Officer Roger Castillo

September 29, 1969 – January 20, 2011

Detective Roger Castillo began his law enforcement career with the Miami-Dade Police Department as a Public Service Aide in 1989. In 1992 he graduated from the police academy and was assigned to the North Operations Division serving the Miami Lakes and Northside Districts. In 1995, Detective Castillo was assigned to the Police Operations Bureau (POB). After a short time in POB, he joined the Court Services Bureau until his transfer to the Warrants Bureau, Felony Apprehension Unit in 2004. In an effort to keep our community safe, in 2007 Detective Castillo transferred to the Strategic & Specialized Investigations Bureau, Career Criminal Section. His positive attitude towards the Department and his profession was remarkable. Detective Castillo is survived by his wife, sons, parents, and his extended law enforcement family.

Officer Amanda Haworth

August 5, 1966 – January 20, 2011

Detective Amanda Haworth joined the Miami-Dade Police Department in October of 1988. Upon graduating from the police academy, she was assigned to the Northside Station where she displayed great interest for helping others. Her dedication to duty encouraged her to expand her career and she later transferred to the Warrants Bureau, Felony Apprehension Unit in 1994. Her self-initiative and tenacity to keep our community safe inspired her to transfer to the Strategic & Specialized Investigations Bureau, Career Criminal Section in January of 2003. Her professionalism and dedication to her chosen profession earned her respect and admiration within the law enforcement community. Detective Haworth is survived by her sons, life partner, parents, friends and her extended law enforcement family.

A Note from the Family...

The Castillo and Haworth Families would like to express their sincere thanks to the law enforcement community for your overwhelming support and prayers. Roger and Amanda were both proud to wear the badge and enjoyed every moment of their chosen careers. We appreciate the outpouring of assistance from all of the agencies involved and the community as a whole. Your kindness has given us the support and strength to face the most difficult time that one can possibly imagine.

May God bless you and keep you safe.
