TO: Honorable Chairman Dennis C. Moss
and Members, Board of County Commissioners

FROM: George M. Burgess, County Manager

SUBJECT: Sniper Rifle Gift to Special Response Team (SRT) Officer Joseph Derringer

---

Recommendation

It is recommended that the Board of County Commissioners (Board) approve the sniper rifle gift to Officer Joseph Derringer of the Miami-Dade Police Department (MDPD) Special Response Team (SRT).

Scope

The resolution will authorize MDPD to present to Officer Joseph Derringer his sniper rifle upon his retirement in June 2010.

Fiscal Impact/Funding Source

The MDPD has recently purchased replacement sniper rifles; therefore, the gift will not affect the allocation of weapons to the remaining members of the SRT unit.

Track Record/Monitor

The resolution will be implemented by the MDPD.

Background

In accordance with Florida Statutes §112.193(2), a law enforcement agency may present an officer who retires under any state or municipal retirement system, the officer's service handgun, but there is no such provision in the Florida statutes for an officer to be presented a rifle, as a matter of law.

Officer John (JD) Derringer has been a Police Officer with the MDPD since April 4, 1982. He was assigned to the Special Response Team (SRT) on April 16, 1985, where he has served as a Police Sniper with valor and honor. Officer Derringer is a well respected member of the SRT, not only as a result of his tenure, but due to his impressive work ethic and dedication to excellence. Officer Derringer will be retiring from the MDPD June 2010, and has already requested to be a Reserve Officer assigned to SRT.
