To: Honorable Chairman Dennis Moss
and Members, Board of County Commissioners

From: George M. Burgess
County Manager

Subject: Supplemental Information for Second Budget Hearing – FY 2009-10 Proposed Budget

This memorandum describes adjustments that have been developed to address the priorities identified by the Board at your Committee of the Whole meetings and in meetings we have held with individual Commissioners. We have balanced the priority buybacks against the reductions that were agreed to via straw vote at the various meetings. While these adjustments do not fully address all of the priorities identified by the Board, we believe they go a long way toward restoring priority programs and services. Programs for the elderly, veterans and the disabled are fully restored. Funding is partially restored to the Park and Recreation Department and to community-based organizations. County Head Start slots are reinstated, and the one day reduction at all libraries is reinstated. Support for cultural groups and facilities and the Sports Commission is provided. Cooperative Extension and the Drug Abuse Resistance Education (DARE) program, Police Athletic League (PAL) and other programs are also restored. The table below details the adjustments required in order to fund these restorations and Attachment 1 provides the adjustments necessary for each department or appropriation and will have to be amended into the appropriate budget ordinances at this final budget hearing.

Departmental Adjustments

As directed at yesterday's Committee of the Whole meeting, rather than apply across-the-board adjustments to departmental budgets, which would be contrary to our results-oriented management framework and would in many cases have a dire impact on County service, we have identified reductions to many departments that will impact some services, but will allow us to preserve and restore other priority services for our community. These adjustments total $4.542 million in countywide general fund revenue and $1.220 million in unincorporated municipal service area (UMSA) general fund revenue. A minimum of 49 additional positions will be reduced from the departments indicated in the Attachment. Adjustments include further reductions to Strategic Business Management, Audit and Management Services, Animal Services, Public Works, Elections, the Government Information Center, Enterprise Technology Services, and Miami-Dade Police departments. Service impacts include reductions to operating expenditures, longer response times for stray animal calls, the reduction of one landscape cycle and one fertilization cycle, a reduction of one of two sidewalk repair crews, a reduction of one of two tree trimming crews and one of four pot-hole crews, reductions in our Elections Department, the reduction of one position from Countywide Healthcare Planning, and other reductions to administrative and support positions.

Personnel Benefits Adjustments

At the Committee of the Whole meeting, a majority of the Board supported the elimination of premium pay and flexible benefits payments to employees. Both of these benefits are contractually provided and changes to these benefits are subject to negotiation with our bargaining units. Flexible benefits payments were implemented when the County moved from an indemnity health insurance program to a point of service program in the 1990s. The average annual per employee flexible benefit payment is $1,100. With the transition to the current self-insured health insurance program, over the past three years, employees have experienced average annual savings in excess of these payments. Premium pay similarly was negotiated as part of the collective bargaining agreements. Employees in certain bargaining units receive a bi-weekly payment of $50. Total saving associated with the elimination of these benefits is $15.973 million in the countywide general fund budget, $5.816 in the UMSA budget, $3.612 million in the Fire District budget, $1.651 million in the Library System budget; and $40.97 million in the proprietary departments' budgets. It is also recommended that executive benefits be reduced by eliminating the parking or rail pass benefit. This will save $1.166 million across the entire County budget.

An adjustment has also been made to the per employee contribution from each County department for health insurance premiums. By reducing the contribution, department budgets are reduced by a total of $24.008 million. The projected remaining balance at the end of FY 2009-10 in the Health Insurance Trust Fund of approximately $80 million is the minimum amount we are comfortable having in place given claims coverage, financial reporting requirements and necessary resources for any higher than anticipated claims payments. We believe this is a sound recommendation but want the Board to be aware that should claims exceed available reserves we may need to access the emergency contingency reserve.

Other Adjustments

At the Committee of the Whole issues were raised relative to travel, publications and subscriptions, comprehensive planning assessments, memberships, legal ads, publicity and advertising expenditures, management consulting, allocations for lobbying and outside legal assistance, and new employee physicals. Recognizing the will of the Board, we are recommending certain wholesale reductions to these line items. We have also eliminated a reserve for special district assessments and reduced the funding allocated to employee training. The total reduction for all of these categories is $8.035 million across the County budget.

