Re: Waiver of Municipal Liens Pursuant to Resolution No. R-1004-14

Dear Mayor Regalado:

On November 5, 2014, the Miami-Dade Board of County Commissioners ("Board") adopted Resolution No. R-1004-14, a copy of which is enclosed. The resolution urges municipalities, including the City of Miami, City of North Miami, City of Opa-Locka, City of Homestead, City of Florida City and City of Miami Gardens, to waive and/or release and satisfy their municipal liens, which have been recorded in the public record against properties. These properties are owned by Miami-Dade County ("County") and are designated by the Board as appropriate for inclusion in the Miami-Dade County's Infill Housing Initiative Program ("Infill Program"). The Infill Program was established pursuant to Ordinance No-0147 and is administered by the County's Public Housing and Community Development Department. Resolution No. R-1004-14 also directs the County Mayor or his designee to negotiate interlocal cooperation agreements with each of the before-mentioned municipalities, ensuring the timely waiver and/or release and satisfaction of municipal liens recorded in the public record against such Infill properties.

The purpose of the Infill Program is: (1) to increase the availability of affordable homes for low- and moderate-income persons ("Qualified Households"); (2) maintain a stock of affordable housing; (3) redevelop urban neighborhoods by eliminating the blight of vacant lots and dilapidated or abandoned properties; (4) equitably distribute homeownership opportunities within certain infill target areas as defined in the Miami-Dade County Florida Code of Ordinances (Code), Section 17-122j; and (5) generate payment of ad valorem taxes. Through the Infill Program, developers build single family homes to be sold to qualified households. The Infill Program further encourages the redevelopment of vacant, dilapidated or abandoned property through the sale or transfer of County property to qualified developers, and the inclusion of privately owned vacant, dilapidated or abandoned properties. These Infill properties often have both County and municipal liens and citations that encumber the properties which must be addressed prior to the sale of a home to a Qualified Household.

Pursuant to Section 17-26 of the County Code, the Mayor is authorized to release or satisfy any County lien and/or citation placed on publicly or privately-owned property if the property has been approved by the Mayor for the Infill Program and the private owner records a declaration of restrictive covenants in the public records in a form approved by the County. Such County liens include, but are not limited to, civil restitution liens, code enforcement liens, demolition liens, hospital liens, judgment liens, lot clearing liens, minimum housing standard liens, mortgage liens, nuisance abatement liens, public defender liens, storm water utility liens, waste liens, water and sewer liens and welfare liens.

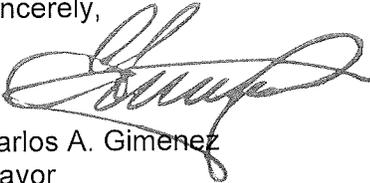

However, there is no similar provision for the waiver and/or release and satisfaction of municipal liens recorded by municipalities, where some of our Infill Program properties are currently located. As a result of these liens, the County and our developers are either delayed or prevented from accomplishing the goals of the Infill Program, such as the construction of homes to serve some of the neediest populations in Miami-Dade County. Therefore, the Board adopted Resolution No. R-1004-14 to urge municipalities to waive and/or release and satisfy their liens.

If your municipality is interested in negotiating an interlocal cooperation agreement with the County, I ask that your representative respond to Mr. Michael Liu, Director, Public Housing and Community Development before February 20, 2015 at (786) 469-4106 or mliu88@miamidade.gov.

Additionally, the department's Infill Housing Program will schedule a meeting to further discuss this matter. If you have any questions, please contact Mr. Alan Eson, Real Estate Officer with the Infill Housing Program, at (786) 469-4226 or via email aeson@miamidade.gov.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Carlos A. Gimenez
Mayor
