County Manager

Subject: Historic Preservation Ad Valorem Tax Exemption for 1507 Columbus Boulevard, Coral Gables, Florida

Agenda Item No. 8(N)(1)(B)

Resolution No. R-495-10

Recommendation

It is recommended that pursuant to the provisions of Florida Statute Section 196.1997 and 196.1998 and Dade County Ordinance 16A-18 that the Board approves the resolution for the Ad Valorem Tax Exemption for the property located at 1507 Columbus Blvd., Coral Gables, FL.

Scope

Impact of the agenda item is countywide and does not have a separate impact upon one or more commission districts.

Fiscal Impact

Annual taxes to be foregone if this Historic Preservation Exemption application is granted are estimated at $966 (see the attached "Revenue Implications Report" provided by the Property Appraiser).

Track Record/Monitor

County Historic Preservation staff or the Preservation Officer of the municipality in which the property is located will conduct periodic reviews of the property to insure that the improvements are maintained for the duration of the tax abatement.

Enabling Legislation

In 1993, the State legislature approved Tax Exemptions for historic properties; and enabled local governments the option to provide property tax exemption for historic properties.

The purpose of this legislation is to encourage historic preservation by offering an economic incentive to those property owners who take on the responsibility of restoring and maintaining a designated historic structure. The exemption is not for the entire assessed value of the property. The tax exemptions are calculated from what the value of the renovations to the historic property were, and only apply to Miami-Dade County's portion of the taxes.

Honorable Chairman Dennis C. Moss
And Members, Board of County Commissioners

All applicants must meet certain criteria as set forth by the Florida Department of State, Division of Historical Resources in order for a tax exemption to be allowed, such as:

- Certification, by the applicable preservation board, that the property has been designated historic
- Certification, by the applicable preservation board, that the property has received approval for the improvements.
- Determination, by the applicable preservation board, that the planned improvements are consistent with the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation.

Duration

The tax exemption takes effect on January 1 following substantial completion of the improvement and extends for a ten-year period. Failure by the owners to adhere to these standards would result in revocation of the exemption.

Project Details

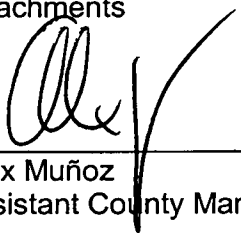

The Coral Gables Historic Preservation Board designated 1507 Columbus Blvd. in 2001. The residence dates to the 1920s and is a modest example of a cottage built in the Mediterranean Revival style. The architect was H. George Fink, an influential local architect who helped shape the character of Coral Gables and designed many of the City's early homes.

The project involved restoration, rehabilitation and new construction to a derelict historic property. Included within the scope of work was: restoration of the front door and front porch railings; window replacements with impact casement units; replacement of vented screen blocks; wood floor repairs, replacement and refinish; reconstruction of missing architectural elements; wall and ceiling work; plaster work; new electrical; new plumbing; installation of central HVAC system; rehabilitate front porch; fireplace restoration; kitchen and utility room rehabilitation; renovation of garage into a bedroom and bathroom; new garage.

Submittal Dates

Part I of the Application was submitted to county preservation staff in 2003. Portions of the part II Application was received in 2008 and the Property Appraiser considered the project substantially complete and submitted the Revenue Implication worksheet in 2008. The project was approved by the County's Historic Preservation Board in 2009 and the owner signed the covenant in 2009. The completed Part II application was submitted in August 2009.