Capital Projects and Furniture

As part of the actions to finalize the FY 2009-10 Proposed Budget, $9.457 million of subsidy to the Capital Outlay Reserve (COR) may be redirected to support other activities. Several projects for the Corrections and Rehabilitation (C&R) Department will be delayed, including the communications infrastructure expansion ($500,000), kitchen equipment ($500,000), and inmate housing improvements ($500,000) and window replacements ($300,000) in the Metro West Detention Center. The expansion of the MDPD Training Bureau facility will also be delayed ($1 million). A portion of the radio replacement project funding will be provided by appropriate proprietary agencies as part of a proposed rebanding project that will be required due to FCC required radio frequency band changes and will be brought to the Board later this year ($1.2 million). Areawide park capital projects will be reduced by $500,000. Funding for lot clearing ($625,000) and litter bin replacement ($25,000) will also be reduced. The remaining funding for new furniture for Audit and Management Services ($100,000) and for the Clerk of the Board ($57,000) and for the development of a tracking database for community-based organizations will be recaptured ($150,000). Savings has also been identified in the Turner Guilford Knight smoke chase assembly project, funded by Series 2007 Capital Asset Acquisition Bonds, as reported to the Board last year. The FY 2008-09 Capital Budget programmed $6.05 million for various C&R projects and reserved $4.75 for project closeout costs. At this time, we can release $4 million of the project closeout reserve to fund C&R projects included in the COR in the FY 2009-10 Proposed Budget. To accommodate these recommended adjustments, the COR countywide general fund transfer will be decreased by $12.306 million and the UMSA general fund transfer increased by $2.849 million. Program schedules for the projects identified above will be updated accordingly in the Capital Improvement Plan database for FY 2009-10.

We will also be delaying all furniture purchases anticipated in the FY 2009-10 Proposed Operating Budget, saving $1.88 million across the County budget for all departments.

After careful analysis of the vehicles scheduled to be replaced in FY 2009-10, we have revised our plans and now will not be replacing $500,000 of vehicles. Additionally, a portion of a repayment to the Fire District will be delayed. Therefore, a transfer of $2,000,000 will be made from the Fleet Replacement Trust Fund to the Capital Outlay Reserve, further reducing the subsidy from the General Fund.

Cultural Programs and Library System

At the first budget hearing, the Board adopted a tentative millage rate for the Library System that provides $24.067 million in additional revenue beyond the funding included in the Proposed Budget. Utilizing this revenue, we are recommending that the one-day service reduction be restored for all libraries $6.736 million (120 full-time and 73 part-time positions). We are also recommending funding be provided to support cultural grants for programs. This funding will restore 70 percent of the funding for cultural grants ($2.988 million from library district and $479,000 from the Countywide general fund). To restore funding for the County affiliated major cultural institutions – Fairchild Gardens ($418,000), Historical Museum of Southern Florida ($178,000), Miami Art Museum ($346,000), Museum of Science ($414,000), Vizcaya ($265,000), and the Zoological Society ($326,000) – and the Sports Commission ($250,000), $2.196 million of convention development tax will be re-appropriated from the South Dade Performing Arts Center operating budget to these facilities. Other major institutions grant funding has been included in the cultural grants program mentioned previously. Tourist Development Tax funding will be used to reinstate nine positions ($922,000) in the Cultural Affairs Department in order to monitor and assist cultural organizations with grant programs and opportunities.

Human Services

Elderly Services

It is recommended that funding for Elderly Services be restored at 100 percent of the funding reduced in the Proposed Budget. An increase of $17.977 million and 191 full-time positions to the Department of Human Services ($11.237 million Countywide General Fund and 134 full-time positions; $4.677 million in Federal and State Grants and Other Revenues and 30 full-time positions) and Community Action Agency ($1.584 million in Countywide General Fund and 22 full-time positions; $479,000 in Federal and State Grants and Other Revenues and five full-time positions) are allocated in order to continue providing services to the elderly. This funding level will restore Home Care Services for 356 elders, Meals for the Elderly (833 elders and 195,789 meals), Meals on Wheels (275 elders and 100,375 meals), High Risk Elderly Meals (2,416 elders and 424,324 meals), Senior Centers (180 elders and 44,820 meals), Adult Day Care (300 elders and 144,000 meals), Care Planning (356 elders), Foster Grandparents (90 elders), Retired Services Volunteer Program (900 elders), and transportation services.

Veterans' Programs

It is recommended that funding be restored ($348,000 from the Countywide general fund) to the Department of Human Services (5 full-time positions), in order to continue assisting 2,250 veterans in Miami-Dade County with preparing and submitting claims for veteran benefits.

Programs for the Disabled

It is recommended that $970,000 and 12 full-time positions be restored to the Department of Human Services ($563,000 Countywide general fund and 10 full-time positions; $207,000 Federal and State Grants and two full-time positions; $200,000 other revenues) in order to continue providing life skills to 495 individuals with disabilities in Miami-Dade County.

Community Action Agency

Neighborhood Service Centers

It is recommended that $2.999 million in countywide general fund be restored to the Community Action Agency for the Neighborhood Service Centers including restoring 29 full time positions. Additionally, it is recommended that $544,000 in countywide general fund be restored to the Department of Human Services for the maintenance of the centers including restoration of seven full time positions. The Neighborhood Service Centers will continue to provide various services including the provision of space for elderly services, enrollment of children in child development services, self-sufficiency services, LIHEAP and emergency assistance.

