Agenda Item No. 10(A)(3)

Resolution No. R-371-09

Subject: Waiver of Formal Bid Procedures Allowing Payment to Entertainers to Perform and/or Exhibit in Preparation for the Opening and for Programming of the South Miami-Dade Cultural Arts Center

Recommendation

It is recommended that the Board approve a waiver of the formal bid procedures of section 5.03 (D) of the Home Rule Charter and Administrative Order 3-38 and bid protest procedures, to allow the Department of Cultural Affairs to contract and pay professional performers, visual artists and associated expenses for engagements in preparation for the opening and for programming of the South Miami-Dade Cultural Arts Center, in an amount not to exceed $1,250,000 in total, nor $60,000 per performance or exhibition fee. This waiver will remain constant for two years or until the aggregate recommended amount is expended, whichever occurs first.

Scope

The programs and artists presented in preparation for the opening and for programming of the South Miami-Dade Cultural Arts Center have the potential to serve audiences county-wide and will have a direct impact on the residents of and visitors to South Miami-Dade County.

Fiscal Impact/Funding Source

Funding will come from budgeted revenues for the operations of the South Miami-Dade Cultural Arts Center and will not exceed $1,250,000.

Track Record/Monitor

The negotiated agreements will require written authorization from Michael Spring, Director of the Department of Cultural Affairs. This waiver will be administered and monitored by the County Department of Cultural Affairs and the Department's Managing Director for the South Miami-Dade Cultural Art Center.

Background

This recommendation to waive formal bid procedures to contract and pay entertainers is based on a successful model used for more than twenty years by the Park and Recreation Department. Beginning in 1988, the Board has authorized a series of Resolutions (R-1055-88, July 19, 1988; R-1078-98, September 15, 1998; Resolution No. R-1252-01, October 6, 2001; Resolution No. R-1161-03, October 9, 2003; No. R-1470-04, December 14, 2004; Resolution No. R-1002-06, September 12, 2006 and R-914-8, September 2, 2008) that authorized multi-

The Department of Cultural Affairs is completing work on the construction of the South Miami-Dade Cultural Arts Center and is anticipating that the inaugural performances at this new facility will occur in 2010. The South Miami-Dade Cultural Arts Center is a key component of the Moss Plan and designed to be a catalyst for the development of the "Downtown" Cutler Bay area. The Center is comprised of two buildings, the Theater Building and the Activities Building, located on 6.39 acres of land along 211 Street, adjacent to the South Miami-Dade Government Center in Cutler Bay. The 71,500 square foot Theater Building houses an over 70-foot high lobby space, a 966-seat theater on three levels, an orchestra pit, stage area with fly loft space, a multi-purpose room, ample restroom amenities, dressing rooms, administrative offices, and dramatic public artwork by Miami artist Robert Chambers. The 7,500 square foot Activities Building provides rehearsal, small-scale performance, and classroom spaces across a promenade that joins the two buildings. To the south of the two buildings, a lawn where outdoor concerts, festivals, and art fairs will be hosted slopes gently towards the Black Creek Canal. The Center's design is a collaboration of local, world-renowned architectural firm Arquitectonica International Inc., along with theater planning consultants Fisher Dachs Associates, and sound, communications, and acoustical designers Artec Consultants, Inc., resulting in a state of the art facility long awaited by the South Miami-Dade community. The Department of Cultural Affairs is working with AMS Planning and Research, a national arts management firm with expertise in the operations of performing arts facilities, to develop the budgets, operational policies and procedures and programming and marketing plans for the South Miami-Dade Cultural Arts Center. Based on this work, the Department of Cultural Affairs has confirmed that one important strategy to ensure the success of the new South Miami-Dade Cultural Arts Center is for the facility to pro-actively program performances and exhibitions that will introduce this new venue to audiences, artists and performing arts groups.

The Department of Cultural Affairs is requesting a waiver of the formal bid procedures for professional performers, visual artists and associated expenses for engagements in preparation for the opening and for programming of the South Miami-Dade Cultural Arts Center with limited fees up to $60,000 per performance or exhibition fee, and with a $1,250,000 cap and a two-year time limit or until the aggregate recommended amount is expended. Similar to the benefits afforded to Park and Recreation Department's cultural facilities, the waiver of formal bid procedures for professional performers, visual artists and associated expenses is necessary to facilitate the planning and programming of arts and cultural activities and services at the new South Miami-Dade County Cultural Arts Center. The amount of $1,250,000 was calculated based on the projected annual programming budget of the South Miami-Dade County Cultural Arts Center and reflects projected programming expenses for pre-opening events held to build awareness in the community in advance of the facility's opening, the opening events related to the inauguration of the facility and the first two years of operations. Contracting for professional performers, visual artists and associated expenses for the South Miami-Dade County Cultural Arts Center is contingent upon the annual authorization of the budget for the Department of Cultural Affairs.

While advance planning for pre-opening, community activities with performers and programs is now a priority for the new South Miami-Dade Cultural Arts Center, it also is important to be able to react quickly to programming opportunities once the Center opens. South Florida is a popular corridor for performers and visual artists from all over the world, and the opportunity to book exceptional talent on short notice often arises, usually at significantly reduced costs and contractual requirements and riders. When a booking opportunity occurs, virtually all artists require an immediate deposit to retain a date. In addition, most artists have contractual conditions that may include unique set-ups and other special requirements that must be met by the producer/presenter. These special conditions may include a specific type of microphone, venue accommodations, security arrangements, special assistance and certain performance or exhibition and skills requirements from sound technicians, curators, stagehands, lighting and sound equipment, and other miscellaneous purchases or rentals.

The channels for normal County purchasing and bid procedures cannot accommodate these special requirements which usually require a very quick turn around. Board approval of each agreement or arrangement is not feasible, given the short notice of availability, the uniqueness of the artistry and the negotiations of the contracting requirements. In keeping with County procurement policies, staff will continue to make every effort to use existing qualified vendors and/or obtain four quotes whenever possible as it relates to equipment, sound and lighting and other items related to the presentation of artists.

This recommendation for a waiver of the formal bid procedures for professional performers, visual artists and associated expenses in preparation for the opening and for programming of the South Miami-Dade Cultural Arts Center was reviewed and approved by the Cultural Affairs Council on January 28, 2009.
