CERTIFICATION

I certify that:

- I am at least 65 years old on January 1 of the tax year I am applying for. I have attached proof of my age.
- The total prior year adjusted gross household income of all persons living in the household on January 1 of the tax year is not more than the adjusted gross income under section 196.075, F.S. ($20,000 adjusted annually starting in 2001 by percentage change in the average cost-of-living index.) The annual adjusted income limitation for persons 65 and older is available on the Department's website at floridarevenue.com/property/Pages/DataPortal.aspx.

I qualify for this exemption under Florida law. I am a permanent resident of the State of Florida and I own and occupy the property above. I understand that under s. 196.075(5), F.S., each year I must notify the property appraiser by May 1 if my household income exceeds the most recent income limitation. Under s. 196.131(2), F.S., any person who knowingly and willfully gives false information to claim homestead exemption is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable by a term of imprisonment up to 1 year or a fine up to $5,000 or both.

Florida law requires property appraisers to determine whether an additional homestead exemption may be granted. Property appraisers will notify you if additional information or documentation is needed to determine eligibility for the additional homestead exemption requested. I grant permission to allow the property appraiser to review the supporting documents, if requested.

I certify all information on this application, including any attachments, is true, correct, and in effect on January 1 of the tax year.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing Household Income Sworn Statement and Return and the facts stated in it are true.

INSTRUCTIONS

This exemption applies only to the property taxes of the taxing authority granting the exemption. To qualify for an additional homestead exemption under s. 196.075, F.S., persons age 65 years or older, must live in the home and have a household income as defined below, that does not exceed the limitation for the tax year. The annual adjusted income limitation is available at http://floridarevenue.com/property/documents/AdditionalHomesteadExemptions.pdf.

As used on this application, the term:

"Household" means a person or group of persons living together in a room or group of rooms as a housing unit, but the term does not include persons boarding in or renting a portion of the dwelling.

"Household income" means the adjusted gross income in s. 62 of the US Internal Revenue Code, of all members of a household. (This is the "Adjusted Gross Income" amount reported on IRS Form 1040.)

^{*}Social Security Benefits - Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Information

According to the IRS, social security benefits include monthly survivor and disability benefits. They do not include supplemental security (SSI) payments, which are not taxable.

If your combined benefits and other income exceed certain thresholds, some part of your Social Security income may be taxable. Include the taxable amount on this line. Consult the IRS for Social Security income that may be taxable based on current formulas.

Other income

If you receive any other income, fill in the source and the amount. Do not include income that would not be included in adjusted gross income, such as child support.