Head Start and Early Head Start

It is recommended that $3.969 million be provided from the Countywide General Fund to restore Head Start/Early Headstart programs. As a result, rather than transfer 2,268 Head Start and 230 Early Head Start slots to delegates, it may be necessary to transfer only up to 800 Head Start slots to delegate agencies. This will allow for the restoration of 297 of the 416 positions that were to be reduced in the Proposed Budget. If sufficient voluntary pre-kindergarten voucher revenues has been identified by the end of the first quarter of the fiscal year no slots will be transferred, and all positions will be restored. This plan maintains the full allotment of 6,210 slots for Head Start children for 175 days, the same number of days as in the current year.

Community-Based Organizations (CBOs)

It is recommended that 70 percent of the current year funding ($21.992 million) be reinstated for CBOs and county services to be monitored and administered by the Office of Grants Coordination. There will be 24 positions reinstated in the department ($1.38 million) and the funding for environmental CBOs will be distributed as follows: $187,000 Water and Sewer Department (WASD); $165,000 Solid Waste; $174,000 Department of Environmental Resources Management (DERM). At a subsequent meeting a recommended distribution of these funds will be presented to the Board for your consideration.

Consumer Services Department

Funding is provided to restore the Cooperative Extension Division at 75 percent or $887,000. This will restore 13 positions in the Cooperative Extension Division and three positions in the 4H Program. Eight Extension Agent positions are funded 40 percent by the County and 60 percent by the state at a value of $579,000. There is no impact to service at this level of restoration.

Fire Rescue

Anti-Venom Unit

It is recommended that in addition to the two positions included in the Proposed Budget for the Anti-Venom Unit of the Miami-Dade Fire Rescue Department that two additional positions be reassigned from the relief pool to support this function.

Park and Recreation

It is recommended that $7.583 million of General Fund support and be restored to the Park and Recreation Department, equaling 50 percent of the reduction included in the Proposed Budget. This funding will restore 80 full-time positions and support to the African Heritage Cultural Center, the Deering Estate, senior and after school programming, maintenance, nature centers and pools. These programs will generate an estimated additional $1.0 million in fees and charges.

Miami-Dade Police Department

The Miami-Dade Police Department budget has been adjusted to allow for the implementation of a modified DARE program and the PAL program. It is recommended that the Miami-Dade Police Department reinstate the DARE program at approximately 90 private and public schools ($1.132 million, 10 positions), the PAL at two centers and the Join A Team not a Gang program at 85 schools ($216,000, two positions), and the Don't Let Alcohol Be Your Last Taste of Life program ($216,000, two positions).

Reserves

Funding has been allocated to enhance reserves in the Fire Rescue Department and the Library District and to restore the reduction to the Countywide Emergency Contingency Reserve taken at the first budget hearing. As a result of the additional revenue available from the adjusted millage rates and the expenditure reductions as mentioned earlier in this memorandum, the Fire Rescue District tax equalization reserve will be increased by $139,000 to $997,000 from $858,000 included in the Proposed Budget. When combined with the Fire Rescue District Emergency Contingency Reserve ($17.210 million), total District reserves ($18.207 million) represents 5.3 percent of the operating budget. As well, the additional revenue in the Library District, net of the adjustments included in this memorandum, allows for the operating service reserve to be increased by $13.053 million to $62.131 million. In addition, the Library System Proposed Budget includes a contingency reserve of $4.239 million, or 5.5 percent of its operating budget.

The Countywide Emergency Contingency reserve is increased by $17.350 million to $33.771 million. When combined with other general fund reserves, the total represents 4.02 percent of the general fund operating budget. The Countywide Emergency Contingency reserve has been recognized by rating agencies as an important element of the County's financial status and has led to an improvement in bond ratings for the County's general segment. These ratings are not only applicable when issuing debt backed by the general fund, but also for proprietary departments when issuing revenue bonds. Improved ratings have led to decreased issuance costs, allowing for proprietary rates and charges to be held lower than would have otherwise been possible therefore a one-time contribution from the proprietary departments of 1.265 percent of their operating budgets will fund $17.350 million of the increase.

Meeting _____

*The following figures are extracted from the 2009-2010 Miami-Dade County Proposed Budgets. The Total Proposed Budget of $7.8 Billion, it is nearly double last year's budget of, the $4.5 Billion, which means that Costs and Overhead are well below last year's budget:

* Tax Supported Budget	8.13% less than last year	(which represents 45.8% of the total budget)
* Proprietary Budget	1.6% less than last year	(which represents 54.2% of the total budget)
* Operating Budget	4.7% less than last year

Therefore, according to public records, costs and overhead are nearly 15% lower than last year.

Yet the *Capital Budget is: 20.2% higher than last year. (which is for discretionary Capital Improvement Projects)

Thus the Capital Budget, which is discretionary, causes an artificial budget deficient. Due to this, taxes need not be raised, millage need not be increased and services need not be cut but Personal Agendas Do.

