What is the “Optional Plan Review Service”?

The “Optional Plan Review Service” will allow a patron the option to receive an expedited plan review for a fee.

How long has the “Optional Plan Review Service” been available?

This service has been available since October 15, 2001.

What type of plan review is available through this service?

- All building trade reviews including electrical, plumbing, mechanical/energy, building/ handicap and structural
- Initial plan review process
- Rework plan review process

The patron can request a complete review cycle of all required building trade reviews (building/ handicap, electrical, plumbing, mechanical/energy and structural), single discipline review or multiple discipline reviews.

What are the advantages realized through the “Optional Plan Review Service”?

- Each review requested will be ready the next business day.
- If an applicant requests the complete review cycle (building/handicap, electrical, plumbing, mechanical/energy and structural), the cycle will be completed in five (5) business days. This represents a timesavings of eight (8) days for residential and eleven (11) days for commercial.

What is the fee for the “Optional Plan Review Service”?

The fee for the “Optional Plan Review Service” is $60.00* per discipline for residential and $120.00* minimum fee per discipline for commercial. Commercial or residential projects of unusual size or complexity may be assessed an additional fee based upon the length of time required for plan review. The “Optional Plan Review Service” fee must be paid at the time of request for service. The fee for the “Optional Plan Review Service” is in addition to the regular permit fee and is non-refundable.

* Note: All fees are subject to a 7.5% surcharge per Implementing Order 4-63.

Is the “Optional Plan Review Service” always available?

Yes, however, the service is subject to the volume of requests and availability of Plans Examiners to perform the review. Additionally, be advised that commercial projects of unusual size or complexity will be evaluated by supervisory personnel to ensure plan reviews can be completed within the specific time deadlines. Please request the service early to ensure availability.
