Report: Assistant County Attorney Cynthia Johnson-Stacks read the foregoing proposed ordinance into the record.

Chairwoman Edmonson opened the public hearing and the following individual(s) appeared:

1) Reverend Walter T. Richardson, Sr. Pastor, Sweet Home Baptist Church 10701 S.W. 184th Street, Miami, appeared in support and noted he served as Vice-Chair of the Community Relations Board (CRB) and as Volunteer Sr. Chaplain of the Miami-Dade Police Department. He asked that the $392,000 originally budgeted for CRB staffing be allowed to remain intact. Reverend Richardson asked those individuals present today in support of this CRB Board presentation, to stand and be recognized.

2) Ms. Maria Roberts, former Chair and current member of Miami-Dade Commission for Women, 27700 S.W. 164th Avenue, spoke in support;

3) Ms. Carmen Elias-Levenson, Chair Miami-Dade Commission for Women and Community Relations Board member, 15800 Turnberry Drive, Miami Lakes, spoke in support;

4) Mr. Shabbir Motorwala, Asian-American Advisory Board member, 6800 S.W. 135 Avenue, spoke in support;

5) Madam Renita Holmes, 6118 N.W. 7th Avenue, Miami, spoke in support;

6) Ms. Joan Sampiere, Miami-Dade Commission for Women, 9031 S.W. 62nd Terrace, Miami, spoke in support;

7) Dr. Janet Launcelott, 7210 S.W. 64th Court, South Miami, representing the City of South Miami Commission for Women and on behalf of pioneer feminist Ms. Roxcy Bolton, spoke in support;

8) Ms. Marlene Bastien, 710 N.E. 152nd Street, spoke in support;

9) Mr. Shawn Khosvsavi, Haitian-American Advisory Board Chair, 299 Alhambra Circle, Coral Gables, spoke in support;

10) Ms. Priscilla Dames-Blake, Vice-Chair Black Affairs Advisory Board and Conflict Resolutionist/Crisis Responder for Dade County Public Schools, appeared in support;

11) Ms. Marjorie York, 827 15 Street, Miami Beach, Community Relations Board member, spoke in support;

12) Rabbi Solomon Schiff, 2443 Meridian Avenue, Miami Beach, representing the Community Relations Board, spoke in support; and

13) Mr. Mario Artecona, Chairman, Community Relations Board, spoke in support and expressed his gratitude to the County Commission for its continued funding support.

Seeing no other individual(s) wishing to speak in connection with the foregoing ordinance, Chairwoman Edmonson closed the public hearing.

Commissioner Jose "Pepe" Diaz, prime sponsor, provided a brief overview of the purpose for this ordinance. He recommended that the advisory boards be placed under the Office of the Chair, along with appropriate funding to sustain them. Commissioner Diaz noted he felt that each advisory board should be represented by someone from their ethnic background. He noted the five program officers for the following boards: Hispanic Affairs Advisory Board, Black Affairs Advisory Board, Asian-American Advisory Board, Commission on Human Rights, and Commission for Women, should remain, along with a chief program officer

Commissioner Sorenson noted she felt it was appropriate to place the CRB under the jurisdiction of the County Commission or the Office of the Chair; however, she questioned whether there was money budgeted for the Office of Community Affairs

Discussion ensued among Committee members and staff regarding the amount allocated for administration of the five advisory boards with the reduction of four staff members.

Ms. Irene Taylor-Wooten, Assistant to the County Manager, advised that the amount of funding needed to retain the entire CRB staff was $505,000, without the proposed five percent employee salary reduction.

Commissioner Jordan expressed concern that the foregoing ordinance would not keep the CRB intact, and would eliminate the executive director position. Upon hearing Rev. Richardson's response to her inquiry, Commissioner Jordan stated that Rev. Richardson's support was based on a misinterpretation of the intent of this resolution.