Let it be known that our Unalienable Rights, are the birth right of all people. That quality of life, free choice and the quest for happiness are not to be dominated by a select few, much less by those we elected into government. This is not the time for preferential government raises or discretionary capital projects. It is the time to prioritize the needs of the taxpayer, and to provide the taxpayer with options, solutions, services, programs, jobs, hope and most of all the praise and respect to provide us with the means to the same quality of life you've come to expect during this crisis. Any government that does not maintain this as priority, shall be swiftly altered, abolished, recalled, petitioned, and/or removed without exception.

"...These truths are self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain Unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness, -- -Declaration of Independence July 4, 1776

Dear Commissioners;

I am glad to hear that there is still room for conversation about arts funding in Miami-Dade. I had heard a rumor, terrible how rumors travel, I heard this one all the way here in Stratford Upon Avon, England, that the arts budget for the year was to be cut substantially.

It was a sigh of relief to know that that isn't the cast just yet and it gives me a chance to say thank you. Thank you for acknowledging that art programs in the Miami-Dade community have nurtured artists that continue to, even now, feed the American arts tapestry.

Because of the Miami-Dade County Cultural Affairs Support of Thomas Armor Youth Ballet at Miami Conservatory and the African Heritage Cultural Arts Center young boys, from the heart of liberty city and neighborhoods as far south as Goulds, were given the chance to begin their love and life career in dance. Some went off to become students at the Juilliard School in New York, others Principals dancers for the Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater. Gentry George, Zach Ingram, Jamar Roberts.

And thank you for the support of programs like Voices United whose multicultural multi-artistic endeavors served as an early platform for a young actress who has gone on to become one of the youngest and one of two African American women apart of the prestigious Steppenwolf Theater ensemble in Chicago. Alana Arenas

Thank you for helping fund the Miami Light Project who engaged a group of young teenagers in a workshop with Patricia Hoffbauer and George Emilio Sanchez in 1999. One of those teenagers then went on to start his own theater company, a soul band, and a family, and earned a 2009 NAACP Image Award for his acting. Rodney Gardiner

And lastly I have to thank you for the performances at the Light Box, Gable Stage, the Colony and New Theater to name a few so much inspiration and love flowed from those venues and the Miami City Ballet productions that I continue to enjoy to no end... oh and thank you for the Miami Dade County youth Fair Arts Expo. I know its sounds trite but a play I wrote while in high school got an honorable mention there, which encouraged me to write one for Kids Short hosted by City Theater and then on and on and a Yale Degree later I somehow today ended up on the cover of American Theater Magazine with an inaugural playwrighting award from the New York times. Sincerely I thank you. Growing up in Liberty City in the 80's and 90's wasn't always the easiest. I know for a lot of young people it still isn't. But Because of those fundamental moments made possible by the funding from the county the artists, I listed previous, and myself found our calling and began making great strides in the artistic world of today and with your help and continued support just think of the artists yet to come will be able to do tomorrow.

Most Sincere,

Miami-Dade County Board of Commissioners

We the undersigned (1,151) call upon the Miami-Dade County Board of Commissioners to pass a budget that supports and protects basic human needs as an essential factor in quality of life for all county residents.

Funding for social service, arts and environmental nonprofits must not be eliminated, and vital county programs such as parks, libraries and social services must not be dismantled. We count on the Commission to make some hard choices. We count and we're counting!

Thank you.

19.	Carl Snyder	Palmetto Bay, FL	We recently heard of the budget cuts that Mayor Alvarez has proposed to eliminate funding for social services and grants for community based organizations. These budget cuts will have a significant and severe effect on the residents of Miami –Dade County. I urge you to restore funding for social services and grants to community based organizations so that the elderly residents and vulnerable citizens of our community continue to be served. Without this funding, our most frail and impaired citizens will have no other choice but to be referred for institutional care – which is a much more costly service to provide. Additionally, without the community based resources, many more residents will seek care in the emergency rooms and will impact police and fire departments. Restoring funding to social services and community based organizations is financially prudent and preserves quality of life for all residents of Miami-Dade County.

As a counselor who works with this population, I see first hand how our services impact positively the lives of the people we serve. Please keep in mind the elderly in our community who are all alone. Because of the Seniors Never Alone Program, they are able to receive a phone call several times a week from one of our Switchboard counselors, helping them access valuable services as well as helping them feel less alone. Our programs that serve adolescents have helped them stay off the streets and out of juvenile delinquent centers. Without these services, we as residents of Miami-Dade County are all affected. With today's financial strains, we have children and families urgently in need of care. It is at times like these that children in a family are most vulnerable and suffer greatly from the family's financial stress and strain. There are so many benefits to retaining these valuable programs. There are more reasons than there are space on this petition, but the most important item that should be addressed is the desire of all of the professionals to provide services that help our community and the desire of the families affected to "get well", to be helped and to find peace of mind that their community wants success for them and not failure for us all. Let's make sure that we understand the negative impact on such a decision as to eliminate funding before we make a decision that impacts us all with increased crime, increased hopelessness and jail system that is overrun with juveniles that will be placed on the fast track to destruction. In response to shortfalls in projected funding, we have been forced to cut two of four full-time staff to half-time positions for the second half of 2009. The loss of Miami-Dade County funding in 2009-10 would require ArtSpring to further cut operations and program offerings, completely eliminating some of our current projects, including a recent expansion into re-entry programming for inmates preparing for release. With state-wide budget cuts eliminating programs offered by the Department of Corrections, the Department is more dependent than ever on community involvement to offer a productive outlet for inmates preparing to re-enter our community. Our youth programs would also be greatly impacted, resulting in a 50 percent reduction - from approximately 400 to 200 girls participating in ArtSpring workshops each year. ArtSpring, Inc.

