The tragic death of 17-year-old high school student Trayvon Martin has raised many questions and concerns among young people in the community where he lived. The upcoming legal proceedings against the man who killed Trayvon will re-focus public attention on the case and issues of intense concern to this community.

YOUNG PEOPLE, AGES 24 YEARS AND UNDER, ARE INVITED TO SPEAK OUT AND BE HEARD BY A PANEL OF YOUTH LEADERS AND COUNTY OFFICIALS.

What do we need to do to promote non-violence and keep the peace in our community?
How do we engage the youth in non-violent responses and creating positive change?

ALL COMMUNITY MEMBERS ARE WELCOME TO LISTEN AND OBSERVE.
