

"I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal"-Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Celebrating the 85th Birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and the 50th Anniversary of the Civil Rights Act of 1964!

A landmark piece of civil rights legislation in the United States that outlawed major forms of discrimination against racial, ethnic, national and religious minorities, disabled Americans, the elderly and women. It ended unequal application of voter registration requirements and racial segregation in schools, at the workplace and public accommodations including: courthouses, jails, parks, restaurants, theaters, sports arenas, hotels, hospitals, nursing homes, mental health centers, and provides services, programs, or activities including transportation systems.