133.	Jennifer Ortiz	Miami Lakes, FL	The budgets cuts not only affect our organization but what about our community. Community Base Organizations help build better communities and provides support where none exist. This will affect our crime rate as well. It will increase because the necessary support will no longer be accessible. I also feel that many teens that live in areas which consist of a lot of violence and poor living conditions would lose out if all Community Base Organizations lose funding. These kids when provided with assistance would learn effective coping skills, anger management, effective family communication, and leadership skills. Community Base Organizations allow them to be aware that there are options out there and they can better themselves no matter what situation they come from our where they live. Most of the time we can help or refer them elsewhere. Sometimes there is no help available in the entire community. Considering the economic crisis that our community is facing, now is not the time to reduce social services. This will compound the problems that low and very low income families are facing, particularly those with disabilities, many of whom were the first to lose their jobs when the economy began to fail. These families are struggling to survive on a daily basis. Their situation has only gotten worse with each passing month. Cutting essential services is not the answer. It will have a negative impact on the health and well-being of the entire community. I represent Center for Independent Living of South Florida, Inc. I also am very involved with the domestic violence/sexual assault provider network and the school system network.

The community based organization in social services play an important role not only in improving the quality of life of children, adults, and elderly but also in reducing the rate of crime robbery, prostitution, delinquency juvenile, homelessness, mental issues ,substance abuse and other related problems. No matter what economic issues the Miami Dade County is facing, as a social worker, I strongly disagree with the current plan. I think it will be wise to revise the plan and come with new alternatives. We need a better society, community, and environment. Individual, family and adolescents are provided with support, guidance and assistance to combat and cope effectively with the stressors in their lives. Eliminating these support systems from their families will not only increase their ineffective coping skills which negatively impact the community, businesses, school and over load the justice system. In addition, the removal of these programs will send the message to the current and future families that they are not valued and cared for by the leaders they voted in power. Imagine their ineffective coping skills to that message. I challenge you, the leaders of the county, to take time to truly evaluate the effect of eliminating the funding to Community Based Organization programs; we know the impact it will have financially on the current budget but what will be the social impact presently, one year from, three later and five years. Don't not make a quick and reactive decision now due to economic hardship that will cost the county and its citizens more (financially and emotionally) in the months and years to come. Larger CBO's and others located in the north of Kendall or in Miami may be able to find alternate funding resources for these proposed cuts, however those providers in the southern end of the county depend on EVERY PENNY received to provide the vital services that the residents so desperately need (and deserve!!) THERE ARE MANY OTHER AREAS IN THE COUNTY'S BUDGET WHERE CUTS CAN BE MADE, perhaps for example the County should eliminate take home vehicles and monitor transportation expenditures and reimbursements for County employees.
219.	Virama Oller	Miami, FL	Eliminating funding to the CBO's in Miami-Dade County would be a major disservice to our community. For 38 years Transition, Inc. has been helping ex-offenders re-enter society, through job training and placement services. Providing services to ex-offenders might not always be a popular effort in modern society which has been conditioned to take a punitive approach to high crime rates. But there remains a good argument for the benefits of redemption. Helping people who admit to their failures, have paid the price for their crimes against society, and have resolved to become better persons is an effort which gives hope and opportunity to those who deserve it. Thousands of ex-offenders have changed their lives by getting a job when they most needed an opportunity. They have become better fathers and mothers, responsible taxpaying citizens, and in many cases, employers themselves who come back to Transition to find the workers they need to build successful businesses. Within a months' time what we have been doing for 38 years would cease to exist if the Mayor's proposed budget is passed. Unemployment will continue to escalate in our community (since the 700+ (average number of offenders we were placing in jobs yearly, will no longer have our service), crime will increase (since people need to survive and usually when placed in a position of "survival mode" will justify their acts) and our staff will join the thousands of unemployed constituents in Miami-Dade County. My name is Jennifer Williams, and I work as a clinician and I am a group leader in running a self esteem and awareness program for The Institute for Child and Family Health for the past 9 years. Many folks in the community rely on community services for assistance in mental health services, academic programs, crime prevention, and health related services. These programs have been shown to decrease gang participation, increase good conduct, increase academics, and can improve emotional well-being and health. Additionally, if these programs are lost, hundreds or thousands of people will lose their job which will only add to the stress in our community, and will become a financial burden to our state and country. It is imperative that all of our programs stay intact and are actively running in the community. These programs are extremely beneficial to the community and most of all, to our children. Before you chose to negatively impact the lives of thousands of people with the stroke of a pen, consider that most of us are already underpaid, overworked, and have families. I wonder how their families will deal with having to stay home to care for them instead of being able to work and know that their loves ones are safe at our program. How will the more well who are alone without family and who have lost their friends find a way to keep busy and social. How will they cope with even more loss as we cut the classes and activities that they attend? Cutting the CBO grants will also cause other grant loss as our programs are based on a construct of grants that intertwine to support the programs. How will the staff that will have to be cut and their families cope with being unemployed at a time when there are virtually no jobs to be had? These are the question I beg you to consider. 235.	Paul Hunt	South Miami, FL	Times are certainly challenging but we need to look toward a promising future. It may be that some taxes will need to be raised to continue the level of services that our community has been demanding in recent years. If there is a $400 million gap in revenues in the current county budget that figures out to about an average of $200 per year for each of Miami-Dade County's 2 million people. That is $4 per week, on average. Can the people of our community 'sacrifice' $4 per week to maintain adequate services for our community? I suspect so but some political and community leaders have unfairly decided to use this issue to scare the public and to keep bleating against any and all taxes. There is no free ride here. If we want adequate police and fire services and other government services, we need to pay for them.

