WHEREAS, companion Senate and House bills have been filed for consideration during the 2013 session of the Florida Legislature, SB 390 by Senator Charles S. "Charlie" Dean, Sr. (R-Inverness), and HB 1077 by Representative W. Gregory "Greg" Steube (R-Sarasota), that make it unlawful to make misrepresentations concerning solicitations for veterans; and

WHEREAS, SB 390, HB 1077 prohibit business entities from holding themselves out as a veterans' organization, if in fact, the business entity does not operate primarily for the financial benefit and moral support of veterans and their families; and

WHEREAS, these bills provide that any veterans' organization, whose membership is limited to veterans and their families, that has reason to believe that a business entity is fraudulently holding itself out as a veterans' organization may bring a civil action for an injunction prohibiting the offending business from continuing its business practices while holding itself out as a veterans' organization; and

WHEREAS, these bills further provide that a business entity that knowingly and intentionally represents itself as a veterans' organization, but that does not in fact operate primarily for the financial benefit and moral support of veterans or their families, commits a misdemeanor of the first degree; and

WHEREAS, these bills makes it unlawful for a person to misrepresent himself or herself as a member or veteran of the United States Air Force, United States Army, United States Coast
