

Jonathan Raiffe, Chief Operating Officer and Executive Vice President of Adler Group

Jonathan Raiffe is the chief operating officer and executive vice president of the Adler Group. In this position, he is responsible for all day to day activities of Adler Realty Services and Adler Development including acquisition, dispositions, investment, predevelopment, construction, leasing, property management, accounting, and financial management.

Raiffe formerly served as Adler Group's Chief Investment Officer and prior to that as Director of Finance, where his responsibilities included oversight of financing activities, treasury functions, corporate reporting, financial analysis, structuring new investments, and sourcing new opportunities. Prior to taking the position of Director of Finance, Raiffe served as Director of Business Opportunities for the Adler Group, where he focused on acquisition analysis and new business development.

Before joining the Adler Group, Jonathan worked with Ronin Capital Management, a global macro hedge fund. During his time at Ronin Capital Jonathan fulfilled a variety of functions including trade support and administration, research analyst, marketing coordinator, and trade execution.

Jonathan Raiffe earned a Bachelor of Arts, majoring in anthropology, and a Bachelor of Science in business Administration, with an emphasis in marketing from Washington University. He also received a Master of Science in Finance and a Master of Science in International Real Estate from Florida International University. Additionally, Raiffe is a licensed Florida Real Estate Sales Associate.

In the philanthropic world Raiffe serves as Board member and Vice Chair of Jewish Community Services of South Florida, a human services agency whose mission is to improve the quality of life and self-sufficiency of the Jewish and broader communities throughout South Florida in accordance with Jewish values.