We are providing mental stimulation so our elders find life exciting and worthwhile, they are not just waiting to die. Our Intergenerational programs open student's eyes to the value of elders and their contributions to our community. This then parlays into young people being more kind towards elders. This is a 24/7 job with no vacations and no pay. She attends a daycare center, which due to Mayor Alvarez' budget cuts will be closed for good come September 30th. There are hundreds of disabled human beings like her who depend on these county services to take care of them so that we the family caregivers can have a bit of respite and continue to be productive citizens. Closing these centers puts an even greater economic burden on our city. All the employees at these centers will be jobless and on government assistance. So will family members who will be forced to quit their jobs to stay at home and care for their loved ones. How unemployment benefits our economic crisis is beyond my understanding, but this is exactly what will happen when the hundreds that are employed at these institutions find themselves with no source of income. There are human lives at risk here. We are not numbers or statistics. We are just people trying to get by and care for our loved ones to the best of our abilities so we can give them back at least a portion of the quality of life that their disabilities have robbed them of. More important there will be a decrease in the quality of life of the person served, the family that cares for him/her, and the community that has chosen to care for the most frail. As a person who has witnessed the extreme gap between affluence and poverty worldwide, I can safely say that the standard of living within certain areas of Miami itself is despicable. I am therefore appalled that the County Board would even consider depriving its community of essential resources i.e. social services, the arts and environmental groups. Not only does the prospective budget illustrate the misplaced priorities of the Board, but also its moral apathy. How will the Board dispossess thousands upon thousands of already underserved families, of activities and resources that promote civil society and prevent antisocial behavior? Everyone whom I am informing, both locally and in Canada has been responding with shock and disbelief that the local government could consider truncating funding for programs that enrich and protect a community. If this cut should happen, the board will have to scrounge up more money for jails, policing and then the re-hiring of the very same positions that it originally chose to eliminate. Past politicians have made this same grievous error with these very predictable outcomes; why re-invent the wheel and pay for it in the end when you can maintain what is currently working? The fact that the Board is considering a redistribution of funds (and we will call it that, since the money from these programs HAS somewhere else to go) begs the inquiry: which other sector(s) or interest group (s) is in fact the board protecting? How did it come about choosing to devalue the social service sector and favouring another? I have no doubts that the Board is fully aware of the short and long-term consequences of making this decision. What is left to see is if the Board chooses to care. (continues on next page)

314.	Roger Horne	Miami, FL	The City's proposed budget cuts will adversely affect low-income, minority, underserved communities. CBOs and social service programs that serve children, families and the elderly in these communities will be forced to close their doors and abandon the clients they have pledged to serve. Though I agree that there needs to be a consolidation of services, therefore reducing duplication and saving needed dollars, the passage of the City's budget as is will retard the progress that has been made by many grassroots organizations. Families who depend on our services to augment their monthly childcare and sustainability needs will suffer at having to expend more resources and monies to secure their children safety while at work. Children will be left to the streets and ultimately jails as their SAFE HAVENS ("Cradle 2 Prison Pipeline"). The elderly, who utilize our services to assist with their monthly living expenses and social needs, will be forced to make cuts to their already strictly-planned lifestyles. Cuts that will affect their overall health and well-being. These proposed budget cuts will affect all residents of our City. The difference being that residents from more affluent neighborhoods can subsidize the losses that they will feel. This, however, is not a strategy for economically disadvantaged communities. These cuts will continue to destroy the fabric of these neighborhoods and serve to effectively eliminate them from future inclusion in the growth of this great City. These communities deserve better. For years, these residents have contributed their share to the (continues on next page)