Assistant County Attorney Geri Bonzon-Keenan clarified the intent of the foregoing proposed ordinance and the staffing levels. She advised that this ordinance provided for the creation of a new office that would be renamed "Office of Community Affairs" and would be placed under the County Commission's jurisdiction. Ms. Bonzon-Keenan stated an Interim Program Officer would be selected by the Commission Chairman, after which a Chief Program Officer would be selected by the Full Board. She explained that this ordinance also contained minimum staffing levels, which included a Chief Program Officer and five (5) Program Officers. In addition, Ms. Bonzon-Keenan advised that there were also budgeted positions for the Commission on Human Rights, which was a separate board that fell under the Office of Community Advocacy. She stated that the total amount budgeted for the Office of Community Advocacy by the Board for FY 2009-10 would be transferred to the Office of Community Affairs under the Office of the Chair. She further noted the Chief Program Officer position would assume the supervisory role over the entire department in lieu of a director.

Reverend Richardson noted the members of the CRB would support this ordinance if it was amended to include the position of the Executive Director.

Commissioner Diaz advised that the level of funding would not support the current executive director's salary, and noted to retain that position would require a large salary reduction.

Commissioner Jordan recalled that during the budget workshops held by the Budget, Finance, and Sustainability Committee, she recommended the funding be restored to the budget for those program officers targeted for elimination. She stated this recommendation did not receive the support of the Full Board and was not rated a priority. Commissioner Jordan expressed concern with the vast reduction in the number of Black male department directors within Miami-Dade County government and noted the Executive Director of the CRB was the sole Black director remaining. She noted her preference would be to retain all program officer positions, as well as the executive director position.

Commissioner Martinez expressed concern that this matter was becoming a divisive and racial issue that had no place here. He read a passage from a County employee regarding the proper chain of command under the strong mayor form of government, and asked whether the County Home Rule Charter granted the BCC authority to make requests of department directors. He noted his support of this ordinance as presented because it addressed the original recommendation to keep all program officers and to retain the advisory boards.

In response to Commissioner Martinez' question regarding whether the Charter granted the BCC the authority to request information from the Administration, Assistant County Attorney Cynthia Johnson-Stacks read into the record Sections 4.04 (B) and Section 1.01A(20), which stated requests for assistance to constituents or requests for information by Commissioners were authorized.

Ms. Taylor-Wooten responded to Commissioner Martinez' inquiry regarding the amount of money transferred out of the functions that were previously under the Office of Community Advocacy. She advised that a total of $2.6 million was transferred out, of which $2.2 million was associated with the Domestic Violence Oversight Board and $382,000 was associated the Addiction Services Board, along with a total of four (4) positions. Ms. Taylor-Wooten noted the remaining budget totaled $1.158 million, which would support ten (10) positions. She explained that the four program officer positions, associated with the Commission on Women, Asian Affairs, Black Affairs, and Community Relations Board that were eliminated, were being restored through the $75,000 allocation from the Office of the Chair's budget.

Commissioner Diaz expressed concern that the information he used to create this ordinance was based on numbers that differed from those provided by staff today. He explained the discrepancy and pointed out that this ordinance proposed retaining the five program directors and a senior chief program officer; however, the executive director was never included. Commissioner Diaz emphasized that the request of this Board to keep the five program officers intact was addressed in this ordinance.

It was moved by Commissioner Martinez that the foregoing ordinance be adopted as presented. This motion was seconded by Commissioner Souto, followed by discussion.

Commissioner Rolle spoke in opposition to the intent of the foregoing ordinance and noted he concurred with Commissioner Jordan's concern that this legislation was designed to eliminate the executive director's position.

