WHEREAS, bills have been filed for consideration during the 2011 legislative session, SB 1352 by Senator Alan Hays (R – Umatilla) and HB 923 by Representative Charles Van Zant (R – Palatka) that would prohibit the state or any local government from requiring a contractor, subcontractor, material supplier or carrier engaged in construction, maintenance, repair or improvement of public works (collectively a “contractor”) to:

1. Pay employees a predetermined amount of wages or wage rate;
2. Recruit, train or hire employees from a designated single source; or
3. Designate any particular assignment of work for employees; and

WHEREAS, SB 1352 and HB 923 also would preempt the state or any local government from prohibiting a contractor who is qualified, licensed, or certified to do work from submitting bids, being awarded any bid or contract, or performing work on a public works project; and

WHEREAS, prohibiting a local government from requiring a contractor to pay employees a predetermined amount of wages or wage rate could have the affect of preempting Miami-Dade County's Responsible Wages program; and

WHEREAS, prohibiting a local government from requiring a contractor to recruit, train or hire employees from a designated single source could have the affect of preempting Miami-Dade County's Community Workforce program; and

WHEREAS, Miami-Dade County's Responsible Wages Program ensures that laborers and mechanics working on construction projects are paid hourly wages and benefits at an appropriate amount based on the particular trade; and

WHEREAS, through Miami-Dade County's Community Workforce Program, the Miami-Dade County Department of Small Business Development ("SBD") reviews capital construction contracts and work orders for public improvements to determine the appropriateness of applying local workforce goals that require a minimum of ten percent (10%) of persons doing construction trades and labor work to reside in designated target areas; and