Over the past 10 years, with the county's help, we have had the opportunity to serve over 1,200 children. Their grades have improved significantly, and there is a positive visible difference in their attitudes and behaviors. If the funding is cut for the 2009-2010 fiscal year, our program will no longer be able to provide the services needed by the children in our community. To us this community is precious and it hurts us to see the deplorable conditions it is in. We pride our selves in our Heritage and our customs and sadly our children are seeing those values go to waste in a community that has lost its purpose. Our children depend on these special programs to be equal with other kids in more affluent neighborhoods. It is our duty as constituents of this city to protect equality for all children so that in their future they can learn to value education and hard work. Every parent be it low income or not wants the best for their child and would do anything to make sure that they get the best of everything. Particularly now, as people continue to lose jobs and homes; with the prices of food and other commodities rising, to PLAN that more people will lose jobs, that people in our community who are already stressed and barely getting by will now have no access to minimal support services is unacceptable. If this plan should be approved, I fear Miami-Dade will be turned into a jungle. Maybe some of the money used for Mayor Alvarez' retroactive pay raises should go to less fortunate individuals who reside in our community.

As a single mother it's very difficult for me to be able to pay private lessons, being a homeowner myself and have just received the tax proposed budget for this coming year. I was shocked and even frightened for our schools, outreach programs, elderly and all employees who work for Dade County. I do not have a masters degree in business and finance but know and understand that the way to go about continuing to afford all these programs are by having our taxes at a reasonable fair appraisal. I have faith that many homeowners would be willing to pay more on property taxes to save all these programs. My taxes last year $2100 and the new proposed bill if passed will be $661.00 some might feel great about this until they lose their job and can't afford to pay the $661.00. It occurred to me, that the amount of money being "saved" from presenting such a solution is not as much as the amount of economic hurt and hardship that the community would endure if such budget cuts were made. Please rethink this decision and think of another solution to help the economy.
651.	Marc Kirshbaum	Davie, FL	The proposed funding cuts introduced by Mr. Alvarez would not only hurt Miami Dade County today but in the future. Yes, the County may be saving money today, but it will spend a considerable amount more in the long run providing these services out of the Prison system, Jackson Memorial. Just because the funding is removed doesn't mean the people will just disappear.

The arts are one of the only ways of engaging the whole child while building necessary skills for living - improving self-awareness, creativity, flexibility in thinking, and building collaborative skills. It is any wonder that our kids now have more difficulties with social skills, problem-solving, frustration tolerance, and attention? I think not. As a child psychologist, I see more and more children coming to my office who have been deprived of the enriching experiences that come only through participation in the arts. Taking them out our early curriculum is an outrage. Cadenza Center for Psychotherapy & the Arts, Inc.

659.	Antonio Guadamuz	Miami, FL	The cuts proposed by the Mayor would eliminate support systems that many communities have come to depend on. It is easy to think that funding for the arts, social services, and non-profits is superfluous in times of of fiscal hardship, but the organizations affected by these cuts are underfunded, so eliminating the little money they receive will have disastrous effects on the most disenfranchised communities and cultural development. Personally, I have become involved with the growing local food movement in Miami. The cuts would practically eliminate the extension service which provides a plethora of information and expertise to anyone from the household gardener to social activist wishing to start a community garden. Please reconsider the long term effects these cuts will have on the residents of Miami-Dade county. Urban Oasis Project
660.	Helen Clinton	Pembroke Pines, FL	The loss of funding from the County would be devastating. People with disabilities need to have organizations, that give them hope. Not just siting home all day. They need somewhere they can go a few days a week. To have some meaning in there life. How can they say we had to make hard chocies. This is so wrong!!!!!!

We will be need to provide services to treat depression, anger and hostility, because if we don't we will see increasing child Abuse, Domestic Violence, homicide and suicides. these social issues in and of themselves warrant the need for ongoing services, and increased dollars. Let's try and prevent them by providing services in advance. Cutting the services we have now will only create more problems.

By having these county services limited or cut completely, we could have a bigger mess on our hands. I understand you must make some difficult choices as Mayor and due to the budget shortfalls, you must find a way to balance the County budget. I ask that you reconsider cutting the funding for the Community Programs that provide services to the disabled, elderly citizens and the Arts. This action will have a negative and lasting effect on our quality of life here in Miami-Dade. Our citizens deserve better and our community deserves better. Please remember, many people are depending on you to provide leadership during this time of financial crisis, leadership that takes in account the human lives are your priority. Arts and social services play major roles in our lives, and due to its creative and social nature, arts and community services always keep people away from trouble, focused on innovation and progress instead of wrongdoing. While we understand the need to prune the County's operational budget to fill the large budget gap, we ask that you seriously look at the entire budget and ask yourselves how shortsighted it would be to lose important support of the cultural community and community assistance and development programs. Consider the millions of dollars the arts generate each year, which would be lost in these reductions, and how many families will be negatively impacted by the cuts. The County's economic impact of the arts study, released last year by the Department of Cultural Affairs, demonstrates that every $1 dollar of County arts funding invested leverages $27 of other private and public funds. Other studies indicate that social services programs work hardly in crime prevention and intervention. Culture and social services together work towards creating and keeping employment, also towards school retention and (continues on next page)

