Dear Friends:

The Ted Lucas Foundation is a Fiscal Sponsorship Fund at The Miami Foundation. The Fund operates under the aegis of The Miami Foundation. Rather than being a private foundation, the representatives of The Ted Lucas Foundation brought their charitable efforts to The Miami Foundation, where we handle the administrative and investment issues for the Fund at a lower cost. Donations to the Fund also qualify for the maximum charitable tax deduction allowed by law, versus that of a private foundation.

Under the Internal Revenue Code, community foundations are authorized to administer these types of funds. They are tax-exempt under the IRS' determination letter to the community foundation. Thus, the tax-exempt status of The Ted Lucas Foundation is established based on the IRS' determination letter to The Miami Foundation.

Any fundraising event held by The Ted Lucas Foundation is being held under the aegis of The Miami Foundation. Any donations there of money, school supplies, or other types of contributions will be gratefully accepted by the Foundation and used in order to advance the mission of The Ted Lucas Foundation.

If you have further questions, please feel free to contact me at 305-371-2711.

Sincerely,

C. Emily Gresham
Vice President for Development
