, it will notify the Property Appraiser of the county in which the Property is located in writing so that the tax exemption can be cancelled for the remainder of the Covenant period. In such cases, no penalty or interest shall be assessed against the Owner.

8. If it appears that the historical integrity of the features, materials, appearance, workmanship, and environment, or archaeological integrity which made the Property eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places or designation under the terms of the local preservation ordinance have been lost or damaged deliberately or through gross negligence of the Owner, the Local Historic Preservation Office shall notify the Owner in writing. The Owner shall have 30 days to respond indicating any extenuating circumstances which show that the damage was not deliberate or due to gross negligence. If the Owner cannot show such extenuating circumstances, he shall develop a plan for restoration of the Property and a schedule for completion of the restoration. In order to maintain the tax exemption, the Owner shall complete the restoration work necessary to return the Property to the condition existing at the time of project completion on a time schedule agreed upon by the Owner and the Local Historic Preservation Office. If the owner does not complete the restoration work on the agreed upon time schedule, the Local Historic Preservation Office will report such violation to the Property Appraiser and Tax Collector who shall take action pursuant to s.196.1997 (7), F.S. The Owner shall be required to pay the difference between the total amount of taxes which would have been due in March in each of the previous years in which the Covenant was in effect had the property not received the exemption and the total amount of taxes actually paid in those years, plus interest on the difference calculated as provided in s.212.12 (3), F.S.

- 9. The terms of this Covenant shall be binding on the current Property owner, transferees, and their heirs, successors, or assigns.
