RESOLUTION SUPPORTING THE EFFORTS OF VENEZUELAN INTERIM PRESIDENT JUAN GUAIDÓ TO BRING HUMANITARIAN AID TO THE PEOPLE OF VENEZUELA

WHEREAS, over the last several weeks, the United States has coordinated and dropped off food and personal care aid to a staging area near the Colombian border town of Cucuta; and

WHEREAS, Venezuelan congressional leader and United States-recognized interim president of Venezuela Juan Guaidó has pledged, with the help of his supporters, to move the aid into Venezuela on February 23, 2019; and

WHEREAS, the aid is designed to bring relief to Venezuelans struggling with widespread shortages of food and medicine, and with other socioeconomic ills propagated by the Maduro regime; and

WHEREAS, this Board has repeatedly taken steps to condemn the actions of the Maduro regime while supporting diplomatic efforts to promote democracy in Venezuela, including:

- Resolution No. R-253-14, which condemned the Venezuelan government for using violence and intimidation against political opposition and urged the federal government to take immediate diplomatic action;
- Resolution No. R-455-14, which urged the previous administration and the Secretary of Homeland Security to grant temporary protected status to Venezuelan nationals in the United States;

- Resolution No. R-527-17, which supported House Resolution 259, a federal resolution expressing concern over and condemnation of the political, economic, social, and humanitarian crisis in Venezuela;
- Resolution No. R-528-17, which supported H.R. 2161, a bill entitled the Venezuelan Refugee Assistance Act, which would allow Venezuelans in the United States to apply for legal permanent resident status;
- Resolution No. R-530-17, which further condemned the Venezuelan government for using violence and intimidation against political opposition and continued to urge the federal government to take immediate diplomatic action;
- Resolution No. R-777-17, which urged the federal government and the State of Florida to support economic sanctions against the Venezuelan government;
- Resolution No. R-788-17, which commended the U.S. Department of the Treasury's sanctioning of Venezuelan President Nicolas Maduro and transmitted further correspondence to President Donald J. Trump;
