WHEREAS, in recent years, consumers have become increasingly overwhelmed, frustrated and confused by the insurance claim-filing process in Florida; and

WHEREAS, many Floridians in the midst of a stressful situation involving a damaged or lost home find themselves with questions about what to do, who to call, what to expect, and when their maintenance and financial problems may finally be resolved; and

WHEREAS, efforts should be made to simplify the claims-filing process, alleviate the stress it creates, and better inform policyholders of their rights under Florida law; and

WHEREAS, Senate Bill (SB) 708 has been filed for consideration during the 2014 session of the Florida Legislature by Senator Aaron Bean (R-Jacksonville); and

WHEREAS, the House Companion Bill to SB 708, HB 759, was also filed for consideration during the 2014 session, by Representative George Moraitis (R-Fort Lauderdale); and

(1) add mediators and neutral evaluators to the list of individuals or entities that the Department of Financial Services or the Office of Insurance Regulation may investigate for alleged improper conduct;

(3) create a "Homeowner Claim Bill of Rights" describing some of the rights held by insurance policyholders, and require the insurer to provide a copy to the policyholder within 14 days of a claim; and

WHEREAS, this Board would like to express its support for the enactment of SB 708, HB 759, or similar legislation that would establish a Claims Bill of Rights for residential property insurance policyholders, allow mediators to be investigated for alleged improper conduct, and prohibit a claim for residential property insurance from being denied based on certain credit information,