Chairwoman Edmonson acknowledged Commission Diaz' good intentions in creating this proposed ordinance; however, she concurred with Commissioners Jordan's and Rolle's comments that this item was designed to eliminate a position and a person. She noted she could not condone the act of intentionally taking advantage of a situation to get rid of a person. Chairwoman Edmonson stressed that her remarks were not racially motivated commented that she would fight for anyone being mistreated, regardless of race. She recalled a comment was made in another meeting regarding the number of Hispanics on the CRB staff and noted the racial connotations began there. Chairwoman Edmonson reiterated Commissioner Jordan's concern that the Black department directors within Miami-Dade County government were disappearing, and noted this issue needed to be addressed. Regarding Chairwoman Edmonson's request for a show of hands from those persons who presented earlier, if they were unaware of this proposal's intent to eliminate the executive director position; one person responded.

Commissioner Diaz clarified that this proposal was not designed to eliminate one position, rather would restore three positions. He explained that if everything remained as current, this office would remain under the County Manager's purview, and the Asian-American, Commission on Women, and the Black Affairs program officer positions would be eliminated. Commissioner Diaz invited his colleagues to recommend alternatives that would allow the executive director's position to remain intact within the available budget. He emphasized that his goal in creating this ordinance was to bring back the direct service of the five boards that represented the community.

Commissioner Jordan recanted her statement that the CRB Executive Director was the only remaining Black director within County government, and recognized Miami-Dade Public Housing Agency Director Gregg Fortner as the last surviving Black director.

Commissioner Sorenson noted this discussion was regarding dollars rather than race, and emphasized the importance of carrying out the mission, which was the program officers' responsibility. She spoke in support and suggested the Committee provide the BCC Chair with the opportunity to make the appointment of the Chief Program Officer once this ordinance was adopted.

In response to Commissioner Martinez' question of whether the budget for this office would remain at $1.158 million if this office remained under the County Manager's purview, Ms. Taylor-Wooten stated it would.

Commissioner Martinez identified those individuals who were currently in one of the program officer positions targeted for elimination by asking them to stand.

Commissioner Diaz recommended this Committee forward this ordinance to the BCC without a recommendation, and allow the BCC Chair to work out some of the issues, rather than letting it die on the table today.

In response to Chairwoman Edmonson's suggestion that this item be forwarded without recommendation, Commissioner Martinez reminded his colleagues that he had a motion on the table already; however, if a straw vote to forward this item without recommendation passed unanimously, he would withdraw his motion.

There being no further questions or comments, the Committee proceeded to vote on the motion to forward this ordinance with a favorable recommendation.

Because the preceding vote resulted in a tie vote, a subsequent motion was made by Commissioner Sorenson that the foregoing ordinance be forwarded to the BCC without recommendation. This motion was seconded by Chairwoman Edmonson, and upon being put to a vote, failed by a vote of 4-2 (Commissioners Jordan and Rolle voted no).

SPECIAL NOTE: Pursuant to Ordinance 09-74, a committee could only forward an item without recommendation upon the unanimous vote of the members of the Committee present; therefore, the foregoing proposed ordinance shall be deemed to be laid on the table as a result of the tie vote.

Chairwoman Edmonson opened the public hearing, and the following individual(s) appeared:

Madam Renita Holmes, 6118 N.W. 7th Avenue, Miami, appeared and spoke in opposition.

Seeing no other individual(s) to appear in connection with this ordinance, Chairwoman Edmonson closed the public hearing.

Assistant County Attorney Terrence Smith summarized the intent of this ordinance, and advised that since the County's Adker Settlement Agreement and Consent Decree expired in August 2009, no oversight of the County's housing programs existed. He stated no single entity existed within the County that dealt specifically with fair housing matters and ensured that housing programs complied with the Fair Housing Act on state and federal levels. Mr. Smith noted this ordinance created a checks and balance of the County's housing programs to ensure compliance with state, federal, and civil rights laws. He read into the record two proposed amendments to this item.

There being no further questions or comments, the Committee proceeded to vote.

The Committee forwarded the foregoing proposed ordinance to the BCC with a favorable recommendation with committee amendment(s) to replace each occurrence of the language "Office of Community and Economic Development" with the language "Office of Housing and Community Development;" and in Section 2, replace the language "Metro Miami Action Plan" with the language "Miami-Dade Economic Advocacy Trust."