It has been proven that arts and social services program foresee returns on investment, which are remarkable evidence of the effective and worthwhile use of public funds for these causes. While $3.5 million is comparatively little in the context of the County's target for overall budget reduction, it is an enormous portion of the County's investment in its cultural life, and much more if we add public and social services. Cutting all these funds will have devastating, ripple effects across the various other funding sources that the County's support helps to generate. Annually, Miami-Dade's arts industry generates nearly $1 billion in local economic impact, employs roughly 23,000 people full-time, and, in addition, receives the contributed skills and time of 19,000 arts volunteers. The same happens with social and community service programs. If these cuts are kept in place, thousands of jobs will be lost, and many children and families will be added to the list of individuals at risk. County government's leadership and investment in the arts, culture and social/community services has contributed directly to our community beginning to realize its goal of becoming one of the world's most exciting cultural destinations, and really helped communities in need. The proposed drastic cuts to the Department of Cultural Affairs and CBOs will disrupt the cultural growth and development of our communities and will cripple our efforts to attain our goals of bringing communities together, attracting business, tourism, investors and citizens who are proud to call Miami-Dade County a true leader in arts and culture, and in community development. Thank you for your past support and for recognizing the value, importance and far-reaching benefits of building a great cultural and general life for our community. Miami-Dade County Board of Commissioners

Nosotros, los que aquí firmamos esta petición, reclamamos a la Junta de Comisionados del condado de Miami-Dade, que apruebe un presupuesto que apoye y proteja las necesidades humanas básicas, como un factor esencial en la calidad de vida de todos los residentes del condado.

Los fondos para servicios sociales, las artes y otros grupos sin fines de lucro que apoyan el medio-ambiente no deben ser eliminados, y los programas vitales del condado, como los parques, las bibliotecas públicas y otros servicios sociales, no deben ser desmantelados.

Nosotros contamos con que los Comisionados tomen decisiones difíciles.

Nosotros contamos y estamos contando!

¡Gracias!

I am Ms. Mary Hill Founder, CEO, National Director, and private sector of the Federal Act, (THE ACT). Which is Economic Opportunity Act to help the poor and near poor people regardless to race, creed, or color, according to Federal Statutes of the ACT. To alleviate poverty, Regional Offices will staff centers locally, to implement the titles of the ACT, according to the Statutes of the ACT.

This is an anti-poverty program, at local level.

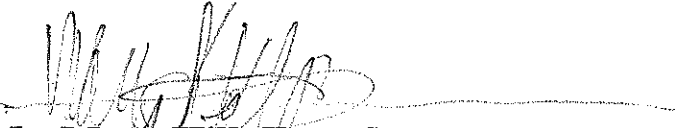

We are to spend our own created grants and funds, to implement the ACT, according to strict statutes of the ACT. This is documented at federal level, Washington D.C., in White House records. In the Federal Library under the name of Ms. Mary Lee Hill, Creator. Mandated with strictly no interference of the public laws or grants, funds, or funding methods, or earmark under the Constitution. MANDATED. Our Comprehensive Employment and Training Administration (CETA)., Effective community action.

Our plan, spending, 95-568 Public Law package I never received. Continually deriding Ms. Mary Hill, yet when the package arrived in Miami from my efforts, did not go to the private sector of the ACT. To establish such, as stated above, somehow a MMAP & Miami-Dade was set up. Lobbying continued, bloating their budgets. Resulting in deficits and recession.

There should be no Community Action Program. This is totally illegal. It is not in accordancing to the Constitution. Washington D.C. based WATCHDOG group. That tracks politics and lobbying. Versus my review of the report. Concerning the ACT and earmark of 95-568 which states no interference. Also, 92-424.

Appropriations, funds, and grants and funding methods rules and regulations, or bloating budgets. Which does not call approve such for lobbyists, groups to beg or acts or receive these funds for spending. Or anything of any form or fashion which diverts priority, derides the Founder, National Director, Private Sector of the Act which is strictly against the federal statutes of the laws and unauthorized.

This will create division in serving our communities and procedures according to the federal statutes of the laws.

FUND INDEPENDENT REVIEW PANEL

We urge county commissioners to restore funding for the county's Independent Review Panel (IRP). In 1980 the Board of County Commissioners recognized the community's need to have unbiased members of the community to hear their story and independently review the actions of the police. The IRP is just as needed today as it was when created 29 years ago. To lodge a complaint against the police is a very sensitive and some believe dangerous thing, so, please don't eliminate our only trusted buffer, the IRP. The news is full of alleged misconduct by police officers. Having an external independent panel to conduct fact-finding and dispute resolution is essential to the well being of the Dade County community.
